

THE DAILY TIDINGS EDITORIAL and FEATURE PAGE

ESTABLISHED IN 1876

GEORGE HADDEN GREEN, Managing Editor

PUBLISHED BY THE ASHLAND PRINTING CO.

ASHLAND DAILY TIDINGS

Published at the Ashland, Oregon Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter.
Subscription Price — Ashland Daily Tidings
By Carrier—1 mo. 65c; 1 yr. $7.50. By Mail—1 mo. 65c, 1 yr. $6.50

Good Suggestion

A contributor to The Tidings' forum column yesterday very properly called attention to the fact that the railroad and local trucking companies support Ashland and that outside trucking companies do not, drawing the conclusion that Ashland merchants should support the railroad or the local operators of trucks.

There may be isolated cases wherein the railroads or the local trucking companies cannot give service in competition with an outside trucking concern, although The Tidings feels certain there are very few such cases.

Only yesterday, a representative of The Daily Tidings was reminded by an S. P. Official that the payroll at the local station exceeded $20,000 a month. There is profit in this $20,000 for every merchant in this city and this profit should possibly justify a little inconvenience if necessary in order to patronize the railroad instead of an outside trucking concern which adds nothing to the support of Ashland. This is only one thought as a result of the forum article.

Funds for the Fair

What is to become of the Jackson county fair this year? Will there be a fair, or will the failure of the measure for the mill levy for the fair in the Tuesday election make it impossible to hold the annual event?

The question now before the board of directors probably is where to procure the necessary funds to operate the fair this year, for, undoubtedly the present income would not pay the expenses of the fair since part of the revenue from the state has been discontinued.

In some places where state, district or county fairs are operated, the city in which the fairgrounds is located assumes part of the responsibility—in other words the city to which most of the business in connection with the fair goes, contributes by levy or other means for the support of the fair. Fairgrounds are practically always so located that some one city gets the immediate profit as far as business during the session is concerned. In the case of the Jackson county fair, Medford naturally gets the direct benefit of any business resulting from the fair.

The suggestion was made to The Tidings that possibly Medford would feel like meeting the emergency by offering some financial aid to the Jackson county fair.

Golf Mysteries

Wives of Ashland golf players—those who have not yet started playing the game—are learning considerable about the affect of the pastime, even though they may not have yet visited the local course.

One woman told The Tidings she had learned these points:

- 1—A cold dinner, served about 10 minutes after darkness, which was formerly spurned, is now enjoyed without a murmur of complaint from said husband.
- 2—The yard does not need mowing anything like as often now as it formerly did—and when it does, it seems that some worthy young man who needs the money always applies to said husband at the right moment.
- 3—Said husband has radically changed his idea of plus-fours, which he now looks at longingly every morning as if he would like to wear them to work, whereas just a short time ago he wondered why men liked to appear in them.

She had many other observations and discoveries which she had recently made. Naturally curious, she said she was going out to investigate and, while the writer does not want to in any way reflect upon this woman's household ability or loyalty, we believe it would be safe to wager that very soon there will be two sitting down to cold meals each evening just a little after darkness in this woman's home.

Babe is slipping, but heroes are so popular this season that Gehrig isn't much more than just a fairly interesting ball player.

We may have marathons and marathons, but there won't be any Indian runners make the trip to the Hawaiian Islands.

Hollywood stars twinkled when the wage cut was announced, but the producers went entirely out.

Now everything is all set for a glorious Fourth.

OUT OUR WAY

By Williams Make Many Improvements

THE LABOR SAVING DEVICE. DRAWN BY J.R. WILLIAMS. COPY BY THE SERVICE, INC.

