

Local and Personal

MONDAY'S NEWS

The Ministerial Association of Ashland has announced a union meeting to be held in the Vining theater on Good Friday.

Dr. Bertha Sawyer has moved from the J. M. Wagner residence on Oak street to the Wheeler residence on North Main street.

Dobbin Irwin has sold the Valley Auto line running between Ashland and Medford, the Interurban Auto company taking it over and merging the two lines together.

Fred C. Homes, president of the Ashland Republican club, was one of the speakers at the organization of the Leonard Wood club in Medford Saturday night.

R. L. Burdick III, is one of the latest residents of Ashland. This young man, weighing 7 1/2 pounds, arrived at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdick Jr. yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Kotehum left yesterday morning for Redding, Calif., where they will visit with friends.

R. P. McNeil left Saturday for San Francisco where he will join Mrs. Neil, who has been spending several weeks there.

K. W. Acker left Friday for Klamath Falls after spending some time here taking treatment at the Dr. Hawley mineral baths and rest cure for rheumatism and lumbago.

Generally fair, is the weather forecast for the coming week. For the Pacific Coast states the U. S. department forecasts frequent rains in the north portion, and generally fair in the south portion with temperature nearly normal.

Mrs. Mary Wilshire is in receipt of word from Mr. and Mrs. Marble, former Ashland residents, who for many years conducted a photographic studio in the Camps building here.

Mrs. L. Willets of Klamath Falls, Mrs. C. W. Wolters of Talent and Miss Elfa Brunen of Wagner Creek are in Ashland taking mineral baths and treatment at the Dr. Hawley rest cure.

Charles Houston Ling of Medford was an Ashland visitor yesterday. Mr. Ling has recently been discharged from the aviation department of the army and returned to his home from Kelly Field, Texas, Friday.

J. H. Fuller left Saturday night for Port Arthur, Texas, where he will join the Ellison-White bureau and be connected with that organization during the spring. He expects to be back in time to arrange for the summer Chautauqua in Ashland, of which he is president.

Now is the time, Orres is the place to get your garments cleaned and pressed for Easter, next Sunday. We call and deliver Phone 64.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butler of Yreka are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brittan this week.

Mrs. B. P. Whitney leaves this evening for Portland where she was called by the death of her brother-in-law, Phil Metchan, a prominent resident of the state. The funeral will be held tomorrow.

Miss Florence Allen, one of the teachers in the Hawthorne school, is incapacitated on account of an attack of measles which confines her to the house.

Mrs. L. C. Ashby and son Bobbie arrived yesterday from Tacoma to visit with Mrs. Ashby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandry and little daughter Doris of Rogue River were guests of Mrs. J. L. Herr Saturday and Sunday.

A Leonard Wood club was organized in Medford Saturday night with over 300 members including Medford, Jacksonville, Central Point, Gold Hill, Phoenix and Talent. The officers of the new organization are: President, Ralph P. Cowgill; vice-president, Mrs. A. J. Klockner; secretary, T. W. Miles; treasurer, Mrs. Bert Anderson. Several stirring addresses were made and a new organization, with which the women's Leonard Wood club of Medford has been merged, starts out under most auspicious and enthusiastic conditions.

Mrs. J. L. Herr and her house guest, Mrs. Sandry of Rogue River motored down to Medford Sunday.

Charles H. Johnson, coast representative of the Diston Saw Manufacturing company, is spending a few days in Ashland this week, visiting with friends.

Miss Helene Casey is in Ashland from Santa Monica, Calif., looking after business interests here and visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. J. Roberts and Mrs. Lulu Van Wagon were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gall in the Bellevue district Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. King of Medford were Sunday guests of Ashland friends.

Mrs. Levi Stevens and daughter spent Saturday in Ashland, guests of Mrs. Dora Hubbard, and Sunday as guests of Mrs. J. L. Herr.

SATURDAY'S NEWS

The school board convention and teachers' local institute which was to have been held at Ruch in February, will be held at the Ruch school house on Saturday, April 3, 1920. A good attendance of school board members, teachers and school patrons is desired as this will likely be the only meeting of the nature held in the Applegate valley this year.

All members of the National Guard coming to drill next Monday night are requested to wear rubber soled shoes in order to not mar the new floor of the Armory.

Next Monday night the quarterly muster and inspection will take place with E. company, National Guard. Every member is expected to be present at this meeting, and any one not showing up who has not sent a written excuse will be sent for by a squad. If he cannot then show a sufficient excuse for being absent he will be courtmartialled.

