

Arguments Start In D'Autremont's Trial

BOAS SMASH PELICANS IN 10-INNINGS

Game Replete With Thrills—Davis Holds Klamath Aggregation Scoreless Until Eighth Inning—Numerous Errors Made By Both Teams In Contest.

Ashland Boas, 6; Klamath, 4. Medford, 6; Grants Pass, 6.

Dope was all upset in the Southern Oregon League ball games Sunday when the Ashland Boas defeated the Pelicans from Klamath Falls, in a fast, thrilling 10-inning game, while the Peapickers from Medford won their second victory when they defeated the Cavemen from Grants Pass on their home ground.

First Inning— Ashland scored two runs in the first inning of the game with Klamath. Marlow at bat first hit a two-bagger. Hughes followed with a hit, advancing Marlow and while the Pelicans fumbled and fought over the ball, both Lithians run in home scoring two runs. Menyon, the crack pitcher for Klamath, then fanned Core, Robbins and Gray.

The first two Pelicans at bat went out at first, the next batter, Powell, hit a clean two-bagger. Dubac followed with a hit but Powell was caught at third making three outs.

Miller was first up for the Boas in the second inning and struck out. Morgan went out at first. Force hit into Morgan, making the third out.

Prater for the Pelicans struck out. Foss went out at first, and Brunn struck out, in the last half of the second, with two strikeouts to Davis' credit.

Davis went straight from the pitcher's box to the plate in the third and struck out. Marlow followed with a two-bagger. Hughes went out at first, while Marlow stole to third on an error. Core went out on a fly, making the third out.

With the Pelicans at bat, Peterson, Henyon and Heath each went out at first.

In the four inning, Robbins, first up for the Lithians, went out on a fly. Gray singled. Miller got to first on an error and Gray trotted to second. Morgan batted the ball for two bases, while Miller touched the home plate, making the third tally for Ashland.

Force, next at bat went out at first. Klamath at bat saw Powell go out at first, while Dubac popped a fly from Davis, and Prater went out at first.

Davis went straight from the pitcher's box to bat in the fifth inning and struck out. Marlow hit a long one, but it went in the well. Then Hughes struck out.

Foss was then up for the Pelicans and went out at first; Brunn went to first on a nice single. Peterson struck out and Henyon, struck out a pretty fly trying to hit one of Davis' spinners.

Core, first up for the Lithians in the sixth struck out.

(Please Turn To Page Five)

Steel Head Trout Start Summer Run

The summer run of steel head trout has started in the Rogue River according to Game Warden Roy Parr who was along the stream Sunday checking up on fishermen's licenses Sunday.

The stream should be a veritable angler's paradise, Parr says, and hundreds of fishermen were out Sunday indulging in the sport. Few violations of game laws are found by the warden.

Humor Found On Fairways

There is no monotony about golf.

New situations are to be encountered on every round of the course.

A player never covers the same territory twice. One minute he is playing through the woods, or up along a hill. These situations all lend themselves to the creation of many odd occurrences.

Caddies add dangerous possibilities. Each year produces unexpected incidents laden with tragedy and sorrow. They tell on one course the story of a swarm of bees which pre-empted the greens without regard for rules or regulations. Or on another course of the Scotchman who caught a trout with a golf ball—the exact details unexplained. Or the man who knocked a golf ball in a cow's ear.

And within a year the Ashland course will undoubtedly yield its share of humor too.

WILL TALK ON UNIT SYSTEM

Klamath County School Superintendent To Aid Proposed Measure

Fred Peterson, superintendent of the schools of Klamath county will spend the week in Jackson county, according to County School Superintendent Susanne Homes Carter, speaking in behalf of the county unit system, which Jackson county voters will be called to pass upon June 28.

Mr. Peterson will speak on "What the County Unit Has Done for Klamath Schools." Mr. Peterson is a Jackson county man, well known here as a successful school man and his message in favor of the proposed change will carry much weight.

Medford Kiwanis will hear him first, Monday, June 20, at their luncheon meeting. Monday night members of the Oak Grove School district have secured him as a speaker at their Annual School meeting.

