

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

TUESDAY'S NEWS

California guests registered at the Hotel Columbia are Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Schindler and N. A. Burry of Los Angeles; C. A. Wagner of Hornbrook; F. Vander Plaets of Modesto, and C. L. Endicott and wife of San Francisco. Other guests are E. Z. Jacobs and wife, Herbert Coffey, C. N. Bryan and wife.

Dr. F. M. Moxon, who has been away for several weeks on a vacation spent in San Francisco and other southern points, has returned home. He was accompanied by his wife, who has been spending the summer in California.

Mrs. J. L. Creeks will leave this evening for her home in Northern California after spending several weeks with friends in Ashland.

Tourists from the east stopping at the Hotel Austin are W. S. Reynolds and wife, and Cara Las Kill of Chicago; Dr. de Orger of New York City; E. H. Olmstead and wife of Genoa, Ill.; J. A. Cameron of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Y. O. N. Smith, cashier of the Citizens Bank was a business visitor in Jacksonville yesterday.

Dr. J. H. Halfer, a dentist who has been looking after Dr. W. E. Buchanan's office while the latter was away on his summer vacation, left this morning for Salem.

Miss Bloom is a new teacher in the public schools. She assumed her duties yesterday, filling the vacancy in the Junior High school.

V. E. Hunter and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson are Portland guests stopping at the Hotel Austin.

The fact that the football game at Ashland last Saturday was won by Ashland high by a score of 16 to 6 over Klamath Falls high, gives the Medford high students much food for thought. The Medford high team hopes this year to humble their old time rivals of the neighboring city and will work hard to bring this about.—Medford Mail Tribune

Chief of Police Hatcher and Fire Chief Robinson are in Medford today attending the session of United States district court held there this week.

J. Rudolph Sanzett of Medford to obtain a memorial window for Bishop Hughes at the building of the new church which is being planned for in Medford in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fuller and J. E. Fuller came home last night from a week's sojourn in Portland. They stopped on their way north and spent a day at the state fair in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Atkinson of Seattle are Ashland visitors this week, stopping at the Hotel Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Allen are planning on a vacation to Northern California and Klamath county next week as a rest for Mr. Allen who has just recovered from a serious illness.

A. A. Wards and wife of Wichita, Kansas, are stopping at the Hotel Columbia a few days.

The steering wheel of a Ford car driven by F. W. Beaver last evening broke as he was taking the car down the little pitch on Mechanic street near the railroad. The Ford left the road and landed in the creek, bottomside up. As it struck the stone foundation of the bridge the impact threw Mr. Beaver out of the car and he landed some distance away, thereby escaping any injury. The car was righted and pulled out of the stream by a team of horses.

Rev. A. Werden arrived in Ashland Saturday from Salem and assumed the pastorate of the Free Methodist church. The new pastor preached Sunday, and made a favorable impression on his people. He expects his wife to follow him within a week or ten days. The district quarterly conference of the Free Methodist church will start Thursday, October 14, and continue over the following Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dollard of Weed were in Ashland yesterday visiting with friends and looking after business affairs in the city.

Mrs. Jean Morris Ellis, vocational adviser and character analyst, under the educational department of the Y. M. C. A., is in Ashland this week. In the interests of First company, O. N. G., and the American Legion Mrs. Ellis spoke in the Baptist church Sunday evening, before the First company in the Army Monday evening and will address the American Legion in the Armory this evening. She is a talented woman and excellent speaker and has gained much prominence through her war work in this and other coast states.

J. M. Hughes and wife, who recently purchased the house on South Pioneer avenue, are moving into their new possession today. They expect to be able to sleep in their own home tonight.

Reports on the Jacksonville bank filed in the county clerk's office are said to show overdrafts for $46,519.32; $7,605.95, with $3,016 extra borrowed; $1550.49, with $4000 borrowed; $4418.40, with $1500 borrowed; $1500, with $1500 borrowed.

The Jackson county exhibit at the state fair won third place, according to County Agriculturist C. C. Cate, who had charge of the exhibit. Mr. Cate states the exhibit proved very popular with the thousands who visited the fair.

A. G. Eames and wife of Chico, Calif., are Ashland visitors this week. They are stopping at the Hotel Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. George Yates had business which took them down to the county seat today.

Mrs. Norman Stephenson was an Ashland shopper from Hill yesterday.

L. Brophy of Medford was in Ashland yesterday transacting business.

Rev. C. A. Edwards arrived home this forenoon on train No. 13 from McMinnville where he had been attending the annual conference of the Methodist church during the past week. Mr. Edwards will start on his fourth year as pastor of the Ashland M. E. church.

