

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

FRIDAY'S NEWS

Jack Lilly returned yesterday from San Francisco where he has been in the Southern Pacific hospital. He has practically recovered from injuries received in an accident on the railroad and says he is feeling fine.

Miss Pauline Rice of Pendleton was greeted at the station yesterday by Miss Gertrude Engle of this city. Miss Rice is returning to her home in eastern Oregon from Berkeley, where she attended summer school at the University of California.

Jack True was in from the Greenspring mountain road camp yesterday and says the road crew up there has been making good progress but have been slowed down recently by heavy rock formations they have encountered.

Ray Booth and R. W. Long of Yoncalla, Oregon, were in Ashland last week and purchased five fine Rambouillet rams from Fred Herrin.

Mrs. Herman Young and son, Sidney, of Grants Pass, were in Ashland, Wednesday.

Miss Dorothy Howard of Grants Pass has been visiting friends in the city for the past two days.

Verni Carter is back from the Elks' convention at Salem. He stopped at Roseburg for a visit on the return trip.

The county is keeping the road six miles this side and five miles the other side of Prospect, sprinkled in order to keep down the heavy alkali dust which last year made this stretch the worst piece of road in the state. The stretch is sprinkled daily.

The forest fire north of Jacksonville has burned over 600 to 700 acres and on Wednesday it threatened the Webster and Hopkins ranches and burned considerable fencing. It was under control at latest reports.

Word has been received here by District Fish and Game Warden Dally from Captain Bergdoff, state game warden, that he will forward 200 Chinese pheasants here within the next ten days for distribution throughout Jackson county. Mr. Dalley says that he and Ed Walker will endeavor to distribute the birds in such places where they will be least liable to be shot during the pheasant hunting season, and that if any one wants several of the birds for his farm or ranch he can obtain them by making such request of himself or Mr. Walker.—Medford Mail-Tribune.

The county court is starting a large force of men to work on the road between Reese creek school house and Butte Falls. This road serves as an outlet for Butte Falls and Derby people and in past winters has been almost impassable. About three miles of road through the "sticky" district will be macadamized and for the remainder of the distance it will be graded and put in good condition.—Jacksonville Post.

Fred Herrin is shipping a fine Rambouillet ram today to Doug Jax Waite, Dickinsonville, Oregon. The animal sold at $125. Mr. Herrin's fine hand of thoroughbred is attracting much attention from Oregon and California breeders.

Donald Silver has gone to Orland, Calif., to spend the remainder of the summer vacation, with his uncle, C. F. Silver. He will return in time for school in September.

A large contingent of Ashland Elks went to Medford last night to attend the smoker held by the Medford Elks. Two lively mixes were reported.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Payne arrive from Hillsboro tomorrow for a visit in this city. Mrs. Payne is a sister of Mrs. Susie Allen.

Mrs. Susie Allen reports renting the L. M. Hand house to C. W. Snodgrass, who with D. Y. K. Henry, recently purchased the Plaza Barber shop from Clyde Costello. Mrs. Allen says four people were in yesterday seeking a house to rent and two this morning, but that she knows of no vacant houses in the city.

C. R. Heimroth and Ira Chaney of the Medford Roof Painting company, are painting the roof of the Natatorium. The Nat roof over the dance floor has leaked considerably during the past year and puddles of water on the floor slowed up the high steppers somewhat on rainy nights. Mr. Chaney says "she'll stay dry as punk" when they get through with it. They recently finished painting the roof of Fred Wagner's house on Grant street.

Mrs. D. Perrozi of Ashland, who was recently appointed a member of the executive committee of the Republican State Central Committee, has just returned from Chicago and the east. While in Chicago she had a conference at republican western headquarters with Mrs. Medill McCormick, member of the national committee, Mrs. Raines, executive secretary of the committee, Mrs. Robinson of New York, who made such a wonderful speech at the republican national convention, and Mrs. Dobbins of the Illinois state committee. National Chairman Hayes and other party leaders were also in Chicago. Mrs. Perrozi secured splendid information regarding the plans of the committee and especially the woman's work for the coming campaign that will be valuable to the state and county committees.—Medford Mail-Tribune.

Heinrich Heidenreich, who left last Monday for California to attend summer school at Stanford in order to meet requirements for a teacher's certificate in California, found that his qualifications entitled him to a certificate without attending the school, was certified by the State Superintendent at Sacramento and has returned to spend the remainder of the summer in this valley, after which he expects to accept a position in California.

Amer and Walker have opened a new exchange store in the building formerly occupied by Baker's confectionery on North Main street. The new firm appeals to both consumer and producer. Their first ad appears elsewhere in this issue.

Dr. S. A. Danford left today for Jefferson, Oregon, where he will attend the State Epworth League Institute.

