FOG OR RAIN

By Helen Hope Rodolf

I choose the fog,
You can have the rain.
Rain is such a burly fellow—
He knocks at the window-pane,
Swells the river, floods the street,
Beats down flowers, patters on the roof,
Soaks you through, and slaps you on the face,
And in every way is quite uncouth.

But fog, now, is a pretty lady,
Of white and diaphanous dress,
Who silently and gently comes to entold in a cool caress.
And wisps of her lovely draperies
are seen in the tops of trees,
In canyons floating, and high on rocks,
As though cradled and lulled by the breeze.
She enshrouds and covers with beauty,
Any ugliness of earth a n d bog.
Yes, you can have the rain,
I'll choose the fog.

Miss Joy Delightfully Surprised

Miss Adena Joy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Joy in the Edlview district just south of Ashland, was delightfully surprised Friday evening, November 25, by a jolly group of friends. When she arrived home from town during the early evening, she found that a group of high school boys and girls had taken possession of the Joy home.

The time was spent in dancing until a late hour when delicious refreshments were served to the following named: Messrs. Woodson, Lloyd Davies, Marjion Frost, Seldon Burton, Ned Mars, Roy Metcalf, James Hartney, Roy Metcalf, and Dick Joy, and the Misses Calla Eaton, Audrey Brown, Irma May, Letha Miles, Lorraine Sparr, Lucille Voss, Ellen Gale, Nova Jean Dodson and Adena Joy.

Miss Gertrude Biede was the charming hostess Saturday evening, November 26, when she entertained a group of friends at her home on Nob Hill, the occasion being given in honor of the birthday anniversary of Miss Ruth Osburn.

The time was spent playing "Bunco" for which Miss Gladys Applegate won first prize. Miss Ethel Shrum was consoled. Delicious refreshments, the m a t n e feature of which was a l a r g e beautifully decorated birthday cake, were served during the evening's entertainment, an attractive color scheme of green and gold being used. Miss Osburn was the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts.

Those present were: Miss Ethel Shrum, Miss Gertrude Biede, Miss Gladys Applegate, Miss Calla Biegel, Miss Emma Jenkins, Miss Marie Walker, Miss Leta Walker, Miss Elsie Alexander, Miss Helene Biede, Mrs. Dan Kay, Mrs. George Blumenhauer, Mrs. Sarah Mosher, Mrs. H. C. Stock, Mrs. C. E. Biegel, Mrs. Guy Applewhite and the hostess, Miss Gertrude Biede.

Two Boxes Sent From Ashland. — Daughters of the Nile, under the supervision of Mrs. Naomi Montgomery of Medford, president, and Mrs. John Peri of Medford, chairman of the committee in charge, sent last week four boxes of fruit, cookies, preservs and jellies to the Portland Shrine hospital for crippled children. The box was intended for a Thanksgiving surprise. Two boxes were from Ashland and two from Medford.

Mrs. Montgomery wishes to thank all those members in Ashland and Medford for their ready response and hearty cooperation in making the Thanksgiving gift one that will bring happiness to the crippled children at the Shrine hospital.

Style Hints For Winter

The newest thing in ensembles is the straight coat of black velvet, trimmed from collar to hem with rows of fagottin through which gleams a frock of gold or silver metal cloth.

For the modern bride to whom an all-white wedding does not mean a thing, is the frock of white tulle and tulle splashed with silver medallions.

Simulated alligator skin, in colors which no alligator ever possessed—red, green and blue, fashions some of the smartest rain coats.

The stubby umbrellas of last season is stretching into a taller more graceful affair.

One of the spariest ways to prove that one is a slave to fashion is to wear the new metal link belt—a slave chain, hip size.

To feet that are not so small as their owners would have them, there is a new suede, a dull finish, that has the magical effect of making one's foot look at least a size smaller.

Wants Cast Off Garments For Service Bag

Members of the P. T. A. circle of the Washington school on North Main street will greatly appreciate all contributions of cast off garments, which they will use for their "service bag." They wish to send the bag away to poor children as soon as possible.

Turkey Dinner at Tucker Home. — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hosley of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Scott and son Stephen and Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Patton on Helman street enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner Thursday, November 24, Thanksgiving Day, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Tucker on the B boulevard.

Dinner Party. — Miss Katherine Vincent, registrar at the Southern Oregon Normal school, and her mother, Mrs. Alice Vincent, were the gracious hostesses Thursday evening, Thanksgiving Day, when they delightfully entertained Miss Bernice Hall and Miss Pearl Durt at a dinner party at the latter home.

A most delicious meat w a s served at a table perfectly appointed and beautifully decorated with Thanksgiving colors. Following dinner, the evening was spent in social conversation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Berg Entertain. — Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Berg entertained the following named guests with an elaborate turkey dinner Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, at their home on B street: Mr. and Mrs. Loise Dodge, Robert Dodge and their son Bobby Berg.

FLORAL FETE PLANS MADE

PASADENA, Nov. 23.—California's annual mid-winter floral fete, the Tournament of Roses, will be held this year on January 2nd, it has been announced by tournament officials.

The tournament ordinarily is held on January 1st, but since New Year's Falls on Sunday this year, the following day will be generally observed as a holiday and the floral pageant will be staged at that time.

As in the past, the day's program will comprise a gorgeous parade of flower-decked floats in the morning and an international football game at the R o a e Bowl in the afternoon.

It has been decided that there will be no change in the starting time or route of the parade this year. The pageant will get under way from Orange Grove avenue and Colorado street at 10:30 o'clock, proceeding east on Colorado to Hill, north on Hill to East Orange Grove and west to Lake, where it will disband. The length of the route is 4.9 miles.

