

THE DAILY TIDINGS EDITORIAL and FEATURE PAGE

ESTABLISHED IN 1876

GEORGE MADDEN GREEN, Managing Editor

PUBLISHED BY THE ASHLAND PRINTING CO.

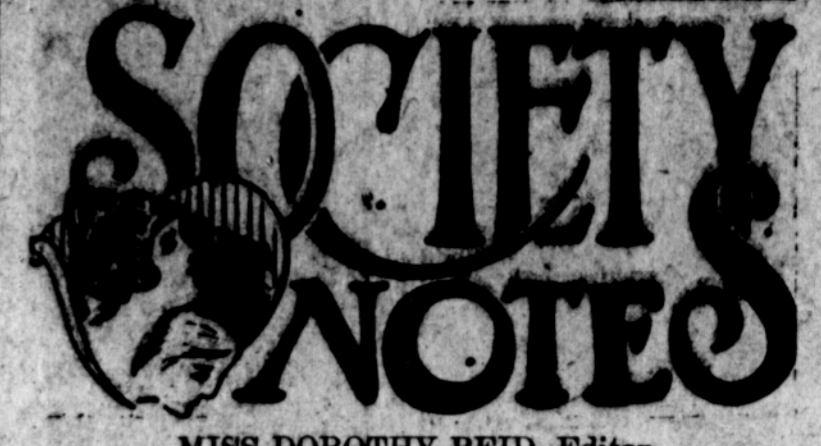

ASHLAND DAILY TIDINGS

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams

THE FORUM

Articles of timely interest are welcomed under this head. Communications must bear the signature of the author.

MISS DOROTHY REID, Editor

A Fine Mess

According to dispatches from San Francisco a young fellow was barred from the public schools because he wore overalls. There has been several reports from different parts of the country and we cannot help wonder what is our educational system coming to when the people will permit school instructors to bar a student on account of dress. It sure is a fine mess.

The editor is not old enough to have been on intimate terms with the fellows who built the pyramids but we distinctly recall the days in our school life when a young fellow had to be pretty handy with his "dukes" if he were privileged to come to school in anything else but overalls. Of course that was a few years ago. Times have changed since then. We did not call our lady friend a "pig" a "hot date" or some of the modern terms, we could not mouth her for a smoke or an opportunity to quaff a sip of "red liquor" from her initialed vanity flask but we did wear overalls to school, and we can't see that the present generation, or the generation before were such terrible, dubs either.

Imagine, if you could, old "Honest Abe" Lincoln, the model held out for young Americans to copy after, having a plastic operation to remove the wart from his nose, or lying before the fire place in a pair of balloon trousers, and a white shirt with lips delicately retouched with a lip stick and his hair beautifully lubricated that it might reflect the glare from the hearth, so that he might pass as a properly dressed scholar.

This is no plea for untidiness, shiftlessness or the wearing of overalls. We believe that anyone should take a pride in their dress, their home and their surroundings and improve them as best they can, but should anyone be so unfortunate as not be able to keep up to the white collar standard we do believe that toleration should be shown them. Such arbitrary rules is the one in question is an open insult to the institution of American schools and should not be tolerated in any self respecting community.—GOLD HILL NEWS

Just The Beginning—Not An End

Not in the wildest dream of novelists nor in the highest flights of a boy's day dreams could there be found a parallel to the destiny of Charles Lindbergh. Truth is stranger than fiction.

A mere youth, one of millions—without distinguishing feature within a few hours time becomes the world's most famous and most beloved citizen. Great statesmen and soldiers have received the world's acclaim after a life-time of preparation, but never before has a mere boy suddenly been lifted to such heights.

But what of his future? Will his fame be as fleeting as it was sudden in coming? The great statesman, general or scientists may add to his fame as years pass.

But will young "Slim" Lindbergh stop where he is now. We believe that the same qualities which made him world famous at 25 should certainly lead him on to further and perhaps more lasting achievements.

He recently remarked that his plans for the future will begin, "just as soon as I get organized," and with interest his friends will watch to see how he embarks after that organization is made.

And we are not sure but that Charles Lindbergh because of this wild acclaim will start under something of a handicap. But it will not be the crowning of his career. We are confident that this should be and is just the beginning and not the end.

A man says he doesn't see why the textile industry should be in such a bad way as women need as many dresses as they did years ago. Yes, but man where are your eyes.

Styles do spread. Hip flasks are said to be coming popular with London women.

The spring emotions—contentment and laziness.

"Home Sweet Home" to the jitney tourist is wherever he happens to take his hat off.

There was nothing cool about the reception the American fliers received in Chili.

Window washing is one occupation which makes the outlook brighter.

