

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

SATURDAY'S NEWS

Mrs. Nellie Conner has sold her bungalow on Pioneer avenue recently purchased from Mrs. G. Allen. The sale was made by Mrs. Conner and the purchaser was O. Severance, a well known resident of Ashland.

Mark Smith, a passenger brakeman running between Ashland and Gerber, has been laid up at his home for the past few days with a combination of malaria and grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Stock came in Thursday night from the Lake of the Woods where they had been spending a couple of days preparing their summer cottage for the later exodus of the family who will sojourn there at intervals this summer. They report the lake is taking on quite a resort appearance, and that already many Ashland people have gone out there. Among these are the George Gillets, the T. W. Sanfords, the Waldo Klums, the C. H. Veghtes, and many others. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Huls and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Barrett have been to the lake, and recently returned, beside the others who went out this week.

In the write-up of the street parade and pageant communicated to the Tidings yesterday mention of the Boy Scouts was omitted. These boys had worked hard to make a presentable showing, and deserve much credit for their fine appearance in the parade.

Fred Neil, who has been in Ashland for several days this week on a business trip and visiting his family here, has returned to Port-Klamath.

Frank Crouch, of the Swift & Co. office in Ashland, has gone to Portland to spend several days. On his return he will bring back Marjorie, who has been the guest of her aunt in that city for several weeks.

Mrs. Walbridge left today for Montague where she will visit her daughter, after which she expects to go to Oakland to make her home.

G. W. Loosley is erecting a new garage at his home on Oak street.

D. B. Gold and family of Spokane are among the campers in the auto park this week. Mr. Gold is searching for a home in Ashland, and if he can secure one will remain here permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thomas will leave Sunday for a few days' excursion to Crater Lake and points in that vicinity.

The national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic scheduled to meet in Atlantic City, N. J., in September, has been changed to Indianapolis, Ind. A number of the members of Riverside Post of Ashland are contemplating making the trip at that time to the encampment.

George W. Cornell of Weed, a fireman for the Southern Pacific company, has come to Ashland and will run out from this city. While here he is stopping at the home of P. D. Yarbrough on Scenic Drive.

Mrs. Oliver Williams of Oakland, Calif., who passed through Ashland several weeks ago on her way to Canada, returned this morning and will visit Miss Nona Hall for several days.

Miss Wanda Bashland is in Ashland from Oakland, Calif., and will spend several days visiting here. She is a niece of Mrs. Walter Frenen and Mrs. A. C. Livingston.

The body of the infant son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Dowd, whose death occurred on the train when the mother was coming to Ashland Wednesday, was sent to their home in Riverside, Calif., this morning for burial. Dr. and Mrs. Dowd will follow in their automobile.

Mrs. Margaret Hall, who has been visiting in Southern California since last February, returned to her home in Ashland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Oeres and daughter Edna, Grant Selby and Ivern Keller composed a party who drove to Grants Pass yesterday afternoon, returning home late last night.

Postmaster Calvin W. Stewart of Tacoma, Wash., is sojourning in Ashland looking over the city as a health resort. Mr. Stewart had heard of Ashland and contemplates arranging for a vacation here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanna have returned from a pleasant two days' trip to Crater Lake in their new Stephens touring car. They were accompanied by Mrs. Hanna's mother, Mrs. Nellie Conner, and Mrs. M. J. Shook. Mrs. Hanna drove all the way. The roads were rough in places, especially where they were working on the highway. Men were cleaning snow from the path leading down to the lake, and in some places the trail was cut through the snow eight feet in depth.

R. P. Johnson of the sub-treasury department of Washington, D. C., and his wife are guests of the former's parents, Rev. and Mrs. William Johnson, and sister, Mrs. J. R. Robertson, this week. They are greatly delighted with Ashland and will remain here for about ten days.

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS

R. L. Dorn, a prominent lawyer of San Diego, with his wife and child, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rose. Mr. Dorn has recently put his beautiful home in San Diego up for sale, and will spend the summer when the latter visited Josephine caves and the coast country, and it was through them the Dorn family decided to come to Ashland this summer. They are delighted with this city, and expect to see much of it, while they make side trips to Crater Lake, Lake of the Woods and other noted scenic points.

The box factory recently erected by the Ashland Lumber company is practically completed and after trying and adjusting the machinery, will be ready for operation. Manager B. L. Deisman is already stocking up lumber for sawing into boxes.

