

Local and Personal

MONDAY'S NEWS

Phone 119. We call and deliver. Pauleud & Barrett, Cleaners and Pressers. 172-41

Miss Mary Ives, who has made her home in Ashland for the past three years with her uncle and aunt, Mayor C. B. and Mrs. Lamkin, left yesterday to join her parents and other members of her family at Silverton.

A house belonging to William Myer of this city burned to the ground Saturday in Medford. Mrs. Kershaw, who is teaching the Lone Pine school, occupied the house and also lost all of her belongings. The fire is supposed to have started by sparks from the flue.

Mr. and Mrs. Westmore and young son, who have been spending the winter in Los Angeles, arrived Saturday on their way home to Spokane, and are visiting Mrs. Westmore's aunt, Mrs. C. B. Lamkin. They are making the trip in their automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wolfe expected to start last night from San Diego where they had been spending several months this winter, on their return home. They will make the journey in their automobile, and will be some time on the way.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Wallster have purchased the Freeberg property on Second street through the Ashland Realty company. It is a very desirable place and admirably located for the convenience of the new owners.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Stewart, who have been living at various points in Northern California this winter where Mr. Stewart's business has taken them, have come to Ashland and will reside permanently here. It is Mr. Stewart's intention to again go into the grocery business at his former stand on the Boulevard and Iowa street.

D. W. Powers, a well known garage man of Weed, Calif., was a Sunday visitor at the home of his cousin, Claude Millet of North Main street.

George S. Randolph, aged 63 years, died at his home at 1111 Iowa street Sunday morning at 10 a. m., after an extended illness. The body will be shipped to Cottage Grove Tuesday morning for burial. Mr. Randolph is survived by his wife and a brother, Joseph S. Randolph of San Francisco.

Joseph S. Randolph of San Francisco is in Ashland, called by the death of his brother, the late George S. Randolph.

Ernest Abbott is home from Corvallis where he is a student at the Agricultural college, and is spending his vacation at his home on East Main street.

Rose Bros. have installed a fine instantaneous gas heater in their confectionery which is a most convenient adjunct to their business.

The residence of C. B. Howard on his Neil creek ranch, and practically its entire contents was destroyed by fire, as announced in the Tidings Saturday. Mrs. Howard was alone at the ranch at the time. Mr. Howard having left the evening before in answer to a summons to Texas that his son had undergone an operation for appendicitis and was in a serious condition. When discovered the whole structure was ablaze, and was consumed before help arrived. It is thought defective wiring caused the fire.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Smith, whose death occurred at her home on Pine street Saturday, took place this afternoon from Stock's undertaking parlors at 2:30 o'clock and interment was made in Mountain View cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McLean and Mrs. B. B. Stulliff, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lamkin, left this morning for Chicago after spending the past week in Ashland.

Lark Evans, who was tried before circuit court last week on the charge of robbing J. D. White of Grants Pass last fall, was found guilty by the jury Saturday evening. Sentence will be given Tuesday. Evans was released on $1000 bail furnished by his father.

Fair weather for the coming week is promised by the U. S. weather bureau for the period of March 22 to March 27, inclusive. The forecast issued for the Pacific coast states, generally fair, except occasional rains first half of week over northern portion. Nearly normal temperatures.

Mrs. Mary Griffith left Sunday morning for Los Altos to make an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Bob Prosser.

Frank Havenor of Washougal, Wash., spent several days during the past week visiting the Carpenter and Heath families on Terrace street. He was very much pleased with this section, and is making plans to move here in the near future.

Royal U. Chambers underwent a serious operation at the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford last Saturday during which he was on the operating table two hours and forty-five minutes.

G. W. Crewes, a former resident of Ashland, who has been spending several months in Holtville, Calif., has returned to Ashland and will again make this city his home. During his absence Mr. Crewes, who, during his winter here, was getting so warm he was compelled to seek the mountain sections where the climate is more to his taste. Students at the high school at Holtville are deeply deploring the departure of Mr. Crewes, who, during his residence there, has done much for the students there in beautifying the school grounds.

Mrs. Nellie May Conner returned home Thursday from a trip to San Francisco, where she was visiting friends and also shopping.

Mrs. Nellie May Conner has purchased the Allen bungalow on Pioneer avenue and expects to remodel and occupy the same. The deal was made through the Staples Real Estate agency.

G. S. Butler recently sold 440 acres of land at Soda Gulch, east of Soda Springs, to Gene Bartlett. Before the ink was fairly cold on the deed Mr. Bartlett got from Mr. Butler, he in turn sold it to Wade Wallis of Soda Springs at a good profit.