Mr. and Mrs. Worthington are in Ashland from Vancouver, Wash. They came here for the benefit of their health, and expect to remain long enough to try out the mineral waters thoroughly. If events shape themselves in the way they expect, they will secure a home here and be numbered among the many new residents of this city.

Fred Schuerman and LeRoy Ashcraft came in last night from Eugene to spend their spring vacation at their homes here.

G. W. Pennebaker, a well known broker of Mentaka, Calif., is spending a few days in Ashland this week, a guest of his brother-in-law, A. C. Ninniger. Mr. Pennebaker was a former resident of this city, where he conducted a grocery store several years ago.

Harry Grubb, representing the American Bank Protection company with headquarters in Los Angeles, is spending a few days in Ashland at the home of his mother, Mrs. John Grubb, on F street. He expects to remain here until Monday.

Dr. G. W. Gregg is driving a fine new Sedan Ford which is a recent acquisition, made through the local Ford garage.

Captain Millard Grubb has tendered his resignation to the National Guard. Officers will be elected a week from next Monday evening, at which time this vacancy will be filled. Meanwhile, First Lieutenant W. M. Briggs is in command.

G. E. Whippley has purchased the M. C. Leslie property at 353 Iowa street, and will make it his home. The deal was transacted through the Beaver Realty company.

H. A. Stearns of the Self-Service Store has secured the Holley residence on Granite street and will reside there for the present. He has been joined by his family this week from Albany.

G. W. Trofren had two coils stolen from his Ford car last night. Nothing else is reported missing from the machine.

The E. N. Norton Motor company made some particularly good sales this week. Among these is the sale of a Columbia Six to Jesse Neil. This is one of the new models just brought in, and is one of the handsomest cars in the valley. Other sales were made to A. M. Beaver, who acquired a Chevrolet, and Jesse Clary, who purchased a Ford touring car.

Joseph Cyr of the Ashland creamery leaves today for Kelso, Wash., to be gone three or four weeks. Mr. Cyr is a stockholder in the Kelso creamery, and it is business pertaining to that industry that is taking him away.

Superintendent G. A. Briscoe and T. H. Simpson are spending a few days in Albany this week, attending to business connected with the public schools.

Harold Simpson, a student of the University of Oregon, is home from Eugene for the spring vacation. He arrived yesterday.

A very comfortable and attractive ladies' room has been fitted up in the Armory by the American Legion which has been making extensive repairs and improvements to the building. This room is furnished with a couch, easy chairs and many convenient toilet accessories for the use of women who attend the various social functions held in the Armory.

Five Medford high school boys after undergoing a thorough sweating in the county prosecuting attorney's office have confessed to the vandalism perpetrated on the high school of that city Wednesday night, when the school house was broken into, the desks and seats painted, and much other damage done. These boys, whose names are being withheld, shouldered all responsibility for the act, and cleared all suspicion from any teachers or patrons of the school participating in any way. The boys are properly penitent and will not be prosecuted for their rash deeds. The charges against them, however, are held in abeyance, pending future conduct.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Bailey moved this week from the house they have been occupying to one on Nob Hill street.

The contract has been let for fixing up the parking around the Armory, and the grass plots will be seeded and made as attractive as it was formerly. The shrubbery will also receive proper attention and by midsummer the surroundings of that building will be extremely attractive. A request has been made to the adjutant general for funds to complete the cement floor in the basement. If this is granted the interior of the building will be as attractive as the outer surroundings.

The Neil property, at the head of Laurel street and one of the most attractive homes on the West side, was sold this morning through the Ashland Realty company to Mr. and Mrs. Crisp of the Nelda cafe.

Mrs. C. W. Klum will sing "Palm Branches" tomorrow, Palm Sunday, at Trinity Episcopal church.

Mrs. Mattie E. Davis, a well known resident of Ashland, who went to Stockton last fall to make her home, became so homesick for Ashland that she has again returned to live here. She arrived this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clark, who have been guests of relatives and friends in Ashland for the past week, left last night for the north.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Stennett, who were married the first of the week, have started house-keeping in the house owned by Mrs. C. E. Lane on Granite street. Last evening a number of their friends serenaded them at their home.

H. E. Badger and family have returned to their Ashland home after spending the winter in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Davenport arrived on train 13 this morning from Iowa to visit their daughter, Mrs. Murray Murphy. The latter has been quite ill for several weeks.

