

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

MONDAY'S NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Paget of Portland, who have been guests of Mrs. Paget's sister, Mrs. C. W. Chittin, for a few days, left Saturday evening for San Francisco. Today they expect to start for New Zealand, where Mr. Paget is manager of the Ellison-White Chautauqua course in that country. They are making the trip by way of the South Sea Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Reed were recent dinner guests of Miss Helen Carlton at her new country home out of Medford. Miss Carlton, who spends her summers in Southern Oregon, expects to leave shortly for her home in Elizabeth, N. J. She will make the trip by way of Southern California.

Mrs. Day L. Sherwin, Mrs. A. H. Pracht and Mrs. C. H. Pierce went down to Medford yesterday, calling on Mrs. Charles F. Young.

Mrs. A. R. Wright left today for Yakima, Wash., to make an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. S. White.

Mrs. Peter Murray of Talent was an Ashland visitor and shopper Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. Gibson, who recently moved to Ashland from Yoncalla, is quite sick. She has been taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Allen, where she is being cared for.

The Hotel Austin has the following guests registered: C. O. Rice of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrington of Rock Creek, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Jens C. Peterson of Sacramento; G. L. R. Stearns and wife, and C. W. Stearns of Fresno; A. D. Kingsley of Crescent City; J. M. Putnam and D. C. Herrin of Portland.

Mrs. J. D. McRae has received word from her niece, Miss Elsie Alexander, who has been spending the past summer in Canada, stating that she will return to Ashland within a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Stockman and family went up from Medford over Saturday and Sunday.

at the home of W. J. Dougherty on Oak street. They left yesterday in their car for Turlock, Calif., where they expect to make their home.

Mrs. J. Ager and baby and Essie Glendinning of Ager were week end guests in Ashland.

The car belonging to G. H. Billings was taken from in front of the Methodist church yesterday morning, where the owner had parked it while attending service. A search was instituted by the police, and the missing car was finally found on the Hawthorne school grounds. Some of the wiring was torn out, but it was otherwise uninjured.

Tourists from Hillsboro consisting of Mrs. U. Brogden, W. Brogden and Virginia Brogden, were week end guests at the Hotel Austin. Others of the party were Edith Brogden of Puyallup, Wash., and Amy Jared of Tacoma.

Earl Utter, former Western Union messenger boy, who has been working at the overhead bridge on the Pacific highway east of Ashland, has entered the local Western Union telegraph office for the winter. He will serve as messenger while learning telegraphy, after which he will work as an operator.

The Medford football team defeated the Grants Pass eleven on the latter's grounds Saturday. On the second down at the start of the game, Vance, playing quarter for Medford, was knocked unconscious while tackling a Blue and White man and has been in a serious condition since. It was reported that he was unconscious most of the time for over six hours and although at the present time the extent of his injury is not known, it is believed that he will be none the worse for the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Austin of Honolulu, H. T., are in Ashland this week. They came here with letters of introduction from Judge Coker of the supreme court to E. V. Carter, and Mr. Austin will spend a few days hunting and fishing out of Ashland. He left this morning on a deer hunting trip with Ben Bowers, Jr.

Stopping over Sunday at the Hotel Columbia were Charles Bulard and family; Mrs. Starr, Mrs. Koehler and family of Chicago; Olson Cross, James Cross of Wendling; G. W. Calerk of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. Estes and Mrs. S. A. Lipswitz of Crescent City.

Miss Violet McLean, well known in Ashland as a former teacher in English at the high school, expects to leave next month for New Zealand as a superintendent for the Ellison-White Chautauqua bureau.

Mrs. Will Bensen and children of Dunsmuir are guests this week at the home of the former's brother, Alfred Beck.

J. H. McGee came back this morning from San Francisco, where he had been last week attending Buyers' Week.

Harry Moore, a freight inspector of Portland, is in Ashland spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore.

An unknown man was taken from a freight train in the Grants Pass yards Friday afternoon in an unconscious condition and died there Saturday without disclosing his identity.

The man was going south on a flat car loaded with lumber and was found on top of the lumber suffering from convulsions. Traveling companions gave conflicting stories as to what was the matter with him. He was taken to the hospital and never regained consciousness. He appeared to be about 45 or 50 years of age and had no identification marks on him.

At the W. C. T. U. social tomorrow afternoon, Mrs. H. C. MacAdams, a former Ohio woman, will be the chief speaker. This meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jilison, 342 Vista street.

E. E. Phipps has been appointed receiver at the State Exchange store, which was closed by the sheriff last week. The store was opened this morning.