The late Don B. Smith, who died last week in Portland, was an active member of Burnside Post, G. A. R., of Ashland during his residence here, and had always kept up his membership and interests in the local post. His war record, according to Burnside Post, included he saw three years and two months' service in the Civil War. He enlisted in the army in September, 1861, and served as corporal in Company P, First Missouri engineers.

In the trial of Harold Peyton and George Summers held in the circuit court at Jacksonville this week for larceny of a horse, the defendants were found not guilty. According to the evidence the young men had borrowed the horse from the barn of Bert Higginbotham at Prospect without the owner's permission, but had no intention of stealing the animal. The jury was out only a few minutes.

A deal in timber land was recently made wherein G. S. Butler disposed of 320 acres up Wagner creek to D. Peruzzi.

The fox terrier belonging to E. T. Staples, familiarly known as "Chum," will start on a long journey tomorrow. The little animal is being sent to Mr. Staples' son, C. M. Staples, and two children, who live in Morenci, Ariz.

L. J. Orres, the well known Ashland tailor, was a business visitor in Medford yesterday.

Sarah Gartner has purchased the house owned by Father Macklin next door to the Catholic parsonage on Sixth street.

Mrs. C. W. Winne is back from Portland where she had been spending several weeks this winter.

Mrs. D. Peruzzi was in Medford today transacting business matters.

Miss Gladys Norton, who has been clerking in Ferguson's dry goods store, tendered her resignation which is to take place tonight.

Elwood Hedburg came in this morning from Corvallis where he is a student at O. A. C. He will spend his spring vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hedburg.

Oliver Anderson, a student at O. A. C., is home on a short vacation.

R. W. Johnson of Fossil has purchased the P. L. Ashcraft property on the corner of Wimer street and Scenic Drive. This is one of the finest orchard properties in the city, and Mr. Johnson, who has a family of five, will come here in the fall to take possession in time for his children to enter school.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Oorthuys, who live on the Pacific highway near Talent, were Ashland shoppers this forenoon.

Jack Porter and Morris Kaegi are home from O. A. C. to spend a week's vacation with their parents here.

The ceremonies incident to christening the new oil well being sunk at Fern's valley have been postponed from tomorrow to a week from Sunday. At that time moving pictures are expected to be taken of the crowds in attendance.

Mrs. Mary Smith died this morning at 7:30 after a brief illness following a stroke. No arrangements for the funeral have been made at this writing.

Among those who are reported to have completed the community song leadership in a class conducted by Walter Jenkins in Portland appears the names of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Strickland. Mrs. Strickland is the daughter of Mrs. M. F. Swigert of this city and both she and her husband were former well known Ashland musicians.

Elmer Bagley is in Ashland from Corvallis where he is a student at the Agricultural college. He will spend his vacation with relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. Walter MacAdams is back from St. Louis where she was called by the death of her mother several weeks ago.

Word was received in Ashland about 2 o'clock this afternoon that the residence of C. B. Howard, on his ranch at Neil creek, had burned to the ground. No details of the fire have been learned, the news being telephoned in from that section.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smith of Woodstock, Kansas, stopped off here a few days this week on their way home from Southern California where they had been spending the winter, and visited for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Latham. The guests were delighted with Ashland and compared it with Southern California, as much superior. They expressed regret on leaving here.

Much interest is being manifested in the sensational trial of Lark Evans up before the circuit court, who is charged with kidnapping and robbing W. G. White, a Grants Pass jitney man.

State Highway Engineer Herbert Nunn, who recently made a trip by automobile from Medford to Salem, states that there is less than five miles of bad roads on the Pacific highway over the entire way. While Mr. Nunn would not advise tourists they can make the trip through in comfort, he says the journey can be made with comparative ease. By fall Mr. Nunn says, the entire road will be improved and easily and quickly made passable. Already many tourists are on the highway, according to Mr. Nunn.

Mr. and Mrs. James Helfrich of Rogue River were guests yesterday visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Wright.

The price of gasoline has taken a jump of two cents all over the northwest, according to an announcement issued yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Walker of Gold Hill came to Ashland Wednesday to attend the Wait-Newton wedding, and remained over to visit at the home of William Myer for a brief time.

Under the auspices of Ashland Post of the American Legion the O. A. C. Band will give a concert in the armory Wednesday evening, March 24. This musical aggregation is touring the state, and in connection with the band are carrying a seven-piece jazz orchestra which will play for the dance following the concert which will dedicate the new floor the Post recently had put in the armory.