The good old-fashioned girl never "dyed".

Try This One

MOVIES

- 1. What new actor plays the leading role in "Old Ironsides," "The Rough Riders," and "Seventh Heaven"?
2. What motion picture actress was said to have signed a contract which was to hold her until she became sophisticated?
3. What two big films have been produced about the war? Name their directors.
4. What picture actress left a large producing company organization because they insisted upon casting her for Western parts?
5. What is panchromatic film?
6. What director is considered to be one of the ten best by the critics and one of the most expensive by the producers? What are his two best known pictures?
7. What film star is said to have refused to return to Hollywood, but changed her mind after a two years' absence?
8. What were the early motion picture theatres called?
9. What actor has appeared in only three films in the last three years, and is rated one of the biggest stars on the screen? Name the pictures.
10. What two actresses appeared in their first important roles in the film version of "Peter Pan"?
ANSWERS
1. Ed Wynn.
2. West.
3. Thomas Chatterton.

How much more fishing there is than there are fish!

There are two ways to go—up and down. Take your choice.

Nine out of every ten proposed "reforms" are contrary to human nature.

Civilization seems to be running short of two things—clothes and ideas.

People with plenty of common sense rarely devote much time to religious controversies.

Many of the troubles in this world come from folks who think it is a sin for other folks to have a little fun.

Her Heck says: "All men ain't exactly liars, but nearly every one I should say, is more or less inaccurate."

4. Colombo.
5. Troy.
6. In the MacKenzie district of Canada.
7. An artist.
8. Gladstone was born in 1809.
9. The Forty Years' War between the French and Bavarians and Austrians.
10. Free Trade.

This And That

The textile manufacturers, in their campaign to lengthen the feminine skirt, make the assertion that 90 per cent of the legs on exhibition are not worth looking at. Cottage Grove has the remaining 10 per cent.—Cottage Grove Sentinel.

Why is it that a Crane man can be the soul of honor during the entire year and then have to do a little lying about the "steer fish he caught just as soon as they start biting?"—Crane Ambrican.

"Get out of debt," urges Roger Babson. Sure, that's what we'd all like to do, but maybe Roger never engaged in bitter combat with Mr. Average Income.—La Grande Observer.

A San Francisco boy has been barred from public school because he wore overalls. If he hadn't worn them we could understand it.—Bend Bulletin.

Tell her she gets better looking every time you see her, and she wants you to see her often.—Klamath News.

Picnic Yesterday—Quite a crowd attended the Shell Oil company picnic, which was held yesterday in Cow Creek canyon, when the employees of the company from Roseburg, Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland met for a get-together meeting and a general good time.

Certain gentlemen are running around telling folks there is no state deficit and that there is no need of an income tax.

But they don't have the state's bills to pay. They won't have to bear the odium of having to issue interest-bearing warrants to pay government expenses as will have to be done by state officials if the income bill is not passed.

An empty treasury with big claims pressing for payment does not affect the peddlers of the rot that there is no deficit, but it does profoundly concern government heads who have the demoralized financial status to face.

It concerns Governor Paterson, who has the responsibility of meeting state bills that he did not incur, bills that the people voted or the legislature ordered. He knows the expenditures are already contracted and that the money must be raised or the debts bear interest and that will add to the debts anywhere from $60,000 to $100,000 a year.

The tax-dodgers pay no property taxes, and don't care if interest is to be paid on unpaid state debts, because they don't do the paying. But the overburdened property tax payers do care.

And the heads of the state government care, and that is why they urge passage of the income tax bill.—Portland Journal.

Fashion Notes—NEW YORK—Printed chiffon frocks, preferably with small geometrical or floral designs, will play an important part in the summer wardrobe. Colors most apparent this year are blue, gold, brown and henna, fuchsia and orchids. The printed chiffon frock is primarily an afternoon model, having long sleeves, and being simply made except for front skirt fullness or side drapery.

For cloth frocks nailheads are the very newest trimming, replacing in a way, beaded or silk embroidery. Some of the imported two-piece models have the entire bodice portions studied with either silver or gilt nailheads placed in floral or geometrical designs. Felt hats with brims outlined in nailheads or with crowns embellished with nailheads are to be shown later on.

The large black hat of hair or straw may be trimmed so as to better harmonize with the various colors of one's frocks by using several narrow ribbons of various colors shirred and joined together to form the crown band. One large black hair shape uses purple, rose, green and yellow ribbon of narrow width joined together. This makes a band sufficiently wide, so that it may be used half on the crown and half on the brim.

Printed bathing suits of cretonne or light challis are shown by the smartest Fifth avenue shops. They are made in dress fashion being belted at a low waistline. It is thought that most women will prefer these printed suits of plain taffetas above one-piece types.

