DON'T TAKE A CHANCE WITH FIRE

"It never pays to take a chance with fire," says a circular issued by the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, in its campaign against forest fires.

"If you have got to gamble take a flyer on the stock market or play the ponies, but don't take a chance on fire."

"Every thousand feet of green timber near your home is worth at least $10 in wages to you and your neighbors, besides its stumpage value to its owner. If it is on national forest land you are part owner, and if it is destroyed by fire you lose both values."

"Burned timber pays no wages," the circular says. "The prosperity and development of your locality is going to depend upon keeping that timber green."

"Don't take a chance with fire yourself, and don't let your neighbor do it. When you burn brush take every precaution to obey the law and see that your neighbor does. Remember that your home is his can go up in smoke from just one piece of carelessness."

"The biggest fires in history were started by those who didn't think the woods would burn. Be as careful of fire as you are of powder; it's just as dangerous."

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS

July is starting in as a marriage month overshadowing June, supposed to be exclusively devoted to the unions of lives who have been struck by the arrow of the little god Cupid. The weddings of several well known Ashland young people have taken place already this month. Among these was the wedding of Miss Christine Ritzinger and J. Dewey Condon, which occurred last Thursday at the Catholic rectory. Rev. Father Cony officiating. These young people are well known here and will make Ashland their home.

Hibbs-Carter

The marriage of Frank Hibbs and Miss Anna Carter took place yesterday in Medford, which united the lives of two prominent young people of this city. Mr. Hibbs is a former overseas soldier, and is at present in the employ of the Oskar Huber Construction company for which he drives one of the caterpillar motors on the Pacific highway. The bride has many friends also in Ashland.

Barrett-Clement

Another wedding, while it took place some time ago, has only recently been announced and is of much interest in Ashland, is that of Miss Lois Clement of Woodburn and Edmund M. Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barrett of Factory street, who were married June 16. Mr. Barrett is an executive man and is attending the O. A. C. where he holds a government position in the college this summer, and is making a fine record.

Potter-Keller.

A pretty home wedding took place this morning at 8:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Keller, when their daughter, Leota, was united in marriage with Mr. Fay F. Potter by the Rev. E. A. Finch. A few neighbors and near relatives of the bride and groom were present for the occasion and enjoyed together a bountiful wedding feast which followed. The bride and groom departed on the morning train for their future home at Bray, Calif., where Mr. Potter is employed in the milling industry. Mr. Potter is a former resident of Ashland, and together with his estimable young bride, receives the congratulations and best wishes of all who know them.

SATURDAY'S NEWS Legion Fiesta

Post No. 28, American Legion, of Grants Pass, is planning three big nights of entertainment to be held in that city Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 15, 16 and 17. The attractions will consist of open air dancing, a merry-go-round, games and all sorts of amusements, and free attractions will be given each night. This event promises to be a drawing attraction throughout the valley.

D. A. R. Formally Organized

Twenty-five ladies were present last evening at the home of Mrs. J. P. Dodge on the Boulevard to meet Mrs. Keating of Portland, state regent. The following officers were elected, after which the state regent explained to each their duties and administered to them their oath of office:

Regent, Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, vice-regent, Grace Chamberlain; secretary, Caroline Miner Schurman, treasurer, Carrie E. Mitchell; registrar, Blanche E. Hicks; historian, Elizabeth D. Palmer; chaplain, Miriam D. Way. The new chapter is to be known as the Mount Ashland chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and is organized with 15 members. Many more applications have been sent in, whose names will soon be added to the list.

Mrs. Keating read parts of her report of the Continental congress which she attended in Washington, D. C. She also explained the work planned, especially the work of Americanization of the foreign born. Also told of scholarships established for the young men and women wanting to take up the work. This chapter being particularly interested in the Victory Memorial Fund—a perpetual scholarship fund for Oregon students.

Other than the officers of the Mount Ashland chapter the following ladies are members: Miss Harriet R. Dayton, Mrs. Jessie E. Dodge, Mrs. Minnie L. McCallister, Mrs. A. Elizabeth T. Barrett, Mrs. Jessie N. Curry, Mrs. Glendora C. Wilson, Mrs. Jennie J. Gilbert, Mrs. Ida J. Van Natta, Mrs. Marcia I. Mitchell, Mrs. Mary P. Swigart, Mrs. Mary Morrison Dodge.

Swimming Party

A neighborhood swimming party of the ladies of Granite and Nutley street was held at the Natatorium yesterday afternoon, and afforded much enjoyment during the warm weather.