The family of A. R. Porter is reported victims of the flu at their home on Liberty street.

Mrs. Nate Bates was called to Oakland, Calif., by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Ed Gibson.

Henry Harris Hill, nephew of Mrs. B. R. Greer, left last night for his home in Los Angeles, Calif.

During his recent visit to Jackson county Herbert Nunn, state highway engineer, gave little encouragement that any permanent improvement will be made on the Crater Lake road between Medford and Prospect in time for the coming season's tourist travel. However, he left the consoling news that temporary improvements will be made. The highway commission has promised to furnish the county with a motor truck and tank on condition that the county keep the road sprinkled six miles from Prospect toward Medford.

Mrs. Charles Hargadine received word yesterday of the death of her uncle, John Detwiler, which had occurred in Santa Monica, Calif., where he had been spending the winter. Mr. Detwiler had been a frequent visitor in Ashland at the home of his brother-in-law, John R. Casey, and had made many acquaintances here who will learn of his death with regret.

Mrs. E. Y. Gard of Seattle, a former well known Ashland resident, is visiting friends in Ashland. She arrived last night.

Wilmer Hill, who has been employed at Hills, Calif., came home this morning to spend a few days here.

Earl Biegel, a student at the Oregon Agricultural college, arrived last night to spend the spring vacation with his mother, sister and brothers at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Sheperd and Mr. and Mrs. Kale Shepherd are expected to start home from Los Angeles today, and will make the trip here in their automobile.

Miss Bessie Carpenter, who went to San Jose, Calif., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Carpenter, will remain there until the school is closed. She has been taking a course in kindergarten work at the normal school in that city.

Mrs. George Yates of the clerical force of Ferguson's drygoods store, was a Medford visitor yesterday afternoon.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

Word has been received in Ashland that Mrs. Stuart Saunders is seriously ill in Santa Cruz, Calif., where the family are spending the winter. Her many friends deeply regret to hear of her sickness.

The family of G. M. Frost, the most of whom have been undergoing a siege of influenza, are fully recovered and are able to be around again.

The funeral of the late P. S. Bowman, who died Tuesday in Talent, was held at the latter place this morning, with interment in the Stearns cemetery.

Harrison Brothers have been exhibiting a Fordson tractor at the Ford garage during the past two days. This is the first machine of the sort this agency has ever shown in the city, and is creating much interest among farmers and ranchers in the vicinity.

Another army man has gone back to the farm. This is Lieutenant O. Y. Morrow, a gallant officer with the Rainbow division in France. He has purchased Brookhurst, formerly owned by Dr. E. B. Pickel. This ranch consists of 153 acres, 60 of which is in peaches, six in apples and the balance in alfalfa and barley.

Mr. Minor of Bend came to Ashland last evening and will spend a few days there with the family of P. Provost, after which he will go to Los Angeles to join Mrs. Minor, who is spending the winter in the southern city, and return to Bend with her.

Mrs. F. J. Shinn is back from Portland where she had been spending several days visiting with friends.

H. H. Foster of Medicine Hat, Alberta, has been a guest at the McWilliams home at Bellevue for the last few days, looking after his property, the Sunset orchard, and other interests here. He left for his home Monday evening, but expects to return in the near future with his family, and may make Ashland his home. Although he was here during the recently stormy weather he was very favorably impressed with the country.

Mrs. Murray Murphy received the sad tidings this week of the death of her sister, Mrs. Eugene Olsen, who died at Sioux Falls, Mich., on March 16. The deceased was 24 years old.

Mrs. V. A. Stewart is in Ashland today from Zuleika, Calif., where Mr. Stewart has charge of men in the employ of the Southern Pacific. They expect to return to Ashland by summer to live, but just at present are camping at the various stations on the railroad where Mr. Stewart's business calls him. They live in a passenger coach, according to Mrs. Stewart, where they have four rooms, and are very comfortably domiciled. When business takes the crew to some other point, Mrs. Stewart is spared the trouble of moving, as all she has to do is to remove the lamp chimneys and put the clock where it is safe, while an engine is hitched to their abiding place and they are whisked to their new location without the trouble and vexation incident to packing their household effects.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter, who have been spending several months in San Jose, Calif., returned home last evening. The trip was made in their automobile, and Mrs. Carpenter, who has been in delicate health, is much improved, and stood the trip remarkably well. Mr. Carpenter stated this morning they had had a delightful winter in California, but that he was glad to get back to Ashland and didn't care who knew it.