According to Mrs. Carter, while 10 or 11 states are wholly unitized under the county system, Oregon has been slow in taking advantage of the law allowing this system. But three Oregon counties now operate under the system, Crook, Klamath and Lincoln. Results in these counties have been sufficiently profitable that their school officials are eager to bring the message of the benefits to other counties where voters are passing on the proposed change.

NORTH POLE HERO PLANS FLIGHT SOON

Crew Of Monoplane "America" anxiously Await Clearing Storms To Hop Off On Long Ocean Flight—Byrd Gets Honorary Degree Today.

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., June 20—(AP)—Commander Richard E. Byrd was in Boston today and his trans-Atlantic flight in his monoplane "America" was definitely postponed until tomorrow as the earliest time for hopping off.

Storms over the Atlantic forced the impatient crew to delay their flight further and Byrd took advantage of the wait to go to Boston to receive an honorary degree of Master of Science from Tufts College.

Benefit Dance For Ball Club

Ashland Boas will give a baseball benefit dance Wednesday evening, June 22 at the Jackson Hot Springs pavillion, according to announcement made today.

The Merry Macks, directed by "Sharkey" Moore will furnish the music for the affair.

Big attendance from Medford, Gold Hill and other valley towns is expected at the affair.

VOTE ON DAM COST $92.50

Guarantee Of $200 Expenses Made By Postponement Committee

It cost $92.50 for Ashland folks to register for a second time their approval of the Canyon Dam project at the special election on May 31, according to a report recently completed by Miss Gertrude Biede, city recorder.

Members of the Canyon Dam Postponement committee, who were responsible for the special election, guaranteed $200 to cover the expenses, as is required by law, and city councilmen recently passed a motion providing for the difference between the sum guaranteed and the cost of the election be returned to the committee members.

Itemized expenses were as follows: Printing elections notice, $24; printing ballots, $13.50; printing inactive petitions, $22.50; services of election board, $30; supplies, .25; and drayage, $2.25.

MAN KILLED IN GUN FRAY

Companion Slightly Wounded—Inquest Is To Be Held

LEAVENWORTH, WASH., June 20—(AP)—Harry Smith is dead and Noah McCleary slightly wounded as the result of a shooting scrape here Sunday. The men with four companions, all laborers from the Berne and Cascade tunnel engaged in a drunken fight. The shooting occurred as an attempt was made to arrest the men. An inquest is to be held.

At The Ashland Hotel—B. Bunting of San Francisco, Cal.; C. W. World and F. G. Springston of Salt Lake City, Utah and Mrs. Grace Andrews and daughter of Susanville, Cal., are among those who spent last evening at the Ashland Hotel.

Another Sea Bird Ready To Hop

COMMANDER
R. E. BYRD

Commander R. E. Byrd, North Pole conqueror, who awaits favorable weather before he hops off on a trans-Atlantic flight for Europe.

Bogus 4-Bits Is Circulated

Several Ashland merchants have reported receiving counterfeit half dollars, according to Chief of Police George McNabb. One counterfeit piece received at the W. D. Jackson, Palace lunch Sunday, is of a light weight metal, with the year mark 1920, barely discernible. The casting is very poor and the imitation is so bad that the pieces may be easily detected.

Woman Loses $125 In City

Loss of $125 worth of traveler's checks in Ashland Sunday was reported Sunday evening by Miss Ann Windberg of Oakland, California, by telephone from Yreka. Miss Windberg said she passed through Lithia Park while here, and was in a local restaurant. Later it was learned another jurist had found the checks and attempted to locate the women by calling at local hotels.

TWO STILL CONFISCATED BY OFFICERS

Federal Men Locate What Is Believed To Be Southern Oregon Liquor Source—170 Gallons Of Moonshine Liquor Taken—Two Men Arrested.

What is believed to be the source of liquor supply of southern Oregon was tapped Sunday by Federal Prohibition Officers Terry Talent and G. W. Shirley, assisted by Deputy Sheriff Louis Miller of Klamath county, when they raided the Chris McHawley and B. R. Meamber places in Siskiyou county, California.

