Niagara as the Tourist Seldom Sees It—Icebound

Dinner given in the church parlors

The table was beautifully decorated with the Junior Endeavor colors of blue and white; there being blue and white nut cups and a large white cake with blue candles. The Misses Edna Danford and June Cary served. Before dinner was served the members spent a jolly hour singing their class songs and playing games.

A delightful program was given as follows: Miss Beverly Young gave an account of the way their Missionary money had helped support the work in Syria; Miss Frances McCoy told the good it had done in Mexico; Miss Edna Danford in Africa, and for lack of time the other six topics were omitted. Letters of thanks were read for the Christmas boxes which were sent to Porto Rico, Heines House, Alaska, Granddoo, Arizona and Albion Academy, North Carolina.

Four members graduated from the Junior into the Intermediate Society. Reverend Hugh T. Mitchell very happily presented the diplomas to Wallace Stearns, David Johnson, June Cary and Edna Danford. The flower girls were Phyllis Sparr and Frances

McCoy

The Juniors feel grateful to Mrs. J. H. Fuller for her gift of money and to Mrs. G. F. McConnell for her delicious oranges, which were contributed to the dinner.

The entire Junior membership was present to enjoy the dinner except Miss Margaret Robertson, who has been confined to her home with illness for the past two weeks. A plate was sent to her home, however.

Guests for the affair were Rev. and Mrs. E. T. Mitchell and family and Mrs. L. C. Dunn. Officers for the new year are: Evelyn Engle, president; Billy Graham, vice-president; Helene Sloan, secretary; Beverly Young, treasurer; Clara Blumenauer, prayer-meeting chairman.

East Noble Grand's Club Meet

The Past Noble Grand's Club of Hope Rebekah Lodge, No. 14, L. O. O. F., held its regular monthly meeting Friday afternoon, January fourteenth, at the home of Past Noble Grand, Mrs. L. A. Roberts at 44 Church street.

There were eighteen members present besides the guests who were: Grace Smith and Lilly Dement of Myrtle Point, Mollie May of Weston, Noble Grand, Mrs. E. C. Payne and Vice-Grand, Mrs. A. A. Madden of Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 14.

A business meeting was held and the following officers were elected: Miss Mollie Songer, president; Mrs. William Myer, vice-president; Mrs. Josephine D. Crocker, secretary and treasurer.

Following the business meeting the hostess, Mrs. Roberts, assisted by Mrs. Porter, served delicious chess pie and coffee, and the ladies spent a pleasant social time.

Miss Annette Francisco Expected by Camp Fire Girls

The Ashland Camp Fire Girls are eagerly awaiting the arrival of Miss Annette Francisco, a National Camp Fire field secretary from New York.

Miss Francisco will be in Ashland on Thursday, January twentieth, and will probably meet either with the Sponsors or the Guardians Association. Plans have not yet been completed, but Miss Francisco's visit is anticipated by every Ashland Camp Girl.

This field secretary is making a tour and stopped in Portland, Oregon, last Monday. It is through such people that new ideas and inspirations are given to Camp Fire Girls everywhere, and the Ashland Camps expect to gain a great deal from her visit.

He Can Tell It's H-O

HERE'S many a youngster to whom oatmeal means "H-O". They're quick to tell the difference when they get some other kind. For H-O has a real "roasted" flavor and a firm texture quite its own. Once they know H-O no other oatmeal will do. New Style H-O cooks quickly. Ready to serve in two to three minutes.

A STANDARD FOR THE PEOPLE

A lecture on the subject "A Standard for the People" will be delivered by G. R. Pollock of New York at the Winter Garden Hall Thursday, Jan. 20 at 8 o'clock.

The speaker will point out the need for a common standard, a common rallying center, around which they can gather and work for peace and for all that is desirable in the relationship of man with man. He asserts that such a standard is not unattainable; that on the contrary it is right within reach and may be readily understood and appreciated by all.

Millions have fought and died around the standards of the past and to little purpose. No great good has resulted from the efforts of the past. In our day we feel that we have reached the best attainable along many lines; and yet we realize, with a sense of horror, that all the good that has been accomplished is threatened with complete annihilation. Together with plans and schemes for universal peace, there is increased preparation for war on every hand. The implications of destruction and methods of health-dealing warfare have been made so formidable that, should another war break out between any of the great powers, it is more than probable that civilization as we have known it would be completely blotted out. Many of the prominent men of our day recognize this fact; and some in an earnest effort to prevent the catastrophe, raise up what they conceive to be an acceptable standard through which, it is hoped, the people may be safeguarded. The League of Nations standard and the World Court standard are prominent among these proposed plans. The speaker claims, however, that all these endeavors are abortive and inadequate. He asserts that the perfect standard is set, before us plainly in the writings of the Bible, and it will be his point out at the Sunday lecture that the perfect standard is the Word of Truth which alone meets the world's needs along national and individual lines. He will call attention to passages of the Bible which are seldom if ever referred to, but which, he claims, are most significant when the meaning is grasped. It would seem that the lecture, which will last for about an hour, will be well worth listening to. No collections will be taken at the lecture and all seats are free. Those who have made arrangements for the meeting extend a cordial invitation to all who desire a clearer insight into this scripture as it applies to our day.