Mrs. H. O. Danford of Seattle is visiting at the home of Dr. Danford on the Boulevard. Mrs. Danford is the wife of Dr. Danford's son, who operates a large dental office in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Cartmill of Sparks, Nev., are reported to be parents of a baby daughter, who arrived July 25. Mrs. Cartmill is a daughter of Mrs. D. N. Davis of Ashland.

W. W. Hittle and family, Emmett Sutton and family and J. E. Marting were up from Gold Hill to attend the Odd Fellows picnic yesterday.

Henry Stidman has returned from a trip to Portland, Salem and Klamath Falls.

The sale of a two-acre home place in southeast Ashland, known as the Butte place, by Mrs. Alice McClanahan to I. W. Sperry, newcomer from Washington state, is reported by the Beaver Realty company. This place sold twice in a period of five days.

Edward Stannard is here from Berkeley, where he attends the University of California, for a few days visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Terrill and Mrs. F. C. Hillard of Talent and the latter's sister, Mrs. Gray of Portland, spent yesterday in Lithia park.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Tomlinson left this morning on a vacation trip.

Zelma, Flossie and Harrison Smith are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Yockey at 105 Pine street.

J. S. Jordan received word this morning that his brother, Al, who is headed out this way for a visit, has reached Yellowstone Park. Sam says Al will probably reach Ashland some time this fall, but has no idea of the approximate date of arrival for the reason that Al is touring by auto without schedule and without plans except to have the best kind of a time possible.

Miss Mildred Million has returned from Sisson, where she attended the summer school session of the Chico Normal, held at the Shasta mountain resort town. She will teach here this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engle have gone to Lake of the Woods to spend a two weeks' outing.

Phil Rose will leave tomorrow for Pelican Bay to look after timber matters.

The funeral of H. C. Chamberlain, who was killed in a truck accident last week, was held this morning from the Chamberlain home on Mountain avenue. A daughter and son were visiting in New York and hurried home when word of the accident reached them and arrived Sunday. The body was taken to Klamath Falls for burial.

The Trigon oil well is now down to a depth of 680 feet. The forest fire north of Jacksonville is now practically out.

C. A. Malone of the California-Oregon Power company was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Manley Brower, Misses Nina and Veda Brower and

Mr. Bill Hobbs of Washington, D. C., who is visiting at the Brower home, returned Saturday from an automobile trip to Crater Lake, Pelican Bay and Lake of the Woods.

G. E. Cash, who has been employed as cook at the Nelda cafe, left Saturday evening for his home in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McNair and Mrs. Kay Murphy have gone to Lake of the Woods to camp for a week or two.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, son, and grandchildren, returned this morning to their home in Oakland after a visit with Mr. Shaw's brother, Bob Shaw, at the latter's home on Rock street.

Mrs. W. A. Shell is visiting in Newport.

E. W. Flackus, Fourth street grocer, has returned from a sojourn in the hills.

O. E. Rohrke has purchased a Maibohm car from the Norton Motorcar Co.

Mrs. W. H. Noe and Miss Leona Noe of Berkeley, California, mother and sister of Mrs. Frank Vargas of this city, arrived yesterday for a visit at the Vargas home on Beach avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vaupel and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Weaver of Portland, motored over to Rogue river yesterday.

Mrs. S. P. Shutt is here from California to spend the summer. She is staying at the Wheeler residence.

Miss Margaret Carter of Eugene is visiting H. B. Carter and other relatives and friends in this vicinity.

The T. H. Simpson family autoed over to Sams Valley yesterday.

Mrs. H. J. Carter has gone to Montesano, Washington, for a few weeks' visit with friends and relatives.

J. W. McCoy is a business visitor to Jacksonville today.

Lyman Meador of the University of Oregon spent Saturday at the home of his school friend, Fred Schuerman, in this city.

Clifford Yarborough is in Ashland this week enroute to Astoria from an extended automobile trip through New Mexico and California.

F. M. Anderson and wife, of Berkeley, are visiting at the home of Mr. Anderson's sister, Mrs. J. M. Wagner.

Henry Enders, who drove up to Prospect, Sunday, with a party of friends, says there were about 25 carloads of valley folks up there Sunday. H. B. Carter and family were among the Ashland visitors to Prospect.

Merle Robison and party are expected back from Crescent City this evening and others who are contemplating trips over to the Coast are anxiously awaiting his report on road conditions.

O. T. Bergner, manager of the Vining theatre, returned Sunday, from Portland where he has been lining up some high grade attractions for Ashland theatregoers.

C. A. Shutt and family, Miss Fern Murphy and John Finneran formed a picnic party who spent last evening in the wilds of Wagner creek.

M. C. Bressler came down from Springfield last night and is looking after his timber interests on Wagner creek today. Mr. Bressler was a former well known Ashland resident.

