Big Electric Sign Erected

An electric sign, said by H. A. Stearns to be the largest in southern Oregon and the only one of its kind in this part of the state, was erected this morning at the intersection of Main and First streets, under the supervision of Guy Good, Ashland electrician.

The sign was purchased from Mr. Good by Mr. Stearns, owner of the Lithia Springs garage. It is 16 feet long, 4 feet high and has 186 light globes. A red arrow points up First street to the garage.

This sign, which was made by the Federal Electric company San Francisco, is one of their newest and largest models it is said.

So large is the Dragon coming from Hong Kong to be a feature of the Oriental Chinatown carnival Rose Festival week in Portland from June 13 to 18, that the basement of the public auditorium will be utilized as a garage or "dragon barn" as the Portland Chinese say it should be called. The dragon will be more than 200 feet long and will require 100 Chinese to carry the dragon when the initial appearance is made at the pageant "Rosaria" and later in Chinatown at the night event of the Oriental carnival.

CITY DADS SATISFIED

City councilmen last night had a splendid demonstration of the sounding powers of the recently purchased fire siren. While the council was in session the siren was sounded, long and loud, announcing, as was planned, the fire demonstration which the visiting caravan staged at the Lithia Springs Hotel.

So long and loud was the siren's call, it was necessary to discontinue the council session for a period of five minutes until "things quieted down." Councilmen are satisfied with the noise maker.

Boas Batters Keep In Trim

The Ashland team now stands second in the League with three games won and three lost, while Grants Pass dropped to third last Sunday by losing their fourth game this season.

Let's get down to cases

YOU don't need a degree from Oxford to figure out why so many men smoke pipes today—and enjoy them. Pipe-smoking has increased at least three-fold since Prince Albert came into the picture. And pipe-pleasure has increased a thousand-fold. And with good reason!

Prince Albert in the bowl of your pipe means pipe-joy coming up the stem. That's the story of P.A.'s tremendous popularity in a pipe-bowl. You suspect that Prince Albert is wonderful tobacco the instant you open the tidy red tin and set free that rich, rare fragrance. That's a treat in itself!

Your "suspicions" are confirmed the minute that cool, comforting smoke comes rolling over your tongue. Never did pipe-tobacco taste as good as that. Cool and sweet and mellow and mild—long-burning—why, P. A. just has everything you ever wanted in a smoke, including complete satisfaction.

No matter how hard you hit it up, P. A. never bites your tongue or parches your throat. You can start in right after breakfast and stay with it until bedtime. You may think your pipe is delivering capacity pipe-joy now. Never mind. Until you've tried P. A., you won't know.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, round and half-round tin holders with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of tin and pack removed by the Prince Albert process.

Where To Buy

There is nothing like the newspaper for proclaiming place of purchase.

The reader of a newspaper advertisement can go directly to the place where the article advertised is on sale. To advertise where the goods are, to have goods where the advertising is, constitutes the best merchandising.

Newspaper advertising can be used to parallel, support or build distribution.

CHAMBERLIN DIDN'T KNOW

BERLIN, June 9.—(AP)—Clarence D. Chamberlin may be a great aviator, but his knowledge of German beds, as displayed at Bottbus, is not so great.

Unfamiliar with the German rural custom of having feather quilts over the bed, and not tucking them in, the American flyer made the mistake of sleeping on top of his covering, thinking it was an extra mattress.

What A Thrill This Was To Norman Batten

Imagine your car catching on fire while racing along at a rate of speed close to 100 miles an hour! That gave Norman Batten his thrill on Decoration Day while he was driving in the annual 500-mile speed classic at Indianapolis. The photograph shows Batten standing in the driver's seat. Note the flames at the rear of the speeding car. Standing up, Batten drove his car off the track
