THE SEARCH FOR SPRING

by Ranna Elliott Miller, Ashland

I asked a robin: "Have you seen a lovely maiden passing by. A maiden robed in filmy green. With golden hair against the sky?"

The robin cocked his head and said: "I saw no maiden pass this way. A glorious matron paused, instead. And cast her charms in full display."

At last I to a magpie dared This anxious question once again, "There walked a woman russet-hued. Whose arms were filled with fruits and grain."

Once more I quested 'till I spied An owl within a naked tree: "O, wise bird, tell me true," I cried, "Will Spring return again to me?"

The wise one blinked his sleepy eyes, "Put down your bundle—hide a wee— Work and wait, and you'll realize

Your wish, with budding of the tree.

"Winter must pass, that haggard crowne Whose footsteps drag by wearily— But in her dying gasping moan You'll hear the echo of Spring's glee."

Martha Meade Will Write For Tidings— Here is good news for housewives!

Martha Meade, authority on Food Economics is to write for our readers a weekly article on household topics of vital interest to all homemakers starting next week.

Miss Meade has a wide knowledge of foods. She will give the latest information on foods and food preparation together with numerous domestic secrets and household hints taken from her fund of experience.

She will help home-keepers plan healthful meals for their families by discussing the relation of "well-balanced" meals to health. She will make suggestions for home entertaining—how to make home parties successful—what to serve and how to serve it. She will answer many puzzling questions that confront the hostess when arranging to entertain a group of friends.

She will give advice on selecting foods and marketing during different months of the year. She will give you helpful advice on kitchen work so that you can "save both time and money."

Miss Meade says, in part—"The homemaker's kitchen should be one of the most efficient departments of the household. The health and happiness of the family depends so much on the little kitchen. The hostess' hospitality, too, is centered largely around the efficiency of the home kitchen. New ways of preparing foods, new food products, the use of improved kitchen equipment—all these are taking the drudgery out of the home."

We take pleasure in introducing Martha Meade as household advisor for our women readers. The first of her Kitchen Council articles will appear next week in this column.

Beauty Hints

Protect your beauty in all kinds of weather with this new face powder—MELLO-GLO. Does not give the skin a dry feeling; does not clog the pores; is not affected so much by perspiration. Stays on longer. So pure and fine. MELLO-GLO is made by a new French Process. It's truly wonderful.—Lithia Springs Pharmacy and East Side Pharmacy.

Entertained Auxiliary.—Miss Calla Biegel and Mrs. Fred Cushing were the gracious hostesses last evening, Wednesday November 2, when they delightfully entertained the auxiliary to the Trinity Guild of the Trinity Episcopal church in the Parish House on Second street. The spacious room was prettily decorated with a profusion of fall flowers.

The time was spent playing bridge for which Mrs. Edith Dunn received the first prize for holding high scores. After the playing had ceased, the hostesses served elaborate refreshments.

The auxiliary members who enjoyed last night's party were: Mrs. Dean Scott, Mrs. Domino Provoat, Mrs. Nate Simpkins, Mrs. Ernest Wallin, Mrs. E. M. Berg, Mrs. Henry Enders, Jr., Mrs. P. K. Hammond, Mrs. Edwin Dunn, Mrs. P. Dunn, Mrs. Lynn Slack, Mrs. G. Wenn er; and the Misses Marguerite Hammond, Ethel Shram, Gladys Applegate and Elsie Alexander and the hostesses Miss Calla Biegel and Mrs. Fred Cushing.

Washington Circle Meets.—The Washington school circle of the P. T. A. held a well-attended meeting Wednesday afternoon, November 2, at 3:30 o'clock in the school building on North Main street. Mrs. Dan Cuthbertson, working with Mrs. Bertha Denton, school nurse, asks for contributions of useable clothing and household goods which will be turned over to the Service Shop or placed locally, if possible.

Prizes for obtaining new members were awarded to Miss Kennedy's room, fifth grade, and to Miss Anderson's room, first grade. Mrs. Manly Brower gave a partial report of the recent convention in LaGrande and those interested can hear a full report at the regular meeting of the Senior high school group next Tuesday, November 8. The cafeteria was reported as opening on November first, and a new rug provided by the association, was in place in the library. Miss Carson was appointed as the Washington school representative on the Americanization committee.

