

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

SATURDAY'S NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Loosley left today for Montague where they will make an extended stay while Mr. Loosley attends business interests there.

The American Legion has gone on record as assisting the government in its efforts to capture the millionaire draft deserter, Grover Cleveland Bergdoll.

Those wishing to look up their family trees will be interested in a volume of American and English genealogies now at the public library.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gow, who went from Ashland about a year ago to Petaluma, Calif., have returned to Ashland and will settle here again.

Mrs. N. S. Ballenger, who has been spending the past week in Los Angeles, is home, accompanying her here is her grandson, Leo Cooper, who expects to spend the summer vacation in Ashland.

E. E. Phipps, salesman for the Staples Realty company, was a Medford business visitor yesterday.

The demand for sleeping accommodations over tonight on account of the visiting Shriners to the ceremonial is taxing the hotels to the utmost.

D. J. Orres and family moved yesterday into their house on Beach avenue which they recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. V. O. N. Smith drove down to Grants Pass today to attend the Baptist association meeting in session there.

R. P. Cornelius, who came over from Klamath Falls recently on sick leave, is able to be out again.

Lynn D. Mowat, who has served efficiently as secretary for the Ashland Commercial Club during the past year, left last night for Portland where he expects to assume a position offered him there.

Mrs. M. E. Gray left this morning for Boston, Mass., with the intention of making an extended stay.

A male quartet consisting of W. T. Cochran, G. H. Ye, Dr. C. F. Tilton and Mr. Stratton, will go to Grants Pass today to furnish music for the Baptist association meeting in session there.

Mrs. H. P. Holmes, who has been making an extended visit in Portland and other points north, has returned as far as Grants Pass on her way home.

The Carson & Fowler Lumber company, through the Beaver Realty agency, has sold the eight acre tract and bungalow near Frederick on the Pacific highway to D. E. Flory of Fossil.

Mrs. Mary Neher of Oakland, and Mrs. C. E. Johnson of Yreka, mother and sister-in-law of Mrs. W. D. Gill, are the latter's guests this week.

McNair Brothers of the Rexall Drug Store have been in the throes of moving for the past two or three days, and are getting nice-ing in this house have in turn purchased the house on Seventh street belonging to Miss Carabel Moorhouse.

Miss Nellie Ross, one of the teachers in the Junior high school, left this morning for an extended trip to points in the east.

Mr. George Robison, accompanied by her cousin, C. A. Preston of San Francisco, went to Gold Hill last evening to see the latter's brother, W. A. Preston, who is seriously ill.

C. E. Howard of the Ashland-Klamath Falls auto stage line, went out this morning with a handsome new Reo bus, which he has just purchased.

Miss Cora Baldwin received a telegram this forenoon stating that her uncle, George T. Baldwin, had died yesterday at his home in Klamath Falls.

Winn Hays is expected home from Washington today for a short visit with the home folks.

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS

Mrs. Edna Young of San Francisco is here for a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Smith, on Roca street.

Miss Ruth Whitney, who holds the position as secretary to the county farm agent of Josephine county, was up from Grants Pass over Sunday and Monday spending this time with her mother, Mrs. P. B. Whitney, and other friends.

R. P. Cornelius, who has been employed in Klamath Falls, is home from that city, and has been quite ill at his home on B street.

Mrs. Geo. C. Stevens and daughter Dorothy are in Dunsuir this week visiting with friends.

Dr. S. A. Danford returned Tuesday morning from Klamath Falls where he had been holding the quarterly conference in the Methodist church in that city over Sunday. He left last evening for Roseburg for the same purpose.

Mrs. Hubbard and daughter Arleta of Redding are spending a few days in Ashland this week. Mrs. Hubbard is a sister of Mrs. J. W. Hatcher.

W. A. Shuey of this city is driving a Velle car which he recently purchased through the Norton Motor company agency.

A. R. Wilkins and daughter Lurline, who had been guests at the home of Mrs. Max Pracht during the past week, left yesterday for their home in Dunsuir.