Mrs. H. A. Stearns arrived in Ashland yesterday from Albany to join her husband, the proprietor of the Self-Service store. As soon as they can get a home Mr. and Mrs. Stearns will send for their children, who are stopping at present with relatives in Medford.

John H. Farrar, who moved from Ashland three or four years ago and settled at Myrtle Creek, has sold his property there. It is reported, and expects to return to Ashland to live.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Shepherd and son, Kale Shepherd, came in yesterday from the south where they had been spending the winter. They made the trip overland in their automobile, and got through over the mountains without any trouble, despite the storms that have prevailed this week.

A baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sanders on March 22. The little lady has been named Florence Genevieve.

The recruiting officers, who have been stationed in Ashland for the past week or two endeavoring to interest young men in joining the army, left last night. The most of them were bound for Portland.

Mrs. A. L. Eggleston of Portland, a former well known resident of Ashland, is in the city looking after business affairs here and visiting with old-time acquaintances.

James Hersey, the "honey man," on north Main street, is renovating and repainting his house, on that street.

Chapped Hands?

Turpo, the only Turpentine ointment, will fix it. After washing hands, rub in Turpo before drying. My what a difference! Try it.

PEIL'S

Corner By the Park New Spray and Garden Hose, just in fresh from the factory. A carload of machinery and mower repairs has arrived. Look to your cutting machinery early for your repairs. New and used sewing machines always for sale in stock. EMIL PEIL.

Staples Realty Agency

Come and see us. Three salesmen on duty to show you our bargains. BUY BEFORE THE BOOM.

- No. 93—Neat 5-room bungalow, stylish architecture, completely modern, shade trees, paved street; close to business center. One of the few attractive ones left. $3500.
No. 106—6-room house, modern appointments, lovely shade trees, fruit and flowers; large lot; cement walk; range in place; beautiful surroundings; 1 block from M. E. church. $2500.
No. 109—7-room bungalow cottage on fine location, splendid street; good well built neighborhood; 2 blocks from Junior high school; large lot; abundance of variety fruit. A snap. $2500.
No. 105—Eight room house, first class condition, modern appointments on paved street. Two acres and a half gentle slope, overlooking Bear Creek valley. Family orchard with variety of fruit, also variety of berries. Abundance of water, good barn and outbuildings, kitchen range in place. Price $4200; terms.
No. 102—5-room cottage, bath and toilet, screen porch, barn, chicken house, etc; lot 50x40 feet. Splendid location on paved street. One block from Overland garage.
No. 301—750 acres, splendid mountain ranch, 10 miles from Ashland on road to Lake of the Woods, 100 acres in cultivation, timothy and alfalfa, 100 more acres could be put in. Good deal of mature sawed timber on the place. Well watered and the surrounding cattle range is extremely good. Ranch is all under fence. Good seven-room well furnished house, good barn 40x60 ft., other outbuildings, abundance of water for irrigation.
No. 15—2-acre orchard and garden tract; scenic location, overlooking the town, easy of access. Variety of fruit producing several hundred dollars per acre annual income. Splendid five-room modern one-story house, large porches, considerable furniture including range and heater stove, also barn. For a short time only. Price $2500.
No. 101—Almost new 5-room bungalow, modern inside improvements. Large lot, level, two blocks from Boulevard overlooking valley. $2000, part cash, payments monthly or any way to suit.
No. 283—10 acres young bearing orchard in pink of condition, 2 acres of Bing cherries, 5 acres Newtown apples all 9 years old and have brought in nice income; 3 acres unleased, the whole tract is fenced. No buildings but good well; cultivated, light wagon and harness to with the place. Beautiful location a mile out of city. Price $4000.
No. 284—20 acre ranch of splendid practically level black soil, good house, barn and chicken house. Good family orchard and barn, 4 miles from highway; easy of access; splendid location. Price $3000; terms.
No. 289—8-acre grain and fruit ranch with fairly good 3-room house. Water piped to the same from springs. Quite a variety of fruit, just out of the city limits. Price $2600; terms.
No. 414—First class store building, warehouse attached, lot 50x120 ft., east side of town; will serve for grocery and feed store, service station. Former owner made money at the station. Splendid opportunity right now for some one to get into good business. Will sell this business property at less than it is worth or will exchange it for suitable residence property to the value of $3000.
No. 409—Have an extremely beautiful building lot on Oak street, facing west. Lovely shade trees and attractive surroundings. Right price will be made to interested parties. Also a very attractive building lot on Pioneer avenue, facing east, but owner desires to sell soon and the right price will be made.
No. 283—10 acres young bearing orchard in pink of condition, 2 acres of Bing cherries, 5 acres Newtown apples all 9 years old and have brought in nice income; 3 acres unleased, the whole tract is fenced. No buildings but good well; cultivated, light wagon and harness to with the place. Beautiful location a mile out of city. Price $4000.
No. 284—20 acre ranch of splendid practically level black soil, good house, barn and chicken house. Good family orchard and barn, 4 miles from highway; easy of access; splendid location. Price $3000; terms.

