

THE MARINES MARCHING IN SHANGHAI

This striking picture, just received from China, shows American marines parading down the Bund at Shanghai with Old Glory and the regimental colors flying. Additional detachments of marines are now enroute to Shanghai to augment the force there, charged with the responsibility of protecting American lives and property in China.

pass him by. Too thoughtless for a cheery word to say. But I have seen him clasp with tender hand A flower someone else had thrown away.
And when at last the toil of day was o'er And dying sun had crimsoned hill and glade He silent stood, within his eyes the light Of reverent awe, nor knew that he had prayed.

Billings Home Scene of Party

The pleasant home of Mrs. Homer Billings on North Main street was the scene of a delightful affair Tuesday afternoon, April nineteenth, when the Who Do class of the Methodist Episcopal church met there and held a jolly party, the occasion being in honor of Mrs. H. F. Pemberton's birthday anniversary. Games, clever stunts and an interesting Easter egg hunt were features of the afternoon. Mrs. J. E. Angwin delighted those present with two vocal solos and Mrs. A. A. Madden beautifully played two pieces on the piano; these numbers were greatly enjoyed by the ladies and added much to the afternoon's entertainment. Mrs. Adena Hunt, teacher of this organization, presented Mrs. Pemberton with a large fern from her class. Delicious refreshments of birthday cake, which was made by Mrs. McNair, and coffee, were served by the following committee: Mesdames Sam McNair, ed. R. McCracken, John Mills and Warren Cook.

Junior High P. T. A. Meets

The Junior High school P. T. A. held their regular meeting at three o'clock Tuesday afternoon, April nineteenth, in the Junior high school building.

An interesting business session was held and several matters concerning the association were taken up and discussed, after which a splendid program was enjoyed. Mrs. Wilmer Peley gave a delightful reading: Miss Maxine Emerick and Miss June Aiken each played a number on the piano and the Junior high school glee club furnished two numbers, which were very much enjoyed and appreciated as this was their first appearance. A social hour was held during which refreshing tea was served in the cafeteria of the school.

Mrs. Sam McNair Hostess at Meeting

Mrs. Sam McNair was the gracious hostess yesterday afternoon, Wednesday, April twentieth, when the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church met at her home on Seaside Drive. About forty members were present.

The president, Mrs. O. G. Howard, presided at the usual business meeting, after which Mrs. F. H. Walker and Mrs. Howard each gave enjoyable recitations. A social hour was spent in conversation, listening to the Victrola and doing fancy work.

Mrs. McNair was assisted in serving delicious refreshments by Mesdames W. J. Moore, P. L. Nutter and G. O. and Miss Mollie Senger.

RELIEF WORK STARTED IN STRICKEN AREA

(Continued From Page One) from the outskirts of St. Louis to Springfield, capital of Illinois, miraculously missing the larger cities, but creating havoc in hamlets of 200 to 300 population. Green county, with nine dead, suffered most; but other counties were also hard hit. Lack of transportation facilities made relief work difficult in out of the way places.

Underwent Operation

Mrs. Frank Hendricks of this city underwent an operation at the Community hospital Monday, April 18, and is reported to be doing nicely.

...you can have your private yacht

GIVE me a pipe and Prince Albert, and you can have your cabin-cruiser and your winter vacation. I won't envy you for a minute. In fact, I wouldn't trade places with anybody. I could even be happy on a desert island with a pipe and plenty of P.A. You'll understand my enthusiasm for this prince of smokes the minute you open the tidy red tin and get a whiff of real tobacco. But that's only a starter. The taste more than lives up to the promise of the aroma. Tuck a load in your jimmy-pipe, light up, and see.

Cool, as a breeze from the forward deck is cool. Sweet, with a sweetness that doesn't tire. Mild as milk, yet with plenty of body to let you know you're smoking. P. A. is neither too heavy nor too light, which makes it the middle-weight champ, so far as I'm concerned. Telling you about Prince Albert is one thing. Trying it in your pipe is another. You'll never know exactly what it is that holds millions of happy jimmy-pipers to this one brand until you make the personal test. When you do, you'll say I did you a favor in tipping you off.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, round and half-round tin tins, and round crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of his and each removed by the Prince Albert process.