Two stills were taken, one a 90 gallon, thoroughly equipped apparatus in operation, and a 60 gallon capacity still which had been dismantled.

Officers also located 171 gallons of booze in various types of containers about the place. McHawley and Meamber were taken before a justice of the peace and released under bond to appear Monday to answer to the charge of illegal manufacturing of intoxicating liquors. They will be tried under federal laws.

The stills were located in Scott's Valley near Fort Jones and were known to officers for some time.

A Chevrolet car filled with booze from this source of supply was confiscated last winter by local officers.

The federal men had little trouble in locating the still and Meamber and McHawley, surprised at their work, offered no resistance.

HAY FEVER PREVALENT

Hay fever victims for the last week have had a lot of trouble. Ashland is said to be a poor place for these unfortunate victims during the rose season.

ASHLAND—Normal school re-opens this week.

Much Traffic Over Sunday Says Officer

"There was heavy traffic on all highways Sunday but no violating," according to Traffic Officer C. P. Talent. Officer Talent traveled more than 130 miles Sunday without making a single arrest.

"There is a tendency on the part of Sunday drivers, many of them out for enjoyment, to take their time and drive carefully," Talent says.

No accidents were reported in this district Sunday.

KENO DANCE HALL CLOSED

Federal Officers And County Authorities Silence Objectors

Federal Prohibition Officers Terry Talent and G. W. Shirley, assisted by county authorities of Klamath county Saturday evening closed the dance hall at Keno at midnight.

Considerable drinking was said to have been going on at the dance hall and several of those present objected to the activities of the officers in closing the place—but these objections were soon silenced when several of those speaking most loudly felt the "strong arm of the law" flatten them to the floor.

Keno residents said they would take steps to incorporate the town and continue their 3 o'clock dances.

FLOWER SHOW OPENS TODAY

Some Ashland Flowers Entered In Big Medford Exhibit

A number of Ashland flower growers have entered blooms in the Rose and Sweet Pea show being held today and tomorrow at the Medford Hotel in Medford, under the auspices of the Floral Society of that city.

The exhibit was opened to the public at noon today and will remain open until late Tuesday evening.

The Medford Chamber of Commerce, Merchant's Association, Real Estate Association and churches are aiding the floral society in making the show an extensive one.

Seven class prizes are offered. Special attention is being given to the rose exhibit, class prizes for tea and hybrid tea roses, hybrid perpetuals, climbers, being offered. A special prize is being offered to children for artistic baskets or vases of sweet peas of any variety.

S. L. Brown and Walter Frazer Brown are general chairmen in charge of the show.

Audrey McPherson, who attended the Normal school during the first two terms it was open, then taught school at Topsy, has returned to Ashland to attend summer school.

Visited in Ashland—Nellie Shepard and Vera Blusson of Marshfield, Ore., are spending a couple of days in this city visiting friends.

Southern Oregon Scenery Surpasses All Other, Says Hollywood Director

Approximately 30 men are employed at the present time constructing the first unit of the Rogue River studios on the Crater Lake highway, according to Game Warden Roy Farr.

The object of the movie studio, according to E. R. Boyce of Hollywood, is to capitalize on the beautiful scenery of this section. The scenery of southern Oregon cannot be surpassed in the United States and is something which a director can use without

STATE OPENS SUMMING UP ALL EVIDENCE

Hugh Shows No Emotion As Lawyers Review Evidence Before Jury In Effort To Put Noose About His Neck—Gory Details Of Crime Related.

The State has never put a gun in the hands of Hugh D'Autremont, nor did they ever see him shooting at even an innocent tree, Attorney John Collier, for the defense said in his opening arguments this afternoon.

He added that the state had not in any way indicated Hugh was directly connected with the dynamiting or did he directly fire the shot that killed Coyle Johnson.