Early Hosler and Sim Morris brought back the bacon yesterday—or, rather, the steel head. Below the Gold Ray dam they caught 17 fine trout ranging from 10 to 16 inches.

E. D. Briggs and wife and W. M. Briggs will leave Wednesday for Gold Beach, where the former will participate in the conference in regard to Rogue River fish problems.

D. M. Spencer and family, and Ed. Mary and Esther Spencer leave this evening for the mountains. They expect to spend about two weeks at the Spencer place in Dead Indian and at Lake of the Woods.

Glen Simpson, John Rigg and Donald Dickerson are off in a bunch for the wilds of the Oregon coast country. This morning they loaded up 28 gallons of precious gasoline and figure it will last them most of the way. They go to Crescent City and then up the coast to Fort Stevens at the mouth of the Columbia, returning inland.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Finley, Mrs. J. S. Parson and H. C. Emery have returned from a trip to Crater Lake. They report the Rogue river road to be in good shape, far better than last year. They returned by the Dead Indian route.

Several Ashlanders who have been down Medford way recently have remarked the beauty of a bed of petunias on the W. E. Williams place on the Pacific highway just this side of Talent. The flower beds extend the entire length of the place and are gorgeous with blooms. A nicely kept green lawn makes the premises one of the most attractive along the highway.

Arthur and Gertrude Trout-fetter, Miss Edna Burns, Miss Irene Steidl and Miss Fallidine returned this morning from Crater Lake.

The warehouse fire at Medford has thrown the fear of fire into the hearts of many in this district. Yesterday a man stepped into a local fire insurance agent's office and had some furniture which he has in a warehouse here, insured for the period of six hours before he would get it out to take it to Klamath Falls. He said he had been burnt out twice but never had insurance before as he had thought it would cost too much. It cost him 12 cents for his insurance here.

Miss Rose Peck of Los Angeles, who was on her way home from a two months visit in the east, spent a day here this week at the P. G. MacWilliams home. Miss Peck is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Peck, who was formerly Miss May MacWilliams.

Mrs. Tamey of Medford and Mesdames Richmond and Davison of Central Point are camping in the park to enjoy the good things of the Bible school.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley expect to make the Crater Lake trip this week. Mrs. D. Parson will accompany them.

George Ross is enjoying a vacation outing in the mountains.

Misses Nina and Hazel Emery and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lane left yesterday by automobile for San Diego. They expect to be gone three or four weeks and will stop at San Francisco, Los Angeles and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Scott are parents of a fine baby boy who arrived Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chaney rejoice in the arrival of a baby son. The newcomer has been named Adrian Boyd.

H. R. Jacoby of the Plaza confectionery is a business visitor to Medford today.

Dr. Canfield and wife of Drain and Mr. Canfield's father and mother from Seattle arrived Saturday for a visit at the Garrett home here. Mrs. Canfield was formerly Miss Bessie Garrett. On Sunday Dr. Canfield, his parents, and Mrs. Garrett left for Crater Lake. The Canfields return to Drain today.

Miss Lucile Hayes and her friend, Miss Amelia Reals of Portland, have gone to Shasta retreat to spend a few days.

Sim Morris is unobtrusively crowding over the Ashland fishermen who went down to the river Sunday and returned with empty baskets. Sim went down below the Ray dam Sunday evening and caught four nice steelhead and

A miniature replica of Crater Lake in a Medford store window is creating much favorable comment by Ashlanders who have visited the neighboring city recently.

Miss Ora Hoy of St. Paul, Minn., is a guest of Miss Renee. Miss Hoy was a teacher in the Ashland schools in 1912.

Mrs. Ira Pittman returned from the south the first of the week.

The Swedenburg house on Iowa street has been sold to Dr. Kinz through the Billings agency.

Miss Pearl Ady of Myrtle Creek arrived last Thursday for a visit at the home of Mrs. J. B. Cozart on B Street. The Cozarts and their visitor will go to Crater Lake the first of next week.

One of the Interurban cars smashed into a Reo truck in Medford yesterday, but beyond a smashed wheel, no damage was done.

L. F. Thom, the Medford man who was sent to the state hospital recently for mental treatment, escaped from that institution one night several days ago and made his way to Medford by some means, arriving there Thursday night, greatly to the alarm of his family on North Ivy street, because of threats he had made before. Mrs. Thom sent word to the police and Night Policeman Adams and two deputy sheriffs went to the house, took Thom into custody and locked him up at the county jail to await the coming of attendants to take him back to Salem.

Mrs. R. E. Banks and son Cleland of Ohio street, have gone to Portland for a week's business trip and visit. Mrs. Banks will visit brothers and sisters in Portland.

