THE MARRIAGE CIRCLE

In Ireland, where money is not too plentiful, a collier does not take it too much to heart if her Paddy borrows a ring for the marriage ceremony, on payment of a wee sum to the jeweler.

Ring making has reached such a degree of craftsmanship that should Paddy marry his Patricia in America, he could well afford a ring of exquisite design in gold or even in platinum.

Our exhibit of wedding and engagement rings is both extensive and varied in pattern.
