

Local Personal Notes

A Daily Chronicle of those who come and go, and events of local interest

Returned From Eugene—Mrs. P. G. Swendenburg on the highway recently returned from short automobile trip to Eugene.

Auto keys at Pixit Shop.

20 Cross Conference—Delegates from the Oregon Fishers of the American Red Cross will meet at Albany in a conference October 17 and 18. Luncheon will be provided by national headquarters.

Suppered Snacks, 3 cans for 25c at Schuerman's Grocery. 6-11

Returned Saturday—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lane and Mrs. W. A. Rockefeller of Ashland, were visitors in Medford Saturday forenoon. Mr. Lane is engaged in business in Ashland. Medford Daily News.

Cafeteria—The Cafeteria for Ashland opens Saturday, Oct. 1. Give us a call and we will try to please you, 93 North Main St. 25-3*

Photographs repaired and guaranteed—Ehartz's, 296-11

Spent Week-End—Miss Juanita Nutting, who teaches in the Uniontown district, spent the week-end visiting with friends in Medford. Miss Nutting is well known in Ashland, having attended the Southern Oregon normal school in this city.

Cliff Payne makes shelving.

Business in Medford—Mr. and Mrs. Donald Magruder of this city spent several hours in Medford Saturday looking after business affairs and visiting with friends.

No investment pays better than good clothes. See Pausrud's suits. 21-11

Back Hunters Return—Many of the Ashland and valley duck hunters, who have spent the week-end in the Klamath lake and Lakeview districts, returned home late yesterday afternoon or last night. It has been generally understood that the ducks are very numerous this year. The season opened Saturday, October 1, and will close on January 15.

VINING TODAY and TOMORROW

Fast moving story of the cruise-ship with round after round of laughter.

SO. J. HAYES AT THE ORGAN

Elected Delegate—Miss Marguerite Scott, a member of the Medford high school faculty and vice-president of the high school P. T. A., was elected delegate to the state convention at La Grande in October.

Bread and butter pickles, 25c jar at Schuerman's Grocery. 6-11

Hunting—Charles Petri of Talent, pressman at the Ashland Daily Tidings office, is spending several days on a hunting trip.

Cleaning, pressing and remodeling at Paulserud's. 2111

Made Trip to Lake—Miss Gladys Applegate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Applegate on Granite street, who is employed by the California Oregon Power company in Medford, made the trip to Crater lake Sunday in company with a party of Medford friends. They returned home by way of Klamath Falls.

Get your glass, Jordan's Mill.

Harry Silver Here—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Silver of Oakland, Calif., are spending a few weeks in this city visiting Mr. Silver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Silver, Sr., on B street, and sisters, Isabelle, Kathline and Mrs. Willard Pendleton and a brother Oscar Silver and family, who reside on Hargadine street.

Let the UNION write your full coverage automobile insurance. Yes, of course. 22-11

Best Drumstick Artist—Medford post's drum corps has one of the best drumstick artists in the state, according to the judges at the Jubilee contest, who awarded to Comrade G. G. Nichols the huge silver loving cup for first place in the individual drummer's feature. The Medford budgie certainly showed his old stuff and massaged the old snare in a manner which made local legionnaires proud to hear him.—Medford Legion.

Get a Calumet Kid Balloon with a can of Calumet. Schuerman's Grocery. 6-11

Left For Portland—Mrs. Carrie R. Minkler of this city left this morning for Portland, Oregon, where she will spend some time visiting with her son, Ray Minkler.

Dan Bowerman Here—Dan Bowerman, news editor of the Medford Daily News, spent a short time in this city Sunday evening visiting friends. Bowerman resided in Ashland several years ago and was employed at the Ashland Daily Tidings office.

Returned to Medford—Miss Lella Carlton returned to Medford last evening, after having spent the week-end in Ashland visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carlton on Union street. Miss Carlton is employed at the town office of the California Oregon Power company in Medford.

Earl Snyder, S. F. Co., employe who works at Dunsmuir and Klamath Falls, is spending several days in Ashland visiting his parents on the Boulevard and with friends.

Returned Saturday—Mr. and Mrs. Clark Abbott, who have been spending the past few weeks in Portland, returned Saturday to their home on Seventh street in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Abbott were married on Monday, September 26. She was formerly Miss Thelma Spencer and attended the local high school for a short time.

Visited in K. F.—Mrs. Cedric Myer, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Carlton on Union street, motored to Klamath Falls late Saturday night to spend the week-end visiting Mr. Myer, who is employed by the Southern Pacific company there, and with friends.

Cars Registered—Forty three out of the state cars were registered Saturday, Oct. 1, at the local branch of the state registration bureau, located in the chamber of commerce building on the Plaza. Out of these 43, 27 of them were California cars.

