TURN IN BONDS

FOR EXCHANGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Sept. 18.—Holders of Temporary Liberty Bonds of the first, second, and third Liberty Loans are failing to take advantage of the opportunity to exchange their holdings for permanent bonds bearing coupons to maturity, according to John U. Calkins, governor of the Federal Reserve bank of San Francisco, in a letter sent to all banks, bankers and trust companies of the Twelfth Federal Reserve district. Interest on these temporary bonds cannot be collected beyond the number of coupons attached to them and it is of vital importance to those who bought first, second and third Liberty Loan bonds to turn them in for permanent securities.

The relatively small amount of temporary coupon bonds of the first, second and third Liberty Loans presented for exchange, indicates that a large number of bond holders are not aware that temporary bonds of the above issues may, at this time, be exchanged for permanent coupon bonds bearing coupons to maturity.

A WEATHER-PLATEN WIND-BLOWN AFFIDAVIT CLEARS WHITE MAN

REGINA, Sask., Sept. 17.—Soaked by the rains, buried beneath the snow and blown about the prairies by the winds of thirty-five years, a document which settles a point that history leaves in doubt has just been found near Regina.

It is an affidavit sworn to by Corporal Hugh J. A. Davidson of the Royal Northwest mounted police and affirms that the first shot of Louis Riel's second rebellion in 1885 was fired by his half-breed followers. Some writers have contended that the whites precipitated the conflict that drenched western Canada in blood.

carrying away seven wounded but leaving twelve dead on the field. Riel's victory caused the Indians to join the insurrection. But it also sounded his own death knell. The settlers rose in defense of their homes, troops hurried from the east and the rebellion was crushed. Riel was hanged at Regina.

Speaking like a voice from the grave, Corporal Davidson swears in his affidavit that the first shot came from one of Riel's half-breeds crouching in the willow-walks and whistled past his head. "Until Major Crozier gave the order," he says, "no shot was fired by any of our party."

ENGINEERS STUDY

KLAMATH WATERS
YREKA, Calif.—State Engineer McClure, State Water Commissioner Charles Lee, F. Adams, agricultural adviser to the state engineer, and Mr. Newell, manager of Klamath project, are on the ground to inspect the Klamath project in Klamath county and the proposed 120,000-acre Shasta Valley project in Siskiyou county, California, with a view to determine the division of waters of the upper Klamath watershed, between the two projects.

A tentative agreement has been reached between representatives of the Siskiyou project and the Klamath American Legion post that the Shasta valley project shall have all the water remaining after the several Klamath irrigation projects are provided for.

Both parties agree to join in urging a government appropriation for immediate building of the Kink river dam, recently abandoned by the California-Oregon Power company, which makes the upper Klamath lake a storage reservoir.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

Birthday Party
On last Wednesday evening Mrs. Lizzie Will and Mrs. R. C. Goodman entertained at a birthday party. The event was in honor of Mrs. Will and Mr. Goodman, whose birthdays occur close together. A huge birthday cake adorned the table. As Mr. Goodman remarked when the candles were burning, "Some candle power." Some delicious home grown melons from the Gyger farm on Nell creek were the best ever. Music was enjoyed by all. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowson, Ima, Max and Elsie, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Callahan and son Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crowson and daughter Clarice, Mrs. Lizzie Will and Clara, Mr. and Mrs. Goodman and Misses Edith Dodge and Mildred Gyger.

Surprised Their Friend

A number of intimate friends of Mrs. Green of 145 Granite street surprised her at her home last evening in honor of her birthday celebration. About ten ladies gathered at Mrs. Green's home, greatly to the lady's surprise, and spent a most enjoyable evening together until about 11 o'clock. Ice cream, cake, fruit and nuts were served.

Elected Officers

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church held its regular monthly meeting in the church yesterday afternoon. A business session took place at the opening of the meeting at which officers for the coming year were elected, as follows: President, Mrs. Mills; vice presidents, Mrs. Van Fossen and Mrs. Edwards; secretary, Mrs. Marske; treasurer, Mrs. Spindler. A number of strangers were present at this meeting, and much attention was given towards making them feel at home with the former members of the society. A delightful afternoon was spent, at which refreshments were served. Plans were also discussed regarding the coming year's work.

