Sunday, April 24.—Auxiliary to American Legion meets Monday.

The Auxiliary to the American Legion Post No. 14 will hold a social meeting in the Pioneer Hall on Winburn Way, Monday evening, April 18, at which they particularly urge all members to be present.

Mrs. Nell Dunn will be chairman of the refreshment committee assisted by Mesdames, Warren Cook, W. J. Crandall, Mrs. Leona Dolse and Mrs. C. D. Dahoff.

Missionary Society Meets.—The Women's Missionary Society will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Graham on the corner of Pine and Baum sts., Wednesday afternoon, April 20 at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Nell Robertson will be in charge of the program, the topic being "Africa" and "The Negro in America."

Plea Made to Ashland Women.—A plea is being made to the women of this city to save all old clothing, etc., that they may find when doing their spring house cleaning, and then call Mrs. Harris Dean and she will provide for them being taken away.

The Women's Civic Improvement club are planning to hold their annual "salvage sale" sometime in the coming months, and they will be very grateful for any articles that may be used in the sale.

Delphians Hold Interesting Meeting

The Ashland Delphians held an unusually interesting meeting Tuesday afternoon, April twelfth, in the Luthia Springs hotel. The session opened with Mrs. Herbert McCarthy, active president, in the chair; Mrs. V. V. Mills, supervisor and Mrs. Don Whitney, secretary.

A splendid program was given as follows: Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Jr., gave a talk on "The Social Life in the Fourteenth Century as Shown in The Lives of Its Great Authors"; Mrs. Domino Provoost gave talks on "Chaucer's Literary Apprenticeship" and "The Canterbury Tales"; Mrs. O. A. Pauser had the subject, "Piers vs. Plowman"; Mrs. Walter Everett talked on "Petrarch, The First of The Humanists," "Rienzi's Revolution," and "The Ascomp"; Mrs. Henry Gale had been assigned "To Posterity" and Mrs. Redford talked on "Laura And The Sonnets."

A very fine book review on "The Life Of Leonardo Da Vinci" by D'Mitri Merejkowski was given by Mrs. Earl Crow, after which the members spent a short time in social conversation.

Lady Elks Dance April 20.—It's the Lady Elks this time, their annual affair April 20; be sure and be there. Features, fun and cats for all. Be Johnny-on-the-spot, and come to our ball.

The Lady Elks of B. P. O. E. No. 944, will give their annual dance in the ballroom of the Elks' temple Wednesday evening, April twentieth.

Much time and work are being given by the ladies to make this affair a success. They are endeavoring to make this dance the best one that they have ever given and as successful as the anniversary dance.

The same decorations will be used in the ballroom, as were used for the last Elks affair. The main attractive of the evening will be a big "feature surprise," the music will be furnished by the "Pied Pipers."

Miss Leona G. Marsters, music instructor at the Southern Oregon Normal school here, went to Klamath Falls yesterday to help organize a branch of the State Music Teacher's association. Miss Marsters was expected to return to Ashland this afternoon.

VALLEY VIEW NOTES

Mr. M. F. Craig celebrated his 94th birthday last Thursday, April 7. A friend in San Francisco sent him birthday greetings by radio and his friends and neighbors here remembered him with little gifts or greeting cards. Mr. Craig makes his home with his son Frank Craig of Valley View and his daughter, Mrs. Harry Roe of Nevada City, Cal., has been with him during the winter and spring. Mr. Craig has had a long eventful life since he was born at Bellina, Ireland on April 7, 1833. He came to Pennsylvania, U. S. A. in 1846, became a railroad man in 1854, working on the Mobile and Ohio R. R. during and after the Civil War. He then transferred to the Union Pacific and Central Pacific being stationed at Promotory, At this time the Northern Pacific and Minnesota was building a new road to the west, to come into Kalama, Wash., but had to have engines at the western end of the new road-to-be.

Two twelve-ton locomotives were shipped from Duluth, Minn., by Chicago to San Francisco, over the Union Pacific, then loaded on a sailing vessel and taken by water to the State of Washington. Mr. Craig accompanied these locomotives and was the first engineer to drive a railroad engine in Washington.

He stayed with this road for some time then went down into California and engineered until he was retired at seventy-six years of age after fifty-five years of railroading. Mr. Craig has lived in Valley View for the past ten years.

A number of Mrs. Everett Bostwick's friends and neighbors surprised her in her new home last Wednesday afternoon. The time was spent in games and conversation and late in the afternoon delicious cakes and coffee were served.

Those present besides the hostesses were Mesdames Brower, Reichert, Bond, Arnold, Jackson, Carle, Weagant, Lowe, Davenhill, McCracken, Glenn, Stratton, Glasgow, Reed, Hurley, Morse, Stella Morse, Roe, Gallatin and Lennox. Mr. Chris Strong made a hurried trip to Auburn, Cal., last week. His oldest son, who had a position at Auburn had been unable to work for some time on account of a bad felon on his thumb, part of the bone having to be removed. Mr. Strong brought his son home with him and they reached Ashland Thursday evening. At last reports the boy was feeling much better.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Treshams of Sams Valley visited Mr. and Mrs. W. F. DeFord last Tuesday. Mrs. Treshams is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. DeFord.

Mr. and Mrs. McKnight, Mr. Eversizer and family of Medford, Russell Bishop of Prospect, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mathes and family of Talent were all guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pittenger of Ashland were visiting in Valley View last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McCracken and George, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jones and Bobby were dinner guests at the Lennox home last Sunday.

The DeFord hounds killed an other coyote this week. These dogs have killed several coyotes this spring and the ranchers who have sheep are glad to know that there are a few less coyotes.

Quite a number of our residents "listened in" last Sunday, both morning and evening to the dedication services broadcasted from the new Presbyterian church in Medford and both the music and addresses were greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Mabel Reichert and Mrs. Mary Brewer of Ashland were callers at the J. F. Arnold home last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Melvin Kennedy and daughter of Eugene, Mrs. Hersh and Mrs. Ven Lent of Ashland also visited Mrs. Arnold the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Davenhill were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Engle of Ashland last Sunday and in the evening the Engles enjoyed at the Davenhill home, the dedication services broadcasted from Medford. Mrs. R. M. Chaney has been ill with flu but is better.

Services at Cole's Residence.—The Baptist church will hold their Easter sunrise meeting on the hill in front of J. F. Cole's residence at 536 Ashland avenue instead of on Carter's Heights.

as was previously announced. The meeting will be at 5:30 a. m.