Guests At Wolcott Home—James Kinsella of Macdonel, Calif., was a guest at the J. M. Wolcott home in this city a few days ago.

Announce Birth—Mr. and William Gould on Mountain avenue announce the birth of a son Monday, October 3.

Former Residents Here—Mr. and Mrs. Karl Nims and son, Jack, who recently moved from this city to San Francisco, California, arrived in Ashland Saturday, where they will spend several days visiting friends and looking after business affairs. Mr. Nims, who is an employe of the Southern Pacific company, was transferred to the California city.

Spent Week-End Here—Miss Mildred Lawrence, daughter of Reverend and Mrs. E. P. Lawrence of Medford, spent the week-end in Ashland visiting with Miss Marshall Talent, daughter of Officer and Mrs. Charles Talent on the Boulevard.

Guard Co. Mustered—The Grants Pass National Guard company, which is one of the newest companies in the state of Oregon, was mustered Friday night, September 30.

Hunting Better—The deer hunting, because of the recent rains, has been much better in all sections of the county for the last few days.

Mining Man Returned—Roscoe Potter, well known Southern Oregon mining man, who has been spending several weeks in the Central Point district, returned to his home in Medford Saturday. Mr. Potter, who formerly owned what is said to be one of the largest mines in the Evans Creek section, plans to leave in a short time for Modesto, Cal., to spend the winter, with the intention of returning next spring.

Militates Against Fishing—The fact that the Rogue river and other streams in Jackson county are still raising and are somewhat discolored again, militates against fishing being good for a few days.

W. G. Steel At Imperial—The man who did more than any one other individual to make the world acquainted with Crater lake is at the Imperial. He is Will G. Steel. As a lad in the east he heard of a lake sunken in a mountain top, and when he came to Oregon he browsed around until he found it, and once he visited Crater lake he devoted years to exploring it. Mr. Steel talked Crater lake in season and out and through his propaganda he induced many people to visit it, and also through his efforts a movement was started to create a national park so the lake would be preserved.—The Oregonian.

Officers Left—George Alexander, state prohibition commissioner, and Captain E. H. Burghdoff, chief of the field force of the prohibition enforcement, left yesterday morning for their headquarters in Salem, after having attended the inquest Friday into the death of Mansford Zimmerlee.

Rose Billings Expected—Miss Rose Billings, formerly of Medford and well known in Ashland, is expected to arrive early this month from Los Angeles, Calif., to visit her parents in that city. Miss Billings has been employed for the past ten months in southern California.

Ted Baker Named Chief—Ted Baker was unanimously elected to hold the position of business chief of the Medford American Legion drum corps, at their regular meeting held at the Hotel Holland in that city Thursday evening, September 29. Manager Baker stated that Ashland had requested that the Medford corps participate in their coming fall festival and it was voted to accept and help make the Lithia city celebration a success.

Hunting Over Week-End—Henry Enders, Jr., Andy McGee, George Ross, Sr., and "The" Fridgear made up a party that spent the week-end hunting ducks in the Klamath lake region. H. Kruggie, who works at Cliff's Tire Shop and Service Station on Main street, also spent the week-end hunting ducks in Klamath county.

Summit Ranch People Here—Mr. and Mrs. Black, who reside at the Summit ranch, located just out of Hill, in northern California, spent Saturday in Ashland shopping and looking after business interests.

Hunting Yesterday—O. A. Paulserud and Emmett Gillings on Oak street spent Sunday hunting deer in the Green-springs mountain district.

From Grants Pass—J. E. Dall of Grants Pass spent a few hours in the city Sunday visiting friends.

From Klamath Falls—Frank Upp, a resident of Klamath Falls, spent Saturday and Sunday in the city looking after business affairs.

Much Improved—Mrs. Ben Nelson on Bush street who has been confined to her home for several days with illness, is now much improved and is able to be up and around.

Visitors From Talent—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burnett of Talent were among the out-of-town visitors who spent Sunday in Ashland visiting friends.

Resumed Work—Mrs. Daisy McGarry, who was confined to her home with illness Saturday and Sunday, this morning resumed her work at the Lithia Springs pharmacy, of which she is proprietor. Mrs. McGarry is much improved.

Forest Service Man Here—Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Gospo spent the week-end in Ashland visiting friends. Mr. Gospo is in the government forest service.

At the Oregon Hotel—M. Benson and family of Los Angeles, Calif.; Wm. Burke and Ed Snider of Lake Tahoe, and H. W. Featherstone of Seattle, Washington, were among those who registered yesterday at the Oregon Hotel in this city.