SATURDAY'S NEWS

Harvest Ball.
Nothing but the most extravagant of praise follows the Harvest ball given by the First Company, O. N. G., in the Armory last night. The rooms were comfortably filled with merry-makers, all of whom were in the mood to have a good time, and the leading features were such that made life "down on the farm" one long dream of joy. Milk maids and harvest hands were much in evidence, while the decorations were in keeping with the season. This was one of the most delightful events ever staged by these hosts, who are pastmasters in the art of entertaining.

Entertained Teachers

Members of the Senior high school faculty entertained the other teachers, together with the school directors and their wives, at a picnic supper held in the park last evening. The company gathered after school hours and spent a delightful period with games, when they put away their official dignity and played football with as much enthusiasm and energy as the youth under their instruction during the day. This helped work up a good appetite for the wonderful spread laid out on the tables in the picnic grounds, which was hugely enjoyed by the guests.

At the close of the ceremony Mrs. McGee gave a vocal solo, "My Wish," following which congratulations and good wishes were showered upon the happy pair. Mr. and Mrs. Porter left that afternoon on a short honeymoon trip. On their return they will make their home at the farm of the groom near Roseburg.

Former Ashlanders Marry

Miss Nellie Rose received today the announcement of the marriage of Miss Laura K. McCormick of Tabor, Ia., to Howard E. Ewer of Portland, which took place in the latter city September 4. Mr. and Mrs. Ewer will reside in Portland. Both the principals of this event are well known in Ashland. The groom was a former prominent young business man here for a number of years, while his bride taught mathematics in the Senior high school for three years, leaving Ashland for Portland three years ago.

Watermelon Feed

The Epworth League of the M. E. church participated in a watermelon feed held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Weren last Friday evening. The merry Leaguers were taken up in cars and entertained by means of games and singing. After which they adjourned to the lawn where the "big feed" of luscious melons from Scott's field near Talent, awaited them. About thirty were present, and, needless to say, all had an enjoyable evening.

Pioneer Reunion

The Pioneers of Jackson county will hold their annual reunion at Jacksonville the first Thursday in October, and will be in the form of a basket picnic. Mrs. H. H. Sargent of Jacksonville will be the speaker of the day.

Sunday School Class Party

That delightful class of young women known as Mrs. Wicks' Bible class, were entertained in a charming way Thursday evening in the parlors of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Will Moor and Miss Nellie Ross being hostesses. Most of the class members were present and a goodly number of the new school teachers. Ice cream, cake and coffee topped off the pleasant evening's entertainment.

Observe Constitution Day

Mount Ashland Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at the Lithia fountain in the park yesterday afternoon in the first stated meeting of the season. As that was the anniversary of the legal adoption of the constitution of the United States, a program was given in observance of the event. Mrs. Littlefield read a paper on the forming of the constitution and its adoption, while Miss Grace H. Chamberlain gave a talk on the literary productions during the revolutionary period. The election of Mrs. J. P. Dodge as second vice-regent, Miss Chamberlain, expects to be absent for the winter. Light refreshments were served. The Chapter will hold regular meetings every alternate month, the next stated meeting being the third Friday in November. Other meetings may be held, however, at the call of the regent.

Married in Jacksonville

Harry Vincent of Medford and Miss Della Young of Ashland were united in marriage yesterday in Jacksonville, a justice of the peace reading the marriage service. The young couple will make their home in San Diego.

Ex-Service Men Dine.

Meredith Beaver entertained a number of his close friends with a dinner Thursday evening at his home on Iowa street. Five boys, with the host, all ex-service men in France and students at O. A. C. or the U. of O., sat down to a sumptuous repast which was greatly enlivened by reminiscences of the past and plans for the future. The guest list included Meredith, Oscar Silver and Harold Simpson.

Many Enjoy Picnic.

Upwards of 150 members of the Masonic lodge and the various auxiliaries accepted the invitation issued by Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Lowe to attend the barbecue at their home yesterday afternoon. Huge tables were set out of doors and at about 1 o'clock the company gathered around the board and enjoyed the sumptuous feast prepared for them. Short addresses were made by prominent Masons and Eastern Star members and during the afternoon all manner of enjoyable stunts were pulled off by the visitors. All were loud in their praise of Mr. and Mrs. Lowe as hosts.

Dine at Rogue Elk.