C. J. Smith of Eugene was a business visitor in Ashland yesterday.

Guests at the Hotel Columbia from the north over night were J. L. Harris and F. E. Fletch of Portland; Joe O. Holmes of Pullman, Wash.; Wm. T. Jones and E. J. Stall of Seattle.

MONDAY'S NEWS "The finest bunch of youngsters I ever had stopping with me," was the verdict given by Manager D. R. Conner in regard to the Klamath football team and company of rosters who stopped at that hotel Friday and Saturday while playing with the local high school eleven Saturday afternoon. Mr. Conner stated that if the coach, who accompanied the boys, expected to keep them in order, his job was unnecessary, as the boys needed no overnight.

Hotel Austin guests from Portland are A. C. Stogaboom, W. N. Phillips, J. W. Baer and wife, Mrs. M. C. Galbraith, Herbert Coffey, J. W. Kemper and wife, James O. Conners, Paul L. Kester, W. J. Virgin and D. W. Craven.

The Ashland Shriners are preparing for a ceremonial to take place here Thursday, November 18. A large number of Southern Pacific railroad employes, it is stated, will compose the class to be initiated.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Root are home from an extended visit in Douglas county.

Mr. and Mrs. Slewter and Mrs. Waldo of Grand Prairie, Alberta, are registered at the Hotel Columbia.

Coach Howard Bears of the Grants Pass high school football team, was up Saturday afternoon officiating in the game between Ashland and Klamath Falls. He was accompanied by a number of the high school students from Grants Pass who came to witness the game.

California guests stopping at the Hotel Austin are Dr. and Mrs. O. M. Blood and W. A. Myers of Los Angeles; C. L. Ramey and J. F. Henchel of San Francisco.

Lloyd Riches of Portland, secretary of the Oregon State Editorial association, was a business visitor in Ashland today.

T. C. O'Kelly and wife and Miss Krepe of Hills were Ashland visitors Saturday.

Harrison Brothers of the Ford Garage have sold a Fordson tractor to A. Gieblah for work on the Green Springs mountain road which he has the contract for grading. Other sales they have made lately are a truck to A. R. Brown and one to Barham brothers for use at their sawmill at Siskiyou, and a sedan to Millard Grubb.

Miss Nellie Ewan will teach school near Montague this winter, and has left for her position.

W. J. Virgin of Portland is a guest of his mother, Mrs. A. C. Owen, in Ashland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Harris and sister, Miss Mollie Harris, are back from Cazelle where they had been spending the summer. They have only returned to Ashland to pack their household goods, however, and will go back to Cazelle to live.

M. and Mrs. C. C. Darling of the Darling Studio are back from a delightful two weeks' vacation spent in San Francisco.

Mrs. George Monroe and little daughter, Zella, of Eugene are Ashland guests this week.

Fishermen who were down the river yesterday state there is an unusually good run at present. Slim Morris secured 30 fine trout below Gold Ray dam yesterday, while N. H. Harrison and J. A. Rucker came in last night with three monster salmon weighing from 25 to 45 pounds. The present run of Chinook salmon is so strong, the fishermen state, that they all lost their tackle, and a number of sportsmen had their poles snapped off by the fish. This, it is claimed is only done by the big Chinooks weighing from 40 to 60 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Katzenstein of Spokane were Ashland guests over the week end, stopping at the Hotel Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vaupel, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Shepherd and Mrs. G. N. Gray motored down to Grants Pass yesterday and spent the day at the Josephine county seat. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Frobach of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Johnson returned home this morning from Pendleton, where they were called by the death of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Randles. The latter was buried in Salem yesterday.

Mrs. Nellie Patton and little daughter are back from Newport where they had been the guest of the former's mother for some time.

Mrs. Lee C. Court of Applegate is in Ashland this week, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Peachey. Mrs. Court is in the government service at the Star Ranger station, where her husband is also employed.

Mrs. Ida Warmuth, who has been visiting relatives and friends here for several weeks, left for her home in Brownsville the last of the week.

Mrs. Earl Cochran and two daughters, who have been visiting in the Willamette valley for some weeks, stopped over in Ashland to join her husband here for a short visit with Mr. Cochran's parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cochran, Mrs. Cochran left today for their home in Los Angeles. Her husband will remain to finish the evangelistic work at Central Point.

A. H. Peachey, who has been employed as a lookout on the Tallenbox mountain since June 1, is spending a few days with his family on Lincoln street. He expects to return to his post tomorrow.

The Baptist church received four new members, Sept 28: Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Oxford, formerly of Brownsville.

Max Camp has returned to his home in Yreka after spending a few days in Ashland with his mother, Mrs. C. E. Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sparlin of Klamath Falls were week end visitors to Ashland.

Lois, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Briggs, died last Friday at her home in Oakland. The little girl had been sick for upwards of two weeks, due to a fall, during which time she never regained consciousness. Burial was made Sunday in Oakland.

