

Local and Personal

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS

Attorney W. J. Moore is home from Los Angeles where he and Mrs. Moore had been spending several weeks. The latter has been seriously ill during her sojourn in California and was unable to accompany her husband home. She is now in a sanitarium in Los Angeles.

Mrs. J. L. Logan, telegraph operator at Siskiyou, was a business caller in Ashland today.

Mrs. J. B. Wimer is up from Medford spending a couple of days in Ashland.

Elmer Ashcraft of Seattle is spending a couple of days in Ashland visiting with the parents. He expects to go from here to Nevada to locate. His wife will come here shortly to visit for a time before joining her husband.

B. R. Stevens, who has been living in Weed for some time, is moving back to Ashland and will reside here.

F. C. Hollibaugh, one of the enterprising ranchmen from the Valley View district, was an Ashland business visitor yesterday.

Ralph Cowgill and Frank Farrell were up from Medford last evening attending the banquet given by the American Legion at the Hotel Austin.

Larkin Grubb is confined to the house this week with severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kimball of Klamath Falls were in Ashland yesterday. They stopped off here to call on friends while on their way home from Eugene.

A fine rain fell at intervals yesterday, and has been of inestimable benefit in the valley. Considerable snow fell in the mountains also, which will add greatly to the water supply.

R. E. Hall, an S. P. employe, had the misfortune to smash his foot while working in the local yards Sunday. He left last evening for the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco, accompanied by his wife.

Henry Carter of this city has placed an order with LeVon Zundel, the Medford automobile man, for a Nash six car.

An invitation has been extended to Ashland through the Commercial Club to take part in the Rose Festival at Portland which will be staged the week beginning June 20.

Charles Slade, is able to be around again after a severe attack of pneumonia which has kept him indoors for several weeks.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

The Sunshine club asks for used garments or any discarded articles from the households of the city, which are being unearthed during the annual spring house-cleaning. This club looks after the needy in the city and repairs and makes over garments donated for the use of the unfortunate, and also fits them out with any necessary household articles to help out those who are needing this help.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beagle were called in this week from the Goldish camp on the Green Springs mountain by the sickness and death of their brother, Thomas Beagle.

Miss Alma Ross, who has been sick for several weeks, has resumed her duties as teacher in the Junior high school.

W. R. Nyswander, one of the business men of Talent, was an Ashland visitor today.

D. B. Grant of Portland is a guest of his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Blake, this week.

Clarence Melvin Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Irwin, died at 1:30 o'clock this morning at the home of his parents on Scenic Drive, after a short illness. No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral.

G. A. Briner of Wagner creek is in Ashland under the care of one of the local physicians taking treatment for neuritis.

E. A. Crandell of the Employers' Indemnity association of Portland, was a business visitor Wednesday.

Friends of Rev. W. L. Mellinger's family will be pleased to hear that Maxon Mellinger recently took the life-saving examination in Odesa, and was the only one out of 200 to pass. Maxon is accredited with being the youngest live-saver in the state.

Thomas J. Beagle died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock after a short illness due to pneumonia. Mr. Beagle had been staying at the home of his brother, James Beagle at Bellevue, and was one of the entire family who has been ill with influenza for the past week. The others are all reported better. No funeral arrangements have been made as yet, on account of waiting to hear from distant relatives.

Mrs. C. C. Cole arrived on train No. 54 last evening from Oakland, Calif., to make an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Doran.

At a meeting of the city school board held Tuesday night the principals for the three schools were elected. Messrs. Forsythe and Wilson were re-elected to the Senior High and Junior High respectively, and Miss Ila Myers was elected principal to the Hawthorne school. She succeeds Miss Gretchen Kreamer, who will enter O. A. C. next year. The rest of the faculty will be elected later.

Miss Anna Payne, clerk at Jordan's electrical store, is able to be out again after a ten-day's siege of influenza. Her mother, Mrs. C. T. Payne, has also been a victim of the same disease, and is now able to be around the house.

Mrs. Mary Freeman and sons Charles and Edwin, arrived in Ashland yesterday from Denver, Colo., where they had been making an extended sojourn. Charles Freeman had been in a military hospital there ever since returning from France, and his mother and brother had joined him in Denver eight months ago.

The W. T. Veghte property at 478 Allison street has been sold to Mrs. L. B. Jackson, a newcomer to Ashland, who will take possession at once. This sale was made through the Beaver Realty company.

