MORE HOME OWNERS

The red flag never flies over a man who owns his own home.

The above is the epigrammatic remark of a great American citizen.

Whether it is in the city or the country, he instinctively, and perhaps unconsciously, feels himself a part owner in the whole country.

But the good days are coming. Patriotic citizens are working to the end that more people shall have homes that they can call their own.

Those present were Misses Co-show, Van Slyke, Brundage, Zentler and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Weren.

Wednesday Club Meets
The Wednesday Afternoon Club held its May meeting in the parlors of the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon.

Entertaining feature of the afternoon were violin selections by Miss Elizabeth Schummoeloff of Sacramento and singing by Miss Elbert Grover.

The hostesses, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Poley, served cake and sherbert to their guests.

One more meeting of this club will be held, and this will be in the form of a picnic in the park, the date to be announced later.

Class Party
The senior class of the high school were entertained at the home of Mrs. Elton Beeson, formerly Miss Edna Wells, a member of the class of 1920, at her home near Talent.

The afternoon was spent in discussing babies and making a baby book for each baby.

Those present were Mrs. Gerald Weidner and little daughter Geraldine Valaire, Mrs. S. A. Peters Jr. and little daughter, Dorothy Milcent, Mrs. Milton Fraley and little son William Milton, Mrs. Edwin Dunn and little daughter Helen Irene, Mrs. R. L. Barrie and little son Robert Lester, Mrs. E. J. Fraley and little son Earl John, Mrs. Howard Grover and little son Howard Jr., Mrs. Rufus Frasty and little son Francis Gerald, Mrs. W. H. McNair and Mrs. William Barber were also included in the guest list.

Social Circle Meets
The Social Circle of the Christian church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. V. Wright. Twenty-two ladies were present and spent a very pleasant time together.

Farewell Party
Mrs. Louis Schwein entertained a company of young people at her home on Church street last evening in honor of Miss Grubb and Miss Baird, two members of the Junior high school faculty who expect to leave shortly for their homes in Pennsylvania.

An enjoyable evening was spent playing 509. Miss Mitchell and Milton Biegel won first prizes, while the consolation fell to Miss Baird and Elmer Morrison. After completing the score of the evening, delicious refreshments were served.

Later on, June 22-24, Hillah Temple has contributed $500 to the entertainment fund of Al Kager Temple, Portland, and the representation from its organization will be large from various sections of the state.

Deputy potatoes for Hillah have been appointed for several counties, including George S. Calhoun, of Grants Pass, for Josephine; R. D. Williams of Roseburg, for Douglas; Worth Harvey of Cottage Grove, for Lane; Jackson F. Kimball of Klamath Falls, for Klamath and Lake counties, who can supply petitions and afford general information relative to this approaching ceremonial.

Wedded Last Night
A pretty home wedding took place after the commencement exercises last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. L. E. T. Allen, on Palm avenue, when Miss Mary Eleanor Allen, one of last night's graduates, became the wife of Lester Robert Reed of Portland.

The ceremony was naturally delayed on account of the extended exercises in the Chautauqua building, and it was close to midnight when Rev. C. A. Edwards, pastor of the M. E. church, read the service that made this young couple man and wife.

A number of Portland friends witnessed the marriage ceremony, after which refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Reed will leave this evening for Portland where they will make their future home.

NEW RECRUITS FOR NATIONAL GUARD
Otis Johnson and Clyde Gunter are the latest additions to the ranks of the First company, Oregon National Guard.

Many of the Juniors and Seniors of the Ashland High school have joined, and the company hopes to have a 100 per cent membership from the high school as soon as possible.

There seems to have been a strong impression prevailing among the students, and that is that summer work will hinder them in joining the Guard.

That is not so. Business is of course recognized as being first place in times of peace, and a furlough will be granted to men whose work interferes with their attendance at drills.

The encampment this summer will draw many new recruits. Men of encampment will receive regular army pay, and in addition receive $1.00 a day extra bonus from the state of Oregon, which makes a clear $2 a day minimum for the lowest grades.

Progressive Dinner

The senior class of the high school held a progressive dinner Tuesday evening at the homes of the various members of the class, which was one of the most amusing and entertaining features incident to graduation week.

About thirty-five of the class were in attendance, and were conveyed in automobiles to the homes of the members where the different courses were served.

The first course, fruit cocktails, was served at the home of Miss Irene Keller on Allison street.

From there the company drove to the home of Miss Maxine Praet on Euclid avenue, where the salad course was spread under the cherry trees on the lawn.

The dinner course was served by Miss Esther Kleinhammer at her home on Morton street, and the dessert at the home of Miss Helen Adamson at Talent.

After this course was completed the company spent the rest of the evening with music and other entertainments until a late hour.

Dinner Party

Mrs. H. H. Elhart entertained a company of the teachers of the city schools at dinner Tuesday evening in the event of their leaving for their homes the last of the week at the close of the term.

Those present were Misses Co-show, Van Slyke, Brundage, Zentler and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Weren.