A. L. Haring and wife of Gerber, C. R. Walker and wife of Dunsmuir, have registered at the Hotel Columbia.

Miss Lena Provost, who had been home for the past week on account of sickness, returned to her school in the Lost Creek district, yesterday.

Pliny Lebo, who had been in Ashland recuperating from the effects of burns received while fighting fire on the Siskiyou several weeks ago, returned Sunday to his work at Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Nelson of Sebastopol, Calif., who have been visiting in the E. E. Miller family, left yesterday for their home. They were accompanied by Mrs. Miller, who will go to San Francisco to consult a specialist regarding her eyes, which have been troubling her lately.

Mrs. Frank Swingle is home from Portland, where she had been visiting for the past week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Heer, son Jimmie, and Mrs. Levi Stevens, drove down to Rogue River yesterday on a business trip.

S. Penniston, the well known landscape gardener who has been employed in Grenada, Calif., for the past year, is home for a few days.

R. C. Goodman and a party of four, who have been hunting for several days out in the mountain section, came in yesterday, each with his full quota of quail.

Fred Cochran, who has been employed in Klamath Falls, came home today and will make an indefinite sojourn with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart, the new managers for the Depot hotel, are expected today to take charge. The services of A. H. Pracht have been secured as steward for this hotel, and he, also, assumes his duties today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Provost drove down to Medford yesterday to pay a visit to their sister, Miss Viola Provost, who is a student at St. Marys academy in that city.

Nick DeLeon of Yreka, a former well known tailor of this city, was over yesterday calling on old-time friends.

Clark Payne left the latter part of the week for Oakland to enter the polytechnic school there for the coming year. He will be with his brother, Homer Payne, this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cochran entertained Evangelist Reynolds and wife and the quartette who are holding evangelistic services at Central Point, at their home on Avery street with a dinner Saturday.

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS H. D. Evers and S. B. Thelen of Seattle are tourists in Ashland, stopping at the Hotel Austin.

Mrs. A. F. Green, wife of the Southern Pacific release clerk of Dunsmuir, spent yesterday in Ashland shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Frost met on the train last night the latter's brother, J. O. Elrod of Portland, who was passing through, and had a pleasant visit during the stop of the train here.

Rev. W. L. Van Nuy of Portland, director of religious education for Oregon, was an Ashland visitor yesterday, having come here to consult with Revs. J. W. Hoyt and C. F. Koehler of the Presbyterian denomination in regard to the preparation of the Southern Oregon Presbytery which meets in Medford, October 5 and 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Tabar of Sceptre, Sask., Canada, are guests at the Hotel Austin while stopping a few days in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Carey are starting housekeeping in their home on Second street formerly occupied by J. L. Bornhouse. The latter has taken a house across the street.

Messrs. Wing, Klusmier and Ed Ryan have departed to the hunting grounds near Montague in the wake of the elusive deer.

F. H. Robinson of Kettle Falls, Wash., son-in-law of James L. Shelton of Meade street, with his family arrived in Ashland this forenoon and will visit for a time. Meanwhile he will look over this section of the country with a view to locating.

F. G. M. Lewis, traveling agent of the traffic department of the Southern Pacific company, was a business visitor in Ashland from Eugene today. Mr. Lewis will be remembered by many Ashland people as successfully supervising the troop trains stopping here to feed the draftees on their way to the cantonments during the war.

Mrs. L. R. McClain of Seattle and Mrs. L. C. Ashby of Tacoma left last night after spending the past week in Ashland with their father, James Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Mashburn and Mrs. Mullin of Edgewood were Ashland visitors yesterday.

George Culy came home yesterday from Rossburg where he had been hunting for several days. On leaving Ashland Mr. Culy declared he would not return without bringing in a deer, and the fact he is back proclaims his success without seeing the fine buck he brought down.

Mrs. A. H. Davenport has returned to her home at Valley View after spending two months in Wisconsin, the guest of her parents. She reports a delightful trip.

Percy Cheever had the misfortune to run off the highway near the Jackson Springs yesterday while driving in from down the valley in his Hudson speedster. The car turned over three times after leaving the pavement, but was remarkably little damaged. Mr. Cheever stuck to his post and has only some bad bruises to show from the accident.

Miss Carola E. Kuss, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Mills for several weeks, left

THIS MORNING ON TRAIN NO. 13 FOR HER HOME IN OAKLAND.

Mrs. J. M. Hughes returned home last evening from a local hospital where she underwent an operation a week or so ago. She is feeling much better.