Slumber Party

The girls who had planned a camping party yesterday to Prospect were doomed to disappointment, owing to unforeseen circumstances, so, not to be outdone of their pleasure they held a slumber party at the Heer home last night. This morning they arose at an early hour and cooked breakfast in the park, where the meal was eaten under the trees. Those in the party were Edith and Patsy Herrin, Dorothy Carnahan, Mrs. Florence Farlow, Alda Anderson, Zeida and Thelda Heer, Wanda Bashedland, Iselene Campbell and Pearl Ruger.

Married in Jacksonville

The marriage of Reid Harrell and Miss May Skeen, two young people well known in Ashland, has just been made public. The marriage took place at the Presbyterian manse at Jacksonville on July 6, where the couple went to have the nuptial knot tied. They were accompanied by Mrs. John Harrell and Miss Ramona Harrell. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harrell of this city and is one of the popular young men of this community, while his bride is a former Ashland resident and a graduate of the city high school. Mr. and Mrs. Harrell will make their home in Dunsmuir where the groom is in the employ of the Southern Pacific company.

WORK STARTS ON CANAL PROJECT

The work of excavating for the main high line canal on the South side of the river from the Savage rapids dam site in Josephine county is now in progress, says the Grants Pass Courier. The mule equipment has been moved into camp at Green creek from which point the work will be prosecuted. Excavating for the power house and the dam at the rapids is also in progress. A coffer dam will be thrown across the channel above the dam site on the north side of the river and the dam on that side will be first constructed. Then the water on the south side will be coffer-dammed off when the dam will be completed. The contractors are rushing preparations for this work to get it out of the way while the river is at a low stage.

A boarding house and bunk houses are being constructed in the pine grove at Savage rapids, and a large force of men will be employed there during the next four months. During the irrigation season this pine grove, which has become known as a camping ground, will be under water. The concrete portion of the dam will be 18 feet in height, but during the irrigation season ten feet will be added to this height by the raising of bronze gates upon the crest of the dam, this flooding the grove along the highway. A dyke about 1100 feet long will protect the highway.

AUTHORS TO TRAIL GAME IN OREGON

FORTLAND.—Irvin S. Cobb, author and lecturer, will spend September in Central Oregon this year. He will be accompanied by Bozeman Bulger, lieutenant colonel in the army and a member of the staff of the Saturday Evening Post.

Information that the two nationally known writers are to spend their vacations in this state was received by A. Whisnant, editor of the Bend Press, and Norman G. Jacobson, supervisor of the Deschutes national forest.

A deer hunt in one of the famed deer grounds of the Cascades, followed by a bear hunt, are planned by Mr. Cobb and Colonel Bulger. They plan to be at one of the large duck lakes by September 16, when the season for water fowl opens. They will visit Crater Lake and then enter the range near Lake Odell and proceed north to the Santiam pass, where a few days will be spent cougar hunting. After a few short trips out of Bend, they will cross the mountains at the McKenzie pass and go to Eugene and then to Fortland.

It is understood that both men are to write a series of articles relative to this state.

ROSES HAVE BLOOMED—SO HAVE FURRY HATS

By "Marjorie." (Written for United Press)

NEW YORK—June roses have blossomed. The time has come when Milady decrees that her garb must speak of autumn time and falling leaves, and be so warm of hue and texture that she can feel snowflakes and wintry winds upon her.

All this has come to pass according to the sartorial writ of former fashion years, even though the dress associations did decree that no velvet and fur dress creations would be upon the market at this season. The Associated Milliners worked hardest at their slogan of "Midsummer Hats for Midsummer Wear," and 'tis really true that the Avenue and the hotel tea rooms flaunt no bona fide velvet and fur chapeaus. But even the milliners have yielded to feminine whims and placed part velvet hats upon the market in response to the demand for "something advance" in the hat line. Thus it is that fluffy-headed heads bear great floppy leghorns or lace and maline headgear topped with velvet crowns in every shade of the rainbow. The season's rods, known as shrimp and lobster, abound. But as ever, black velvet reigns supreme and the smartest "out-of-season" hats are of cream straw brim and black velvet scrown trimmed with flapping velvet streamers. Other models bespeak summer above but winter below, having facings of black or gaudy velvet.

