FLIRTING WITH DEATH

An appalling number of people are killed or injured every year in automobile accidents, most of which are caused by careless driving. The saddest thing about the accidents is that the innocent suffer with the guilty.

When a fine stretch of road looms ahead many a driver feels a strong temptation to "give her the gas," but the wise driver does not follow the impulse to the danger point. Though the road looks safe, the dangers in front of a speeding car may be many. The width of the road, the curves and the traffic must be considered.
What is safe speed at one place may be a dangerous speed a short distance ahead.

A driver ought to have regard for the safety of those riding with him and of others using the road.
Otherwise he will sooner or later learn a lesson, perhaps at the expense of life or limb. When someone is killed or maimed reckless driving becomes a tragedy instead of a joke, and the driver must feel that he is guilty of murder even though he escapes the penalty of the law.

Following are the advantages of a Bible Institute—spiritual and material:

1. Just as an individual must be balanced to be normal—to have equally developed the intellectual, spiritual and physical phases of his personality—so with a community.

MONDAY'S NEWS

Visitors at Local Church Yesterday was a great day among the Baptists of this city, when the local church was host to the Grants Pass congregation. About 50 of the latter came up late in the afternoon, prepared to have dinner in the park. Owing to the rain of the night before, the visitors found the park rather damp and chilly, so the guests adjoined to the church where the dinner was spread on the tables in the basement. As announced previously the evening services in the local church were turned over to the visitors. Sixteen members of the choir were among the guests, together with an instrumental trio, and these furnished an excellent musical program under the leadership of Prof Appelhoff, formerly of Ashland. The

It will bring more revenue than did the Round Up which brought great crowds for a few days; for, while no great mass of people will gather at any one time their longer stay will more than compensate for the lesser number.

It will put our fine Chan-taqua building to an admirable use, and thus help make us feel more that the structure fills a real need in the community.

In a following article we will state the nature of this institute.
Dates are July 25 to August 22.

not have any women among His

TOURISTS SPEND MONEY ON TRIPS

Astonishing figures on the money distributed by motorists making long-distance journeys have been compiled by the National Parks Highway association according to Lynn Mowat of this city. Mr. Mowat is the local representative of the highway which now extends by a well marked route from Chiesio to Crater Lake, Oregon, with gateways at each of the four national parks en route. Mr. Mowat says:

"Records kept by the highway representatives last year show that a little over 40,000 automobiles used the highway for trips of 1000 miles or more. We do not keep records of trips less than 1000 miles as we do not consider that they are transcontinental in character. Each of the 40,000 cars recorded carried an average of three persons to the car. According to government estimates, the average money spent daily by each person on the road is four dollars. Many who camp along the line will not spend over $3, but this is more than offset by the number who will spend from $5 to $6. Accepting the government's average of $4 per day and three persons to the car, we have $12 per car daily.

"Each of these autos was on the highway at least 10 days. At $12 per car a day, this would mean $120 spent by the occupants of each car. Taking our record of 40,000 cars at $120 each, we have a total of $4,800,000.
This, I believe, is conservative and it should be borne in mind that there were many other thousands of cars on the highway making shorter trips, all of them adding to the stream of dollars.

"The returns from motor travel are not by any means confined to hotels and garages although, of course, they receive a goodly portion. Many persons prefer to camp along the route but they must have groceries, clothing, ammunition, reading matter, souvenirs and incidentals. Motor travelers whether campers or hotel transients are liberal spenders at theaters and refreshment parlors. I believe every motorist buys some clothing during the trip, and the women's wardrobe is replenished.

"We are anticipating for 1920 an even greater year for tourist travel. In addition to the general campaign which promotes motoring and which has been gaining in results yearly, we have assurances that many caravans of Shriners will use the highway to reach reunion headquarters.

"The highway is in fair condition for travel at this early date with only a few bad stretches.
By the first of June the entire line will be in good condition."

pastor of the Grants Pass church delivered an inspiring sermon at this service. The local church people had arranged to give a supper to the visitors, but owing to the latter having their dinner at such a late hour, the supper was postponed until after the evening service. A fine feeling of fellowship prevailed throughout the entire service.

The morning service at this church was also of particular interest. Rev. Finch delivered a fine discourse appropriate to Mothers' Day. The church had been especially decorated in keeping with this occasion and the advent of the visitors from Grants Pass, and the floral decorations were especially fine. A male quartet, consisting of Messrs. Yeo, Tilton, Stratton and Cochran, rendered several beautiful and appropriate selections, aside from the special music prepared by the regular choir.

