Society Notes

Ashland high school, were honored guests.

The evening was spent playing cards, seven tables of Bridge being in play. Mr. Walter Redford, instructor of geography, won the first prize for holding high score and Miss Eva White, head of the Primary department, was awarded consolation for holding low score. The score cards, which were supposed to represent the baby picture of each member, were quite unique and cleverly made, causing much fun and merriment among the guests.

Mrs. Churchill served daintily arranged refreshments at the close of this most successful affair.

Young People's Night Well Attended

The young people's night at the Baptist Chapel Car brought out a full house last night. Three or four automobile loads of young people from Medford were in attendance.

Miss Edith Stump of Medford sang a very beautiful solo, entitled, "My Task." Miss Marie Gillmore, president of the local B. Y. P. U. read the 100th Psalm for a Scripture lesson, and Miss Lois Norris of Medford made a short talk on "The Church As An Aid To Character Building."

The Chapel Car Missionary told the story common known as "The Prodigal Son," as an illustration of what sin and religion does for a young man. The minister pointed out the fact that sin found this young man in a delightful home and surrounded with the most wholesome environments, and induced him to leave. He pointed out the fact that one by one sin robbed him of wealth, happiness, freedom and self respect. Then he called attention to the fact that it remained for religion to make him wise to his dreadful condition and bring him back to his father with "confession of sin" upon his lips and "petition for forgiveness" in his heart, who restored to him everything which sin had taken from him, except his wasted fortune.

After the services at the car, the young people, accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Chappelle, enjoyed a swimming party at Helman's, a bonfire party and a wicker roast before the meetings finally closed. This party will also be attended by the young people of the two cities.

This evening at the car is Sunday School night.

Faculty Party

The members of the southern Oregon Normal school faculty and the training school, (Lincoln) enjoyed a jolly picnic party at Siskiyou lodge Tuesday afternoon May 10. A. S. Taylor was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements and he was assisted by Miss Eva White, Miss Lillian Nicholson and A. C. Strange.

SPORT CARD AT MEDFORD

Five hundred Elks enjoyed a fight card with plenty of action at Medford Thursday evening. Chick Kennedy won a decision over Jack Keely in a lively eight round bout, in the main event on the card.