Mrs. May F. Withrow was a caller from Talent yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Maguire, who have been spending several weeks in Roseville, Calif., are back again in Ashland and will make their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson of Bridgeport, Wash., have come to Ashland to remain for several weeks, while the former takes treatment at a local hospital.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Baughman is quite sick at present. Mrs. Baughman, the mother, who has also been ill, is making a recovery.

Miss Brundage, one of the teachers of the Junior High school, has resumed her duties after a week's illness.

Mrs. T. J. Malmgren of Phoenix, who has been reported very ill during the past month, is recovering. Mrs. Malmgren is well known in Ashland where she had been conducting classes in French during this winter, and her many friends will be glad to hear of her regaining her health.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Long of Grants Pass are spending several days in Ashland this week visiting friends.

Mrs. Victoria Mickelson underwent a serious operation at a local hospital yesterday. She stood the ordeal well. It is stated, and is recovering nicely.

Dr. C. F. Scheller left on the midnight train Tuesday for Woodland, Calif., where he expects to locate.

Mrs. S. S. Smith of Medford and her sister, who has lately come out from Kansas, were Ashland visitors this afternoon.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

Mrs. Homer Barron is recovering nicely from an operation performed at a local sanitarium.

Mrs. Lena Britton has returned home from Yreka where she has been caring for her mother, Mrs. Susan Butler, who has been quite sick with the "flu."

Word comes from Miss Helen Walker that she is now in Seattle visiting her cousin, Mrs. Hanson. While in Portland she was the guest of Miss Zelma Gaines, a former Ashland girl.

Mrs. Frank Snyder of Bellevue has returned from a two weeks' visit with friends at Goldendale, Wash.

Mrs. Gertie Lucke of Beach street had the misfortune to injure her hand quite badly one day this week. She was washing and a steel pin in the garment she was rubbing broke off in her hand and had to be cut out by a physician. The wound is healing nicely although very painful.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church held an all day sewing at the church today.

Mrs. Elva Hobart, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, has gone to Alameda, Calif., to spend the coming three weeks.

The school district has just closed a contract for 150 cords of wood with the Williams brothers of the Barron district. This will be sufficient to supply all the schools for one year. The purchase price is $8 a cord.

W. H. McNair is back from Portland where he had been spending several days on business.

The funeral of the 9-years-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Irwin, who died Wednesday night, was held from Stock's undertaking parlors this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services were conducted by Christian Scientists, and interment was made in Mountain View cemetery.

Mrs. Anna Ziegler is the owner of a handsome new Overland automobile which she purchased this week from the Overland-Marye garage.

Mrs. R. J. Luke of Frederick was an Ashland shopper today.

The stone house on Sixth street belonging to George Monroe of Eugene has recently been purchased by Donald Stevens, who will reside there.

The funeral of the late Thomas Beagle will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Stock undertaking parlors, conducted by Rev. C. A. Edwards of the Methodist church. Interment will be made in the Jacksonville cemetery.

J. H. Williamson and family are newcomers to Ashland and will soon locate in their residence they recently purchased.

L. J. Orres had business which took him to Medford yesterday.

The E. E. Kenyon place of about one acre has been purchased by Lieutenant James Q. Adams. Billings' agency made the trade.

J. H. Williamson and Charles Norton have gone down into California where they have obtained employment.

Henry Stute of Woodburn, a former resident, is here this week looking after his property interests in this city.

SATURDAY'S NEWS

R. J. Schrader of Roseburg, an employe of the Southern Pacific and who has also been employed as a deputy sheriff for Jackson county, was discovered very ill in his room this morning. Mr. Schrader was called to go out on the road, and the caller could get no response from him. The door of his room was broken open and the man was found in his bed in an unconscious condition. He was taken to a local hospital and put under the care of physicians. It is supposed he had become ill before going to his room, and became much worse after he retired.

T. C. Chapman and wife, Bobbie Burns and Lars Eliason will make up a party to leave tomorrow for Alberta, Canada, where they expect to remain during the coming summer.

J. R. Leslie, a fireman for the Southern Pacific company, has moved from Ashland to Hornbrook.

S. C. Williamson expects to leave shortly for a location near Grants Pass where he will be employed for some time.

Mrs. May Austin, accompanied by little Bruce Hale, were Ashland visitors yesterday.

H. O. Butterfield, driver for the Ashland Laundry, is incapacitated from work today on account of sickness.

The Talent irrigation district will, according to reports from that section, receive proposals March 25 for the construction of laterals in the eastern district. This is the section known as the high laterals across Bear creek from Talent and will involve the excavation of upwards of 90,000 yards of materials. W. J. Hartzell is president of the district.