Ed Miller of Los Angeles has been spending several days in Ashland within the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Triplett, formerly of Grants Pass, are among the newcomers to Ashland. They moved here yesterday.

Mrs. M. V. Sweet, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Walker, expects to return next week to her home in Walnut Creek, Calif.

After thirteen years' continuous residence on Newton avenue, Medford, Jesse Honck is moving to a new home on Oakdale street. Mr. Honck is well known in Ashland where he spent his boyhood days and owned a considerable property here previous to settling in Medford.

John Enders and wife leave today for Klamath Falls where the former will open a shoe store and give his personal supervision.

Mrs. Mary Neher of Oakland, and Mrs. C. E. Johnson of Yreka, mother and sister-in-law of Mrs. W. D. Gill, are the latter's guests this week.

McNair Brothers of the Rexall Drug Store have been in the throes of moving for the past two or three days, and are getting nicely established in their new headquarters in the room formerly occupied by Whited's jewelry store. This room has much more space and gives the store a much better opportunity to "spread."

Mrs. H. B. Ersmann of Norfolk, Va., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Riley this week.

Early risers were awarded for their exertions this morning by seeing a beautiful sight at sunrise. According to reports to the Tidings office two sun dogs were visible, one on each side of the sun. These were arched by a perfect rainbow, uniting both sun dogs. The scene was of unusual beauty.

Mrs. J. W. Ling and Mrs. Butler of Medford were luncheon guests of Mrs. B. R. Greer today.

Mrs. Roy McAllister returned to her home near Grants Pass Monday. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Mary Grace Soler, who will be her guest for a few days.

J. H. Philpott, family of Alida street will leave this evening for Dunsuir to spend a few days with relatives.

Mrs. Stratton leaves today for North Bend to spend a few days with her son Lloyd.

Aaron Barneburg, an uncle of John R. and George M. Robison of the fire department, arrived in Ashland this morning from his home in Crescent City. After spending a few days visiting relatives in this vicinity he will continue his journey to San Luis Obispo, Calif., where he has a brother living.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Linecum of Portland are visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Every of the Nelda Cafe. They drove down from Portland in their family car.

Miss Blanche Hicks, the librarian, is back from a month's vacation. The most of this time Miss Hicks spent with relatives in Klamath Falls.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

Glenn Rhodes, substitute mail clerk, has been returned to this run on the railroad, and will fill the positions of regular clerks between here and Gerber for some time while the latter are taking their vacations.

Miss Raine, who came here last week to open the Natatorium June 1, was delayed in getting her equipment in time for that date, and was unable to open the swimming tanks on the schedule time.

John H. Fuller, who has been with the Ellison-White Chautauque Bureau during the past winter, arrived home this week from Redwood City, Calif., where he severed his connection with the former company to accept the secretaryship of the Ashland Commercial Club. Mr. Fuller will assume his duties here at once.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sams, Lyle Sams and S. B. Stoner, from Ashland, were visitors on June 1 at the big exhibit of Southern California products maintained free to the public in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Born to Mrs. and Mr. Walter S. Carpenter of Corvallis, Ore., a 16 pound baby girl, May 25. Walter, who is an instructor in the O. A. C. college, will be remembered in Ashland as a graduate of the 1914 class of the Ashland high school.

Mrs. Welborn Beeson and Mrs. George Robison spent Wednesday afternoon in Talent where they were guests of the Talent Community club.

The Fourth of July celebration committee are negotiating with the Weed band of 24 pieces to furnish music in Ashland during the three days of the celebration. It is the intention of the management to have plenty of music to live the event.

Mrs. E. E. Hewitt went to Grants Pass today as a delegate to the Rogue River Baptist association which is in session there.

Mrs. Jennie Christensen of Albany has been spending the week in Ashland as a guest at the home of Ernest Hick's family on North Main street.

