The dinner and dance given by the Upper Valley women for the benefit of their club house on Friday night was a pronounced success. The dinner was attended by many Ashland people who went back for the festivities, and then joined us later for dancing.

About $155 was taken in and when all expenses are out the club will realize $120 clear from the effort.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Tucker and Mrs. L. B. Tucker, Sr., were guests at a delicious turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Tucker on the Boulevard last Saturday night.

Monday evening a number of friends gathered at the Mr. and Mrs. Fred Homes residence for a frolic. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served.

Practice with parlor golf furnished one of the happiest diversions of the evening.

The next regular meeting of the Community Club will be held on the second Wednesday in December the 14th. This will be an all-day meeting for the purpose

One Senator is His Own Party Leader, Secretary and "Whip"

BY PAUL R. MALLON

United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Theoretically Senator Henrik Shipstead, ex-dentist Farmer-Laborite of Minnesota, is the most important man in the new seventieth congress.

By the close alignment of Republicans and Democrats in the upper house he has been made a balance of power in himself. There are 48 Republicans and 47 Democrats when everyone takes his seat. There is only one man who is not aligned with either party. That is Shipstead. If he should vote with the Democrats a tie would result. The vote of Vice President Dawes would be necessary to break such a tie. It is customary for the Republicans and Democrats to hold party caucuses before each congressional session elect officers and decide what they are going to do. Shipstead holds his own caucus, for he himself is a quorum of his party's tall and slender representation in the upper house.

"I think I will elect myself leader, secretary and whip of any party in the senate this year," Shipstead says.

"I never have any trouble in my caucuses. There are no revolts and but little arguing. If there are any arguments I always win.

"It is a most peaceful party."

HAS HIS SON HELD FOR HITTING HIM IN EYE

PORTLAND, Ore.—(AP)—There is nothing like having a reserve complaint or two in one's mind or pocket when visiting the police station, according to Patrolman B. M. Pharris.

"I want my son arrested for taking my automobile without permission," said Henry Schaffer, referring to Henry, Jr., age 19. "Can't do that," advised the officer.

"All right," replied Henry Sr., "then arrest him for hitting me in the eye."

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT MAY BE HELD

competition.

The tournament is to be of the elimination type but so arranged that every team will get one or more games. There will probably be both championship and consolation tournaments.

If this plan is followed teams losing in the first round of play will make up teams in the consolation meet and awards and prizes will be given winners of this contest as well as the championship winners.

Loving cups will be given winning teams and some kinds of individual trophies will be given. Coach Mac McNeal is heading up arrangements and has a committee working with him to perfect plans as soon as possible.

18 University of Oregon Students From Ashland, Registrar Reports

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON,

Eugene, Ore., Dec. 7.—(Special)—Ashland sends a total of 18 students to the University of Oregon, it is announced by Earl M. Pallett, registrar. Portland, with a total of 578, leads all cities in Oregon for enrollment. Of this number 273 are freshmen and 508 are sophomores, juniors and seniors.

Second in the list is Eugene, with a total of 576. Of these 190 are freshmen and 485 upperclassmen. Salem, with 65, of which 27 are first year students ranks third.

Other cities in Oregon sending several students are: Baker, 17; Corvallis, 12; Milwaukie, 16; Oregon City, 25; Astoria, 42; Marshfield, 25; North Bend, 11; Roseburg, 13; Ashland, 15; Medford, 29; Grants Pass, 15; Klamath Falls, 23; Lakeview, 30; Cottage Grove, 11; Junction City, 11; Springfield, 24; Albany, 19; Hood River, 16; Ontario, 12; Pendleton, 21; La Grande, 30; The Dalles, 19; McMinnville, 14; Newberg, 13.

A total of 319 cities and towns in Oregon send students to the University, the figures show. These figures include only the 2810 students registered on the Eugene campus, and do not take into account 223 students in the Medical school in Portland, or the extension and correspondence school students.

133RD PSALM HELPS SETTLE COURT FIGHT

LONDON.—(AP)—Astuteness similar to that displayed by King Solomon was used in a Police court recently by the magistrate, J. A. R. Cairns, who was a Presbyterian minister before he was called to the bar.

When called upon to settle a quarrel between two Jewish women, the magistrate handed a copy of the bible to the official interpreter saying:

"Take these women out of court and read them the 133rd Psalm. One of the women has only a limited knowledge of English. Translate it for her into Yiddish."

Later, the interpreter returned to court and reported that the magistrate's scheme had been entirely successful. The first sentence of the soothing Psalm reads:

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity."

Had Green Deer Meat; Pays Fine

L. J. Messall was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and costs by Justice of the Peace Glenn O. Taylor when he pleaded guilty to a charge of having green deer meat in his possession. The charge against Messall was filed by Game Warden Roy Farr, who searched the Messall home and found the deer meat there.