He said the Nash car had never been connected with the holdup. The defense he said, might admit Hugh had had an auto accident and had taken the car to Ashland for repairs, but said this had no more connection with the crime than with many other accidents which occurred during the same period of time.

In referring to the overall, Collier said that it is rather foolish to claim that the boys left them in the woods when the state claimed that the boys fled from the tunnel immediately after the dynamiting.

"He sheddeth blood and in punishment his blood should be shed," Special Prosecutor George Roberts told the jury in a low, calm voice in concluding the state's opening argument in the Hugh D'Autremont trial this morning.

Mr. Roberts started his speech at the opening of court at 9:15 and spoke for two and a half hours, finishing just at 12 o'clock when he asked the jury to return a verdict for the death penalty, stating the prosecution had submitted a mass of evidence and exhibits which he thought could not be denied or refuted.

While his voice was low and calm at the end, frequently throughout his argument, his voice roared, much to the delight of the large audience which was unable to gain standing room in the courtroom.

Especially vibrant was his voice when reading at length from the opening statement of the defense in which Attorney Smith had challenged the state to show any connection between the defendant and the heinous crime in the Siskiyou tunnel and in which Attorney Smith had stated they would clearly outline the movements and actions of the defendant to the satisfaction of the jury. Roberts thundered that the state had accepted the challenge and had proved that Hugh was connected with the death of the four men in the holdup and dynamiting of the Southern Pacific train.

In addition, he asked the court.

(Please Turn to Page 3)