At the Lithia Springs—Among those who stopped last evening at the Lithia Springs hotel were: C. G. Franklin of Portland, Oregon; Lillian Rosenfeld; Madis Yen and Dorothy Gilbrand of New Jersey; and L. R. Clark of San Francisco.

Hunting Deer—Bill Bander and Jack Young, both of this city, spent the past week-end hunting deer in the vicinity of Pilot Rock.

Business in Ashland—L. B. Larsen, a resident of Eugene, Oregon, has been in Ashland for the past two days transacting business.

Dr. Hartje Here—Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Hartje, residents of Adair, Iowa, spent Sunday in Ashland visiting the city and beautiful Lithia park.

Former Resident Here—Harold Bechtel of Grants Pass, accompanied by his wife and family, are spending several days in Ashland visiting with relatives and friends. Mr. Bechtel, who is now a druggist, formerly was employed at the White House grocery in this city.

Visited Relatives—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eller and family, residents of Dunsmuir, Calif., spent the week-end in this city, visiting with relatives and friends. Mrs. Eller is a sister of Mrs. Elsie McCune on Third St.

Hunting on Parker Mt.—Guy Good of the XL Electric on the Plaza, accompanied by George Raughman and Dick Hitchcock of this city, spent the week-end hunting deer on Parker mountain.

High Scores Made By Riflemen Who Shot In Competitive Match

Scores made by riflemen who competed in the out-door range match Sunday, the first of a series of competitive events scheduled, were as follows:

Table with columns for Rifleman Name, Battery, and Scores (Prone, Sitting, Standing, Rapid Fire, Total Rank). Includes names like Adams, Clary, Werts, and Parker.

HIGHER PRICES ARE PREDICTED

Penney Store Manager Returns From Buying Convention at Portland. C. W. Fortmiller, manager of the local J. C. Penney store, who has just returned from a buying convention in Portland, stated indications are that prices on many commodities will be higher.

Cement Culvert Near Completion

Another week will be required before the by-pass around the lower reservoir is completed, according to City Engineer F. H. Walker who is supervising the job. The big cement culvert which is being built around the reservoir, will carry the water during high waters when much sand and dirt is found in the water.

Vining Will Study State Tax Measure

Irving E. Vining of this city, W. H. Gore, J. B. Coleman, John H. Carlin of Medford, and H. D. Norton, Grants Pass lawyer have been named members of a committee of 35 men, representing every part of the state and every industry, to formulate plans whereby property taxes may be reduced.

H. C. STOCK MONTICIAN Helene Biode Licensed Lady Assistant Deputy Coroner Office

Can You Tell a GOLD BRICK When You See ONE?

Many people think they can, but a slick talker makes them believe that the brick is gold through and through. When it comes to buying gold, hire a chemist. When it comes to buying stocks and bonds, retain a banker. It's your banker's business to know what's good and what's not in investments. Let him do your choosing for you.

The Citizens Bank Ashland, Oregon

ington and Idaho in attendance. This week the buying convention is being held in Oakland. This method gives the Penney managers an opportunity to personally inspect a magnificent array of merchandise from which to make their selections.

Battery B To Drill Tonight

Regular drill for Battery B is to be held this evening according to announcement made today by Captain Lynn Slack. Plans had been made to postpone the drill, during the Lithian Carnival but with the postponement of the carnival, the drill will be held. Two new recruits are to be mustered in, making a total of eight new recruits within a few weeks.

Returned From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Hayes have returned home from a month's vacation in the northern part of the state.

WE CARRY A COMPLETE STOCK WHITE OAK FLOORING ALL GRADES—ALSO Maple Flooring IT IS LONG-BELL QUALITY Our Prices are Better than Portland Prices. Carson-Fowler Lumber Co. "In The Heart of Town" Phone 98

CURRINE'S SHOE OIL EXCLUSIVE DISTRIBUTORS IN ASHLAND. OVERLAND SHOE SHOP Where Your Feet Will Bring You Back.

Hotel Arcade And Apartments OUR RATES: With Bath, Single, $2.00 and $2.25—Double 75c Extra, No Ups Without Bath, Single, $1.25 and $1.50—Double 50c Extra No Ups When in Klamath Falls for a week or more, try our completely furnished APARTMENTS. Everything new and up to date at very low rates. We furnish everything but the Groceries. INVESTIGATE

Americas Fastest Four Built the good Dodge way $875 P. O. B. Detroit—Full Factory Equipment 4-Door Sedan (Not a Coach) The Lowest Price at which a Sedan was EVER sold by Dodge Brothers BAKIN MOTOR CO. 16-18 South Fir St. Medford, Ore. DODGE BROTHERS, INC.

Duck Hunting is Good. We have the proper loads to get them, and all the rest of the trimmings. —Al Jordan's Army Goods Store— (Biggest Little Store in Town, Open Evenings.)