The dress-making school held by the Upper Valley Community club at the clubhouse Tuesday all day, was attended by about ten women, many having found it impossible to come. Miss York was present, with many helpful suggestions, and showed the women a lot in the way of remodeling their clothes for spring.

During the business session the president appointed delegates to attend the Federated Club meeting in Grants Pass Saturday, April 23. The delegates are Mrs. A. C. Joy and Mrs. W. G. Tucker. Mrs. Merriman and Mrs. True will also go. One of the outstanding features from this club will be the report of the planning and building of the new community house of which the club is deservedly proud.

At the next regular meeting of the club, will be the planning and making of a complete program to cover the next twelve months work.

The old-time dance given by the Nell Creek P. T. A. and held at Bert Thomas' packing house, at the Klamath Junction, last Friday night, was well attended, and in spite of the storm, was a success. Over thirty dollars was cleared to add to the piano fund. Another of these dances will be given a