The craze for "half and half" as regards the seasons is not confined to the hat realm alone. The Rue's fad of mingling summer fabrics with the sterner stuff of hoary winter has struck the Avenue also, and that gay thoroughfare is crowded these summery days with gowns of organdie and serge or voile and velvet. Even when a frilly, very sheer dress is seen, it is adorned with heavy flowers of wool that lend a wintry touch or a dark, heavy velvet handbag completes the costume. The midwinter standby of warm Scotch plaid has been investigated money and checks. Boro had come in from the south on the morning of the Fourth, and had applied for and was given work at the confectionery during the rush hours of the celebration. After the crowds had dispersed his services were not required longer, but he still remained in the city, and was in the confectionery at a late hour Thursday night. When the robbery was discovered suspicion pointed to the man, and on being arrested the leather money pouch identified as the one from the store was found on his person containing about $123 in silver and bills. Boro claimed he had a pal to whom he had given all the checks, but the fact that a lace curtain was burned in the Hotel Ashland leads the proprietors of the confectionery to think he had turned the checks. Boro was taken over to Jacksonville last evening where he will be held for a hearing.

WHAT AUTHORITIES SAY ABOUT GASOLINE

United States geological survey says there are 7,629,000,000 barrels of oil still in United States fields—enough for twenty years at present rate of consumption; world's deposits total 60,000,000,000 barrels—enough for 168 years.

United States bureau of mines reports that the reserve gasoline stocks in March reached 626,397,046 gallons—an increase in thirty days of 80,339,617 gallons.

Surplus of production of gasoline in 1919 was 149,446,488 gallons.

Total production of gasoline in 1919 was 3,957,857,097 gallons.

Facts for Car Users. Eighty samples of gasoline tested by the bureau of mines from different sections show practically same grade everywhere.

Transportation difficulties have helped to bring gasoline shortage in some Western states, notably California, Oregon and Washington.

Average car consumption per year, 300 gallons.

Average motor truck consumption, per year, 1500 gallons.

Annual cost to car owner of 5 cents' increase in gasoline, $15.

New oil leasing bill will greatly stimulate oil production.

RECORD SUIT IS SETTLED

BAKER—One of the longest and hardest contested legal cases ever waged in the local circuit court has come to an abrupt end when the agreement for the dismissal of the case of Frank S. Baile against the Columbia Gold Mining company was signed by Judge Gustav Anderson.

During the course of the case, which was waged as high as the state supreme court, 3000 pages of testimony were recorded.

The action involved certain stock in the company which was claimed by the plaintiff.

The entire assets of the Columbia Gold Mining company were turned over by the receiver to former Judge M. D. Clifford, who represented the mining company during the entire five-year battle.

COUNTY ROAD BONDS SKILLED BY COURT

By a supreme court decision given at Salem the $500,000 county road bond issue which was passed at the recent election, was knocked out, because of the 2 per cent limitation law. The decision was given in the litigation relative to the recent road bond

A CLEAN SKIN

Women do not have to patronize the beauty parlor—far if their skin is disfigured with pimples and blotches and their blood is impure they should obtain a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Wonderful Blood Tonic and alterative of Dr. Pierce's which placed before them public over 50 years ago. Since that time many thousands of men and women have testified to its wonderful blood cleansing effect. This is what one woman says:

CHEHALE, WASH.—"I have used Doctor Pierce's medicines for over forty years for myself and family, and have always found them just as represented. I think Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for a sore and blood builder cannot be beat; and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets have no equal for constipation in fact, I can heartily recommend any and all of Dr. Pierce's remedies."

"My daughter had chronic constipation from babyhood and doctors could not cure her. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets is the only thing that has ever helped her."—Mrs. JENNE K. SWOFFORD, 1320 Alfred St.

into midsummer usage, and many tissue gingham, voiles, and silks used red, yellow, and green plaids for their trimmings. Another season reversal is shown in taffeta or satin models trimmed with summery flecks of organdie.

A leading Fifth Avenue shop shows a thousand dollar gown of nigger brown taffeta with deep kangaroo-pouch pockets lined and befrilled with tiny ruffles of crisp organdie. Linens are using velvet and sombre colors for trimmings, also. The same window exploited a jade green linen suit banded with black velvet and stitched with black wool in a plaid effect about the bottom of the skirt and jacket.

Midsummer coats made for the sultriest of the dog days employ Geesey angora wools and heavy fringes as trimmings. And a coat simply can not be a coat unless it has a wisp of fur about itself somewhere. Evening capes frequently carry a maribou or ostrich barding around the collar and down the front to the very bottom of the cape.
