SILVER ADVENT

By Ellmore Wylie

Within this most unhalloved grove
Of iron stems upraised at length,
Hollow a silence out of love
And thatch it over with a strength.

Let it be small, but great enough
To shelter beasts as well as men;
And build the walls of stubborn stuff;

The roofs of arches ten and ten.
Open a window to the East
Where dawn may flutter like a bird;
Give the Gold West a second best.
The North and South a fourth and third.

Let stalls be bedded down with straw;
Let mangers overflow with corn;
Strew rushes on the floor, and draw
The wooden latch to meet the morn.
Suspend our breath, and in a flash
The snow shall fall; and falling make
The softened and the silver clash
Of flake against another flake.

Entertained at Beaver Home—
Normal students, teachers and several other young women of the Methodist Episcopal church were entertained at the home of Miss Minnie Beaver on Iowa street Tuesday evening, November 15. These young ladies form the membership of the Young Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

At this meeting the report was made that two boxes of baby quilts, which had been made by the membership of the society, had been sent as Christmas gifts to a hospital in India.

After the business session was ended, Miss Clara Hack, vice-president, took charge of the program in which several took part. The reports and articles given helped those present to vivify their understanding of the needs of those in other lands and to strengthen their purposes for the promotion of good in our own land.

After the program was ended, refreshments were served by the hostess and the group disbanded until December 20, when they will meet again at the home of Mrs. Adena Hunt, on Iowa street.

Ladies of Social Circle Meet—

A most pleasant afternoon was spent a few days ago by the ladies of the Social Circle of the local Christian church, in the church parlors. A short, but interesting, business session was conducted and the members decided to hold their annual bazaar and cooked food sale Monday, December 10, the place for the affair to be announced at a later date. It is requested that all ladies of the Christian church prepare some article or cook food for this sale.

Comfort tacking and preparing articles for the bazaar occupied the remainder of the time until a late hour when delicious refreshments were served by a committee in charge. Mrs. Gentry was chairman of this committee, graciously assisted by Mrs. V. V. Caldwell, Mrs. S. D. Doremus and Mrs. Ida Crandall.

The meeting adjourned to meet again in the church parlors on the afternoon of Thursday, November 24.

W. B. A. Card Party—

The Woman's Benefit Association gave a card party in the Odd Fellows hall Wednesday evening, November 16, which was very much enjoyed by all those present.

Five Hundred was played and Mrs. George E. Eib, holding high score for the ladies was presented with a beautiful guest towel which had been sent from Portland by Mrs. Julia V. Ward, state field director of the State of Oregon for the Woman's Benefit Association. Mr. James Hersey, high score man, was presented with a lustre-ware ash tray. Mrs. Dorothy Dickey and Mr. Ed High received the consolation prizes.

Mrs. E. Chiff Payne was in charge of the card tables, assisted by Mrs. Marcella Scribner. At a late hour refreshments were served in the dining room at beautifully decorated tables, by a committee with Mrs. Paul Mars and Mrs. Bessie Callahan at the head.

Will Not Meet Wednesday—

The Jolly Ranch club, which holds their meetings every second and fourth Wednesday in the month, will not hold their regular meeting on Wednesday evening, November 23, on account of Thursday being Thanksgiving Day, and the women members will be occupied in preparing their Thanksgiving dinners. This club spend the time at their meetings playing "500."

Members are the following named: Mr. and Mrs. E. Chiff

Payne, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Koch, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Crapewy, Mrs. Jennie Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. James Hersey, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Eib, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Madden.

Evening of Cards at Randles Home—

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Randles delightfully entertained a group of friends, with an evening of cards at their pleasant home on Ashland street, Wednesday, November 16.

Three tables of "500" were in play during the evening. Mr. William Greubner winning the prize for holding high score and Mrs. "Merrett" Randles being awarded the consolation.

Mrs. Randles served tasty refreshments to the following named guests: Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. William Greubner, Mr. and Mrs. Ruy Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. James Shiffer and Mr. and Mrs. Merrett Randles.

Lithian Party in Honor of Candidates—

Approximately eighty people attended the party last evening, Wednesday, November 16, in the Civic clubhouse on Winburn Way, given by the Ashland Lithians in honor of the candidates who are running for queen of the Lithian Indoor Circus and Fiesta, which will be staged in this city for one week beginning Monday, December 5. The candidates who attended last night's party were: Miss Cleo Wiltsie, Miss Norma Wuthrich, Miss Rosalind Wise and Miss Josephine Barber.

An elaborate covered-dish supper was served at seven o'clock at tables prettily arranged, with large bouquets of yellow and white chrysanthemums making attractive centerpieces. Group singing was led by Mr. V. D. Miller and "Love's Old Sweet Song" was sung. Mr. L. H. Hansen gave a beautiful vocal solo and as an encore sang "The Barefoot Trail." All those present greatly enjoyed this number and feel indebted to Mr. Hansen for furnishing them with such pleasant entertainment.

The remainder of the time was spent dancing to an orchestra composed of Mrs. Nona Aylsworth, piano; Mr. Domino Probst, banjo, and Mr. Kenneth Hobson, saxophone.

Tow Boat Sinks; Crew Is Rescued

ST. HELENS, Ore., Nov. 17.—Six men had a narrow escape today when the towboat Skookum, used here in the local mills, sank while docked, without apparent cause.

The men were sleeping and got out just in time, swimming to safety. The boat has been in dry dock for two months and was reported to be in excellent condition.