Mrs. Henry Reid and daughter Dorothy left last evening for Seattle to visit with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Carl Loveland.

E. B. Owen of Grand Rapids, Mich., a nephew of Mrs. B. H. Hetch, is in Ashland. He has accepted a position on the clerical force in Ender's store, and will send for his family immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. James Radd arrived home Monday. Mrs. Radd has been making an extended visit with relatives in Chicago, and Mr. Radd met her in Sacramento, returning home with her.

Mrs. H. L. Green, who had been the guest of Ashland friends over the Fourth, returned to her home in Grants Pass yesterday.

Julian Barrett, who is employed at camp 12, Hill, this summer, spent the Fourth of July holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barrett, at their home on Factory street.

R. A. Minkler, a traveling salesman from Portland, and a former well known Ashland business man, left the first of the week on a month's vacation which he will spend with his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Ward, in Toledo, Ohio. He will also visit with friends in Nebraska before returning west. Mr. Minkler visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Minkler, in Ashland over the Fourth.

Mrs. Walter Kitto and children, Elsie and Harold, former Ashland residents, are guests this week with Mrs. Kitto's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thatcher, from their home in Lousan, Alberta, Canada.

Mrs. William Parshal of Hornbrook is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, of East Main street, this week.

Edgar L. Thatcher of Scotts Bluff, Neb., is a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thatcher.

G. W. Younger and wife of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dodson, over Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Younger is a sister of Mrs. Dodson.

P. W. Henry, a Southern Pacific employe, who has been living in Ashland for some time past, is moving his family to Roseburg this week.

H. S. Emery spent two or three days the first of the week in Yreka. This is an annual event in Mr. Emery's life. Old-time scenes in his younger days when that section was a thriving gold mining country still cling in the memory of Mr. Emery, and he likes to visit the scenes of his youth and recall the happy events of that period.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Johnson had with them over Sunday three of their children from a distance. These were Mrs. Pearl Dodge of Berkeley, Walker Thorne of Seattle and Otis Johnson of northern California.

Mrs. Julia Hockett, who left Ashland last year after spending two years here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cadwell, writes from Denver that her father, who had been seriously ill, is much improved. Mrs. Hockett states that the two happiest years of her life were spent in Ashland, and she is trying to get her parents to dispose of their Denver property and return to this city.

Mrs. Emma Coffee and her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Williams of Los Angeles, and Miss Hazel Brasse of Denver, Colo., started this morning on a trip to Crater Lake. They expect to be gone three or four days.

L. F. Willard of Monmouth is in the city this week. He is looking over the field here with a view to locating.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lowe and baby arrived in Ashland last evening from Burns, and will be guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lowe.

Floyd Edgington and wife of Seattle are guests of the former's brother, Charles Edgington, this week.

Mrs. J. H. Thatcher is reported to be much improved in health after a sickness of several weeks duration.

Miss Ethel Troutfether expects to leave for San Francisco shortly to be gone a week or so.

S. L. Young, who spent several days in Ashland arranging for and putting on the fireworks for the Fourth, left for Seattle this morning.

Charles L. Lamkin of Montague is spending a few days in Ashland with his parents, Mayor and Mrs. C. B. Lamkin.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Ferguson expect to leave this evening for a few days' trip to Oakland and San Francisco. During their absence Mrs. L. A. Roberts will join the clerical force in the Ferguson store.

Miss Marjorie Whited, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Whited, former Ashland residents, is visiting friends here. The Whites now live in Vallejo, Calif.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Johnson and family and Dr. R. L. Burdick and family expect to start tomorrow for Crater Lake, to be gone over Sunday. They may be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Polk of the Ashland Mills.

A. Schneck, a tailor from San Francisco, with his wife, has come to Ashland to make his home. He is at present employed in the Orres tailor shop.

Mrs. Agnes Herndon, who has recently sold her residence on Hargadine street, expects to leave shortly for Texas to make an extended visit with her son.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Goodhue of Cedar Rapids, Ia., are in Ashland taking advantage of the mineral waters for the benefit of their health. They are looking around here with a view to locating.

Among the recent real estate sales reported by the Beaver Realty company are the Mrs. Agnes Herndon house on Hargadine street; the Beaver Realty company house and three lots on Emerick street purchased by P. H. Freed, and the Fred Neil property at 39 Fourth street, purchased by H. C. Lead.

R. T. Cox of Algoma, who was a guest of his sister, Miss Gertrude Cox, in Ashland over the Fourth, left this morning for his home.