H. T. STAPLES Office: 63 Main Street, next door Ford Garage, Phone 26

Dr. E. A. Wood and Dr. C. F. Tilton are both laid up at present with a bout of influenza.

Mrs. Elva Hobart, pastor of the Free Methodist church of this city, was among the representatives to the mid-year convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, held in the Pilgrim Congregational church of Portland Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

A. B. Ray, a business man of Grants Pass, has been a visitor in Ashland for the past day or two.

Portland to Pendleton highway to be ready next summer for travel.

J. H. Ring came up from Gold Hill last evening to spend a week with his family here.

W. A. Rockefeller, the well known traveling salesman, is in Ashland today the guest of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lane.

George Dodson of the Iron works is still seriously ill, owing to a breakdown caused by too close application to business, and has been ordered by his physician to take a protracted vacation and will leave for Southern California as soon as he is able to travel. Mrs. Dodson will accompany him.

W. J. Carpenter, who traded his property in Ashland for one in Washougal, Wash., left last evening for his new location.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND THE SCRATCH OF A PIN SOUNDS AN ALARM The Electric Burglar Alarm System of our Vault is so complete, that the scratch of a pin sounds an alarm. This is the kind of protection you should have for your valuables. Keep them in our Vault. Safe Deposit Boxes for rent, $2.50 and up per year.

Mrs. Mary Wilshire is home from Hornbrook, Calif., where she had been spending several days visiting with friends.

Albert Johnson of Walnut street has torn down two old houses and is adding a suitable amount of new material thereto. He has built a fine up to date bungalow. This not only adds to the value of his holdings but also improves the appearance of the neighborhood and the town as well.

C. A. Morrison, formerly of Seattle, has come to Ashland and is looking around here preparatory to selecting a location for a home. He is at present living east of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gall in the Bellevue district Sunday.

Car Poultry Supplies

Look this list over; there is surely something you must have. Lowest possible prices.

- Diamond Chick Food.
Diamond Egg Producer.
Diamond Scratch Food.
Diamond Meat Scraps.
Diamond Fish Scraps.
Diamond Fish Meal.
Diamond Granulated Bone.
Diamond Grit.
Oyster Shell.
Poultry Shell.
Charcoal.
Pine Corn Meal.
Cotton Seed Meal.
Linseed Meal.
Soya Bean Meal.
Kaola Meal.
Alfalfa Meal.
White Shorts.
Mill Run.
Blatchford's Milk Mash.
Blatchford's Chaff Meal.
Blatchford's Pig Meal.

Flour and Feed

Ashland Fruit & Produce Association

Oranges Sweet, Ripe, Juicy Oranges

45c 60c 75c

FROM REDLANDS

Stearn's Self Service Store

OPPOSITE THE PLAZA 7 NORTH MAIN STREET

EASTER Comes Early This Year

Easter Comes on April 4th That gives you only three weeks to prepare for it

Our stock of Suits, Coats, Skirts Dresses, Waists and Petticoats is about as completely ready for your selection as possible.

Let us help you make your selections now and have your garments ready ON TIME

New Coats and Suits For Spring Are Here. New Waists For Spring Are Here. For Those Who Sew You will find a wonderful assortment of Spring Materials for any kind of garments. Splendid Sport Silks Pretty Printed Voiles Wool Suitings and Coatings. Mc Gee's DRY GOODS. Fitrite Petticoats For Spring Are Here. New Skirts Are Here. Wool Plaids And Sport Silks

Is Your Cracker Baker? TRUBLU

- We Feature Tru Blu "The Cracker for You." In Ashland Ashland State Exchange E. W. Flackus H. P. Holmes Plaza Market C. L. Loomis White House Grocery