Meeting Enjoyable Affair.—The meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the local Congregational church, held Thursday afternoon, November 3, in the Manse, was a most enjoyable affair. There was a splendid attendance, about 25 ladies being present. Mrs. Leverett Davis gave an interesting informal talk on "The Japanese Friendly Dolls" and also expressed the desire that all the churches of the city might have a part in helping the boys and girls of Ashland to fill a school bag for the children of Mexico, thus creating the same friendly interest between America and Mexico as has been promoted between the children of Japan and America.

 Following Mrs. Davis' discussion, a musical program was given. Miss Ellen Galey, daughter played two violin selections, accompanied at the piano by her sister, Miss Mary Galey. Mrs. Berna Haight gave two piano selections, interpretations of Autumn by two composers, and responded to an encore. During the serving of refreshments Miss Lillian Olson kindly sang "There's a beautiful Land on High."
 The hostess, Mrs. Charles D. Gaffney, was graciously assisted by Mrs. Sadie Stratton, Mrs. H. B. Carter, Miss Mary Galey and Miss Elizabeth Carter.
C. L. U. Officers Will Meet.—The Crater Lake-Union officers of the Christian Endeavor of the local Congregational church will meet at the home of Reverend and Mrs. Charles D. Gaffney, 469 Boulevard, on Sunday afternoon, November 6, at four o'clock.
 This meeting will be held to decide the feasibility of holding a fall convention or rally. The convention, which was to have been held at Grants Pass October 21 to 23, inclusively, was postponed indefinitely on account of the infantile paralysis quarantine restrictions.
Debate Team Entertained.—The debaters of the Junior high school were delightful entertained at a "taffy pull" at the home of Miss McLeod and Miss Carter on Oak street last evening, Friday, November 4. Those present were the following named: Frank Johnson, Mae Powell, Robert Bechtel, Louise Anderson, Virgil Kerr, Edna Danford, Mary Herbert, Dorothy Bergstrom, Wallace Stearns, Robert Herndon and Kenneth Darling. Games, songs and taffy pulling occupied the evening until a late hour when the hostesses served delicious refreshments, the same being furnished by Mrs. Walter Bevington.

 The club voted their enthusiasm on the challenge sent to Medford Junior high school to debate the question: "Resolved that the Child Labor Amendment to the Federal Constitution should be adopted."
Spoke at Health Board Meeting.—The Jackson County Health board met at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. J. B. Webster in Phoenix recently, speakers from all over Jackson county being present. Dr. Inskip and Miss Hall, county health nurse at the Southern Oregon Normal school, were among the speakers.
 There were about 75 in attendance and a pleasant and instructive meeting was enjoyed. Light refreshments were served at the close of the session.
Hostesses At Bridge Party.—Miss Beatrice Hall, Miss Pearl Durst, Miss Marion Ady and Miss Virginia D. Hales, were the charming hostesses last evening, Friday, November 4, when they elaborately entertained the women faculty members of the Southern Oregon Normal school with a bridge party at the home of Mrs. C. W. Chittin on Margadine street, where they reside.
 Six tables were in play. Miss Helen Anderson winning a lovely prize for holding high score and Mrs. V. V. Caldwell being awarded the consolation. The rooms of the Chittin home were prettily decorated with chrysanthemums, these flowers also being used as a decoration for the tables, where at a late hour refreshments were served.
 Those who enjoyed the delightful hospitality of the Misses Hall, Durst, Ady and Hales, were: Mrs. Walter Redford, Mrs. V. V. Caldwell, Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Mrs. Margaret Cason, Mrs. A. C. Strange, Mrs. Arthur S. Taylor, Mrs. R. W. McNeill, Mrs. J. H. Fuller, Mrs. C. W. Chittin; the Misses Helen Anderson, Edith Bork, Veneta Fountain, Lillian Graves, Betty Hileman, Lillian Nicholson, Bertha Stevens, Clara

HEDDA-HOYT TELLS OF NEW ENSEMBLES

PARIS—(AP)—In continuing to describe the costumes shown by Jean Patou at his recent fall Fashion Review, we must not neglect to mention the daytime ensembles, including long cloth coats matched by scant skirts and worn with silk knitted sweaters. Some of these are simply adorable! As a rule, Patou clings to black for such street costumes although considerable beige, brown and gray are shown.
 The ensemble coat is almost invariably straight as to line, except for the slight flare at the over-lapping front side. Even this side flare is omitted in many instances and the coat is straight lined with fur extending from neckline to hem down the front. With a black broadcloth ensemble coat, a black skirt of exceeding scantness is worn, and a silk knitted sweater, often striped in metallic thread, adds a finishing touch. The sweater is generally white or beige and may have appliques of black cloth or silk applied in diagonal effect, or in foliage design. Skirts are not quite as short in Paris as they are in America at present. One notices this fact at all the smart showings.
 The evening ensemble as shown by Patou is perfection this season! Man gorgeous velvet coats collared and cuffed in harmonizing dyed-fox are combined with gowns of velvet, lace or chiffon. The gown must harmonize in color or although fabric harmony is not accented as a rule. The velvet coats have wide sleeves and are of wrap-about type as a rule. Some of them are beaded although most models are plain. Among the wrap colors are amber, old tapestry blues, faint greenish blues, purplish reds and flesh beige tones. Fox furs are dyed in the coat tones in many instances. Tweed street suits are also included in the Patou display and shades of beige and gray predominate. Suits are very simple in line and are femininely tailored. Fox furpieces usually accompany them.

A STATEMENT BY PACKARD

WE ARE appreciative of the fact that with the large increase in demand for the Packard car you may be under the impression that delivery cannot be made for several months. This is wrong.

During this year Packard has invested nearly ten million dollars in increased manufacturing facilities. This expenditure is now bearing fruit in increased production, and today we can offer reasonable dates of delivery on nearly all types and practically immediate delivery on the Packard Six five-passenger sedan.

Why not buy a Packard Six today, pay for it within a year, as many prefer to do, and then keep it five or more years as does the average owner? If your present car is of average value it will more than make the new car down payment and leave no cash outlay except for the small monthly notes.

The Packard Six five-passenger sedan, delivered, costs you but including tax, freight and all of the necessary accessories.
