

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

MONDAY'S NEWS

Mrs. Gertie Lucke is quite ill at her home on Beach street.

Mrs. Gregg, the nurse, is quite sick with infection caused from an injury to her hands.

Generally fair, with nearly normal temperatures is the forecast for the weather for the period May 17 to 22, inclusive.

Mrs. F. S. Eagle will take the place of Miss Ruth Forus as domestic science teacher in Junior high school on account of the latter being called home.

Merritt Randle went down on No. 16 Saturday evening and was met at Gold Hill by his wife. They went on together to visit for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Roy McAllister near Grants Pass.

Political propaganda is burdening the mails and will continue to do so for a few days. On Monday an unusual heavy grist arrived at the Ashland postoffice and delayed the carriers in getting started with the Monday deliveries.

Mrs. Greenwood and son of San Francisco are visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. T. Franco, at her home on the Boulevard.

Dr. F. G. Swedenburg is moving this week to the house on the Boulevard which he purchased some time ago. This house has been completely remodeled, and is now one of the handsomest residences in Ashland.

Leslie Heer left Saturday for a few days' business trip to Portland.

Little Marietta Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Whitbey, is suffering from an attack of measles.

Rev. C. A. Edwards went down to Gold Hill Sunday evening where he preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of the high school there. A. M. Beaver accompanied him to Gold Hill yesterday afternoon, and returned with him after the services.

Cashier V. O. N. Smith of the Citizens Bank left Saturday for Portland on a few days' business visit.

Miss Gertrude Engle graduated from the University of California last Wednesday at which institution she had been taking a course during the past two years. She is at present teaching in the Junior High school in Oakland.

Mrs. George Robison and Mrs. Minnie Robison returned Saturday night from Portland where they had been spending the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Prose and their guests were among those at field day yesterday.

W. G. Curry left on train No. 15 last night for Brockwayville, Pa., where he will look after business interest for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Greer and family, Dorothy Reid and Elizabeth Schumloeffel were Grants Pass visitors yesterday.

K. E. Hodgman, district highway engineer, states that the contractors started laying hot stuff on the highway south of Grants Pass Friday, says the Courier. A small stretch near the Gold Hill bridge will be worked on first, and the work will then begin on the three miles between the county line and Rogue River. The work is to be finished and Mr. Hodgman says that it will be finished quickly.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. LaGrande and daughter Kathryn left this morning for Crescent City, Calif., after spending the past week with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Prose, in this city.

Dan, Ben C. Sheldon of Medford was an Ashland visitor Saturday afternoon.

Dr. W. E. Buchanan, son Edgar, and Prof. Forsythe spent the week end out in the wilds on a fishing expedition.

W. A. Rockefeller left last evening for an extended trip to the north.

The Boy Scout council of Ashland at a meeting Friday night conducted examinations for merit badges for first aid. Two first-class Scouts, John and Archer Hoyt, members of Troop 1, passed the examination which was conducted by Dr. G. W. Gregg. The local council, consisting of Mayor C. B. Lamkin, O. P. Carson and Rev. C. A. Edwards, was present at the examination.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

The Oskar Huber company completed yesterday paving the Boulevard extension from the end of the former paving to Walker avenue. Here it will join the Pacific highway, and when the latter paving is laid, will make splendid roads for traffic in that section. This portion of paving is made by the city. The new stretch of paving is hard enough for travel today.

The supporters of Johnson for president held a public meeting in the city hall last night addressed by Rex B. Goodcell, of San Bernardino, Calif. Mr. Goodcell is a fine political orator and presented the claims of Hiram Johnson in a forceful and pleasing manner. A local "Johnson for President" club was formed with the following officers: President, C. B. Lamkin; vice-president, Edw. Dewe; secretary, N. G. Coleman; executive committee, C. B. Lamkin, Mrs. R. E. Gearhart and W. J. Hastings.

R. A. Blanchard, assistant cashier of the Live Stock State bank of North Portland, was a business visitor in Ashland today.

Mrs. Della Heil of Portland, a former employe in the local telephone office, has returned to Ashland after a vacation of several months on account of illness.

Misses Violet Wood and Mary Moore, two members of the high school senior class, left this week on a horseback trip to the coast. They took along equipment for camping, and expect to be back in time for the commencement exercises at the close of school.

F. J. Murphy left yesterday for the Klamath Lake country where his wife has been teaching school in one of the districts there. The latter closed her school Wednesday and will return with her husband.

The Ashland Realty company has completed the deal in which H. A. Stearns of the Self-Service store becomes the owner of the P. F. Whittle residence property on Nutley street.

S. B. McNair of the McNair Brothers drug store is in Portland this week attending the Oregon Retail convention in session there.

The renovation of the First National Bank building is being completed at present with the painting of the outside, following the interior improvements which were made earlier in the spring. The work is being done by John G. Rigg.