The Plaza confectionery was entered by thieves last night and upwards of $300 in money and checks were taken from a drawer in the desk. The proprietors had failed to make a deposit of their money the day before, and the desk and cash registers were rifled of their contents. Entrance was made through the back door.

The Western Union telegraph office is having some new furnishings placed today in the shape of awnings and a new linoleum on the floor.

Mrs. J. L. Heer of the Plaza Bakery is out of town on a two day business trip.

P. H. Freed and wife of Colusa, Calif., son-in-law and daughter of W. J. Keeton of Ashland, have come here to make their home. Mr. Freed is employed by the Southern Pacific company.

P. J. Smith of Roca street is in the employ of the Stearns Self Service store at present.

Mrs. Josephine Barrett is quite ill at the home of her son, J. H. Barrett, on Factory street. She suffered a slight stroke some time ago, and has been falling for the past week.

H. C. Head of Hornbrook, an employe of the Southern Pacific company, has purchased a home on Fourth street and will move his family here shortly to take possession.

News from down the valley states that a forest fire has started in the direction of Brownboro.

The infant son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Dowd died on the train Wednesday while the mother was on her way from Riverside, Calif., to Ashland. The little one, who was seven months old, had been suffering with pneumonia following whooping cough. Dr. and Mrs. Dowd had started to Ashland in an automobile, but the baby becoming seriously ill on the way, Mrs. Dowd took the train, hoping to make a more speedy trip, but the little life ebbed away before she could reach her friends here. Funeral services will be held after the arrival of relatives.

L. L. Holmes, who has been spending the past week in Ashland, a guest of his uncle, H. P. Holmes, and mother, Mrs. W. P. Holmes, left this morning for Crowell, Oregon.

Miss Arnera Kaiser, one of the instructors of the Oakland city schools, is spending her summer vacation with her brother, Postmaster E. J. Kaiser, and sister, Miss Emily Kaiser, at their home on Alida street.

Mrs. Leon Das Larzes and daughter of Cottage Grove, who have been recent Ashland guests, have returned to their home.

Miss Zeta Holmes arrived yesterday from Albany and will remain here for a time visiting her mother, Mrs. W. P. Holmes.

Harold Proze and his guest, George Stearns of Prineville, left this week for LePine, where they will make an extended sojourn. They made the trip by automobile.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

One of the finest gardens so far that has fallen under the observation of the Tidings scribe is that of J. E. Barrett on Factory street. Either that soil is peculiarly adapted to the growth of garden truck, or else Mr. Barrett is a wizard when it comes to making things grow, as everything planted in his garden plot is far advanced, and the products are rapidly coming to the ripening stage.

Glenn Leybold of Portland is in Ashland and will make an extended visit with his mother, Mrs. Isaac Crisp, and sister, Miss Leone Leybold.

Mrs. Gordon Robson and two sons of Vancouver, B. C., are guests of the former's aunt, Mrs. A. H. Davenport of the Valley View district. They expect to make an extended visit in this section.

Elsie and Max Crowson left yesterday for Salem where they will be guests of their aunt, Mrs. H. C. Finster, for some time.

P. T. Poe and family of Moscow, Idaho, who came to Ashland a few days ago, have decided they will remain here permanently. They are charmed and delighted with the weather conditions and scenic points of this city, and were anxious from the start to become citizens of Ashland.

Miss Margaret McCoy returned home last evening from Alameda where she had been visiting at the home of Mrs. C. M. Summers.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Webster were up from their ranch near Picoenix yesterday. They state that fruit conditions in their section are of the best. The late frosts which it was feared had injured the peaches and other fruit there, did not do enough damage to even properly thin it, and this work has been necessary. According to Dr. Webster they will be simply buried in fruit this season.

Mr. Partch, who was traveling through Ashland, stopped off yesterday and spent the day and night with the family of Albert Myers on Granite street.

Five sections of train No. 54 passed through Ashland last evening carrying delegates from the democratic convention in San Francisco to their respective homes. Among the familiar public faces that were recognized by Ashland citizens were W. J. Bryan of Nebraska and Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania.

W. D. Roberts and two daughters of Eagle Point, accompanied by their cousin, Miss Rowena Roberts of Ashland started this morning on an automobile trip south as far as Los Angeles. They expect to be gone three weeks.

A. M. Beaver has gone to Northern California on a business trip that will consume several days.

Otto Michel, a member of the police force, left for Roseburg and Eugene this morning where he will make an extended visit.