Try This One

FAMOUS CHAPTERS IN AVIATION

1. In what year was the first flight made in a power driven plane
2. Give the location and the distance of the first officially recorded flight? By whom was it made? In what year?
3. What aviator carried the first passenger? What year?
4. Name the first man killed in an airplane accident.
5. In what year was the English Channel first crossed? By whom?
6. In what war was airplanes first used?
7. What pilot first flew upside down?
8. In what year was the first non-stop flight between New York and Chicago made?
9. Name the plane first to cross the Atlantic.
10. What two army lieutenants first made a non-stop flight from New York to San Diego?

ANSWERS

1. Soviet Russia and Poland.
2. No, merely a plurality.
3. Jerome K. Jerome.
4. $599,000,000.
5. Motion-picture industry.
6. Anti-slavery bill.
7. Lillian Gish.
8. National marble tournament.
9. Clarence Chamberlain and Chas. Levine.
10. Total eclipse of the sun.

SAP AND SALT
BENDER MOSES

In the marriage lottery, nearly everybody draws a blank.

The laws have denatured us. We are trying to be "what we ain't."

A good auto is a necessity, while a second-hand car is a luxury.

To get business is difficult, while to hold it calls for genius of a high order.

Somebody might arise and tell us how old she must be before we must stop calling her "girlie."

Any man who will steal for you will even things up by stealing from you at the first chance.

How Heck says: "After careful calculation, I figure that at least one-quarter of our lives is spent in button-in' and unbuttonin'."

It's hard to surpass the beauty of the valleys of Baker county. Crops have been held back by the late spring, but they look fine now, and we have a right to expect an excellent harvest.—Baker Herald.

SCISSORED SENTIMENTS

If Hollywood really wants a smile over the 10 per cent wage cut in moviedom, it's waiting for anyone who discovers that Will Hayes got his along with the rest.—Bend Bulletin.

Whether it is in the building of a great public hall or a museum trap there is always somebody to tell you just why you can't.—Eugene Guard.

With favorable weather there will be no excuse from now on till all harvests are over for a single idle person in all the Salem district. Everyone will have to be a "working fool" to get all the work done that is crying to be done.—Salem Statesman.

The old-fashioned politician who was going to make everybody happy by coining silver dollars at 16-to-1 now has a successor who is proposing to rescue the farmers by fixing the price of everything by law.—Condon Globe-Times.

It has been many years since there was such a stand of grain and grass in Harney county as is the case this year. "There's a reason" for these conditions—plenty of rainfall.—Crane American.

The person who starts out to hit the high spots should carry more than one spare tire.—Klamath Falls Herald.

TURNING THE PAGES BACK

ASHLAND 12 Years Ago

Carl Rueck of Klamath Falls is visiting his uncle, I. M. Shook, in this city for a few days. He came over by way of Crater Lake on his bicycle and reports a most interesting trip. Mr. Rueck says that autos can now get within a couple of miles of the lake but that it is necessary to walk the remainder of the way.

The thermometer crawled up around 98 degrees in Medford Wednesday. While it was some warm here it wasn't that bad.

New Canning Peach—We the undersigned, have used the new Cling canning peach grown on your dry farm and consider them superior in flavor and solids to any cling peach used. F. S. Eagle, O. H. Johnson, J. G. Hurt.

ASHLAND 20 Years Ago

E. E. Foss, the Wagner creek fruit grower, was here Saturday on business. Mr. Foss has just returned from a trip to Williamette Valley points. He says he has a bumper peach crop this year and his orchard is cleaner and in better shape than ever before in its history.

H. E. Carmichael, T. H. Gilham and Major Carter, have returned from a three weeks trip through the mountains west and northwest of Ashland. They traveled the mountain trails afoot, taking a pack horse along to carry their camp kit.

August Mickelson, the shoe man, who has to move from his present location on account of the new brick building, will have quarters on Main street next to Bush the bicycle man.

ASHLAND 30 Years Ago

A postoffice has been established at what has been known as Wedgwood, at the forks of the Applegate roads. It is called Ruch and Casper Ruch is postmaster.