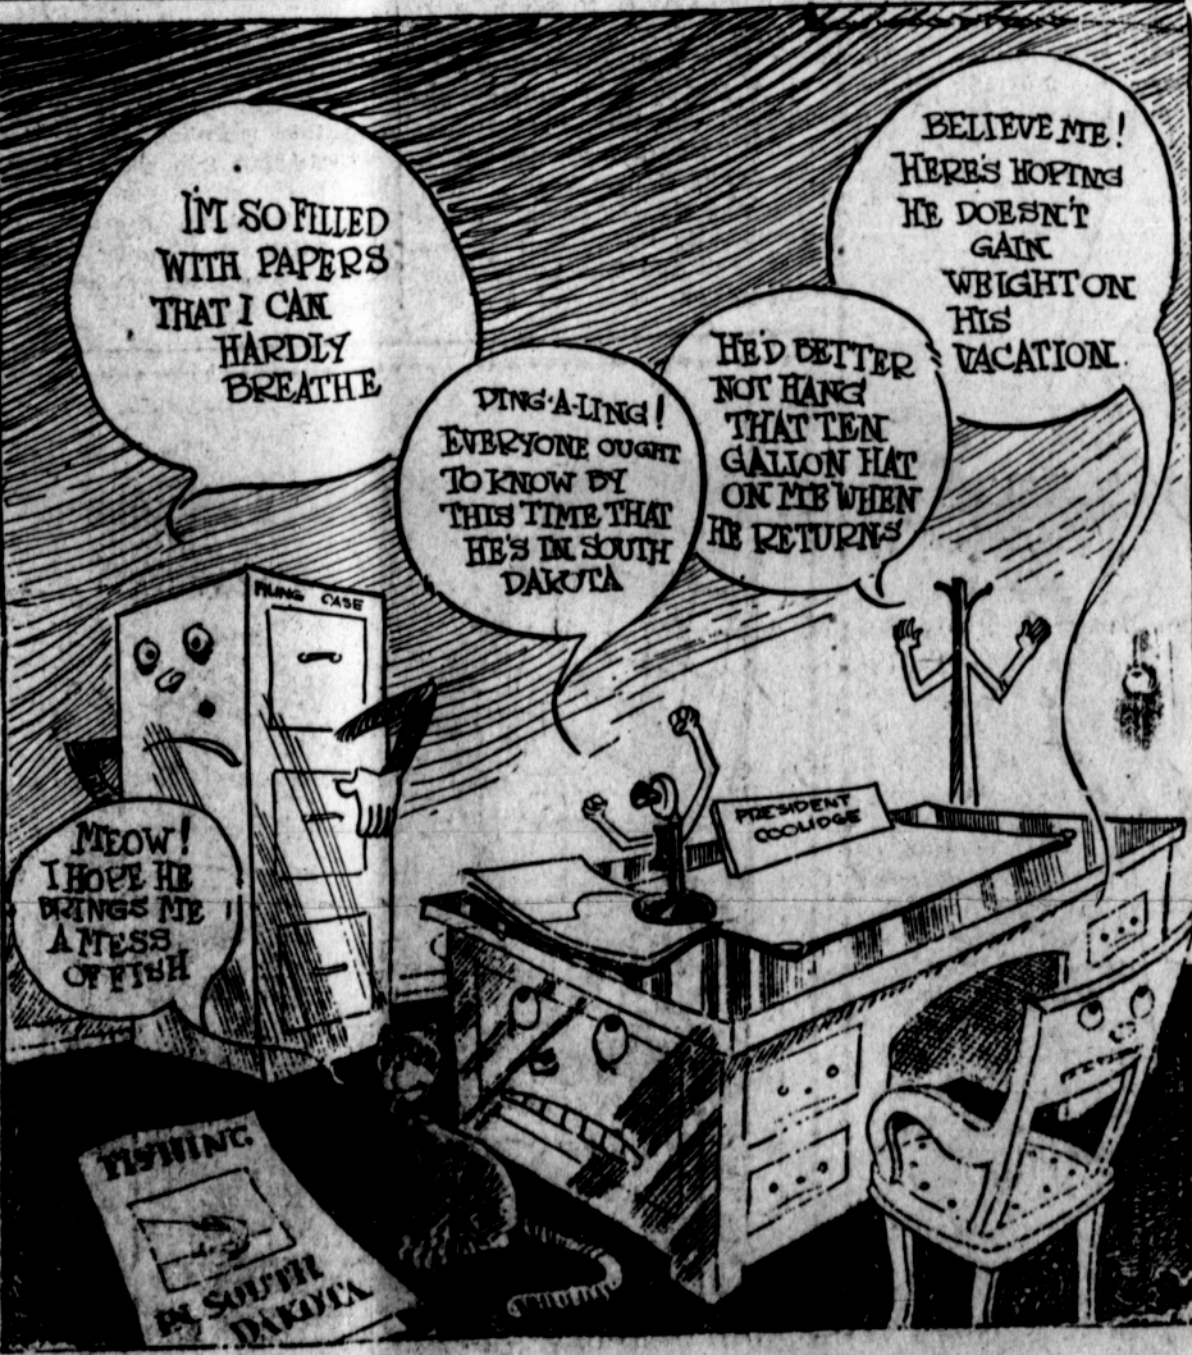

Sheriff Jennings Reaches Portland Tonight With D'Autremont Brothers

Sheriff Frank Jennings is scheduled to reach Portland tonight with Ray and Roy D'Autremont, according to Chas. B. Reddick, of Spokane, Washington, chief postal inspector for the Northwestern division. Riddick received a telegram from Sheriff Jennings Saturday evening giving the time of arrival in Oregon with the long sought brothers.

intil Judge C. M. Thomas of this district sets a date for the arraignment when they will be brought to this county. It is not likely they will be tried until September, however, as court adjourns during July and August.

The twins have caused Sheriff Jennings and his son, Deputy Sheriff Lewis Jennings no trouble, according to the message received. A day and night guard is maintained over the two brothers.

Lonesome Days At The White House

"I'M SO FILLED WITH PAPERS THAT I CAN HARDLY BREATHE"

"BELIEVE ME! HERE'S HOPEING HE DOESN'T GAIN WBRIGHT ON HIS VACATION."

"HE'D BETTER NOT HANE THAT TEN GALLON HAT ON ME WHEN HE RETURNS"

"MEOW! I HOPE HE BRINGS ME A FESS OFFISH"

"PING-A-LING! EVERYONE OUGHT TO KNOW BY THIS TIME THAT HE'S IN SOUTH DAKOTA"

"PRESIDENT COOLIDGE"