J. W. Mosier started this morning for the coast with a truck load of furniture. He has a ranch near Crescent City, and will locate there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stock have gone to the Lake of the Woods to spend a few days and get their summer cottage in readiness for the camping season now due.

Miss Winchester and Miss Alton two teachers from the Lakeview school in Oakland, Calif., will arrive today and be the guests of Miss Frances McWilliams at her home on Church street. These young women are teachers in music and science and agricultures in their school.

Jay Withrow, a student of the University of California, who is spending a few days' vacation with his parents in Talent, was in Ashland today.

Mr. Howell of Klamath Falls, who recently purchased the W. R. Taylor residence on Oak street, has moved his family over and taken possession of his new home.

Mr. Emery E. Smith, who was active in securing the promise of ex-Ambassador Gerard to attend Ashland's celebration and deliver the patriotic address, and who was chemical and construction engineer on the springs plant four years ago, came in last night from San Francisco from whence he accompanied Mr. Gerard's campaign manager, the editor of the Omaha News and other delegates returning from the convention. Mr. Kaiser met them at the depot and gave them a farewell. Mr. Gerard went to Los Angeles from the convention on Tuesday night and decided, after having missed the convention because of the long drawn out work of nominating the candidates, to return home at once, promising Mr. Smith and others, however, to visit Ashland this fall, at which time he will be again on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Eacke and family of Roby, Texas, arrived last week for a month's visit with relatives. Charles Morris and family. The trip was made by auto. R. L. Lovett and Lloyd Dowell of Roby were also parties of the trip. Mr. Lovett visited here two years ago and liked it so well he has purchased a home in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Weber and to even properly thin it, and this work has been necessary. According to Dr. Webster they will be simply buried in fruit this season.

Mr. Partch, who was traveling through Ashland, stopped off yesterday and spent the day and night with the family of Albert Myers on Granite street.

Five sections of train No. 54 passed through Ashland last evening carrying delegates from the democratic convention in San Francisco to their respective homes. Among the familiar public faces that were recognized by Ashland citizens were W. J. Bryan of Nebraska and Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania.

W. D. Roberts and two daughters of Eagle Point, accompanied by their cousin, Miss Rowena Roberts of Ashland started this morning on an automobile trip south as far as Los Angeles. They expect to be gone three weeks.

A. M. Beaver has gone to Northern California on a business trip that will consume several days.

Otto Michel, a member of the police force, left for Roseburg and Eugene this morning where he will make an extended visit.

J. W. Mosier started this morning for the coast with a truck load of furniture. He has a ranch near Crescent City, and will locate there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stock have gone to the Lake of the Woods to spend a few days and get their summer cottage in readiness for the camping season now due.

Miss Winchester and Miss Alton two teachers from the Lakeview school in Oakland, Calif., will arrive today and be the guests of Miss Frances McWilliams at her home on Church street. These young women are teachers in music and science and agricultures in their school.

Jay Withrow, a student of the University of California, who is spending a few days' vacation with his parents in Talent, was in Ashland today.

Mr. Howell of Klamath Falls, who recently purchased the W. R. Taylor residence on Oak street, has moved his family over and taken possession of his new home.

Mr. Emery E. Smith, who was active in securing the promise of ex-Ambassador Gerard to attend Ashland's celebration and deliver the patriotic address, and who was chemical and construction engineer on the springs plant four years ago, came in last night from San Francisco from whence he accompanied Mr. Gerard's campaign manager, the editor of the Omaha News and other delegates returning from the convention. Mr. Kaiser met them at the depot and gave them a farewell. Mr. Gerard went to Los Angeles from the convention on Tuesday night and decided, after having missed the convention because of the long drawn out work of nominating the candidates, to return home at once, promising Mr. Smith and others, however, to visit Ashland this fall, at which time he will be again on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Eacke and family of Roby, Texas, arrived last week for a month's visit with relatives. Charles Morris and family. The trip was made by auto. R. L. Lovett and Lloyd Dowell of Roby were also parties of the trip. Mr. Lovett visited here two years ago and liked it so well he has purchased a home in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Weber and to even properly thin it, and this work has been necessary. According to Dr. Webster they will be simply buried in fruit this season.

Mr. Partch, who was traveling through Ashland, stopped off yesterday and spent the day and night with the family of Albert Myers on Granite street.

Five sections of train No. 54 passed through Ashland last evening carrying delegates from the democratic convention in San Francisco to their respective homes. Among the familiar public faces that were recognized by Ashland citizens were W. J. Bryan of Nebraska and Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania.