Mrs. Dorothy McPherson of San Francisco arrived in Ashland last evening to visit for several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Trefren, and other relatives.

Walter L. Tooze, Sr., organizer of the Leonard Wood Clubs of Oregon, is an Ashland visitor today. Mr. Tooze expects to organize a republican club while in the city.

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS

Glenn Rhodes, a substitute mail clerk, has come to Ashland and is filling the place of Walter H. Watson, who has been called to Los Angeles by the serious illness of his brother.

Cam Caylor of LaGrande, who has been a week's visitor at the home of Tom Peach, left this morning for his home. Mr. Caylor was much pleased with Ashland and this section of country during his sojourn here.

BARGAINS

A lady in California writes me to push the sale of her property at 121 Bush street, for which she paid $3500.00, and for quick sale will take $1000.00. $1000.00 cash, balance can be paid in $100.00 installments at any interest date. This property is well located, has 7 rooms, fine bath fixtures, pantry, store room, wash room with stationary tubs, wood house and sleeping porch. Lot 100x155 to alley. An extra good barn, chicken house and a good variety of bearing fruit trees and berries; only 3 blocks to business part of city; 2 blocks to Junior high school; 2 blocks to church. House is plastered and in fair condition. Lot 75x100, 6 room house, fair condition, bearing fruit trees and berries. City street work in and paid for. Only $800. Why worry about high priced property when you can buy this at such a low figure and terms given.

Mrs. S. L. Allen Phone 16.

Mrs. Laura Farmer left last night for San Francisco where she expects to sojourn for some time.

A. E. McFarland, the well known carpenter of Ashland, has gone to Klamath Falls where he will be engaged in building for an extended time.

Mrs. Ed Flackus and daughter are home from Cottage Grove where they had been spending the past month visiting with relatives.

Joe Kirby was in Ashland today from Bray, Calif., transacting business.

Mrs. Lottie M. Paulson of Portland, a former well known Ashland resident, is in the city today looking after business interests here.

Through the efforts of the Ashland Fish and Game association the state game commission has sent twelve pairs of China pheasants, which were received and liberated March 12 in the vicinity of Ashland. It is hoped there will be sportsmanlike co-operation on the part of all that these birds may increase and add to the attractiveness of this region.

Miss Martha Elliott of the Green Springs mountain district, is expected home today from San Francisco where she had been a inmate of a hospital for some time undergoing treatment.

Mrs. Merle Robinson received the announcement today of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. George Wynne of San Francisco. Mrs. Wynne was formerly Miss Ruth Hadley, a well known Ashland girl. The little lady will be called Margaret Gay Wynne.

Almond trees are bursting into bloom on the sunny hillsides of the city. The weather so far is not considered cold enough to have done them any injury, although a light frost was visible this morning. A few more sunny days will bring the almond trees out in full bloom.

F. J. Shinn is back from Portland where he had been spending several days the fore part of the week. Mrs. Shinn, who accompanied her husband to Portland, will remain in that city a few days longer.

EDNA PEARL PROSSER, Formerly Edna Pearl Hart, Administratrix. 89-4Wed

NOTICE OF HEARING ON FINAL ACCOUNT. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned has filed in the office of the Clerk of Court of Jackson County, Oregon, her final report as administratrix of the estate of Joseph Garland, Hurt and the Hon. G. A. Gardner, judge of said Court has designated April 24th, 1919, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the court house in Jacksonville, said county, as the time and place for hearing any objections thereto. Any person objecting thereto must file an objection on or prior to said date.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CONSTRUCT SEWER. TO ALL PERSONS INTERESTED in the ownership of any parcel of property and land within the following described boundaries, to-wit: One hundred and fifty (150) feet wide on each side of Granite street from a point where Granite street crosses the line between the property of the City of Ashland and the property of the City of Medford, extending south along Granite street to a point one hundred and fifty (150) feet south of the section line between section nine (9) and sixteen (16) township 28 north of range one west of Willamette Meridian (1804) last point being near what is known as the Praytor place.

It is the intention of the City Council of Ashland to have a sewer constructed to serve the district above described, to be known as Sewer District No. 19, the same to be an extension of the sewer system now in the City Park.

All persons and parties interested are hereby summoned and required to appear before the common council of the City of Ashland, at the city hall, Ashland, Oregon, at their next regular meeting on the 6th day of April, 1920, at 8 o'clock a. m. and there to offer any suggestions and objections thereto. The expenses incident to such sewer extension and the cost of the construction of such sewer to be hereafter assessed, in case of construction thereof, as special benefits against the real estate within said district benefited thereby. Dated this 19th day of March, 1920.

