RECIPES
Rich pie pastry
English walnuts
1 tsp. orange juice
Candied orange peel
Sugar
1 tsp. pineapple juice
To a half cup of candied orange peel add a few chopped walnut meats, about a fourth of a cup, then add the fruit juices and a little powdered sugar. Both the orange and nuts should be chopped very fine. Roll out some rich pie pastry and cut into squares. Spread some of the orange and nut mixture over each square, and roll up like a jelly roll. Bake in a moderate oven until a delicate brown. Nice to serve with a salad course.

PINEAPPLE SNOW
2 egg whites
1-4 C. powdered sugar
1 C. cream
1 C. shredded pineapple
1 tsp. lemon juice
Beat the egg whites stiff but not dry, add the sugar and lemon juice. Whip the cream and beat into the egg and sugar mixture. Fold in the pineapple which has been drained of juice. Put into individual dishes and chill. It may be garnished with cherries, mint leaves or some other brightly colored fruit.
If a thermometer is used 212 degrees F. or 100 degrees C. indicates the boiling point of water.

HOT WEATHER MENUS
1—String beans, buttered onions, stuffed baked potatoes, and escalloped potatoes.
2—New cabbage, stewed tomatoes, lima beans and stuffed baked tomatoes.
3—Buttered spinach, green peas, carrots and baked tomatoes.
4—Corn pudding, buttered beets, stuffed onions and fresh sliced tomatoes on lettuce.
5—Okra, corn on cob, creamed new potatoes, and wilted lettuce.

DO YOU KNOW?
Brown sugar can be softened by wrapping a damp cloth around the bag that contains it.
Dry cocoonut may be steamed for about one half hour in a colander and it will become quite like the fresh article.
When making pies from fresh or canned apples, if you will add one teaspoon of vanilla to each pie, it will give a different and very pleasing flavor.
Fresh meat can be kept from immediate spoiling by sprinkling with salt and pepper, using the amount customarily used for flavoring. Rub it in well. Or cover the meat closely with a cloth saturated with vinegar, leaving one end of the cloth in a small pan of vinegar.
Heaviest smokers on the University of Oregon campus surpass the moderate and non-smokers in scholastic standing, a recent survey disclosed.

Playground Popularity Increase Daily; More Equipment Badly Needed

Happy, carefree, enjoying play hours with the utter abandon of youth, the Ashland Playground in Lithia Park presents a scene of activity during the day, which is well worth watching.
Dressed in play suits, some in coveralls, some in overalls, some in gingham frocks—all at the grounds for one purpose—play—the boys and girls seem not to have a care in the world.
There is no quarrelling, no hair pulling, no naughty words heard coming from little lips on the playgrounds. For that is one of the purposes of this enterprise. To teach boys and girls, to learn early in life that great lesson of getting along with others.
Around Miss Fay Carver, playground supervisor, this activity centers. "Please Miss Carver may we—" comes from the childish voices.
There are swings and slides and teeters, and rings, and other playground devices and every bit of this equipment is in use throughout practically the entire day.
More than 200 boys and girls were at the playground Thursday.
Mothers can be seen enjoying the park throughout the afternoon hours while the boys and girls are at play.
There is an older group, some 30 boys and girls, who do need equipment. They are anxious to play baseball. Yet there is only one bat and one ball on the grounds and they have to "take turns" playing. A donation of a bat and ball or some other form of equipment which these older boys and girls might use, would be much appreciated, Miss Carver says.
Anyone who doubts the value of the splendid work which is being done should visit the playground and see what is being done.

62 SENIORS RECEIVE DIPLOMAS THURSDAY
In presenting the diplomas special mention was made of Mary Galey, who won state honors for typing. Mr. Brisco mentioned the fact that others of the class have ranked high in special scholastic work.
Both invocation and benediction were delivered by Rev. Chas. D. Gaffney, pastor of the congregational church.
Music was furnished by the high school orchestra under the direction of Miss Laura Raguse.
Following the formal exercises presentation of flowers and gifts to the members of the class was made by a group of junior girls wearing bright colored frocks. This ceremony, an annual affair, was exceptionally pretty.