Allen McGee is shipping his household goods to his new location in British Columbia, and expects to follow next week. Mrs. McGee and the children will not leave Ashland for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vaupel are home from Portland where they had been spending the week with their daughter, who resides in that city.

Miss Florence Pool county home demonstration agent, was in Ashland yesterday finishing the construction of plaster of paris dress forms for about 30 Ashland women. Miss Pool will be here three days the latter part of April and will conduct a school of sewing at that time.

Mrs. Viola Hall and son, Hal Hall, of Los Angeles, Calif., sister and nephew of Mrs. B. R. Greer, will arrive this afternoon. Mrs. Hall plans to stay the rest of the winter.

Mrs. M. E. Riley, a former resident of Ashland but who has been living in Texas for several years, is back in Ashland and expects to locate here again. Mrs. Riley is delighted to return to this section, which she claims is the best in the world.

Rev. W. W. Youngston, one of the leading Methodist clergymen of Portland, has been secured to preach a sermon to the Knights Templar in the local Methodist church on Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Hardewald accompanied the MacAdams children to Medford this week where the latter underwent an operation in which their tonsils were removed.

Mrs. Howard Baer of Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. Gertrude Fussy of Rathdrum, Idaho, are expected in Ashland tomorrow morning and will be guests at the homes of Mrs. T. H. Simpson on North Main street and Mrs. H. J. Carter on Alta avenue.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fahs at one of the local hospitals this morning.

John Harris of Hornbrook has accepted a position as second trick operator with the Southern Pacific company in this city. He has assumed his new duties.

Mrs. Joseph Foley has gone to Corvallis where she will make a home for her two daughters, Miss Minnie and Evangeline, who are at the Agricultural college. They will remain there during the rest of the school year.

Miss Mattie Turner of Talent came up this morning to spend the week end with her aunt, Mrs. George Robison.

Provoost Brothers closed a contract yesterday for the plumbing of eleven new bungalows and a new hotel to be built by the Fruit Growers Supply Company at Hill, Calif.

MONDAY'S NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Shinn left Saturday night for Portland to spend a few days with their son, Neil, who is in that city attending a dental college.

Quite frequent rains for the coming week is forecasted by the weather bureau. This will be in the north and central portions of the state, and generally fair in the south portions with nearly normal temperature.

William Hintze of Redwin, Minn., a former resident of Ashland, is in the city today looking after business affairs and calling on old-time acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Stoney of Long Beach, Calif., are in Ashland for the benefit of their health. They are occupying apartments in the Allen building.

Robert I. Ellis, a Southern Pacific switchman of Oakland, drove from that city to Ashland in his Cadillac last week and visited for several days with the family of C. R. Rose. Mr. Ellis reported that it started to rain after he left Redding, and the roads were quite bad all the way here on account of it. He left this morning for Grants Pass where he will locate on a ranch he is improving in the Applegate district.

Mrs. C. B. Gison left today with her husband, who is seriously ill, for San Francisco where the latter will enter a hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Oscar Panstoen of Madison, Calif., arrived in Ashland Friday night and will visit for some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Patterson, and other relatives.

John Pohland of Reno, Nev., is in Ashland, visiting with his mother, Mrs. H. F. Pohland.

Miss Kathryn Miller, a teacher in the Junior high school, is able to resume her duties this week after being absent for several days on account of illness.

George M. Robison and Otto Michel went down to Fern Valley yesterday afternoon to witness the starting of the oil well drilling in that vicinity.

Miss Elene Robinson of Grants Pass dropped in Saturday and spent the day with Mrs. J. L. Hoyt.

J. T. Docker was a visitor in Montague during the past week.

Mrs. Alene Bonar Flynn, daughter of Mrs. C. M. Bonar of this city, is gaining an enviable reputation as an advertisement illustrator in San Francisco. Several stores and business places in the city are publishing advertisements with illustrations designated by Mrs. Flynn, who makes most attractive pictures for this purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McLean of Windom, Minn., and Mrs. B. B. Sutcliffe of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, arrived in Ashland Saturday and are guests at the home of their cousin, Mayor C. B. Lamkin. Incidentally the mayor states he is going to locate there here.

H. O. Froben, the newly elected secretary of the Medford Chamber of Commerce, has arrived at his new destination from Three Forks, Montana, and together with his wife is looking up a location preparatory to assuming his duties the first of April. Mr. Froben was former secretary of the Ashland Chamber of Commerce, and was a caller on his former friends and acquaintances here Saturday afternoon.

Grover C. Walters, aged 29 years, died in Phoenix Friday night from injuries sustained by falling from a building the forenoon of the same day. He was well known and was a popular young man in that community. Funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon.