SATURDAY'S NEWS
Tourists from Dundas, Minn., stopping for a few days in Ashland at the Hotel Columbia this week are R. R. Hoover and family, F. A. Emery and wife, J. C. Hatfield and family.

Arthur F. Kitz and Frank H. Barnes, the two young men from Toledo, Ohio, who have bought a farm near Talent, went down this morning to take possession.

Bon Ton Bread, always fresh.
Mrs. P. B. Whitney is up from Grants Pass spending a few days with her many friends in this city.

Portland guests at the Hotel Austin are E. J. Braun, Mary L. Braun, Anna C. Braun, C. W. Schulze, W. J. Maltbouse and C. E. Cling. Other guests at that hotel are Q. J. Luce of Seattle; W. C. Davis of Dunsmuir; A. B. McClaren of Sacramento; Leo J. Foyle and E. Harrington of San Francisco, and Julius Besping.

C. B. Lanika reports the sale of three properties which he concluded all in one day. These are the house and six lots on the corner of Fifth and A streets to Joe Cardwell; the city property on the corner of Mechanic and Helman streets to Frank E. Russell, and a lot belonging to Mrs. B. H. Hatch on the corner of Ashland street and Palm avenue to James Harnell of Prairie Du Chem, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cole of Oakland are the proud parents of a little son, who was born October 12. The little man tipped the scales at 5 pounds 14 ounces, and answers to the name of C. C., Jr. Mrs. Cole is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Doran of Ashland street.

Alfred H. Parkhurst of the Crater Lake lodge, says they plan to open the lodge at the lake about May 1st, 1921, according to the Medford Mail-Tribune, and to establish two or three camps between there and the lake next year and later to build inns at the camp locations. He says this is necessary in order to make the Crater Lake lodge a substantial paying investment. The attendance increases each year at the lake, however, and they have made some money this year.

J. Bottrell and wife of Bend have been visitors in Ashland this week.

The Hotel Columbia had the following guests over night: W. T. Foreman and wife of Redding; F. A. Scott of Tacoma; C. S. Drake of Bray; Mrs. F. L. Brown and mother of Dunsmuir; Arch Mosler of Crescent City, and Alice Mosman.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Ballis and daughters, Janet and Jean, are back from a delightful three days' trip down the McCloud river.

J. W. Needham of Tacoma is in Ashland, visiting his sister, Mrs. M. A. Baldwin, for a few days this week.

Miss Mary Norton, who has been serving as telegraph operator of the Western Pacific at Carlin, Nev., is spending her vacation in Ashland at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Norton. She expects to remain here about a month.

Mrs. A. Livingston, accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Reger, Misses Thelma Hoer, Juanita Livingston, Gladys Hastings, Dorothy Fruhen and Harriet Reger drove down to Grants Pass today, for the company to witness the football game played between the Medford and Grants Pass eleven.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Rathbun have returned to Ashland from an extended trip in the eastern states.

FISHERMEN, ATTENTION!
A meeting of the members of the ASHLAND FISH AND GAME PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION will be held in the City Hall at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, October 29, 1920.

All persons interested in fish and game protection, whether members or not are urged to be present.

E. D. BRIGGS, President.
LOUIS DODGE, Secretary.

The State Exchange store on East Main street was closed Thursday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff J. J. McMahan, who has been put in charge till a receiver is appointed. It is expected the matter will be adjusted and a receiver appointed some time today, in order that the store may open for business by Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beaver are home from Portland, where they had been spending a few days this week. Mrs. Beaver is returning from an extended visit with friends in the east. She states that while she had a very pleasant time with her friends, Ashland looks so good to her that she feels now that she will never leave again.

Mrs. Melike of Berkeley, a former well known resident of this city, writes to her Ashland friends that she expects to visit here some time about the 20th of this month.

Perhaps the happiest man in Ashland today is Clyde Costello, the man who sold out his business here and left this city early in the summer for the middle west with the intention of settling there and "never coming back again."

Mr. Costello, with his family, has been touring extensively through Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Oklahoma, looking for a location, but in all that territory there were so many more drawbacks than in Ashland, they could not be suited.

"My wife is very much afraid of lightning," Mr. Costello remarked this morning. "The first night we were in Illinois there was the worst electrical storm that had ever visited that country. Then when we got to Oklahoma we struck a cyclone. That finished us for that country, and we started back to Ashland as fast as the trains could carry us." Mr. Costello states Ashland looks mighty good to them, and they are most happy to be back again.

Among the football fans who went over to Grants Pass today to witness the game between Medford and Grants Pass were Francis Winter, Prof. B. C. Forsythe, Clyde Youn, and Raymond Ruge.