Mrs. Florence Lee, who has been serving as county health nurse for the past year, has resigned her position and will leave today for Minnesota where she will locate. A successor will soon be appointed by the county court, it is understood.

Fred Chapin, an aged resident of this city has had a slight stroke and is quite ill at his home on First street.

Mrs. P. B. Whitney left this morning on train No. 14 for Grants Pass where she will reside in the future. She sent her household goods out yesterday, and has a house awaiting her coming.

Oscar Silver, assistant in the Commercial Club, spent Thursday in Medford.

Manager E. T. Staples of the Fourth of July celebration committee is in receipt of an inquiry from Sam Sandry of Rogue River in regard to the rock-drilling contest announced to be one of the features on Miners' and Loggers' day of the three-day celebration. Mr. Sandry is an old-time miner and feels competent to qualify in this contest.

C. C. Swartzfeger of Chiloquin, a former resident of Ashland, spent a couple of days in the city this week, and while here purchased a residence property on Seventh street through the Staples agency. Mr. Swartzfeger stated he will be back here for the Fourth of July celebration. He said a number of citizens in that section are counting on coming, as the mills will shut down for the holiday. A number of expert saw-buckers are planning on coming to compete for the low-sawing prize on Miners' and Loggers' day, Saturday, July 3.

Mrs. S. L. Sandry of Rogue River was an all night guest of Mrs. J. L. Heer last night. She expects to return to her home today.

The purchase of Mrs. Hardy's residence on East Main street was made yesterday, by Clarence Crowson. Salesman George Yates of the Staples Realty company negotiated the deal.

Mrs. Harry Halfhill, who has been making an extended visit with her parents in the east, arrived in Ashland this week. Mr. and Mrs. Halfhill expect to make their home here.

Miss Alta Heer is home from Beaverton where she had been teaching during the past year, and will spend her summer vacation with her parents in Ashland.

Charles Boswick and family of Des Moines, Ia., tourists on the western coast during the past winter, came into Ashland last evening and spent the night in the auto camp. The Boswick family met the family of Richard Boswick of this city while the latter were in California last winter and spent some time touring through the latter state. A close friendship was established at that time which was renewed here yesterday when the eastern people arrived in Ashland.

Mrs. Emma Coffee and her home guest, Miss Hazel Brazee of Denver, Colo., are spending the day in Medford today.

Mrs. Levi Stevens is moving to Ashland this week from Rogue River and will reside on Granite street.

Oskar Huber and C. A. Dunn of the Oskar Huber Construction company, who spent several days the first of the week in Portland attending the meeting of the state highway commission, have returned home. Accompanying Mr. Dunn are his mother-in-law, Mrs. P. Nihelson, and his little daughter, Joy, who will spend a couple of weeks in Ashland.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. George Monroe and two daughters of Eugene, former residents of Ashland, were spending the fore part of the week with friends in this city. They came up here for Memorial day.

Mrs. George Yates is back at her position on the clerical force of the Ferguson dry goods store.

Miss Anna Payne is home from a two weeks' visit spent with her aunt at Woodburn and with friends in Portland.

The Beaver Realty company completed the sale this week of the house and acre of ground on California street belonging to Paul Cankett, which was purchased by W. C. Baldwin and wife.

Manager E. T. Staples is getting a number of the business people of Ashland to advertise the Fourth of July celebration on their envelopes, which will be scattered broadcast over the country, informing people of the wonderful attractions to be held here during the three days of the celebration.

Mrs. Frank Crouch and daughter Marjorie were Medford visitors yesterday afternoon.

J. B. Wimer, who has been clerking in the grocery department of Enders store here, has left Ashland for Cazelle, Calif., where he will be connected with a large logging and lumber camp this summer.

Joe Neil and John Stormes left yesterday for Klamath county where they accompanied the former's uncle, C. V. Looesley, to his ranch. The boys expect to spend the summer on the ranch and will return in the fall full fledged buckaroos.

