Enjoyable Social Meeting Held—

The auxiliary to the American Legion Post No. 14 held an enjoyable social meeting last evening, April eighteenth, in the Pioneer hall on Winburn Way. Approximately fifty members were present, and each one paid a dollar on the dishes, which were purchased recently to equip the new kitchen in the Pioneer hall.

Japanese quince blossoms made a very attractive as well as colorful decoration for the spacious rooms. Several more articles for the men in hospital No. 77 at Portland were made, and after the ladies had finished their sewing, a number of tables of cards were formed which passed the time until a late hour when refreshment of cake and coffee were served. Beautiful flowers graced the center of the large table.

Mrs. Nell Dunn acted as chairman of the social committee, assisted by Mesdames Warren Cook, W. J. Crandall, Leona Dolson and C. D. Dahoff.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards Honor Guests—

Sixteen covers were laid at a table most elaborately decorated, where the guests enjoyed a delicious four course dinner. Bridge occupied the remainder of the time; Mrs. R. L. Burdick receiving the prize for holding high score. Mrs. Edwards was presented with a gorgeous basket of flowers as a guest prize.

Watch Your Breakfast

Energetic Mornings Depend on Breakfast—Start Always with Quaker Oats

HOW you feel all morning depends largely on your breakfast. Thousands have unenergetic mornings because of wrong breakfast eating.

To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At most other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is hurried, often hasty, chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great health builder; 55% carbohydrate, its great energy element; plus all-important vitamins and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

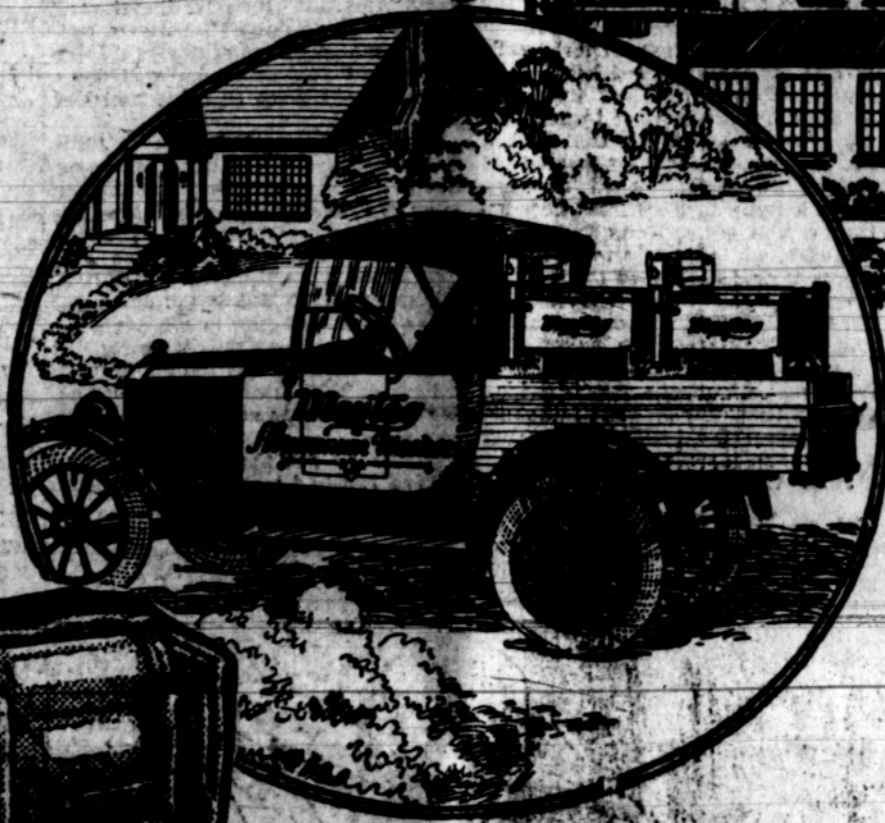

It is food that "stands by" you through the morning.

Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 2 1/2 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.

Good Fishing

If, as Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover recently said, (urging improved fish hatcheries) the good old sport of fishing helps to develop character, Jackson County is a fine place for youngsters. Here opportunities for fishing which abound attract children, as well as their elders, during the open season.

Unquestionably, the fisherman is a patient, persistent soul, and if he retains these characteristics while at study or at work, he cannot fail to meet a fair measure of success in every-day activities.

Patience and persistency bring many rewards and he who finds through their practice that he is accumulating a good surplus by regular deposits in a savings account, considers that compensation enough if, perchance, he is a poor fisherman.

Saving deposits made during the first five days of any month earn interest from the first.