The Beaver Realty company yesterday closed the deal for the sale of the residence at 235 Fifth street belonging to Mrs. Joseph Poley, which has been purchased by J. J. Pellett of Medford.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

The members of the Ashland high school football team left this morning on train No. 13 for Klamath Falls, where they will meet the high school eleven of that city in a game tomorrow. Much enthusiasm and interest is felt in this game, as Ashland was the winner in the contest played with the Klamath Falls team a couple of weeks ago.

During the past night and this morning 19 of an inch of rain fell in Ashland. This rain was accompanied with a considerable fall of snow on the mountains and will be of great benefit to the pastures.

An auto-house bearing a pennant, "Alina, Okla.," passed through Ashland this afternoon, attracting much attention. The house had all the conveniences and equipments of a home, without the monotony of looking at the same scenery continuously.

Misses Kee Buchanan and Theta Slingerland left this morning for Klamath Falls to spend the week end with Mr. Wm. Holloway. While there they will attend the football game between Ashland and Klamath Falls.

Mrs. J. C. Styles of Tacoma, who is spending several weeks this fall in Medford, was in Ashland yesterday, visiting this city.

W. H. Whelan of Portland, district manager of the Indian Refining company, spent yesterday in Ashland, looking after business interests here. He left this morning for Klamath Falls by auto stage.

Fred Sullaway and wife of Dunsmuir, are numbered among the guests at the Hotel Columbia, today.

Among tourists stopping at the Hotel Columbia from the north are Wilson Webb and wife of Fairfax; W. J. Simpson, F. W. Tombaugh and C. H. Francis of Portland; E. Hillman and wife of Seattle; J. S. Langmuir, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bowers of Tacoma.

Mrs. J. R. Laughlin left last night for Portland, where she will remain for some time.

Visitors stopping at the Hotel Austin last night and today are S. C. Miller of Dunsmuir; M. F. Hatfield, T. B. Healy, W. D. Conner and wife, E. J. Hammond, M. A. Mills of Portland; Frank Brown and wife and H. B. Eyde of San Francisco; E. D. McKay of Seattle and H. Luesben of St. Louis, Missouri.

Immense flocks of wild geese flying over the valley from the north last night attracted much attention in the city. The birds were evidently bewildered by the lights of the city as they seemed to be invading this section for several hours. Although the darkness covered their flight, from the sound it appeared that all the wild geese of the north realized they had only two more days of chased season in Oregon, and were trekking for the south before the hunting season opened the 16th of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Turney of Winslow, Ariz., and Regina Newman of Chicago were among the tourists stopping at the Hotel Columbia over night.

The side walls of the new Ford garage are rapidly assuming shape and are making quite noticeable appearance through the scaffolding. The work of the huge cement mixer at the new structure is attracting much interest in that part of the city.

Mrs. C. P. Newton is back from Hornbrook, where she had been spending several days visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Inez Reeder of Norton, Oregon, has returned to finish her senior year at Ashland high. Her many girl friends are glad to welcome her again.

Mr. and Mrs. James Archibald, who have been living in Portland since May, are back in Southern Oregon visiting friends for a few weeks, after which they expect to go to the coast country. They drove down yesterday from Grants Pass to spend some time with Ashland friends.

J. C. Reynolds, special agent of the Department of Commerce, is in the city collecting industrial statistics for the government and is anxious to secure reports for operation during the year 1919. If you have not been visited by Mr. Reynolds, you would confer a favor on your city and materially assist him if you would see him, or call him at the Columbia Hotel.

The Ashland-Klamath Falls auto stage went over to the latter city this morning by way of Hornbrook and Klamath Hot Springs. Manager C. B. Howard of the stage line states the roads over the mountains since the rains are the roughest they have been since the stage began to operate. It is probable they will abandon the mountain roads for the rest of the season unless it improves considerably.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Moore of Klamath Falls were Ashland visitors this week.

Perry Ashcroft and Jack Mancey will leave tomorrow for their sailors' allotment homesteads on Elk creek, which they recently filed upon. They will remain up there for ten days or two weeks to build their cabins, after which they will return to Ashland for their families to spend the winter at their new possessions.

Fred D. Wagner, eminent commander of Malta Commandery, and C. W. Nims are representing the local Knights Templar at Portland this week. The latter is generalissimo of the grand commandery of Oregon.

Miss Gertrude Cox who for several years has been one of the efficient and obliging clerks in Vaupel's dry goods store, has resigned her position to accept one in a store at Klamath Falls. She will leave tomorrow for her new work. Her place in Vaupel's will be filled by Mrs. Ethel Eaton.