The Lamkin agency completed the sale this week of 20 acres of and belonging to John Haney north of Bear creek adjoining the Hollibaugh place, which has been purchased by W. T. Boswick and son, who live near the Eagle mill. They will take possession immediately. Another deal by this agency is the sale of the four-acre ranch belonging to Abram Butler on Oak street which has been bought by Andrew Warnett of near Fresno, Calif. The latter takes possession of his new purchase about July 15.

Vernon Doran came in this morning from Oakland, where he is taking vocational training in mechanics, for a visit with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldred Beaver and baby of Portland, who have been visiting the former's parents in Ashland for the past few days, left yesterday morning for Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Beaver are making the trip by automobile and will circle the state before returning to their home.

O. L. Brown of Klamath Falls was an overnight visitor in Ashland Tuesday night. He returned home yesterday morning, accompanied by Miss Alice Walker, who will be a guest at his home for a week.

A. E. Hardy, a prominent wheat man of Eastern Washington, and W. G. Hardy, general manager of the Hays department store of Wilbur, Wash., are in Ashland, and will be guests at the homes of their father, William Hardy, and brother, J. H. Hardy, for the coming two weeks.

Among those from Ashland who were decorating at the Dankard cemetery Saturday were: Mr. Sedles and son Orval and wife, Mrs. Agnes Wiant and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Firestone and Mrs. Jim Firestone.

F. M. Centers has sold his property on Wagner creek and purchased the Jay Terrill property. The price paid for the Terrill property was $55,000. Mr. Centers expects to stay through fruit thinning season.

Sun Crest orchard started thinning Monday morning with a large crew under the supervision of John Briner.

Rev. Hiram Smith and wife of Ashland were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stumps on the Pacific highway Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stump, daughter Neva, and Mrs. Clara Shideler were at Jacksonville Saturday for Decoration Day.

Fruit thinning has begun in this section of the valley where help is quite scarce. A crew started working at the George Anderson orchard that was recently owned by G. A. Morse. Will Quackenbush is supervising the work. A crew also started work at the Golden Crest orchard under the supervision of Paul Quackenbush. Mr. Manning also started at the Talent orchard.

There was a full house at the dance Saturday night, people coming from all sections of the valley with quite a number coming from Prospect and Trail creek district. Dancing was enjoyed until an early hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Quackenbush are moving here from Medford.

Mrs. E. R. Jones and her two sons, Donald and Rollin, have gone to Klamath Falls to be with Mr. Jones for the summer where he has had employment for the last few months.

Glenn Guu has also gone to Klamath Falls where he has employment for the summer.

The commencement exercises at the Talent school house Thursday evening that followed the closing of the school were very interesting. A short but very impressive address was delivered by the Rev. Marion Booser of Medford which was the leading feature of the exercises. The class song was sung by the graduating class which is composed of Ethel Hazen, Maxine Ross, Madge Hackley, Arlovin Robinson, Leona Lewis, Georgia Carrier, Clyde Purvis, Wayne Holdridge, Lawrence Burnett and Russell Bishop. George Rawley was the only one to graduate from high school. Beautiful piano solos were given by Grace Sepulveda and Arlovin Robinson and quartet was composed of Ruth Hackler, Valeta Burnett, Elvis Cochran and Glasgow Stratton. Many beautiful flowers were received by the graduates.

Mrs. Booth, with her brother, Adolph Rhoades, was down from Ashland Thursday evening attending the graduating exercises at the school house where their nephew, George Rowley, was a graduate from high school. George was the only senior to receive a diploma from the Talent school this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Horton of Klamath Falls are here visiting friends for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. English are enjoying a visit from Mrs. English's sister from Portland. Mr. English is the local barber.

Mrs. Ed Robison is home from Baker where she has been as a delegate to grand lodge from Talent Rebekah lodge.

Quintin Hazen was on the sick list Saturday.

mountain for the summer where Mr. Porter has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dosier of Ashland were visiting Mrs. Dosier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stump Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stump and daughter Neva, and Mrs. S. J. Stump motored to Ashland Sunday evening.

