Officers For New Year Elected—At the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Ashland Relief Corps, held Saturday afternoon, December 3, in the I. O. O. F. hall officers for the new year were elected during an interesting business session.

Mrs. E. Cliff Payne was elected president of the Corps; Mrs. Frances Darby, senior vice-president; Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, junior vice-president; Mrs. Sophia Ganciere chaplain; Mr. Lulu Howard, treasurer; Mrs. Delia Inlow, conductor, and Mrs. Leona Boyd, guard.

The next meeting of the Relief Corps will be held on the afternoon of Saturday, December 17.

Campfire Girls Meet Saturday

Members of Camp Temskwatawah, Ashland Campfire Girls, held a Council Fire Saturday afternoon, December 3, at the home of Mary Poley on the corner of Gresham and Allison streets. The fires of Work, Health and Love were lighted by three of the group. As the roll was called each member responded by saying or reading a poem, an Indian legend or some article which they liked very much.

Those taking the rank of Woodgatherer, the first rank in the Campfire organization, were the following named: Artis DeArmond, Leah DeHas, Lois Wiley, Mary Poley, Anna Jean VanHardenburg, Beulah Hervey and Ima Crowson. Many were awarded honor beads as a reward for tasks well done.

Campfire songs were sung, as the fire that had given the girls new ideals and inspirations slowly changed into glowing embers.

Camp Gatusi Holds Council Fire

The girls of Camp Gatusi of the Ashland Campfire organizations met at the home of Mary

Herbert on the afternoon of Saturday, December 3. Eleanor Coombe, assistant guardian, had charge of the program. The outstanding features were as follows:

Fire lighting ceremony: Work, Mary Herbert; Health, Margaret Vestal; Love, Cleo Sherard; Scripture Reading, Louise Anderson. Fire Maker's Rank was given by the guardians, Miss Nora Ward, to the following named girls: Harriet Carleton; Nadena Carleton; Mary Herbert, Cleo Sherard and Margaret Vestal. A bandage demonstration was given by Ruth Billings and Edna Danford. Eleanor Coombe gave a talk on "Good Sportsmanship." The last two numbers on the program were songs, "Mamma Moon" and "Lay Me to Sleep."

Following the Council Fire ceremony the group enjoyed a pleasant surprise party planned by the guardians and the hostess.

The entire group were present at this meeting. The girls of this camp are: Louise Anderson, Ruth Billings, Dorothy Bergstrom, Nadena Carleton, Harriet Carleton, Ruth Mae Chilcote, Edna Danford, Mary Herbert, Mae Powell, Cleo Sherard, Margaret Vestal and the guardians, Misses Nora Ward and Eleanor Coombe.

Study Club Meeting At Wagner Home

The Ashland Study club held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon, Monday, December 5, at the home of Mrs. J. M. Wagner on Oak street. There was a good attendance and a most interesting afternoon was enjoyed by the ladies.

Mrs. Fred S. Engle gave the history of "The Swane River" and told some interesting facts about its author, Mr. Stephen Foster. Mrs. D. Perozzi reviewed the new book "The Life of Napoleon Bonaparte" by Amil Ludwig.

P. T. A. Council Yesterday

Yesterday afternoon, Monday, December 5, at 2:30 o'clock, the P. T. A. council of this city held their regular meeting in the public library on Main street.

The usual business was transacted, nothing of great importance being discussed.

Dr. Brunk Will Give Talk

P. T. A. Thursday afternoon, December 8, at 3:30 o'clock in the High School building, Dr. Brunk, who has been holding a dental clinic from the First to the Ninth grades in Ashland public schools, will give a talk on dentistry and show several dental pictures.

Dr. Brunk is making a special trip to this city in order to give the talk Thursday and all members are particularly urged to be present. Members of other local circles of the P. T. A. and all persons interested are cordially invited.

Mrs. Edwin Dunn Elected President

Auxiliary members of the American Legion Post No. 14 met last evening, Monday, December 5, in the Pioneer hall on Winburn Way for their regular semi-monthly meeting.

During the usual business session election of officers for the ensuing year was held, and Mrs. Edwin Dunn was elected president of the auxiliary. Mrs. Clyde Malone was elected vice president; Mrs. Bessie Cook, secretary; Mrs. Bert Freeman, treasurer, and Mrs. Guy Applewhite, historian. All other officers will be appointed.

It was decided at last night's meeting to have a covered-dish supper in the Pioneer hall on the nineteenth of this month. Hostesses at this affair will be the losing team on the Membership Drive for 1927.

27 Members From Medford Present

Twenty seven members of the Medford Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge were present last evening, Monday, December 5, at the regular meeting of the Ashland Neighbors of Woodcraft in the Odd Fellows hall. The Phoenix members of this organization were also invited to attend last night's meeting, but they were unable to be present.

The usual business session occupied about one hour, after which a delightful program was presented. Delicious refreshments were served at tables beautifully decorated with a color scheme of red, green and white. Laurel berries and evergreen and red and green napkins on a snow-white table cloth made a most attractive combination.

Officers Entertain Worthy Matron

Officers of Alpha Chapter No. 1, O. E. S., gave a delightful surprise party Saturday evening, December 3, at the home of Mrs. D. A. Peterson on Pine street, in honor of Mrs. N. G. Bates, worthy matron, whose term of office expires the first of the year. New officers will take their chairs about the first meeting in January.

Games and music occupied the evening until a late hour when the hostess served most delicious refreshments. An attractive color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in the decorating of the Peterson home and in the refreshments. Mrs. Bates was pre-