Harold Porter, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Porter, is quite ill.

The Ashland High school basketball team was again victorious over Medford high in a game played in the latter city last Saturday night. The score was 35 to 13.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

The thank offering of the women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church which was taken yesterday amounted to $71.10.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Yockey sold two lots on Glen Terrace Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shell were the purchasers.

H. S. Palmerlee and family are occupying the residence at 60 Granite street, owned by Mrs. I. D. Applegate. H. W. Hach, who bought the Palmerlee residence at 53 Granite street, is moving into his new home today.

Don B. Smith of Portland, a former well known resident of Ashland, died in that city last Friday. Mr. Smith was the father of Mrs. S. A. Peters of this city, and was a director of the Citizens Bank during his residence here. He will be interred in Portland.

Mrs. H. E. Robison, who has been spending the past week in Ashland at the home of her son, G. M. Robison, returned yesterday to Talent to visit with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Smith left this morning on an extended trip. After stopping for a day in Fresno, Calif., they will go to Globe, Ariz., to spend several weeks with relatives.

The public service commission has ordered the two railroad crossings closed at Frederick, and one put in by the county running at right angles with the railroad at a point south of the present crossing nearest Talent. This will do away with but one crossing on the old road.

Owing to the bad weather yesterday the festivities incident to starting drilling for oil in Fern's valley were postponed for another week. A good-sized crowd from various points in the valley gathered at the derrick in the afternoon, and in order not to disappoint these drilling was started. The real christening ceremonies will not take place until next Sunday, however. Everything worked smoothly, and drilling will continue right along now.

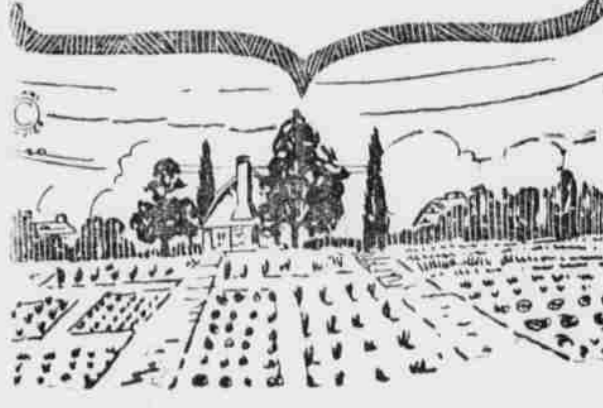

A REAL STOCK AND GRAIN FARM

No. 93—Splendid, almost new and quite modern 5-room bungalow on paved street, close to center of city; attractive neighborhood; new range in place. Quick possession; a splendid buy. $3500.

No. 95—I have two extraordinary snap buys just now, for some wise person that can move fast enough to be "first come." A half acre splendidly located, close to small cottage, needing some improvement; $800 will make this a $2000 property. Price this week $1000.

Another place ready to move into. Large lot and fairly good 5-room house; lots of fruit; about half way between high school and depot. Easy payments $800 if moved before the 15th.

I have a large list. Glad to show you around.

E. T. STAPLES

Office, 63 Main Street, next door Ford Garage. Phone 26

EASTER Comes Early This Year

Easter Comes on April 4th

That gives you only three weeks to prepare for it

Our stock of Suits, Coats, Skirts, Dresses, Waists and Petticoats is about as completely ready for your selection as possible.

Let us help you make your selections now and have your garments ready ON TIME

Advertisement for Dickerson Paint and McGee's Dry Goods. Dickerson Paint: THE PAINT MAN, ASHLAND, OREGON. McGee's DRY GOODS: New Coats and Suits For Spring Are Here. New Waists Are Here. Voiles, Georgettes and Crepe de Chine. For Those Who Sew: You will find a wonderful assortment of Spring Materials for any kind of garments. Splendid Sport Silks, Pretty Printed Voiles, Wool Suitings and Coatings. Fitrite Petticoats For Spring Are Here. New Skirts Are Here. Wool Plaids And Sport Silks.

Advertisement for Lilly's Seed Book. A Helpful Seed Book. ILLUSTRATED WITH COLOR PHOTOGRAPHS. No wise seed buyer will think of purchasing his requirements without first consulting this book. It tells positively of the "BURY SEEDS FOR THE WINTER" principle of authentic information and contains over 200 photo engravings showing actual results from Lilly's Seeds. It is acknowledged to be the LEADING WESTERN SEED CATALOG. WRITE FOR YOUR COPY TODAY. The Chas. H. Lilly Co., Seattle, Yakima, Portland.