C. B. LAMKIN, Mayor of Ashland. GERTRUDE BEIDE, Recorder of Ashland. Date of first publication March 24th, 1920. 89-31-Wed.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE. By virtue of an execution in Force and Order of Sale duly issued out of and under the seal of the circuit court for the State of Oregon, for Jackson County, dated March 13th, 1920, in a certain suit therein, wherein Charles E. Hooper and Pearl A. Hooper are plaintiffs, recovered judgment against Margaret L. Resser, Horace P. Resser and Elsie Resser, as defendants, for the sum of Three Thousand Three Hundred Thirteen and 00/100 ($3313.00) Dollars, together with Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars attorney's fees and $20.10 costs which judgment was entered and docketed in said Court March 13th, 1920.

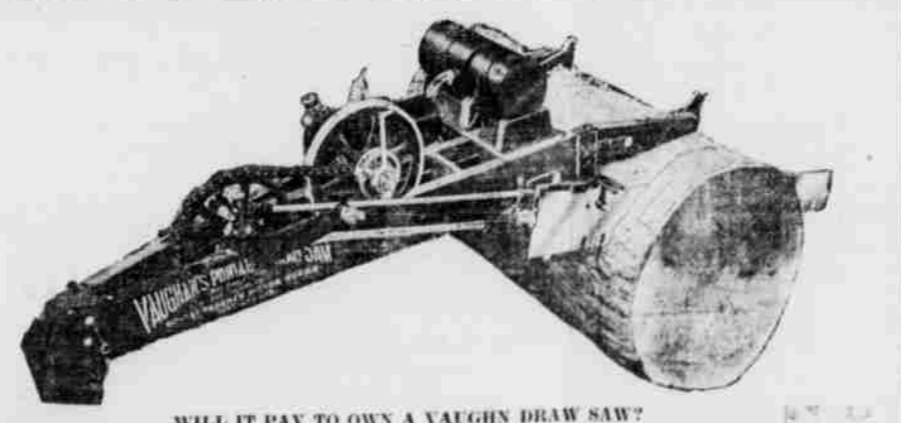

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the terms of said execution, I will on Saturday, April 24th, 1920, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the front door of the courthouse in the City of Jacksonville, Jackson County, Oregon, offer for sale and sell at public auction for cash to the highest bidder, with the said sale subject to redemption as provided by law, all of the right, title and interest that the said defendants jointly or individually, had on November 23rd, 1915, or have since acquired, or now have in and to the following described property, situated in Jackson County, state of Oregon, to-wit:

The west half of the northeast quarter, the east half of the northwest quarter, the northwest quarter of Section 30, and the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of Section 19, all in township 28 north of range 3 east of the W. M., and also the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 25, in township 28 north of range 2 east of W. M., all in Jackson County, Oregon, and also the saw-mill and equipment thereon.

Dated at Jacksonville, Oregon, March 13th, 1920. C. E. TERRILL, Sheriff of Jackson County, Oregon. By FLORA THOMPSON, Deputy. 89-4-Wed

EASTER Comes Early This Year. Easter Comes on April 4th. That gives you only three weeks to prepare for it. Our stock of Suits, Coats, Skirts, Dresses, Waists and Petticoats is about as completely ready for your selection as possible. Let us help you make your selections now and have your garments ready ON TIME. Mrs. S. L. Allen Phone 16.

New Coats and Suits For Spring Are Here. New Waists Are Here. Voiles Georgettes and Crepe de Chine. For Those Who Sew. You will find a wonderful assortment of Spring Materials for any kind of garments. Splendid Sport Silks. Pretty Printed Voiles. Wool Suitings and Coatings. Mc Gee's DRY GOODS. Fitrite Petticoats For Spring Are Here. New Skirts Are Here. Wool Plaids And Sport Silks.

WILL IT PAY TO OWN A VAUGHAN DRAW SAW? By hand you can saw 5 cords of wood a day at a cost of $1.25 per cord. With a Vaughan saw one man can produce 20 cords a day, at a cost of 27 1/2 cents a cord. Vaughan drag saw will earn you $19.50 a day profit, less oil and gasoline, which, for 16 hours' continuous running will cost about $1.50. See how quickly the Vaughan drag saw will pay for itself in additional profits? And after it has earned its cost it goes right on earning for years if properly cared for. The saw can be taken into the woods anywhere a horse can go. Come in and let me show you. EMIL PIEL At the corner on the Plaza.