S. F. Colyer and family of Oakland; R. M. McDonald and wife and V. Verner and wife of San Francisco, are guests at the Hotel Columbia today.

Among the prize winners at the Skiatyu county fair, held at Yreka last week, is Miss Mabel Russell, of this city, who received first prize in oil paintings. Mrs. Parshall of Montague, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith of Ashland, was first prize winner of luncheon cloths in the art needle department.

Cashier J. W. McCoy of the First National Bank is absent from his desk several days this week, assisting in moving his household effects from his former residence on Almond street to the one he will occupy on Terrace street.

R. A. Bogue and wife, who have been spending the past summer at the Gleditsch camp on the Green Springs mountain highway, were Ashland visitors this week.

Mrs. J. R. McQuilkin expects to leave tomorrow morning for Portland to spend the coming winter.

Mrs. F. W. Smith of Hornbrook has been the guest of Ashland friends this week.

Miss Inez Reeder of Norton, Oregon, has returned to finish her senior year at Ashland high. Her many girl friends are glad to welcome her again.

Albert Johnson has presented The Tidings office with a box of apples from his Walnut street orchard, which is noted in this end of the valley for its fine fruit. These apples are of the Winter Home. Under real home-like conditions, varieties, and if the apples in the Garden of Eden were any fairer it is not to be wondered that Eve fell for them. Mr. Johnson sent in a small branch on which 13 choice Spitz were clustered, thick as currants on a spray. Nowhere in the valley is any finer fruit raised than Mr. Johnson has in his orchard, and the thanks of an apple-loving office force are extended to him for his beneficent gift.

Robert N. Standfield, candidate for United States senator on the republican ticket, is in the city today in the interests of his campaign. He was met by a number of the members of the local republican club at an informal luncheon at the Hotel Austin at noon, at which time Mr. Standfield made a brief address.

WILL INSTITUTE CHILDREN'S HOME

The Oregon Woman's Christian Temperance Union is undertaking a big work in the name of children's home, the arrangements for the incorporation of which have been completed. This has been approved by the State Child Welfare Commission, and plans are now being formulated to raise funds to purchase land and construct cottages and other buildings, to be known as the Oregon Child Welfare Home. W. C. T. U. Children's Home. These apples are of the Winter Home. Under real home-like conditions,

"A New Lease of Life Through Internal Baths"

Mr. E. Shain of Santa Cruz, Cal., writes to the Terrell Hygienic Institute: "My wife and I will be 35 years young next birthday and consider that the 'J. B. L. Casade' has given us a new lease of life, for we now enjoy the best of health. We were going down hill fast but the Casade has given us such health as we have not enjoyed in years." The "J. B. L. Casade" cleanses the lower intestine its entire length and keeps it always free of poisonous waste. Thousands testify that Constipation, Indigestion, Stomach Troubles, Bilelessness, Headaches, etc., which they cause are absolutely relieved and prevented by this "Treatment." Foley's Drug Store, 17 F. St., will be glad to show you a simple operation and give you, free upon request, an exciting little book by Dr. C. Terrell of New York, a noted expert on Internal Bathing. Clip this as a reminder to ask for the book at your first opportunity.

Wheel on a track - this Cletrac - like horsepower

At Home on the Hills

Hillside work quickly tires work animals and slows up most power units—but not the Cletrac.

With a sure grip and a powerful pull, the Cletrac climbs steep grades without faltering. Does the fast, thorough job of plowing that lessens seed-bed work later.

Soft, stubborn, rough or hilly ground—all are easy for the Cletrac. It keeps going steadily all year round—works longer hours and more days in the year than the four to eight animals it replaces.

Come in and look this tractor over. See for yourself its sturdy construction. Let us show you what it will do for you on your own farm.

HUBBARD BROTHERS

MEDFORD, OREGON

Merchandise Has Come Down to Stay

Notice to Our Customers

This Is Not Newspaper Talk:

Most lines of merchandise have taken a big drop. We have just bought thousands of dollars worth of goods at the new low prices. We are going to lose money on many articles we have on hand.

Special Reductions

On Ladies' Coats, Dresses, Sweaters, Men's Suits, Overcoats, etc.

You will think we stole them when you see the new prices.

This sale will continue until January 1, 1921.

PERRINE'S BANKRUPT STORE

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND. WHAT A POWER the saving habit soon becomes and puts one in the front line of financial success. Use money wisely—save persistently—deposit regularly with The Citizens Bank of Ashland.

We Have on Hand A Complete Line OF Aluminum Utensils AND Enamel Ware AT SIMPSON'S HARDWARE 37-39 NORTH MAIN STREET