A large automobile party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peil, Mrs. Ida Applegate, Miss Lydia McCall, Mrs. H. A. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pierce, Mrs. J. G. Pierce and son Albert, Miss Ruth Osman and Robert Wagner, drove down to Rogue Elk yesterday and spent the day. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. J. H. Pierce and son, who have been Ashland guests from New York. Home Wedding

The marriage of James D. Myers to Miss Ruth V. Rouse took place yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of E. M. Terry on First street. About 18 friends and relatives witnessed the pretty ring ceremony performed by Rev. D. J. Gillanders of the Congregational church.

THEY'RE WEARING WINTER FURS NOW

NEW YORK.—Summer furs are still waxing hot in this little city, and instead of furs being placed in storage they are taken home for immediate wear. Although the full-length wraps and dolmans of Hudson seal, squirrel or kolinsky are not in evidence, some touch of fur is seen upon almost every garment worn upon The Avenue.

Short little coats or capes in seal, squirrel or fitch are worn extensively over suits and street wool dresses and the popular little choker of last fall's running is back in full force. Fitch, mole, squirrel, or stone marten seems the favored fur for these tiny neck chokers. Heads and tails are used, and sometimes a bow of airy tulle or majline. The chokers are worn fastened in the back or side-front.

The higher-priced fabric coats are so lavishly trimmed with furs that they often resemble a fur coat trimmed with cloth. Deep hands of beaver, nutria, mole, skunk or squirrel finish the skirt of the coat, form deep cuffs, and the nose-high choker collar, which, when unfastened drapes about the shoulders as a shawl collar.

Suits use the narrow bandings a bit more, although collars of solid fur are also very good. Fur seems to harmonize with the goods rather than contrast. Thus, a peccan brown duvetyn uses nutria fur of almost a like shade, a taupe velveteen uses gray squirrel or mole, and the dull blues are equally beautiful with a brown, black, or taupe fur.

Fur seems to work its festive art upon every realm of fashion this year. It is made into cords and girdles for the straight skirt dresses. Little plaques of it cut oval, octagon, or square are set upon dress goods at certain intervals. Dress sleeves and necks are often edged with it, and afternoon and evening silk gowns employ it extensively for very elaborate touches. Marabou in all shades of the rainbow flecks evening gowns. This is very popular in black upon gay hues.

Hats are either entirely of fur or fur-trimmed. The Russian fur turban is shown in seal, beaver, nutria, or raccoon. These turbans are large and tam-like, topped with a large button covered by the material and often dangle some fur tassels.

Fabric hats of velvet, duvetyn, silk or satin, flaunt fur appliques and plaques or bandings. Some of them have "ear rings" of gayly covered fur.

The realm of accessories is very fur-like. Purses and bags show a touch of it in handles or trimmings. There are cases with little animal heads, and beady eyes blink from umbrella tops. Vanity cases and dance bags use either a tiny furry foot, head, or tail some-placed about them, and even evening combs are topped with a furry banding, while fans of maribou are supplanting the feather fan.

NEW PLAN MADE TO REGISTER VOTERS

County Clerk Florey is using a new plan to get all the voters registered for the fall election, which is thought to be a great improvement over the old plan, according to the Medford Mail Tribune, and to this end is having a house to house canvass made in the towns and cities of the county by Mrs. Prue Platt and Mrs. Lydia Howell of Medford and Mrs. D. Peruzzi and Mr. W. H. Goudy of Ashland. Each is to be paid 10 cents for every voter registered and pay their own expenses. However, one can register under the old plan if he chooses and the old registration plans will be maintained.

MRS. BARRETT DIES IN TACOMA

Mrs. James Barrett died yesterday afternoon at about 3 o'clock in Tacoma, where she had gone several weeks ago to make a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Ashby. She had been in poor health since early summer and took this trip in the hope of recuperating. While there she suffered a nerve collapse and had been in a critical condition for the past two or three weeks. Mr. Barrett was summoned to the bedside of his wife about two weeks ago, and has remained as her constant attendant ever since.

Mrs. Barrett had been a resident of Ashland for the past 14 years and during that period had given her time extensively to church and civic work, beside taking a great interest in the sick and unfortunate of her neighborhood. She was a devoted mother and home maker, and her death falls with a keen blow to the entire community. She is survived by her husband, James Barrett, and four children, Mrs. McClean of Seattle; Mrs. Ashby of Tacoma; Mrs. Elmer Kincaid and Howard Barrett of Ashland.

Up to the present writing no details of the funeral have been made. The members of the family living here are expecting further communication from Mr. Barrett in regard to his arrival with the body.