Mrs. Jay Terrill was a Medford visitor Saturday.

A fine baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Silva Saturday morning. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mrs. Sarah Firestone of Ashland and Mrs. Minear and son of Jacksonville were dinner guests of Mrs. Clara Schideler Sunday.

Miss Letha Porter was down from Ashland and stayed over Sunday night with her grand mother, Mrs. John Hearing.

Ernest Jacobson, wife and baby came up from Rogue River Saturday and are visiting with their uncle, William High. They expect to locate in Medford for the summer.

Quite a number of women and children are picking strawberries for Mr. Hickendyck at his ranch west of town.

Mrs. Frank Rose and daughter, Carmen, were Medford shoppers Saturday.

The ladies of the Community club entertained the old ladies at a luncheon Wednesday. A large crowd attended and everybody had a most delightful time.

Miss Lola Clark, who is working in Ashland, was attending the dance here Saturday night.

Mrs. Hearing was in Ashland Monday visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bert Porter, and family, who are going to move to the Siskiyou

GARDEN TOOLS advertisement with image of tools and text: 'NEW SHIPMENT of Garden Tools has arrived. Good tools are essential to good results—in garden or field. Provost Brothers HARDWARE'

Advertisement for Mitchell's Hats and Caps featuring an image of a man in a suit and text: 'Ready to Brighten You Up Conqueror HATS and CAPS MITCHELL'S FOR MEN'S WEAR BY THE POSTOFFICE'

Advertisement for Simpson's Hardware with text: 'There Are Many Things Upon Our Shelves That sometimes you will want yourselves. Many items in themselves are small, but in the course of time you'll need them all; so we would ask you please to keep in mind the place where when hurried you can find all your needs in the Hardware Line SIMPSON'S HARDWARE 37-39 NORTH MAIN STREET'

Moved advertisement: 'Moved Into the building formerly occupied by Whited the Jeweler, three doors below the postoffice. Call on Us There McNAIR BROS. The Rexall Store'

Advertisement for Royal Baking Powder with text: 'Under Royal Suggestion DOUGHNUTS and CRULLERS From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK DOUGHNUTS made during the war and no wonder. There is nothing more wholesome and delightful than doughnuts or crullers rightly made. Their rich, golden color and appetizing aroma will create an appetite quicker than anything else in the world. Here are the famous doughnut and cruller recipes from the New Royal Cook Book. Doughnuts: 2 tablespoons shortening, 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1/2 cup milk, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder. Cream shortening; add sugar and well-beaten egg; stir in milk; add nutmeg, salt, flour and baking powder which have been sifted together and enough additional flour to make dough stiff enough to roll. Roll out on floured board to about 1/4 inch thick; cut out. Fry in deep fat hot enough to brown a piece of bread in 60 seconds. Drain on unglazed paper and sprinkle with powdered sugar. Afternoon Tea Doughnuts: 2 eggs, 4 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon grated nutmeg. CRULLERS: 4 tablespoons shortening, 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder. Cream shortening; add sugar gradually and beaten egg; sift together flour, cinnamon, salt and baking powder; add one-half and mix well; add milk and remainder of dry ingredients to make soft dough. Roll out on floured board to about 1/4 inch thick and cut into strips about 4 inches long and 1/4 inch wide; roll in hands and twist each strip and bring ends together. Fry in deep hot fat. Drain and roll in powdered sugar. FREE New Royal Cook Book containing these and scores of other delightful recipes. Write for it TODAY. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO. 215 Fulton Street New York City. 'Bake with Royal and be Sure'

Advertisement for Sterno Canned Heat with text: 'STERNO Canned HEAT Always ready; makes a quick hot flame. Boils water in a few minutes. Each can of heat will burn for more than one hour. Saves making hot fire in kitchen stove. Ideal for summer use. Indispensable when camping or on picnics. Complete Line of Stoves Poley's Drug Store POLEY & ELHART DRUGGISTS'