NEEDLE SHOWS UP IN HIP AFTER YEARS
Needle Swallowed When Boy Was Four Years Old Comes Out
ALBANY, Jan. 20.—(UN)—When Walter E. Smith, formerly of Linn county, but now a resident of Klamath Falls, was four years old, he swallowed a needle. The other day, when he was 37 years of age, the needle worked out of his body through his hip. News of this incident reached Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith of route No. 1, Albany, today.
Accompanying the letter was the needle. Smith spent November and a part of December in Albany with his parents and with his sister, Mrs. A. W. Metzger, and while here experienced at intervals excruciating pains in the region of his thigh. He went to Klamath Falls about Christmas and the other day he noticed the point of a needle sticking through the flesh of his hip. He took a pair of tweezers and extracted it.