Entertains at 500. Mrs. W. A. Landis of Oakland, California, was the honor guest at a "Five Hundred" party at the home of Mrs. O. W. Long, on Second street yesterday. Four tables were played, Mrs. C. O. Porter taking high honors and Mrs. Foltz the consolation prize. Mrs. Guy Jacobs added to the enjoyment of the occasion with several piano solos. Tasty refreshments some trout in the course of the evening's fishing. He used spinners for the steelhead.

The rim road around Crater Lake has been thrown open to the public, the snow having melted off and tourists can now drive around the lake. Last year the road was not open until August.

Despite the rains of late spring and snowfall in the mountains, the snow is melting off early on the high peaks this year, and indications are that the creeks and river will be low in August.

R. A. Hutchison, editor of the Oakland Tribune, is spending a three weeks' vacation in Ashland and vicinity.

J. H. McKinzie purchased an Overland Four from the Marey agency last Saturday and J. J. Cozart followed suit the first of the week.

A Chandler car belonging to the Norton Motorcar Company, which was supposedly stolen from in front of the Norton garage sometime Monday night, was found yesterday near Talent. A tire was punctured and the gas supply exhausted.

E. N. Norton is in Grants Pass on business today.

William Rinehart of Grants Pass paid a flying visit to Ashland yesterday to visit his granddaughter, Miss Margaret Alene Norton. Mr. Rinehart says being a grandpa is quite interesting.

Dr. Maude I. Hawley is back in her office in the First National Bank building after a three week's vacation, the first week of which was spent in the vicinity of Portland and the last two near Rocky Point on Pelican Bay.

TOLO OVERHEAD CROSSING FINISHED. GOLD HILL.—Considerable rejoicing is noted among car owners and motor truck operators over the completion of the 2300 feet of pavement over the Tolo overhead crossing, six miles south of this place.

For several months traffic was compelled to take a detour over very rough clay roadbed while waiting for the big earth ap-

On Savings Accounts 4% Interest A Dollar Starts an Account STATE BANK OF ASHLAND.

Nature's Remedy... NR Tablets NR Acts on the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels. For Defective Elimination in Constipation, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia. A 25c Box Will Convince You. ASK FOR FREE SAMPLE McNair Bros. The Rexall Store

WOOD-LARK FLY REPELLENT DRIVES AWAY FLIES, MOSQUITOES, AND GNATS Why lose your temper at a cow kicking at flies? Use FLY REPELLENT and the cows will stand still. 65c QT., $1.75 GAL. —AT— THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

POLEY'S DRUG STORE POLEY & ELHART DRUGGISTS ARE YOU SAVING FOR A HOME? There are many advantages of having a home of your own. The sooner you begin to save for this purpose, the nearer you will be to greater happiness and success. Start a fund for a home now with The Citizens Bank of Ashland. 4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS praches to the overhead to settle. The completion of this stretch of pavement gives tourists a paved highway from several miles of Ashland to Gold Hill.

With the exception of a comparatively short length of highway in both extreme ends of the county the Pacific highway is now paved. Freight and passenger service on regular schedules is now successfully operated between Ashland and Grants Pass, while W. E. McCracken is operating regularly, hauling passengers between Roseburg and Medford.

The Jordan Electric company is installing a large electric sign for the Automotive shop today. Several Ashland business houses have recently had electric signs erected and others are planning to do likewise.

C. C. Cate, county pathologist, has purchased the J. D. Housley pear orchard, east of Medford. The property consists of 49 acres of bearing trees and is considered one of the choice orchards of the valley. The purchase price was $23,000. Mr. Cate will continue as county agent.

The county court recently appointed Deputy Sheriff J. J. McMahon as special traffic officer. Mr. McMahon has grabbed a couple of Medford truck owners for operating without a license. H. H. Noel, also of Medford, was arrested for failing to dim his lights when approaching another vehicle at night.

No Ashland autoists have been pinched—yet.

Albina.—First pontoons of five-pontoon drydock completed.

TAKE A TIP ABOUT HOUSE PAINTING FROM A POET

The poet said: "What is so rare as a day in June? Then, if ever, come perfect days." The perfect days of June are favorable days for painting. No scorching sun to blister the paint, small chance of rain to hinder the work. Yes, June is the best month of the year. So why not call us up and make a date for June? We shall be glad to advise you in regard to selection of colors. PAINT UP.

Dickerson THE PAINT MAN

Ready to Brighten You Up Conqueror HATS and CAPS Impart that well-dressed feeling. New Spring styles. New Shirts. New Neckwear. New Suits. Spring Underwear. MITCHELL'S FOR MEN'S WEAR BY THE POSTOFFICE

Just Received The New Pack of Salmon also Fresh Strained Honey From the Mountains Stearns Self Service Store 7 Main Street Opposite the Plaza

Just Arrived A Complete Line OF Aluminum Utensils AND Enamel Ware AT SIMPSON'S HARDWARE 37-39 NORTH MAIN STREET