The Chautauqua folks, under the foremanship of E. D. Briggs, have this week been doing some hydraulicicking in the grove along Ashland creek, which has the appearance of a placer mining stream for a few days.

Ashland having arranged for no general observance of the Fourth of July this year, many of the people expect to attend the big celebration at Jacksonville, with picnics at other points to attract some of them.

Extensive improvements are being made at the Standard Oil station at the corner of Main and Church streets, which has been leased to C. A. Wolf, owner of the Armory Service Station in Medford.

The new station will be known by the name of Black and White, with the buildings decorated accordingly. A greasing rack, additional storage room and other improvements are being made. The station will also handle a line of tires and accessories.

Grover B. Leach, who has been connected with the station, will be in charge, according to the arrangements.

CARELESSNESS IS ACCIDENT CAUSE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—(AP)—Carelessness of pedestrians has been blamed for 44.2 per cent of the 61 automobile fatalities in San Francisco since January 1.

In a coroner's report, 37.7 per cent of the deaths were attributed to carelessness of the automobile driver, while in 2 cases both driver and pedestrian were said to have been responsible for the accidents.

Sixteen of the 61 persons killed were drivers or passengers in automobiles, while the remainder were classed as pedestrian. Speeding resulted in six deaths, reckless driving in four, while negligence was held responsible for only one death.

BEARS GET TOUGHER

UNION, Ore., July 2.—(AP)—Bears are getting tougher, judging from an experience of J. R. Wanker and Lester Miller.

Miller and Wanker encountered a bear while hunting cattle in the mountains near Medical Springs. Miller fired at the animal, which, enraged at the wound turned around and charged at Wanker. Wanker, taken by surprise, emptied the magazine of his gun into the bear's body, but failed to stop it. He then drew his hunting knife, but the bear changed his mind and climbed a tree.

CLASSIFIED ADS

WHY KEEP SOMETHING YOU DO NOT NEED?
Try a Daily Tidings
SMALL-COST WANT AD.

SOCIETY NOTES

MISS DOROTHY REID, Editor

Wednesday, July 6.—Who Do class meets at the home of Mrs. Watkins on Laurel street. Covered dish luncheon at noon. Members are urged to be present as this meeting is a farewell party for Mrs. J. E. Angwin.

Monday, July 11.—Royal Neighbors of America will meet in Wimer hall for their regular session.

TO ONE UNKNOWN

Somewhere alone tonight I know you wander
Somewhere amid the star-dust and the dew
Within your heart an old unrest and hunger,
For one to share night's mysteries with you.

Now I could give such a wealth of night-love
I've learned when darkness crushes out the day
For I've seen stars bend low in benediction,
When weary little breezes pause to pray.

And once I crept quite near a magic garden
A fire-fly lamp that flutters as it glows
Revealed to me all softly pink and golden
A fairy fast asleep within a rose.

Somehow I think that I have been less lonely
Tho I ne'er touch your hands nor see your face
Just knowing that you too welcome the darkness
That makes of all the world a mystic place.

Bianche Logan O'Neal
Ashland, Ore.

Important Books Reviewed

"Twilight Sleep," by the aristocratic authoress of the choicest American fiction—Edith Wharton, author of "The Age of Innocence." This famous woman of the Four Hundred, in the upper circles of New York society, has here surpassed all her previous efforts with a subject that is of deeper importance than any other to the Nobility of American Society, if such there be. How to have a child that arrives on the landing stage of this modern world as a mere incident of a sweet and restful slumber—and there will be readers by the million, as even washer-women are no longer suffering the tortures of the damned in becoming benefactors of the human race. However, the reader must not confuse this novel with a book on modern obstetrics. "Twilight Sleep" is fiction of the highest order, dealing with the demands of society women and men, too, for that matter, that life be partially veiled for them. Demands that nothing hurt them, nothing real get to them, and the results of a continually drugged existence, are met and explained in this volume.