W. D. Roberts and two daughters of Eagle Point, accompanied by their cousin, Miss Rowena Roberts of Ashland started this morning on an automobile trip south as far as Los Angeles. They expect to be gone three weeks.

A. M. Beaver has gone to Northern California on a business trip that will consume several days.

Otto Michel, a member of the police force, left for Roseburg and Eugene this morning where he will make an extended visit.

J. W. Mosier started this morning for the coast with a truck load of furniture. He has a ranch near Crescent City, and will locate there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stock have gone to the Lake of the Woods to spend a few days and get their summer cottage in readiness for the camping season now due.

Miss Winchester and Miss Alton two teachers from the Lakeview school in Oakland, Calif., will arrive today and be the guests of Miss Frances McWilliams at her home on Church street. These young women are teachers in music and science and agricultures in their school.

Jay Withrow, a student of the University of California, who is spending a few days' vacation with his parents in Talent, was in Ashland today.

Mr. Howell of Klamath Falls, who recently purchased the W. R. Taylor residence on Oak street, has moved his family over and taken possession of his new home.

Mr. Emery E. Smith, who was active in securing the promise of ex-Ambassador Gerard to attend Ashland's celebration and deliver the patriotic address, and who was chemical and construction engineer on the springs plant four years ago, came in last night from San Francisco from whence he accompanied Mr. Gerard's campaign manager, the editor of the Omaha News and other delegates returning from the convention. Mr. Kaiser met them at the depot and gave them a farewell. Mr. Gerard went to Los Angeles from the convention on Tuesday night and decided, after having missed the convention because of the long drawn out work of nominating the candidates, to return home at once, promising Mr. Smith and others, however, to visit Ashland this fall, at which time he will be again on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Eacke and family of Roby, Texas, arrived last week for a month's visit with relatives. Charles Morris and family. The trip was made by auto. R. L. Lovett and Lloyd Dowell of Roby were also parties of the trip. Mr. Lovett visited here two years ago and liked it so well he has purchased a home in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Weber and

GARDEN TOOLS advertisement with illustration of tools and text: 'NEW SHIPMENT of Garden Tools has arrived. Good tools are essential to good results—in garden or field. Provost Brothers HARDWARE'

BETTER GROCERIES For Less Money SPECIAL DEMONSTRATION OF Mazola Oil THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY Stearns Self Service Store 7 Main Street Opposite the Plaza

Lawn Mowers FROM $8.00 to $18.00 Poley's Drug Store POLEY & ELHART DRUGGISTS

Garden Hose High Grade One-Half Inch - 18c Three-Quarter Inch - 20c SIMPSON'S HARDWARE 37-39 NORTH MAIN STREET

BIG DANCE At the Bungalow Every Wednesday Night, 9 to 12 A Clean Crowd and Good Music The Bungalow has been remodelled and the floor greatly enlarged until it is now not only the coolest resort, but the best dancing floor to be found in the valley. The Newly Organized Society Orchestra, Made up of the Best Dance Musicians in the Valley. L. D. MINKLER and D. A. RUNYARD MANAGERS

FACE POWDER Jonteel Clinging Invisible WONDERFULLY soft and fine, it adheres so closely as to seem to belong to the skin itself. Never gives that coarse "make-up" look. And the exquisite Jonteel fragrance makes it a delight to use. Have you tried it? Take a box home today. 50c McNair Bros. The Rexall Store PEIL'S CORNER BY THE PARK A lot of new Iceless Coolers just in. An airplane load of American fencing of most every description dropped down the other day. Also some good cedar posts came walking in. New and used Sewing Machines always for sale or rent, at PEIL'S CORNER

Hundreds of Thousands of WEBSTER'S NEW INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARIES are in use by business men, engineers, bankers, judges, architects, physicians, farmers, teachers, librarians, clergymen, by successful men and women the world over. Are You Equipped to Win? The New International provides the means to success. It is an all-knowing teacher, a universal question answerer. If you seek efficiency and advancement why not make daily use of this vast fund of information? 400,000 Vocabulary Terms. 2700 Pages. 6000 Illustrations. Colored Plates. 20,000 Geographical Subjects. 12,000 Biographical Entries. Regular and India-Paper Editions. Write for prospectus, prices, etc. Free. Make it your motto this year. C. & C. MERRIAM CO. Springfield, Mass.