Miss Clara Ostrum, who has been spending the past two months in Ashland, expects to leave this evening for Los Angeles to locate.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY. WANTED—A Waterbury heating system for school or hall or similar heater. M. P. Sheets, R. 4, Medford, Ore. 61-

IF THERE IS SOMETHING YOU CAN USE IN Groceries or Fixtures GET THEM NOW. WILL BE OPEN THIS EVENING $150 adding machine $110.00 $50 worth of awnings 25.00 3 good tables, each 5.00 2 show cases, each 10.00 Good refrigerator 15.00 Other things too numerous to mention. STEARNS SELF SERVICE STORE No. 7 Main St., Opposite the Plaza

Ford Prices Before the War In 1904-05 and 06, Ford Touring Cars sold for $2,000.00, F. O. B. Detroit. The new price is $440.00, F. O. B. Detroit, and the present Ford cars are the best cars the Ford Motor Company ever made. Regardless of 146,065 orders on file for immediate delivery and millions of dollars worth of high priced raw material on hand, the new Ford prices were fixed on a pro-war basis in an effort to bring the business of the country and the cost of living to normal again. The war started in 1914. Compare the new Ford prices, now in effect, with the 1914-15 prices. New 1920 1914-1915 Ford Prices Ford Prices CHASSIS $350.00 $410.00 RUNABOUT $395.00 $440.00 TOURING CAR $440.00 $490.00 SEDAN (with starter) $795.00 $975.00 (without starter) COUPE (with starter) $745.00 $750.00 (without starter) ALL THE ABOVE PRICES ARE F. O. B. DETROIT. The new Ford prices are cut to the limit. The new Oregon allotment of 1176 Ford cars per month assures you of reasonably prompt delivery. You want one—you NEED one. place your order now and get one. HARRISON BROS Ford and Fordson Dealers Ashland, Oregon "Every Oregon Driver Needs a Ford Enclosed Car."

Professor Says: "Internal Baths Give Best Results" Horace T. Dodge, M. D., Professor of Materia Medica, 25 Jackson Bldg., Denver, writes "Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows: "I can truthfully say that I have had the very best results in my experience with the "J. R. L. Cascade." You certainly have struck the keynote of many diseases. By means of the "J. R. L. Cascade" simple warm water cleanses the lower intestine the entire length, removes all the poisonous waste therein and keeps it clean and pure, as Nature demands it shall be for perfect health. You will be astonished at your feelings the morning after taking an internal bath with the "J. R. L. Cascade." You will feel bright, brisk, confident and as though everything is working right—and it is. It absolutely removes constipation and prevents Auto-Intoxication. Poley's Drug Store, 27 E. Main St., will show and explain the "J. R. L. Cascade" to you, and will also give you, free on request, a most interesting booklet, "Why Man of Today is Only 50 per cent Efficient," by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, of New York, for 25 years a specialist on Internal Bathing. Ask for it today.

30 DAYS FREE TRIAL THE AUTO STROP SAFETY FAZOR Most and does give satisfaction or it could not stand the acid test of 30 days in your hands. Try it at our expense. POLEY'S DRUG STORE POLEY & ELIHART DRUGGISTS

IVORY Py-ra-lin A complete stock of Ivory just received, consisting of mirrors, combs, brushes, puff boxes, hair receivers, jewel boxes, manure files, buffers, etc., at reasonable prices. Make your selections while our stock is complete. KODAK ALBUMS A new line of Loose Leaf Photo Albums, priced from $1.00 to $5.00. McNair Bros. The Rexall Store

SUITS See the Special Offerings in SWEATERS if you do not care to knit your own. Slip-Overs, Tuxedo Styles and Regular Coat Sweaters, Specially Priced. $22.50 up, for new coats. MINERVA YARN AN especially large and fortunate purchase of Minerva Yarns enables us to offer you lower than list prices on all yarns. There is a yarn for every purpose, and you surely can find any shade you desire, if you come soon to select. See the window display.

60c Minerva Thistledown 49c Ball 65c Minerva Knitting Worsted 59c Ball 75c Minerva Germantown 69c Ball 75c Minerva Heatherdown 69c Ball 80c Minerva Silk Mix 75c Ball 45c Minerva Shetland Floss 40c Ball 75c Minerva Zephyr Floss 69c Ball 75c Minerva Silk Zephyr 69c Ball 40c Minerva Saxony Worsted 36c Ball 75c Minerva Saxonette 69c Ball 65c Minerva Spanish Worsted 60c Ball McEe's DRY GOODS DID YOU SEE the new Coats we are selling at new low level prices? Better get in soon

COATS That was some coat sale last week. We surely sold a lot of coats. We have a lot more to sell at just as attractive prices. $22.50 up, for new coats. MINERVA YARN AN especially large and fortunate purchase of Minerva Yarns enables us to offer you lower than list prices on all yarns. There is a yarn for every purpose, and you surely can find any shade you desire, if you come soon to select. See the window display.