are being offered the peasant-farmers of the Caucasus, to persuade them to change from corn growing to tea culture. The Russians are the greatest tea-drinkers in the world and for many years the annual tea consumption of the Russians has been far greater than that of their nearest rivals for the distinction, the British.

I steal the pastel shades of dawn;
 I catch the birds' sun-greeting trills;
 I pick the fairest, fragrant bud;
 I gather in the mist-yelled hills.
 Oh, I must tear the very clothes
 From Nature's back! Embroider each
 Fair garment with the vulgar thread
 Drawn from the spool of man's Poor speech.
 Dry each one in the ornate ink
 Of mankind's pen, so futile, rude.
 Then carry my treasures here and there,
 And barter them to men for food.
 Paula Gilmore,
 Astoria, Ore.

FARM NOTES

If Oregon consumers were to demand sweet cream butter the problem of providing good butter would be solved, say the experiment station specialists. The price would then be based on the product that was in the greatest demand, and creameries would be forced to demand sweet cream deliveries, a real point, since milk and its products are quite perishable.

Commercial fertilizers are used probably on certain Oregon soils and crops; the experiment station declares, to improve both quality and yield. Profitable returns can be had for thorough drainage, proper tillage, adequate supply of organic matter, use of lime in humid sections and correction of alkalinity in arid regions.

Oregon grain farmers have thrown a lot of inferior varieties into the discard, says the experiment station, and standardization has progressed wonderfully in the last few years. Some of the varieties at one time fairly important are now declared to be as extinct as the dodo, not even specimens being available. It would be a good thing if a few more were as completely eliminated. The cherry fruit fly that makes the cherries maggoty in parts of Oregon may be expected to emerge with the next continued warm weather spell, and unless promptly poisoned will put eggs into so many cherries that when the maggots grow up they may pretty nearly walk the fruit out of the boxes. The control spray is lead arsenate a half-pound, molasses - rot honey - 2 quarts, water 10 gallons. It is put on very lightly, about the time Royal Annis begins to show good color, followed by two other like applications a week to 10 days apart.

In putting on supers for extracted honey the Oregon beekeeper usually experiences but little difficulty in getting the bees started in them. It is a common practice among some beekeepers to place the brood nest, which contains the largest amount of brood on the lower story next to the bottom board, then the empty super, and then on top of that the hive body containing the least amount of brood. The queen, if possible, should be in the lower story.

HEDDA HOYT TELLS ABOUT ORGANDY FROCKS

NEW YORK, June 1 (AP)—Many of the smart, Fifth Avenue shops are displaying organdy frocks of informal summer type. Shades of pink, orchid, cerise and green are favored. Dinner and informal dance frocks are the type featured in organdy materials.

There is much speculation as to whether older matrons will accept cotton materials to any degree although it seems certain that slender Misses who can wear gossamer of a period type will use organdy as a means of asserting youthfulness. The skirts of these organdy frocks are most interesting, some of them having appliques of silk taffeta, moire or georgette flowers at the hem-line and some being ruffled, flared or flounced in malfine or organdy. Slender bodices, rounded necklines and full skirts form the youthful effect of most models.

The fringed negligee is perhaps the most feminine one of the season. Some shops are selling these lovely fringed robes as low as $10. To my mind the fringed negligee is the only extremely feminine type which bears laundering well since lace-trimmed models are not durable unless continually dry-cleaned. Fringe washes well and after washing all that is required is hanging the garment on a dress hanger. After the fringe is thoroughly dried one can press the satin foundation with an iron. The most attractive fringed robe is made exactly like a cape-coat except that it has no sleeves. The main portion of the robe is plain, open in front and sleeveless and a hip-length cape extends over this. Cape and skirt portion have fringed borders. A narrow satin cash extends about the low waist-

Here are Pola Negri and her boy friend Serge Mdivani, the Georgian prince, on wedding "location." Pola keeps her best movie composure, but the camera seems to intrigue the prince. The picture was taken at Pola's chateau at Seraincourt, near Paris, just after the wedding. With the couple is the bridegroom's father, Prince Gregory, said to be a former general in the czar's army. Others of the prince's family, including Prince David, husband of Mae Murray, were unable to be present. At the reception at the chateau, cameramen and reporters predominated. Pola wore an ermine cloak and many costly jewels—pearls, diamond rings and diamond and emerald bracelets.

Henry Ford's First Appearance

This picture of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford, taken at a campaign dinner opening a drive to raise $4,000,000 for welfare, marks the first public appearance of the motor manufacturer since the accident to Mr. Ford on March 27. It also was his first appearance in connection with any campaign for funds. The Fords gave $400,000 toward the building. Between the Fords is seated Charles Beecher Warren, former U. S. ambassador to Japan.

"Ins and Outs" of Prohibition

Appointment of former Lieut. Gov. of New York, Baymore Lowman (upper right) as assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of prohibition enforcement has been announced by Secretary Mellon. The resignation of Gen. L. C. Andrews (lower left) will take effect August 1. Roy A. Haynes (lower right) acting dry commissioner since April 1, and the Anti-Saloon League's choice, Baymore Lowman received, is to resign. To the post of commissioner James M. Doran, of St. Paul, Minn., has been appointed. Commissioner of the bureau, succeeding Haynes.

LISTEN, FELLA! WE'RE ALL BEEN HOOLED ON THIS BUTTER DEAL OF GUNN'S. HE TOOK HIS WORD THAT EVERYTHING WOULD BE ALL RIGHT AND I THINK HE OUGHTA COME HIM UP AND MAKE HIM STAND GOOD! WHY SHOULD WE BE THE LOSERS?

I THINK WE'RE ALL WET - WE'VE TAKEN ME GUNN'S WORD BEHIND AN DIFFERENT PROPOSITION AND THEY'VE ALWAYS WORKED OUT -

YEAH - GIVE HIM A CHANCE - HE WASN'T OUT IN A DAY -

THESE GUYS CAN BE SUCHERS IF THEY WANT! BUT I'M THROUGH BEIN' FISHED!

MR. TYE OFFERED

YESTER, MR. TYE - WHILE YOU WERE AWAY, GUNN HAD US PUT OUR NAMES INTO THIS BUTTER DEAL - HE PREDICTED A GREAT DEMAND AND HIS PROFITS AS SOON AS YOUR LUPPOON WENT ON THE MARKET -

WHAT - Y MEAN THAT GUNN IS THE MAN WHO HAS ALL THIS BUTTER UNDER HIS THUMB?

YESSIR - I DON'T WANT TO BE A TATTLE TALE BUT I JUST WANT TO YOU TO KNOW ABOUT IT - NOW I'M GOIN' TO SQUAWK TO GUNN - I WANT MY MONEY BACK!

DON'T DO THAT! I WON'T BE ANY OF YOU BEIN' LOSERS ANY MORE - I'LL TAKE YOUR INTEREST AWAY - IT'S TIME TO PAY UP! OUT OF MY SUIT-POCKET!
