Lone Flower, hemmed in with snows, and white as they are, but harder far, once more I see thee bend Thy forehead as if fearful to offend, Like an unbidden guest. Though day by day Storms, rallying from the mountain tops, waylay The rising sun, and on the plains descend; Yet art thou welcome, welcome as a friend Whose zeal outruns his promise. Blue-eyed May Shall soon behold, this border thickly set With bright jonquils, their odours lavishing On the soft west wind and his frolic peers; Nor will I then thy modest grace forget, Chaste Snowdrop, venturesome harbingers of Spring, And pensive monitor of fleeting years.

—Wordsworth.

Civic Club Has Social Afternoon in Club House—

The Ashland Civic Improvement club met Tuesday afternoon February first in the Civic Club House on Winburn Way for a business and social afternoon. Following a short business session, the ladies spent a pleasant time in conversation and needle work.

The hostesses Mrs. Otto Winter and Mrs. William Myer served delicious refreshments at a table most beautifully decorated in yellow and white.

The next meeting of this organization will be held in the club house on the afternoon of Tuesday, February 15, and a cordial invitation is extended to the entire public especially strangers.

Ashland Floral Society Will Meet—

The Ashland Floral society will hold its regular meeting at the public library Monday, February 7, at eight o'clock.

The subject for discussion will be "Pruning as Related to the Flower Garden." Members are reminded to continue their membership by remitting their dues at this meeting.

Anyone interested in the culture of flowers is urged to attend the meetings of the Floral society and become a member.

Phi Alpha Chi Party Held—

The first of a series of parties which will be held regularly by the Phi Alpha Chi sorority during the coming year, was held Thursday, January twenty-seventh at the home of Miss Ruth Green, on the Boulevard.

The members of the sorority and their sorority mother are planning an imaginary trip to Palestine, the trip to be conducted exactly in the same manner as a real one. The members expect not only to get much enjoyment out of the make-believe journey, but to secure an education along that line, as well.

The party consisted of selecting the wardrobe, filling out birth certificates and handing in personal snapshots for pasting on the transports. The selection of the wardrobe included only the necessary clothing and was wisely chosen for service, from various small order catalogues.

Just before the delicious refreshments were served the lights were turned out and Miss Dora Sparks gave an appropriate reading for the spirit of darkness.

Mrs. Pearl Kearney Hostess at Birthday Party—

Mrs. Pearl Kearney was the charming hostess at a birthday party given in honor of the birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Miss Betty Marie, who was six years old yesterday, Wednesday, February second.

A delightful afternoon was spent playing games, until a late hour when attractive and tasty refreshments of ice cream and cake was served.

Those who enjoyed this happy affair were Betty Evans, Betty Bell, Betty Danford, Barbara Carey, Jean Carey, Dorothea Yarbrough, Doris Danford and the honored guest, Betty Kearney.

TALENT NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brower, who formerly owned the Mercantile business in Talent, were dinner guests Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. C. C. Bond. They spent the winter in San Diego and are en route to Portland.

Mrs. Ed Ostendorf of Portland called on his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tryor last Monday. He was enroute to Klamath Falls where he will take over the Dodge agency, and his family will move to that city some time this month.

A. T. Edmunson of Salem visited for several days with his family in Talent, returning to his work in Salem last Thursday evening.

The Talent Hi boys basketball team defeated the Sams Valley team last Friday evening by a score of 16 to 12. The game was played at Phoenix. A Talent pick up team also defeated a Sams Valley team by a score of 14 to 8, the same evening. Those in the Talent pick up team were Billy Oatman, Clyde Purvis, Kenneth Pellett, Buford Childers and Elvis Cochrane.

The Stacker family, who have been living in the Everett Boone house, have moved into the Earl Wilbrow house on Main street.

Mrs. Thatcher of the Nazarene church in Ashland filled the pulpit of the M. E. Church last Sunday.
