MY MOTHER

So many years ago she went away
And time has only made to me
more clear
The memory of her sacrifice and
love,
The memory of her eyes so
patient—dear.

Perhaps there lies within the heart
realm above
Something more sweet, more pure
than all that's there
By which she'll know that I who seemed so hard
In all youth's callousness, did truly care.

May increase of my tender love
surround her
Reveal to her the heart I once
would hide
Lest others seeing, ridicule and
scorn me
Lest others sneering wound my boyish pride.

So, God, if there is something that you hold
More sacred than all else of
Heavenly bliss,
Please let it speak this love for
her,
I could not ask a sweeter boon
than this.

Important Books Reviewed—

"The Woman I Am," by Amber Lee. Another novel of the realistic school that will travel far and be much sought after on the sales counters of book stores. The author is no amateur in dealing with high life and strenuous relations. Think of a very beautiful, well educated New England woman left stranded by a wrecked marriage, entering a career becoming more common, trying to reconstruct her life, all pictured with strident literary art—and no touch of the amateur. The life of the heroine reaches many impasse places, where only a genius for solving human relations could say, where shall we go from here? This novel is like some movies, we are sorry we went but believe the world is better off for having seen the picture.

Campfire Girls Enjoy Supper—

The Campfire Girls cabin on Terrace street was the scene of a happy affair Tuesday evening, August 23, when they gathered there to enjoy a covered-dish supper.

After a most satisfying meal, the following named girls spent an hour or more in conversation and playing games: the Misses Marie Davies, Lydia Smith, Louise Hanson, Ellen Galey, Bernice McCornack, Charlotte Leedom, Barbara Taylor, Lucille Carson, Eleanor Coombe, Irwanda Bateman, Nedra Bartlett and Geneva Bartlett. The girls were chaperoned by Mrs. Bartlett.

Mrs. Dean Scott Hostess—

Mrs. Dean Scott was the charming hostess Wednesday afternoon, August 24, when she delightfully entertained a group of friends with a Bridge party at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. Tucker on the Boulevard, the occasion being in honor of Mrs. Gertrude Fraley of Whittier, California, who has been a house guest of her sister, Mrs. W. H. McNair on Oak street for some time.

Two tables of cards were in play during the afternoon. Mrs. John Enders received a pretty prize for holding high score and Mrs. Domino Provost was awarded the consolation. Refreshments, daintily arranged, were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Scott's guests were: Mesdames John Enders, W. H. McNair, Elwood Hedberg, Clyde Young, Lynn Slack, Domino Provost, Gerald Wenner and the guest of honor, Mrs. Gertrude Fraley.

Fifth Birthday Celebrated—

The children of the local kindergarten, accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Nellie Sleaf, gave little Marcene Oller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Oller of Weed, California, a surprise birthday party yesterday afternoon, Thursday, August 25, on the lawn in front of the Luke apartments on Hargadine street, where Marcene and her mother are residing. Marcene was seriously injured in an automobile accident the first of last month and has been in Ashland since that time undergoing medical treatment.

Games and stunts occupied the time until refreshments were served the little guests, the main feature being a large birthday cake. Marcene was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts.

Those present were: Billie Elhart, Jack Bolton, Lester Wilcox, Bobbie Wilcox, Buddy Silver, Shirley Enders, Carol Road, Jean Road, Lily Sleaf, Martha Sleaf, Peggy Silver, the guest of honor Marcene Oller, the teacher, Mrs. Nellie Sleaf and Mesdames C. J. Brady, Hal Oller and O. F. Silver.

Annual Basket Dinner At Christian Church

Sunday morning, August 28, immediately following the regular morning services, the ladies of the Loyal Women's Bible class of the Christian church will hold their annual basket dinner in the dining room of that institution.

All members are extended the privilege of bringing their husband or a friend, and are requested to bring a well-filled basket. This will be the first social function held in the church for several weeks and it is expected to be a most pleasant affair.

HEDDA HOYT TELLS

Of Fashion Notes
NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Cloth coats are expected to outnumber suits during late summer and early fall. However, suits for the tourist and for the tailored woman are being shown by most shops. Suits for sportswear will be made of tweeds and twills primarily. For formal wear, broadcloth and soft woolsens are the favored fabrics. Velvet although popular for gowns and coats, is not seriously considered for suits for the coming season.

Suits will be of hip-length as a rule. Fur trimming is absent due to the increasing vogue for separate animal scarfs. Colors listed as important are tans, greys, browns and black. Fur neckpieces harmonize.

Bolero frocks are important among the fall showings. It is noticed that these models are not for the plump woman since the bolero is invariably posed over a snug-fitting body foundation which demands slenderness. As a rule the bolero is rather short, extending an inch or two above the normal waist-line. The light body and hip-line is essential when the bolero is used.

To be appropriately dressed for all occasions, one should remember that thin hosiery stockings are far preferable for sportswear than silk stockings. It is very seldom nowadays that we find hosiery stockings worn with the sports dress although it is quite certain that they should be.

INTERURBAN STAGE COMPANY SOLD TO OREGON STAGES, INC.

The Interurban Stage company, operated by Wm. L. Lewis, between Ashland and Roseburg, has been purchased by The Oregon Stages, Inc., of which R. W. Lemen is president and general manager. Terminal will be at the Hotel Ashland, according to the announcement made today. This will enable passengers to make the trip to Portland without changing buses at Roseburg, as has been done in the past, as they will go into Portland from Ashland on the Ted-Top buses.

HUNT CONTINUES

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The navy doesn't propose to give up hope for the three missing trans-Pacific airplanes as yet—despite the fact that the "Miss Doran" and "Golden Eagle" have not been heard from for nine days, and the distress call for the "Dallas Spirit" was heard nearly a week ago.

Given authority to continue the search as long as he thought necessary, Rear Admiral R. H. Jackson, commander in chief of the battle fleet, today had nearly 30 ships continuing the hunt. The cruiser Omaha and a flank of destroyers were sweeping across the Pacific toward Pearl Harbor, searching the sea lane for traces of the seven fliers or flotsem from the present time, but it seems their plans.

Athletic Commission Rules on What Constitutes a Foul Punch in Boxing

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—(AP)—A new interpretation of a "foul punch" was made Thursday by the New York athletic commission in a joint session with the complete staff of referees and judges.

The foul line will be dropped approximately five inches. Boxing trunks will be constructed so that the contrasting color which goes to distinguish the belt line will curve downward from the hips.

Any blow below the belt will be foul, but any blow on the belt itself will be fair.

Commissioner Muldoon advocated a plan whereby the referee would be required to consult the two judges before calling a foul. Action is expected to be taken on this plan at the next meeting.

Under the new interpretation, many blows regarded as foul would be determined fair. Practically all of the punches delivered by Jack Dempsey in his match with Jack Sharkey and by Paolino in his match with Jack Delaney were fairly delivered as a result of the ruling.

It was decided by the commission to allow boxers to use rubber mouthpieces to protect their gums.

The age limit for boxers was lifted from 25 to 40, but all boxers between 25 and 40 must undergo a physical examination semi-annually by three of the commission's physicians.

98-Year-Old Prince Sails With British

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Born a prince of Wales in the south seas 98 years ago, a 98-year-old Kamala today waits the decks of the British trading schooner Doris Grease as second mate.

In his broken "pidgin" English Kamala, still stalwart but sunken-eye, paddling around in leathery feet which have never known shoes, unfolded the story of how strange white men pulled him exhausted from the sea as he swam near his home and sailed away be-
