The Ashland Embroidery club met yesterday afternoon, Monday, April fourth, at the pleasant home of Mrs. O. W. Long on East Main street, with Mrs. Joe Poor as honor guest. Mr. Poor has been transferred by the Southern Pacific Company to Dunsmuir, Cal., and they will leave soon to make their home in that city.

After a jolly time spent in doing fancy work and in conversation, the ladies presented Mrs. Poor with a lovely gift, which she greatly appreciated. Delicious refreshments were served at a table most beautifully decorated.

Those present were: Mesdames Clyde Costello, Earl Hoeler, H. Livingston, A. Dyrud, Frank Nelson, Jim McDonough, W. H. Fruhan, the hostess Mrs. O. W. Long and the honor guest, Mrs. Joe Poor.

Hostesses at Bridge Party—

Mesdames George Gillette, Hugh Gillette and T. W. Sanford were the gracious hostesses at a bridge party, which was given at the home of the latter on Oak street Friday afternoon, April first.

Nine tables were in play; Mrs. Nate Bates received the first prize which was a beautiful Easter dilly covered with blossoms, and Mrs. F. R. Merrill was awarded the consolation. This gift was a lovely silk hand-painted handkerchief. The spacious rooms were attractively decorated with brightly colored spring flowers, making a very pleasing effect. At a late hour, elaborate refreshments were served.

Ashland Study Club Meets—

The Ashland Study club held its regular meeting last week at the home of Mrs. F. S. Engle on the Boulevard.

The usual program was carried out. Mrs. J. M. Wagner had the special topic, which was a book review of "Sutter's Gold." Mrs. H. L. Sayles also gave a splendid review of "The Dark Dawn."

The last session of the Study Club, for this year, was held yesterday afternoon, Monday, April fourth, at the home of Mrs. H. L. Sayles on Hargrave street, at which time the following officers were elected: Mrs. W. M. Foley, president; Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg, vice-president; and Mrs. J. Robertson, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Emil Pelt gave an interesting article on "The Progress of a Cinema" and Mrs. G. G. Eubanks gave a review of the amusing book "The Hattocks in Paris."

Entertains Sunday School Class—

Mrs. W. M. Foley delightfully entertained her Sunday School class of the Presbyterian church at her home on Gresham street Saturday afternoon, April second.

The time passed quickly playing jolly games, for which Miss Esther Spencer and Miss Katherine Graham received prizes.

Delicious refreshments were attractively served, followed by a pleasant hour of social conversation.

D. A. R. Hold Social Meeting—

Mrs. Gordon MacCracken was guest of honor at a very pleasant social meeting of the D. A. R. held at the home of Mrs. H. O. Anderson on the Boulevard, Monday evening, April fourth.

Mrs. MacCracken leaves April tenth for Washington, D. C., to attend the national conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mt. Ashland chapter presented Mrs. MacCracken with a beautiful traveling bag. Chapter Regent, Mrs. Harriet Fielding made a clever speech in behalf of the chapter and Mrs. MacCracken responded graciously.

The local Daughters feel a special interest in Mrs. MacCracken's trip. She represents Oregon in the capacity of state regent, but she also stands for Mt. Ashland chapter, whose splendid organization and active membership is due in no small measure to her inspiration and continued interest.

Music Teachers Hold Meeting in Medford—

The music teachers of Ashland and Medford who had met a month ago for organization, held their second meeting Sunday, April third at the home of Mrs. M. E. Gore in Medford. The organization was further developed at that time and general policies were established.

After the business session was ended a musical program was presented by Miss Lolita Pierson and Mr. Carl Loveland of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Janes and Mrs. V. M. Hills of Medford.

The large group of teachers that have met upon the two occasions are much interested in the promotion of professional good will and of professional teaching as upheld by the Oregon State Music Association of which they are members. The local group is one of the largest in the state.

Miss Lolita Pierson, Mrs. Harold Aikins, Miss Laura Raguse, Mrs. Alberts, Mrs. Mitchell, Miss Leona G. Marsters and Mr. Carl Loveland attended this meeting from Ashland.

The next meeting will be held Sunday afternoon, May first at four o'clock in the Andrews Studio in the Sparta Building at Medford.

MANY HOMES

PORTLAND, April 28.—(AP)—Claiming it is proof of the right of Portland's title as the "home city," H. U. Welch, county assessor, has just completed a survey showing that there are 66,907 homes within the corporate limits.

Indicating the popularity of the motor car is the fact that there are 37,632 private garages within the city, Old Dobbin remains a factor, however, as there are 2000 in Portland.

FIGHT OVER A BUCKET

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—(AP)—Two aged and penniless inmates of the San Francisco reformatory fought a duel with knives Sunday as the result of a quarrel over possession of an old tin bucket.

The next meeting will be held Sunday afternoon, May first at four o'clock in the Andrews Studio in the Sparta Building at Medford.

Salem — Ira Jorgenson will build two-story concrete block at High and Ferry streets.

John Wilson, 71, was killed and Tom Harvey, 77, was seriously wounded in the battle.

"Wilson came rushing up to me and yelled for me to give him his bucket," declared Harvey in explaining the fight. "I told him it was mine but he pulled out a pocket knife and stabbed at me. I got out my knife and fought him back."

Authorities at the home said that Wilson had a weak heart and that shock instead of knife wounds may have caused his death.

Mothers Look for the Quaker's picture when buying oats.

That means richer flavor

WHEN children say they don't like oats, it's usually because rich Quaker flavor is missing. Children who ordinarily don't talk to oats are often quickly won to this important food, simply by giving them "Quaker."

The flavor is uniquely different; toasty, rich and creamy, Quaker Oats alone has it. Some 50 years were spent in perfecting it.

Quaker milling, too, retains much of the "bulk" of oats. And that makes laxatives less often needed. Thus protein, carbohydrates and vitamins and "bulk" combine in making Quaker Oats an excellently balanced ration.

A Clean City

Ashland, realizing the advantages of clean streets and clean yards, has set aside today as a civic Clean-up Day. However, the important thing is that our city should be kept clean continually, and ready for company every day.

It's interesting to note how far-reaching is the impression made by a clean city, for it is always well spoken of by visitors.

Similarly, a man, carefully keeping a clean credit record by meeting all financial obligations promptly when due, gains for himself, before he realizes it, a reputation for reliability which helps him in all business dealings — just as it also helps to attain this purpose when you maintain a steadily-growing bank balance.