Waistlines are just a bit higher this year than they were last. A few of the Parisian designers are attempting to bring the posture of the waistline back to normal, but with the exception of youthful perked frocks, the low waist remains. Where it was placed low on the hips last season, the belt is now placed at the top of the hips.

Visitors From Table Rock—Mrs. Fred Smith and Mrs. Myer of Table Rock were visitors in Ashland one day last week. Their sisters Miss Ruth and Grace Bigham, students at the Southern Oregon State Normal, returned to Table Rock with them to spend a few days before the summer session opened at the school.

HEDDA HOYT TELLS

"The Bird of Fire," by Maria Moravsky. A story of the early days and formative period and conditions preceding the great Russian Revolution. The author employs a colorful narrative style that is very enjoyable—evidently a Russian woman writer who has lived amid the scenes she describes and knows of what she speaks. There is a Russian Prince, a lovely character, but disconcerted with the idle nobility. In trifling native style, characteristic of the Russian nobility, he sells the military secrets of his own country to the German leaders. Things happen with amazing speed. "The Bird of Fire," is the symbol of Russia re-born in flames, a moment to a turbulent epoch. There are naturally worlds of action and adventure and action in the form of realistic fiction. It is a tremendous picture of a great race in upheaval.

Well Known Medford Girl Married—Miss Ruby Phipps, who has been a resident of Medford for the past six years, and Dwight Phipps, member of one of the valley's oldest and best known families, were married at four o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of Reverend T. H. Temple on North Orange street, Medford. The bride looked very attractive in a gown of blue georgette and carrying pink rose buds and fern. The couple were attended by Miss Dorothy Hughes and Dolph Phipps, brother of the groom. Reverend Temple performing the ceremony. Immediately after the service, Mr. and Mrs. Phipps left for a short wedding trip. They will be at home to their friends in the home on Oak street, Medford, that the groom recently purchased.

Margaret Review Holds Regular Meeting—Margaret Review, Number 22, Woman's Benefit association, held

COMING EVENTS

Monday, June 20.—The Royal Neighbors will hold their regular meeting. A large attendance is desired.

Tuesday, June 21.—Alpha Chapter No. 1, O. E. S. will meet in the Masonic hall.

Wednesday, June 22.—The Dixie club of Medford will have a picnic at the Lithia park in Ashland at 4 p. m. Ashland and other southern Oregon people are welcome.

Thursday, June 23.—The Social Circle of the Christian church will meet in the church parlors. Last meeting of the year.

Friday, June 24.—Past Master's club will meet.

Tuesday, June 28.—W. C. T. U. will hold regular meeting in the public library.

MOTHER'S BOOK

Many years, Since Mother passed away, She left to me, a legacy, Her Bible, And each day, As one reads the pages o'er, It seems more precious Than the day before.

It tells so many things—In the hour of sorrow, Comfort brings, And when life's cares, seem almost more Than one can bear, Mother's book, the Bible, says: "Let not your heart be troubled," Mother's book and Mother's God, They are mine—O Lord, we may ever keep our soul, In tune with thine. Altha Hoekert, Salem, Oregon.

Important Books Reviewed—

"The Bird of Fire," by Maria Moravsky. A story of the early days and formative period and conditions preceding the great Russian Revolution. The author employs a colorful narrative style that is very enjoyable—evidently a Russian woman writer who has lived amid the scenes she describes and knows of what she speaks. There is a Russian Prince, a lovely character, but disconcerted with the idle nobility. In trifling native style, characteristic of the Russian nobility, he sells the military secrets of his own country to the German leaders. Things happen with amazing speed. "The Bird of Fire," is the symbol of Russia re-born in flames, a moment to a turbulent epoch. There are naturally worlds of action and adventure and action in the form of realistic fiction. It is a tremendous picture of a great race in upheaval.

Well Known Medford Girl Married—Miss Ruby Phipps, who has been a resident of Medford for the past six years, and Dwight Phipps, member of one of the valley's oldest and best known families, were married at four o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of Reverend T. H. Temple on North Orange street, Medford. The bride looked very attractive in a gown of blue georgette and carrying pink rose buds and fern. The couple were attended by Miss Dorothy Hughes and Dolph Phipps, brother of the groom. Reverend Temple performing the ceremony. Immediately after the service, Mr. and Mrs. Phipps left for a short wedding trip. They will be at home to their friends in the home on Oak street, Medford, that the groom recently purchased.