Because of the holidays, the next meeting of this circle will be held on the first, instead of the fourth Wednesday in December, allowing them to break. Drain

Julia V. Ward Visits Local Lodge.—The Woman's Benefit Association met last night, Wednesday, November 2, in the Odd Fellows Hall, with Mrs. Florence Pratt presiding. Mrs. Julia V. Ward, State Director of Oregon, was present in her official capacity.

After a short business session, Mrs. Ward spoke on the new plans and aims of the association and of the wonderful insurance that is offered to members. The Woman's Benefit Association is only order exclusively for women that was founded by a woman, Miss Bina M. West of Port Huron, Michigan, and is the largest woman's order in the world. Mrs. Ward's talk was much appreciated by the members.

A card party was then planned for November 16, with Mrs. C. E. Payne and Mrs. Marcella Scribner in charge of the tables, and Mrs. Paul Mars and Mrs. Beattie Callahan on the refreshment committee. The public is invited to this card party and it is hoped that a large number will be present.

After the meeting Mrs. C. M. Bomar favored the ladies with one of Mrs. Caudle's curtain lectures in costume, which all enjoyed, and kindly responded to an encore.

The ladies then went to the Plaza where light refreshments were served.

There was a good attendance at this meeting, and a most enjoyable time was had by everyone. Mrs. Ward's visits are always looked forward to with pleasure, and it is hoped she will soon come again.

Newlyweds Entertained.—Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wilson, who were married recently in Medford and who returned last Saturday from a short wedding trip over in the Applegate country, were agreeably surprised by a group of friends and neighbors Tuesday evening, November 1, at their home on the corner of A and Eighth streets. The bride was Mrs. Anna Murray before her marriage.

A pleasant evening was spent in conversation and visiting. At a late hour daintily arranged refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson received many beautiful and useful gifts, as well as a number of cut flowers.

Those present were the following named: Mesdames Crowson, Green, Brown, Tummev, Davies, Spencer, Tandy and daughter Sadie, and Powell, Mr. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wilson.

Apple Honey.—Pare, core and run through the coarse part of the meat grinder or Wagoner, or other juicy apples with good flavor. Add an equal amount of sugar, simmer gently for two hours, then seal in glass jars.

Jonathan Apple Syrup.—Boil skins and cores of apples. To each cup of juice add one cup of sugar. Boil until consistency of syrup. To color, one teaspoon red raspberry juice to one quart of apple juice.

Blushing Apples, Orange Sauce.—Core six red apples, but do not peel. Cook in boiling water till tender. Remove the skins and scrape off all pulp adhering to inside and add to the apple. Reduce the water to one cupful, add one cupful of sugar and the juice of an orange. Cook until thick and like syrup and pour over the apples. Drop a spoonful of whipped cream on each.

Apple Punch.—Eight cups of cold water, seven large apples, which have been cored, quartered, but not pared. Add to this a cup of raisins, a few bay leaves, stick of cinnamon, the grated rind and juice of three lemons. After this is boiled add eight cups more of cold water. Boil three-quarters of an hour and drain. Add two pounds of sugar and the juice of two lemons; stir until dissolved. Add a dozen maraschino cherries, some skinned and seeded raisins and serve in punch cups.

Apple Sherbet.—Take the juice from a quart of apples which have been boiled in a pint of water until tender and press through a sieve. When it is cold add the juice of an orange, a lemon and a quarter pound of sugar and a quart of water. Beat well and freeze. When yet soft, add the white of an egg well beaten, and freeze.

Apple Ginger.—Peel and chop two and one-half pounds of sour apples. Put in stew pan and add one and one-half pounds light brown sugar, juice and rinds of one and one-half lemons, one-half ounce of ginger root, a few grains of salt and enough water to prevent apples from burning. Cover and cook slowly for four hours, adding water as necessary. Apple ginger will keep several weeks.

Names and numbers of broken parts of farm machinery are recorded in a note book by many Oregon farmers when the machinery is stored. They order these parts and fix the machinery during the winter and when the rush of harvest season comes the machines are ready to be used.

A GOOD THING—DON'T MISS IT.—Send this ad and ten cents to Foley & Co., Sheffield and George Sts., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive a trial bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds, croup (spasmodic), tickling throat; also a trial packet each of Foley Pills, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, and Foley Cathartic Tablets for constipation, biliousness, and sick headache. These reliable remedies have helped millions. For sale by all druggists—No. 3.

Fine particles of sand and dirt flying through the air during the dust storms common to parts of the west, often generate electric current. Measurements with the aid of a radio antenna wire and spherical electrodes indicated potentials of over 40,000 volts.
