A year's observation caused Mrs. Branch to write to a lady friend in Ashland, "If any of the Ashlandites are dissatisfied with the place, tell them to rent their place for a year and come here. At the end of that time they will return to their home thoroughly satisfied."

Children's Day Program Given
A splendid Children's Day program was presented Sunday at the Baptist church under the direction of those in charge of the Children's department. Special services were held both morning and evening. Decorations of ivy and pink roses made the church most attractive.

Some pleasing numbers were given at the morning services by the children. A unique part of the program was the presentation of Cradle Roll certificates to several of the cradle roll babies by Superintendent Smith. Each certificate was framed and contained the name of the child to whom it was presented. In connection with this service some interesting facts in connection with the beginning of the cradle roll department were given.

Cabaret Plans All Complete

Rehearsals for the big Lithian Society Cabaret are under way and every Lithian is doing his best to make the big event to be held Tuesday night, June 16th, the finest evening of entertainment ever enjoyed in Ashland. Sharkey Moore's accomplished 9 piece jazz orchestra is already here in Ashland preparing for the unusual event.

In addition to the wonderful music for dancing from 9 to 2 a. m. seven acts of fine vaudeville have been arranged, featuring a 12-voice chorus, with novel dances.

The electrical effects are going to be the most gorgeous ever attempted in Southern Oregon. Elmer Smith, of the city electrical department is responsible for this special feature, and has a crew at work. Seats are now on sale at "The Rose." Make up your party today and get ready for a big time.

Astoria Seeks Elks Meeting

That Astoria is waging a determined campaign to secure the 1938 state convention of Elk lodges was indicated in communications received by the local lodge today.

The Astoria Chamber of Commerce and various civic organizations there have co-operated in preparing an elaborate tentative program for the welcoming and entertainment of delegates, should the annual gathering be held there.

Astoria, the letters pointed out, is the center of all historical interest of the Old Oregon Country and within its area are relics that recall vividly all the romance of the early pioneer days. The gigantic Astoria Column, recently completed, has taken its place among the great monuments of the world, and the entire Oregon history is pictured in base-relief on its sides. The column, mounted on the crest of a hill, towers above the city, and overlooks the entire lower Columbia district.

The city therefore, has claim to the convention not only from its historical angle, its letters point out, but also because its nearby beach resorts and golf courses offer unsurpassable recreation facilities for convention delegates.

The convention this year is being held at Baker, Oregon on July 4, 5 and 6th.

Channel Swim Season Starts

DOVER, England, June 14.—(AP)—The channel swimming season is about to open.

The 13-year-old New York twins, Bernice and Phyllis Zitenfeld, will be the first aspirants for this year's honors, judging from present indications.

They are reported en route here and their representatives say they hope to start from Dover for France in July, ahead of Mrs. Mille Gade Corson, the first mother to swim the channel. Mrs. Corson swam from France to England last year and now she plans to swim back.

The Zitenfeld twins will be paced by their mother.

Scouts Off To Mountain

Homer Billings, scoutmaster for Ashland Troop 2 left Monday afternoon with ten scouts for Mt. Ashland expecting to return Tuesday evening after a climb up the mountain. The scouts who accompanied him were: Harry Borah, Emerson Pratt, Wesley Hoxie, Ray Wertz, Harry Smith, Clifford Real, Roger Shiffer, Kenneth Shiffer, Hugh Carter and Frank Billings who went along "to see how his dad would act in the hills."

Auto Camp Has Big Registration

Among those who have registered at the Jackson Hot Spring tourist camp in the last few days are: Raymond Conrad, Fred Brown, D. Stewart, J. E. Rhoads, J. H. Hasewinger and wife, Ocean Park, California; J. E. Johnson, San Diego, Calif.; A. L. Vincent, Tacoma, Wash.; R. T. Woolye, Eugene; Myrtle T. Woolye, Albany; J. Looman and A. V. Smith,

"Can storied urn or animated bust Back to its mansion call the fleeting breath? Can honour's voice provoke the silent dust Or flattery sooth the dull cold ear of death?"

The above immortal words of Gray can well depict the feeble attempt of a sympathetic world to your immediate instance of mortality.

Yet the greatest comfort of this dark hour comes from the knowledge that even the smallest detail has not been neglected in the tender ministrations to your beloved dead.

Our experience and training have fitted us to fill this responsible role.
