 This semester the boys and girls in the fifth grade of the Lincoln School have joined a bird club. There are student teachers for this study, and each room studies about a different bird. On Friday each room meets in the main room and observes about the bird they are studying. This week in Miss Hill's class we are studying about the humming bird and each person takes a point to observe. We have studied about the Robin, Meadowlark, Bluebird, blue jay and the boys can whistle their song. Lillian Vicars.

 AUTUMN WINDS
 What is that strange weird melody That chanting theme in minor key? Like chained beasts moaning for release It storms my garden's moon-fringed peace It seeks the lives of myriad flowers— Like hungry wolves invade their bowers, It crouches low its forces spent Then springs anew destructive bent. Its ice-tongues from the frozen north, Calling the souls of flowers forth. Blanch Logan O'Neal Ashland, Oregon.
 D. A. R. Meeting, Friday—Mt. Ashland Chapter of the D. A. R. met Friday, April fifteenth, at the home of Mrs. Jennie Gilbert on Walnut street. Roll call was answered by a stanza of a patriotic poem.
 Mrs. W. E. Blake gave in a very pleasing manner the story of Concord and Lexington, after which Mrs. P. B. Mackus reported the program of the state conference at Corvallis. This report was very interesting because of the clever way in which each listener was led to glimpse the doings of the conference and because Mt. Ashland chapter feels that Southern Oregon was ably represented. A very happy social hour followed during which the hostess, graciously assisted by Mesdames W. E. Blake, G. O. Vannatta and

R. L. Reed, served delicious refreshments.
 Elks Ladies Card Club Meets—The Elks Ladies Card Club held their regular meeting in the Elks club rooms on Thursday afternoon, April fourteenth. There was an unusually good attendance several members from Medford being present.
 Both Bridge and Five Hundred were played. Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson held high score in the former and Mrs. Webster in the latter. The prizes were beautiful Easter Lillies.
 The hostesses, Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg and Mrs. J. H. McGee, served refreshments.
 Couple United Saturday—At a quiet wedding Saturday, April ninth, Miss Marie Louise Reese and Raymon Wallace Long were united in marriage, in the presence of immediate relatives, the Rev. H. S. Brewster performing the ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, which was beautifully decorated with calls lillies.
 The attendants were Miss Lucille Smith, a close friend of the bride, and Mr. Lewis Reese, Jr., brother of the bride.
 Mr. and Mrs. Omer W. Long of Ashland, Oregon, were present at the ceremony.
 The bride, who is a charming and talented girl, has been secretary to Charles Northcutt, manager of the P. G. and E., for several years. Mr. Long is assistant engineer of the same company. Both were formerly students of Stanford University.
 They will be at home to their friends at 1733 Morris Ave.—Modesto Herald.
 KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 18.—The Rev. R. C. Harding, Kansas City minister, has compiled a list of the desirable and undesirable characteristics that young men and young women look for when considering matrimony.
 As a result of the circulation of a questionnaire which was designed to reveal the tastes of modern youth of marriageable age, Rev. Harding has concluded that lounge lizards and gum and rag chewers lead the lists of unwanted.
 A number of young men and young women who belong to his church responded to most of the questions asked and made no mental reservations on queries related to family finance, single standards, etc.

 One girl fixed the next egg required for matrimony at $3,000; another placed it at $5,000; still another demanded an automobile other than a Ford.
 All of the young women who answered the questionnaire demanded a husband who made a good salary, and most of them were against liquor and tobacco.
 Other specifications for the model husband included sense of humor, chivalry, musical talent, religion and modesty.
 "Tea hounds" are unwanted, principally because the model husband must be able to earn a sizeable income, according to the answers.
 PLEASING HIS WIFE PROFITABLE BUSINESS
 HILBERT, Wis., April 18.—(AP)—Because Peter Fleming couldn't buy his wife a mink coat costing $2,000 he started a mink farm which today he claims is the largest in the country.
 At this time he has nearly 100 pairs of mink. They breed only one a year, producing litters of from two to nine. One mink can be raised at a feed cost of 37 cents while a perfect pelt will bring $37, according to Fleming's experience.
 Fleming chopped wood at $2.35

 BELFAST, April 18.—(AP)—So many children in schools here have the Charleston habit—that Charleston when they walk and do the Charleston wiggle when they stand—that local teachers have decided upon a plan of imposing small fines on offenders.
 When a child is found violating the anti-Charleston rules, a note is sent to the parents who pay a six-penny fine. The money is donated regularly to charity and quite a sum already has been given to several hospitals and homes.

THE MARIONETTES
 Tuesday afternoon we went to the normal to see the Marionettes. They are little wooden dolls dressed as people and animals. Some of them looked like real animals. There was a little dog, a cat, and a bunny. They had a bunny orchestra. We enjoyed it very much. Merl Mossy 4A

THE GOLDFISH
 One of our pupils, Pearl Lyman, brought goldfish for our room to enjoy. It is very pretty and small one. It is orange. We have rocks and shells in the water. We have someone to change water and feed it. We have them to change the water every other day. I know every one enjoys it. Nell Putman

OUR PETS
 We have had quite a few pets in our room. Waltir brought some tadpoles. They are growing fast. Dow brought his pet rooster and it crowed quite a lot. We had a gold fish and a canary. We hope to get more. Lloyd Demers 5A

THE MARIONETTES
 Do you know what Marionettes are? Why, they are little figures of animals and people that are made to move about by strings. The strings are worked by trained people standing on bridges above the stage. Sometimes there are from forty to sixty strings on one puppet. There was a Marionettes show in Ashland Tuesday, which we enjoyed so much that we hope another will come again soon. Lyle Springer 5A

THE MARIONETTES
 Tuesday the Marionettes played at the Normal school. Most of the 5B and 4A went Tuesday afternoon. Some went at night. The play in the afternoon was "Uncle Wiggly at the Circus." At the night performance it was "Huckleberry Finn and Tom Sawyer." Donald G. Conley
