delightful Bridge party, which was given by Miss Mildred Crain, with whom she is visiting, Wednesday evening, April sixth at the F. E. Merrill home on the Boulevard.
 Three tables were in play; Miss Gertie Haan won the first prize and Miss Marion Ady was awarded the consolation. At a late hour the hostess served delicious refreshments, which were most attractively arranged.
 Those who enjoyed this happy affair were the Misses Elizabeth Hileman, Viola McDowell, Grace Hawkyard, Elmira Smith, Mariam Calmenson, Gertie Haan, Edna Goheen, Helen French, Adrienne Hazard, Irene Berg, Mrs. B. C. Forsythe, the honored guest Mrs. E. T. Forsling and the hostess Miss Mildred Crain.

Fellowship Supper
 The regular quarterly fellowship supper of the First Baptist church was held at the church on Wednesday evening at 6:30. The tables were arranged in the shape of a Grecian cross and were beautifully decorated with yellow jonquills and yellow crepe paper. Yellow candles were also used in an attractive way. Those participating were seated in family groups at the table. Each person was provided with a yellow paper thinking cap and during the dinner each family was asked to give one stunt and these proved to be both novel and entertaining. Later in the evening Mr. W. P. Walter gave a very interesting talk on the Y. M. C. A. work in Ashland. Over eighty were in attendance. Following the dinner the members assembled for the regular prayer meeting service after which was held the monthly business meeting of the church.

 The Ladies of the Brethren church will hold a bazaar at Hardy Bros. Store Saturday, April 16th. 186-1*

MY GARDEN
 My garden is so sweet a place,
 When blur of evening falls,
 The flowers pose with wistful grace,
 An eager night-bird calls.
 A soft breeze sways each slender stalk
 Dusk hovers on gray wings,
 The blossoms nod their heads and talk,
 In lovely murmurings.
 My garden is so sweet by day,
 And night comes over-soon,
 Oh let there be a milky way
 And let there be a moon.

Wherever the recipe calls for milk

Made in The Northwest

When the recipe says "milk" it puts up to you the responsibility of using the right milk. It can make or spoil the dish. When you put all the other ingredients and so much work into your cooking or baking, you can't afford to take a chance on the milk.
 Borden's Evaporated Milk assures you sweet milk, pure milk, creamy milk—at any hour or season. And everybody likes the taste of Borden's. Try it—but insist on Borden's!
