MONDAY'S NEWS

Yeomen Hosts at Party
The Brotherhood of American Yeomen held a social in Odd Fellows hall Friday evening which was largely attended by the members, their friends and families. Dancing was carried on and a general good time was enjoyed at the gathering.

Stratton-Mellin Nuptials
The Coos Bay Times contains the following account of a wedding which occurred in Marshfield June 19 in which a well known former Ashland young man was united in marriage:

"A fitting culmination of a charming romance which has blossomed in this city, beginning several years ago when the bride was a very young maid, and continuing through the months in which the groom was absent for war service, was the wedding of Miss Mary Mellin and Lloyd Stratton, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mellin, at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening. The house throughout was profusely adorned with choice roses, in pink and white. The bride party entered to the strains of 'Lohengrin's' stately march, which was beautifully sung by Mrs. Charles F. McKnight, accompanied by Miss Edna Louise Larson, and took place beneath a spacious archway, festooned with white roses, carnations and greens. J. Claude Black was the officiating clergyman who united this happy pair. At the closing of the ceremony the guests gathered about Mr. and Mrs. Stratton, extending their felicitations. Later, the company repaired to the rose decked dining room, where was the bride's cake, resplendent amid garlands of orange blossoms, Ophelia roses and choice ferns." Mrs. F. N. Stratton of Ashland, the groom's mother, and Rex Stratton, who accompanied his brother as best man, were among the guests.

Mafia body of the church where the Westminster Guild presented the new Mission play, "Hanging a Sign," in a very spirited manner. The cast was: Miss Stella Jones, the Medical Graduate; Mrs. Hitchcock, Chinese Woman; Mrs. Dockery, Japanese; Mrs. Leslie, Africa; Mrs. Koehler, Korea; Miss Anderson, Philippines; Mrs. Lindsay, Moslem; Miss Hays, India. The attendance was the largest of the year.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

Luncheon for Sister
Mrs. Charles Chittin gave a delightful one o'clock luncheon at her home on Hargadine street yesterday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Arline Paget, who is here after an extended stay in New Zealand and Australia where her husband has been in the interest of Ellison-White Chautauqua. The house and table was beautifully decorated in syringas. Covers were laid for six and the guests were Mrs. Kramer, Mrs. D. Hall, Mrs. Bert Greer, Miss Wilma Chittin and the honor guest.

Illinois Picnic

Owing to the recent rains and cold winds that take the charm away from out door picnicking, only about 20 former Illinoisans gathered in the park yesterday at their annual reunion. A sumptuous banquet was enjoyed at 6 o'clock by those who did attend, however, and these spent the evening in the park renewing their acquaintance and wedding the ties of friendship closer by this gathering. Officers were elected at the business meeting following the banquet, and resulted in Mrs. C. B. Lamkin being chosen as president; J. M. Ross, vice-president, and Mrs. Depew secretary and treasurer. The company favored having a fall indoor social, and holding the picnic dinner at the noon hour next year.

Opening Dance

The opening dance which was held in the Natoratorium Wednesday night was a particularly brilliant affair. The management had been to great pains to decorate the rooms, and they presented a most attractive appearance. A large company gathered there and enjoyed dancing to Lamnaph's orchestra until a late hour. The swimming tanks were also well filled during the evening.

Married in Yreka

Bernard Luttrell of Fort Jones and Miss Mary Inez Harris of Etna were united in marriage at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Luttrell in Yreka, Tuesday evening, says the News. Rev. Homer Gallagher performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Harris of Etna, and has been teaching the Mound school. She is a graduate of Etna Union high school and has a host of friends who wish her all happiness.

Mr. Luttrell is a railroad man employed at Ashland, Ore. He served 18 months with the 10 engineers in France. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Luttrell of Fort Jones and a brother of Attorney C. J. Luttrell of Yreka. This couple will make their home in Ashland, having left for that place Wednesday morning.

Those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Luttrell, L. B. Luttrell, Miss Martha Luttrell, sister of the groom, Lloyd Luttrell, cousin of the groom, and Finley Bennett, cousin of the bride.

TUESDAY'S NEWS

Annual Recital
The eighth annual recital given by the pupils of Elizabeth Will Goodman occurred last Friday evening, June 18, at the Congregational church. The church was beautifully decorated and together with the large class of boys and girls and the numerous bouquets of flowers made an enjoyable musical evening. The program presented pupils from the age of 5 to 15 and was well rendered. The large audience heartily encored the four hand numbers and trios by Schumann, Beethoven, Strauss, Czibuka, Hoffman, Verdi.

W. R. C. Club Met

The Woman's Relief Corps club held its fortnightly meeting last Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mills on Almond street at which a large number were present and assisted in the flag day observances. Speeches, singing and patriotic talks were features of the day, and all members wore flags. One member of the club wore a flag dress. Ice cream and cake were served by the hostess and serving committee composed of Mrs. Lulu Howard, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Swingle, Mrs. Robertson and Mrs. Jennings.

Portland street car fares raised to eight cents.