Observed 86th Birthday

A number of the members of Rev. William Johnson's Sunday school class gathered at the home of the latter's daughter, Ms. J. R.
Robertson, on Almond street, Saturday afternoon in honor of the aged teachers' 86th birthday anniversary. The occasion was also a celebration of the birthday of Mrs. Johnson, which occurs in two weeks, when the recipient will be the same age as her husband. The house was handsomely decorated with flowers and a pleasant afternoon was spent, during which the host sang and played for the entertainment of the guests. Mrs.
M. E. Boslough had made a fine birthday cake. Tea and cake were served. Those present were Rev. C. F. Koehler, Rev. and Mrs.
William Johnson, Mesdames Walker, Humphreys, Bessie, Miller, Boyd, Sillsby, Carey, McCarthy, Carpenter, Allen, Hays, Ross, Boslough, Curry, Rudd, Robertson, Hatch and Miss Welch.

Strong Women
BY DR. VALENTINE MOTT.

Without good red blood a woman has a weak heart and poor nerves.

In the spring is the best time to take stock of one's condition. If the blood is thin and watery, face pale or pimply, if one is tired and listless, generally weak, a Spring tonic should be taken. An old-fashioned herbal remedy that was used by nearly everybody 50 years ago is still safe and same because it contains no alcohol or narcotic. It is made of roots and herbs and called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. If druggists do not keep it in tablet form, send 60 cents for a vial to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' afternoon affair, held last Friday at the home of Mrs. F. D. Wagner, on Granite street. About thirty ladies, present and former members of the club, were entertained by Mrs. Wagner, Mrs. H.

C. Gale and Mrs. W. H. Mowat.
As the club year has been devoted to the study of the French language, a French play, "Les Deux Sourdus," was presented for the edification of the guests.
Judging from the hearty applause and the screams of laughter which erected the costumes, the acting, and the language of the players, their efforts to be amusing were successful. The parts of the four characters in the play were taken by the three hostesses, Mesdames Wagner, Gale and Mowat, and Mrs. Henry Provost. It was preceded by a resume of the play, in English, by Mrs. Mowat, and a beautiful piano solo most artistically rendered by Mrs. Ernest A.
Woods. Refreshments and a social hour completed a most delightful afternoon. Several former club members, who have been absent from the city for some time were honor guests, as was also Mrs. T. J. Malmgren of Phoenix, the club's instructor in the beauties, the mysteries and the vagaries of the French language, this being Mrs. Malmgren's first appearance in Ashland after a serious illness of many weeks.

BOY SCOUTS WILL

GET NEW UNIFORM
The Boy Scouts of America has adopted a new uniform for scouts and scout officials and there also has been accomplished a thorough revision of the scheme of badges.

Long before the European war there was a general demand for some effort at standardization in both the matters of uniforms and badges.

Very properly the executive board concluded that while the new uniform would be made available at the earliest possible moment it would be unfair to make it compulsory until January, 1922, thus giving fair opportunity to

THE PAINT MAN

For a day or so the corn remains getting looser and looser and withso loose that you just lift it right off, without even feeling it, and cast it away. That's how easily and simply "Gets-It" disposes of the While it is to be regretted that

REAL ESTATE

Farms, Orchards, City Homes, In-

Gradually, but certainly, all minds are "tunneling" to the one opinion: Better not postpone buy-

And Ashland affords some extraordinary investment advantages just now.

I offer the following bargains for this week:

No. 303—11 acre orchard, mostly cherries, unusually fine income property; slightly, splendid soil, gentle slope; good buildings, and altogether a bargain at $8500.

No. 247—Handsome home, fine residence and high grade orchard in edge of town. Orchard sells $2000 worth of fruit.
Very slightly and yet level location. A real bargain at $10, 500.

No. 111—5 room cottage, paved street, level ground, splendid location. For quick sale will sell with furniture and give immediate possession; $1200.

No. 112—A splendid strictly modern 6 room bungalow, 1 block from pavement, on nice street, fine surroundings, large lot; price just now $2400.

800 acre homestead relinquish-ments. Splendid stock ranch, land, 9 miles from town, below snow line, good for goats or sheep the year around; 250 goats go with place, and as owner has just had some hard luck and has to leave Ashland will sell goats and all for $1500.
