

The Social Realm

Class Banquet. The Loyal Ladies' Bible class of the Christian church will give a banquet for the members and prospective members of the class on Friday evening, April 9. There will also be a program.

Cinderella Club Met. Mrs. Geo. H. Johnstone entertained the Cinderella Club at her home on Granite street, where the usual weekly gathering enjoyed a delightful evening. The membership list was practically present, and after spending several hours playing cards, refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Shultz on Third street next Monday evening.

Birthday Party. A charming children's party was held at the home of Mrs. A. L. Irwin on North Main street Saturday afternoon, at which time the fifth birthday anniversary of her little granddaughter, Evelyn Engle, who with her mother is visiting Ashland, was celebrated. The little lady was less than 2:30 to 4:30 and entertained a number of young guests with games of various kinds, after which they were served refreshments. The guest list included Alice and Billie Glenn, Genevieve Henley, Marquette Irwin, Evelyn Grace and Norman Louis Engle and Dorothea Woodson.

Kid Party. The Sperry class of the First Baptist church and their friends were delightfully entertained by their teacher, Miss Cymathia Perkins, at a "Kid Party." Old fashioned "kid" games were played, and "regular" cats were served. One of the main items being all-day suckers. An enjoyable evening was spent by the following students: "Rosey" Smith, "Mary Ann" Gasaway, "Bill" Moore, "Jerome" Mac Carter, "Martha" Sheldon, "Mary Gold" Moore, "Mattie" Imman, "Pollyanna" Klein, "Mirandy" Bechtel, "Cymathia" Hadfield, "Peter" Gear, "Jonathan" Crowson, "Jack" Field, "Bonnie" Gassaway, "Ezra" Griffith, "Josephus" McClelland, "Jonah" Bechtel, "Buster" Antray, "Rastus" Gear, "Davey Jones" Gassaway and "Bill" Willie Will, William Smith.

A number from Ashland will appear on the program, which will be as follows: 10:00 a. m.—Devotional, Mrs. Koehler. Business. Talk by Jubilee Key Women. Five Minutes with Delegates. Evening. In charge of visiting members: Mrs. McMichael, Misses Barr and Crawford. Easter services in the Methodist church were particularly impressive both morning and evening. The church was beautifully decorated with Easter bloom, and special musical features marked the morning's service, at which time Rev. W. W. Youngson, D. D., preached the sermon. In the evening a quartet, "The Easter Evangel," was rendered by the full choir, led by G. H. Yee. This was a particularly brilliant musical event and was listened to by a crowded house.

All churches in Ashland held special Easter services yesterday, with fine decorations and Easter music. The various pastors delivered sermons appropriate to the occasion.

Held Egg Hunt. Misses Marie MacAdams and Mildred Barber entertained a score of their little friends with an egg hunt Saturday afternoon at the home of the latter on Granite street. After several hours of fun and frolic delicious refreshments were served and the guests departed, carrying with them pleasant recollections of the afternoon and their two small hostesses.

Musical Recital. Miss Berna Haight gave one of her monthly musical recitals at the home of Mrs. Stevens on Helman street Saturday afternoon. The pupils present participated, and a number of little visitors came to enjoy the musical treat, and they also were invited to play. These recitals are attracting much attention among music lovers in Ashland. The class play principally from memory, with occasional exhibitions of slight reading and speed. The fact that the teacher is not only a remarkably fine pianist, but that she is blind, makes these features doubly interesting.

Blue Bird Party. Mrs. F. S. Engle, who has charge of the beginners' department of the Methodist Sunday school, assisted by Mrs. Myer, and Misses Inelene Campbell and Myrtle Dougherty, gave a blue bird party in the church parlors to thirty of the little members of the Sunday school Saturday afternoon. The room was beautifully decorated with blue birds and flowers, and the kiddies were made happy playing bird games and hunting eggs, after which they were taken to another room where little tables were arranged with most attractive Easter decorations and refreshments were served.

Easter Services. Particularly artistic were the decorations in the Presbyterian church yesterday for the Easter services held there. There were the work of Mrs. Otto Winter, who utilized the gift of calla lilies sent her from California by her daughter, Mrs. Charles Bourne. The lilies with spring flowers and greens were arranged in a most attractive and charming manner. The communion of the Lord's supper was observed at the morning service, at which time eight new members were received into the church.

Easter at Talent. The Easter services in the First Methodist Episcopal church at Talent were very much enjoyed by a large and appreciative congregation, and all unite in saying it was the finest Easter service held in Talent for years. The church was handsomely decorated with wild flowers, under the direction of Mrs. Morris, the wife of the pastor, assisted by Miss Madise Hookler. The choir under the leadership of Mrs. Morris rendered some very fine anthems and choruses. The Sunday school also took part in the service, singing several songs.