E. D. Roberts, a Northern California rancher, is spending a few days in Ashland this week.

L. J. Orres is a business visitor to Grants Pass today.

Mrs. James Radd expects to leave this evening for an extended trip east, which will comprise a visit to her son in Chicago, and other points in Minnesota and South Dakota.

C. R. Rose had business which called him to Hill yesterday.

C. M. Miles, who has been living on North Main street since returning from California in the early spring, is moving this week to the house he purchased on Beach street.

The tennis court at the Senior High school is being paved today by the Oskar Hubert company, who have the contract for paving the Pacific highway in this section. This work will make the tennis court at the school one of the finest in the state.

Reports come to Ashland today that Mrs. Ella Horwood, who underwent a major operation in a Medford hospital yesterday, is in a critical condition.

Miss Lillian McMillan expects to start as an extra telephone employe in the local central office this afternoon.

Students of St. Marys Academy came up from Medford today and are holding a picnic in Ashland park.

Judkins & Pool, painters of Ashland, have the contract of painting the residence of A. Alford of Talent.

Rev. J. W. Hoyt and sons, John and Archer, made a trip to Mount Ashland yesterday. These intrepid climbers were the first of the season to reach the mountain summit. They broke the trail through the snow for a distance of three miles, and were the first to sign their names on the register there.

J. D. Mars, Paul Mars and Elmer Neville, who had been making a visit to San Francisco by automobile, are home again.

Percy C. Shutt of Dunsuir, a former resident of Ashland, is in the city a few days this week visiting with friends.

Mrs. P. S. Lodge, who has been a rheumatic patient at Dr. Hawley's mineral bath institution the past week, was called to her home in Yreka, Calif., Wednesday morning by the news of the serious illness of an aged aunt of her husband, Judge J. P. Lodge of the Siskiyou county court. Mrs. Lodge expects to return to Ashland later to resume her treatments.

Drs. E. A. Wood and G. W. Gregg attended the annual meeting of the Southern Oregon medical association in Roseburg Tuesday. The next year's convention will be held at Grants Pass.

Lynn Slack and wife are moving this week to their new home on Eighth street which they recently purchased from O. W. Long.

The Gila Valley Farmer, of Safford, Ariz., in a recent issue states that the Ellison-White Chautauqua had just closed a successful engagement. While the program was not up to the expectations of many, the paper said, the superintendent, J. H. Fuller, did much to overcome this through his pleasing personality and willingness to co-operate with local welfare organizations which seized the opportunity to lay their problems before the big crowds.

Mr. and Mrs. Max GeBauer who recently bought a property on Granite street, have gone to Eugene for a while.

Mrs. A. Zana is home from Grants Pass where she had been visiting with friends for the past week.

Mrs. Elva Hobart left yesterday for Salem to attend the northern conference of the Free Methodist church which will be held there this week. From there Mrs. Hobart will go to California to take up her work as state evangelist for which she had received the appointment some time ago. Her daughter Ruth will remain in Ashland until the end of school, when she will join her mother in California.

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS

Mrs. Joe Green reported the first ripe strawberries of the season which she picked from her garden on North Main street. In order to verify her statement Mrs. Green had been watching a mammoth berry, which she was expecting to bring in when it was completely ripe, but on going to the berry patch she found a robin had beaten her to it, and the luscious berry was partly consumed.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Williams were up yesterday afternoon from their home on the Pacific highway out from Talent.

Miss Ruth Osman has accepted the position in the city electrician's office made vacant by the resignation of Lyle Sams. She assumes her duties this week.

Mrs. Anice McClannahan has purchased the Orr property on the corner of Eighth and E street. The deal was made through the Billings agency.

Mrs. B. M. Heath is back from Los Angeles where she had been spending several weeks. She made the return trip from Los Angeles to San Francisco by the Pickwick auto stage, which runs the entire distance in relays, after the manner of the old-time stage coach. Mrs. Heath also stated it is the intention of this auto stage company to extend its line to Portland, starting May 15, and will pass through Ashland.

Max, the thoroughbred Airdale dog belonging to J. A. Ruger, was struck by a fast-driven automobile Monday evening and was so badly hurt that his life is despaired of. The dog is a very valuable one, besides being a great family pet, and there is much mourning in the Ruger family.

Dr. W. E. Carter, of the medical department of the University of California, was in Ashland Monday visiting his sister, Mrs. B. M. Heath of Terrace street. Dr. Carter was returning from the east where he had been looking after the publication of a medical treatise of which he is the author. He was much pleased with Ashland, and stated it was the most attractive little city of its kind he had ever seen.

The senior and junior classes of the high school went to the Rogue river today to hold a picnic near Bybee's bridge. About 100 made the excursion. This evening they expect, on their return, to hold a reception in the armory.

Mrs. C. W. Fraley is entertaining at her home on Mountain avenue her sister, Mrs. F. R. Mason, and daughter, formerly from Iowa, but who have been living recently in Pasadena. Mrs. Mason and Miss Mason will remain

Real Estate

Homes and acreage. Farms and Stock Ranches.