Margaret Review Holds Regular Meeting—Margaret Review, Number 22, Woman's Benefit association, held their regular meeting Wednesday evening, June 15 in the I. O. O. F. hall. The Review was especially favored with a visit from the state commander, Mrs. Julia B. Ward, of Portland, Oregon. Mrs. Ward gave many interesting side lights on the growth of the Order in the state of Oregon and the progress the W. B. A. has enjoyed within the past year in this section. November 2 was set as Rally Day, and at that time many candidates will be initiated. Mrs. Ward will also visit the Review again on that date. At the completion of the business meeting a very enjoyable social entertainment was given by two of the members. Mrs. Clara Bomar gave several humorous readings and Mrs. Henry Reid delighted the members with a well known Scotch ballad. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room which was appropriately decorated for the occasion with beautiful flowers.

Southern Oregon Cleaners and Dyer's Meet—

The members of the Southern Oregon Cleaners and Dyer's association held their annual picnic yesterday afternoon, Sunday, June 19, at Jackson's Hot Springs, a few miles north of the city. Approximately fifty were in attendance, representatives from Grants Pass, Medford, Klamath Falls and Ashland being present. The time was spent swimming, until late in the day, when a picnic lunch was enjoyed. Those who attended this affair from Ashland were the following named: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beck, Miss Irma Beck, Miss Shirley Marx, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Doremus, Mrs. Smith and daughter Miss Lorraine and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Wright and family. College Club Meets at Ashland—Members of the College Women's club of the Rogue River Valley, assembled at the home of Mrs. H. A. Stearns on Oak street Saturday afternoon, June 18, for the concluding meeting of the club year. The program opened with a review of an unfinished book, "From Man to Man," by Oliver Schreiner, prepared and read by Mrs. John Carlin of Medford. Miss Edith May of Phoenix was awarded the scholarship. The new president, Miss Van Meter, appointed the new committees for the coming year, the names to be published later. Two violin solos by Harvey Woods, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Woods on North Main street, accompanied by his mother, were greatly enjoyed, also the piano solos, "To a Water Lily" and "Autumn" by MacDowell, played by Mrs. J. R. Robertson of this city. Refreshments were served at the close of the program, Miss Van Meter and Mrs. F. D. Wagner presiding at the tea tables.

Medford Methodists Enjoy Picnic—Members of the Medford Epworth League with the laymen of the Medford Methodist church, northern branch, gathered for a Southern Oregon picnic in Lithia park Thursday afternoon and evening, June 16. The time was spent pulling off light contests, playing games and partaking of luncheon. A large crowd was in attendance. Walter Mikache and Bride Visit Ashland—Walter Mikache and his bride were Ashland visitors on Thursday, June 16, at the home of Mr. Mikache's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mikache on Fairview street. They are on their way to Palo Alto, California, where Mr. Mikache will enter the summer session for further training in French and Spanish, which he will teach at Linfield college during the coming year. Mr. Mikache was a former Ashland boy, who took his high school course here and later worked as accountant in the First National bank of this city.

TURNING THE PAGES BACK

ASHLAND 10 Years Ago

Miss Georgie Coffee and Miss Eva Davidson of this city spent the week-end in Hill, California.

A gang of itinerant Holy Rollers held forth in front of Curt's restaurant at the depot Sunday afternoon, to the edification of a good sized crowd which gathered.

Dick Posey, one of the best entertainers on the coast, will entertain for the Moose lodge Friday, at 8 p. m. in the Moose hall, corner of East Main and Third streets.

L. G. (Beacon) Walker, a former Ashland boy, now employed in the Rogue River Public Service electric plant at Gold Hill, passed through Ashland the last of the week enroute to San Francisco.

ASHLAND 20 Years Ago

Emil Pell is visiting the Rose Carnival in Portland.

Mrs. G. S. Butler returned yesterday from her Portland visit. Mr. Butler, who has been in Eastern Oregon for several weeks, is expected home within a day or two.

Walter Applegate, son of Henry Applegate of Ashland precinct, has recently been paying home folks a visit. He is now holding a responsible clerical position in the offices of a leading Portland wholesale firm.

Mrs. A. E. Kinney returned yesterday from attendance at the grand chapter, O. E. S., at Portland.

ASHLAND 30 Years Ago

W. E. Jacobs of Ashland and G. W. Bashford of Medford, have purchased the Rose flouring mills at Roseburg, the deal having been negotiated the first of the week by W. J. Virgin and Mr. Bashford. Mr. Jacobs and E. L. Bashford, it is understood, will take supervision of the business and fit up the property in first class modern style. The consideration was $7500.

Grant G. Gray came in from Pelican Bay this week after a big lot of supplies and furnishings to fit up with out at "Pelican Bay Lodge" for the accommodation of the tourists who will begin to seek that place next month to enjoy the excellent fishing, hunting and boating on the bay and lake there.