"States and Nations in Flowers" has been chosen as the theme of the 1928 tournament parade. This theme, offered by Miss Hilbur Peterson of Los Angeles, was selected as the best of four hundred submitted in a contest held by the tournament association.

"Songs in Flowers" was the theme of the 1927 parade. Each float depicted in floral pageantry the title of a well-known song.

Many California cities a n d communities already have sent in signed entry blanks signifying that they intend to have floats in the coming tournament. Present indications are that approximately forty cities, including several in northern California, will be represented in the 1928 parade.

The Tournament of Roses has been held each New Year's Day since 1889. Started 39 years ago as a small village fiesta, it has grown to large proportions, and its fame has spread throughout the world. Approximately 750,000 persons witness the pageant each year.

LOGGER IS CAUGHT BY ROCK SLIDE

Storm Damage Great—$50,000 Damage in Wash. of Arroyo

WHEELER, Ore., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Ed Hansen, logger at Nehalem Falls, eight miles from here is believed to be buried under a slide of rock and mud caused by the recent rains.

Hansen was working in the spot now covered by the slide and is reported missing.

Storm damage in the Nehalem district is reported heavy. The recently opened Tillamook, Hammond lumber company bridge at Foss on the South Fork river, built at a cost of $50,000 was washed completely away.

The company plant has been shut down throwing several hundred men out of work. The plant will probably be closed until spring.

Many of the workers are now assisting in the search for the body of Hansen.

JAPANESE GERRIES IN SHANGHAI CABARETS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—American travelers arriving here from the Orient, relate that in the Chinese cabarets and the larger dance halls of Shanghai, the diminutive Japanese dancing Geisha girls have entered into keen competition with the Russian refugee women who have heretofore ruled supreme since the war.

In the Pavilions in Shanghai, the beautiful women have been the undisputed queens of the night-life until a few months ago when the proprietor introduced a few of the demure, unassuming little Geishas. They immediately won the approbation of the gay Shanghai people who drank many a wet wet toast to them.

Other cabarets soon took the cue and followed suit with the

Craberry Season

With the approach of the holiday season our attention is directed toward cranberry dishes. Their tartness and colorful beauty add much to the deliciousness of a meal. The latter season can be eaten if a cranberry sauce or jelly is desired.

Cranberries should be at their very best now since the season is just open and there should be no difficulty in obtaining berries which are firm and even in size. If you are tired of cranberry sauce try cranberry jelly. There are so many ways in which it can be served. Cubes of this jelly make beautiful garnishes to mangle down among lettuce leaves.

If you care to prepare a delightful salad from the cranberries and though quite unlikable the juice then add chopped celery and nuts to the mixture. Serve this on lettuce with an attractive amount of mayonnaise.

MANY AWAIT A DECISION

Beauty of Voice Will be Final Test by Jury of Judges

As one hundred and eight young men and young women singers of America wait anxiously for returns from district song contests in which they have participated as champions of their states, the National Radio Audition of The Atwater Kent Foundation nears its close for the current year.

The finals, in which one boy and one girl from each of five regional districts compared in New York, Chicago, Atlanta, Dallas and San Francisco, will compete for national honors will be sung in Radio Station WEAZ, New York, over the regular network of stations during the Sunday evening Atwater Kent Radio Hour, December 11. State winners—one boy and one girl from each state, and two boys and two girls from five of the more populous states—met in competition in the District Auditions.

The finalists will be judged solely on the basis of natural beauty of voice, by a jury of forms Southern Pacific Motor Transport Company to operate motor buses and trucks from Medford to Salem.

Gresham — Arboleda Community Club opens new Powell Valley clubhouse.

Oakland — Oil drilling to be resumed soon on Leeper Dome.

Through local contests in metropolitan centers and in the smallest villages, and the state and district contests throughout the United States, probably 50,000 voices have been heard. Many singers have been encouraged by their experiences in the National Audition and even though they were eliminated in early stages of the competition have found opportunities for public appearances, and an increased incentive for further training at home.

BE CAUTIONS OF MILK-BORNE INFECTION

STATEMENT OF DR. FREDERICK D. STRICKLER, SECRETARY OF THE OREGON STATE BOARD OF HEALTH, ADVISES IN FAVOR OF PASTEURIZED MILK IN AN OFFICIAL REPORT.

We Supply Pasteurized Milk

In the strictest conformity to state law and under supervision of inspectors who so frequently call and inspect our plant, the operative processes, all milk delivered from the Jackson County Creamery is of unquestioned purity, free from all disease germs infection.

The Jackson County Creamery provides pasteurized milk for the City of Medford. Milk that meets up with the every requirement of Dr. Strickler as an authority.

Milk bottle containers are thoroughly sterilized; No doubt can exist as to the cleanliness, the germ-free condition of the bottle after passing through the 200 degree wash and steam treatment. Human touch is unknown to any surface this milk touches, even the sealing cap is a mechanical device.

Nowhere in any specific report has fever or other maladies been traced to pasteurized milk as the carrier of the fatal germ. Pasteurization is a health insurance. Dr. Strickler's statement emphasizes this fact. He advises the use of pasteurized milk. Heed his warning!

Likewise

All materials from which our Ice Cream is manufactured is pasteurized, as well as the cream from which our "Gold Seal" butter is manufactured.

NOTICE

The possibility of infantile paralysis being a milk-borne infection emphasizes the prophylactic value of pasteurized milk.