Billings Agency

Established 1893.

here for about a month, after which they will continue on their way home, going by way of Canada where they will stop to visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sams and son Lyle expect to start today on a nautomobile trip to Los Angeles. They will drive all the way in the family car and expect to be gone about two or three months.

Mrs. M. C. Reed has gone to Talent and Medford where she expects to visit for some time before joining the Ellison-White bureau, with which she will be engaged during the summer.

Glenn Rhodes, who has been working out of Ashland as a substitute mail clerk while the regular men were taking their vacations, finishes his assignment here and will leave this week for another appointment farther down the Southern Pacific.

C. L. Lewis and wife of Modesto, Calif., are in Ashland this week, looking after property interests here.

Dr. H. W. Stearns of Grants Pass and Dr. R. N. Stearns of Medford, with their families, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stearns of this city, Sunday, and the party held a picnic on the canyon during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNair are back from San Francisco where they had been spending the past week attending the Rexall convention held in that city.

J. G. Conger and family have come from Farmington, Wash., and have taken possession of the house they recently purchased from O. P. Carson on Palm avenue.

H. S. Parmelee has been assisting in the Citizens Bank for the past two or three days, during the absence of Miss Pearl Wilshire, who was out on account of illness. The latter is now back at her duties again.

Miss Ruth Holmes of Medford was a week end guest of friends in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rose and C. R. Rose met Madame Gallucci Monday evening at train No. 54, as the latter was passing through here from San Francisco for Portland, where she has a singing engagement. The noted singer left the train during its stop in Ashland, and the Rose family stated that she was very gracious and pleasing in her manner.

George W. Cross the well known piano tuner of Medford, is able to be around again after a five-weeks' illness in a hospital.

Sam Holdt has sold his bungalow and acre of ground on Upper Granite street to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Avery of the Nelda cafe. The deal was made through the Beaver Realty agency.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kincaid and family are expected through Ashland in about two weeks, going from Corvallis to Southern California. They will stop off and spend the day with their many friends when they reach this city.

E. P. Smith is having the interior of his house on Oak street repapered. B. A. Finch is doing the work.

Mrs. John McClintock, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Dale Coshow, for the past week, returned to her home in Roseburg, Monday.

Robert I. Ellis is spending a few days in Ashland from his Applegate ranch, after which he will go to Oakland, Calif., to work for the summer.

J. K. McClaren of Morton street is being visited by a brother from Dakota whom he had not seen for a number of years.

S. Penniston returned to Grendale, Calif., yesterday morning, after spending a couple of days with his family here.

Will Holmes has accepted a position with the Standard Oil company and will be located in Medford. Alvin Gasaway takes Mr. Holmes place in the Holmes Bros' grocery.

Monte Briggs and wife are back for a few weeks' visit with their

Over fifty years ago a young physician practiced widely in a rural district and became famous for his uniform success in the curing of disease. This was Dr. Pierce, who afterwards established himself in Buffalo, N. Y., and placed one of his prescriptions which he called "Golden Medical Discovery," in the drug stores of the United States so that the public could easily obtain this remarkable tonic, corrective and blood-maker. Dr. Pierce manufactured this "Discovery" from roots and barks—a corrective remedy, the ingredients of which nature had put in the fields and forests, for keeping us healthy. Few folks or families now living are not at sometime or other use his "Golden Medical Discovery" for the stomach, liver and heart. Over twenty-four million bottles of this tonic and blood remedy have been sold in this country.

J. B. L. Cascade Syringe

We have been fortunate enough to secure the agency for this syringe.

THE GREAT INTERNAL BATH TREATMENT can be given by its use.

Enthusiastic users of the J. B. L. Syringe can be found in every town.

Two books, "Intestinal Ills" and "The Royal Road to Health," come with each syringe and contain much valuable information.

Ask us to tell you about it.

POLEY'S DRUG STORE POLEY & ELHART Druggists.

There Are Many Things Upon Our Shelves

That sometimes you will want yourselves. Many items in themselves are small, but in the course of time you'll need them all; so we would ask you please to keep in mind the place where when hurried you can find all your needs in the

Hardware Line

SIMPSON'S HARDWARE 37-39 NORTH MAIN STREET

Advertisement for Harrison Brothers Fordson Tractor Dealers, Ashland, Oregon. Includes text: "Can You Beat This!" and "Fordson Tractor Dealers ASHLAND, OREGON"

Advertisement for Emil Piel featuring a Vaughn Draw Saw. Includes text: "WILL IT PAY TO OWN A VAUGHN DRAW SAW?" and "EMIL PIEL At the corner of the Plaza."

Large advertisement for Julius Kayser & Co. featuring "A Personal Message to the Women of America" and "McGee's DRY GOODS". Includes text: "Millions of American women have always worn Kayser Silk Gloves, 'Italian' Silk Underwear and Silk Hosiery." and "Local Distributors for Julius Kayser & Co's Products And Other Equally Good Lines of Fabrics and Garments"