Mrs. Bechtel favored the congregation with a solo, Mr. Bawman and son, Ralph, played effectively on violins, which was very much enjoyed. The Misses and Mr. Hackler sang "He Arose." Rev. C. S. Morris delivered a short but eloquent and helpful address and administered the sacrament of baptism and at the close of the service received 15 into membership in the church.

Egg Hunt. Mrs. F. J. Shinn gave an egg hunt to the members of her Sunday school class at her home on Oak street Saturday afternoon. The kiddies had a happy playing on Saturday afternoon, and enjoying the Easter refreshments. Those present were: Wilbur Dickerson, Marion Frost, Henry Lindsey, Clarence Woods, Anton Bush and Elliott Mae Cracker.

Knight Templars' Service. The Methodist church was filled to its utmost capacity yesterday afternoon at the Easter services held by the Knights Templar. Upwards of 100 men and women from down the valley, Grants Pass, Medford and Jacksonville, were present and joined with the Ashland audience in making this event a particularly interesting one. The Knights in full regalia were in attendance in a body and conducted the ritualistic service, while Rev. W. W. Youngson, grand prelate of the grand commandery, preached the sermon. Special Easter music was rendered by the choir, which was of unusual merit, the solo by Mrs. H. T. Elmore being one of the numbers particularly enjoyed.

Helms of Medford will give her very interesting talk on "The Ideal Mother in Literature and Art." Miss Ruth Moss will play the steel guitar and Miss Margaret Dougherty, the ukulele, and they will accompany their playing by singing. Refreshments will be served.

"Fifth Tuesday" Observed. Hope Rebekah lodge observed "Fifth Tuesday" last evening at their lodge room. This event is always a red letter night among lodge members when five Tuesdays occur in a month, and last night's meeting was no exception to the rule. A large attendance was present, and after the regular lodge meeting a social session followed which certainly lived up to its name. An orchestra furnished live music for dancing, and refreshments were served.

Gave Party for Visitor. Miss Gertrude Biede entertained a company of friends at her home on Nob Hill street last evening in honor of Miss Helene Casey, who is visiting here from Santa Monica, Calif. The evening was spent in playing cards until a late hour, then dancing followed until about 1:30. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Entertained at Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barron entertained the family of S. Patterson at their home yesterday in honor of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Oscar Fansteel, who has been their guest for several weeks. A dinner was served the guests, after which the company spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Brown. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. Patterson, Mrs. Oscar Fansteel, Miss Rose Patterson and H. R. Lamkin.

Birth and Surprise Party. Mrs. S. B. Tallman of 322 Oregon street on the evening of April 1, was very agreeably and overwhelmingly surprised when a host of friends and neighbors came in and took possession of the house. Games were indulged in and a bountiful repast served. All enjoyed the evening.

Holmes, vice-president of the society, presided, and a short program was rendered, consisting of an instrumental solo by Mrs. Denton; a vocal solo by Mrs. Roche, and a short address by Rev. Stewart. Refreshments were served by the committee consisting of Mrs. Denton, Mrs. Gasaway and Mrs. Sheldon. Those present were Mesdames Holmes, Oxford, Roche, Smith, Hewitt, Hand, Chamberlin, Denton, Hala, Bechtel, Ward, Hinthorne, Boyd, Imman, Carson, Finch, Shelton, Satterfield, Harvey, Gasaway, Misses Imman and Chamberlin and Mrs. Cochran of Redmond.

"Moving Day" struck Ashland today and a number of families are undergoing the throes of changing residences. Among these latter is the family of L. C. Dunn, who moves from the Holmes property on North Main street to the Burdell home on Laurel street. The house they vacate will be occupied by E. H. Bush and family, who go from Oak street, and their recent residence will be occupied by H. K. Tomlinson, who has purchased the house. The house Mr. Tomlinson vacates will be occupied by Ernest Wallen, who bought it some time ago from Mrs. Allen. Some one else is moving in the house vacated by Mr. Wallen, who in turn is vacating a house to be occupied by some one else, and so the round continues. Houses are not allowed to stand idle a minute at present. Usually when a truck departs with a load of furniture from a house, another truck appears at the same time with the household effects of another family.

Over Twice as Many to Educate But Only Half as Much Money to Educate With. That is why the Oregon Agricultural College, the State University, and the Normal School cannot maintain themselves on the old basis. In 1913 they Had Only 2250 Students, but they Now Have 5400 Students.

In addition, their income in 1913 had twice the buying power of their income in 1920, due to the worldwide rise in costs over which of course they could have no control. The foregoing is one of many equally good reasons why you should vote for the Higher Educational relief bill at the election on May 21. Save the quality of higher education in Oregon, and give YOUR boy and girl, and YOUR NEIGHBORS, their rightful educational heritage.
