PRESENTMENTS
Unwelcome insight—Yet there are blest times when mystery is laid bare.
Truth shows a glorious face, While on that isthmus which commands
The councils of both worlds she stands,
Sage Spirits, by your grace.

God, who instructs the brutes to scent
All changes of the element,
Whose wisdom fixed the scale
Of nature, for our wants provides
By higher, sometimes humbler
guides,
When lights of reason fail.

—Wordsworth.

Medford People Give Program at Normal
The music and dramatic department of the Greater Medford club delightfully entertained the students of the Southern Oregon State Normal school yesterday morning, Wednesday, February 9, at 10:30 a. m. in the gymnasium of the school.

A trio consisting of Mrs. Richard Collins, soprano; Mrs. Richard Mulholland, contralto; and Mrs. Rawles Moore, pianist, gave several numbers and Mrs. William Mulholland gave a brief talk on Cadman.

Hostess at Meeting of the Alpha Embroidery Club
Mrs. Louis Schwein and Mrs. August Schuerman were the gracious hostesses at a meeting of the Alpha Embroidery club, which was held in the Masonic Hall on