Medford Elks Enjoy Meeting

Approximately 200 members of the Medford Elks lodge attended the lodge's regular weekly session, which was transferred to Prospect, on the road to Crater Lake, Thursday, June 30. Following a fine concert given on the lawn of the Grieve hotel, the usual business session was conducted during which seven candidates were initiated into the B. P. O. E. order. A cafeteria dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. James E. Grieve. The candidates initiated were the following named: Chester Cook, Arthur J. Brix, Jack A. Crump, A. Schoop, Harold Cramp, Burt L. Lagerson and James Heston Grieve.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCoy Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCoy entertained last evening, Friday, July 1, at their pleasant home on North Main street with a delightful Bridge party, the occasion being in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hazelton of Sacramento, California, who are spending several days in Ashland visiting with Mrs. Hazelton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Barber on Granite street. Four tables were in play Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Jr., received the ladies' prize for holding high score and Mr. F. R. Hardy was awarded the gentlemen's prize. Mrs. Hazelton was presented with a beautiful guest prize. Late in the evening the hostess served elaborate refreshments at a table gorgeously decorated with Iris. The guest list included: Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crow, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wenner, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Read, who were unable to attend, Miss Marguerite Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hazelton.

Murphy and Mr. Clarence Lane of this city acted as judges for the prize walk.

Wedding Solemnized

A beautiful wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening, June 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Caster of Eagle Point, when Miss Marjorie Caster became the bride of Mr. Roy Burleson. The impressive ring ceremony was performed under an arch of Shasta daisies by the Reverend Roy Nelson of Phoenix. The bride wore an attractive gown of powder blue crepe and carried a shower bouquet of roses and snapdragons. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Hilderbrand of Phoenix. After a bounteous wedding feast served by the bride's mother, the couple left for a short honeymoon. They will be at home to their many friends about July 15 in Phoenix.

United in Marriage

Miss Edith Kisen, a grade school teacher of the Miller district, Klamath Falls, and Mr. Thomas J. Johnston, of Fairview, Idaho, were united in marriage Thursday, June 30, at four p. m. at the Presbyterian church in Medford, by Reverend E. P. Lawrence. The couple were accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Hardy of Ashland. They plan to make a trip to Klamath Falls and from there to their new home in Fairview, Idaho.

Attend Luncheon in Medford

The Medford Shrine club enjoyed their regular luncheon at the Hotel Medford yesterday, Friday, July 1. Past Potentates T. H. Simpson and Hal McNair of Ashland were present and spoke briefly. Members were also pleasantly entertained by Mrs. F. E. Nichols, who sang several beautiful numbers.

Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCoy entertained last evening, Friday, July 1, at their pleasant home on North Main street with a delightful Bridge party, the occasion being in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hazelton of Sacramento, California, who are spending several days in Ashland visiting with Mrs. Hazelton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Barber on Granite street. Four tables were in play Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Jr., received the ladies' prize for holding high score and Mr. F. R. Hardy was awarded the gentlemen's prize. Mrs. Hazelton was presented with a beautiful guest prize. Late in the evening the hostess served elaborate refreshments at a table gorgeously decorated with Iris. The guest list included: Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crow, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wenner, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Read, who were unable to attend, Miss Marguerite Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hazelton.

Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCoy entertained last evening, Friday, July 1, at their pleasant home on North Main street with a delightful Bridge party, the occasion being in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hazelton of Sacramento, California, who are spending several days in Ashland visiting with Mrs. Hazelton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Barber on Granite street. Four tables were in play Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Jr., received the ladies' prize for holding high score and Mr. F. R. Hardy was awarded the gentlemen's prize. Mrs. Hazelton was presented with a beautiful guest prize. Late in the evening the hostess served elaborate refreshments at a table gorgeously decorated with Iris. The guest list included: Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crow, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wenner, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Read, who were unable to attend, Miss Marguerite Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hazelton.

(Please Turn to Page 8)