

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

SATURDAY'S NEWS

Miss Inez Howell of Tucuman, Okla., is in Ashland and will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Cassaway, of Nob Hill street for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Reed were in Talent last night attending the reception given by the members of the Methodist church in that town to their new pastor, Rev. Phelps and family.

H. O. Frohach, secretary of the Medford Chamber of Commerce, had business in Ashland yesterday.

J. H. Cooley, a representative of the Medford and Ashland Lumber companies, was in this city yesterday from Medford looking after business affairs.

S. P. Jobe and family, who recently purchased the W. Y. Miller residence property on the corner of Alida and East Main streets, is moving from Phoenix to their new possession today.

Attorney W. E. Phipps was up from Medford yesterday calling on friends.

B. H. Hinthorne has been out of the Studio Ashland for several days this week on account of sickness.

The Ditchworth family have moved this week from their former home on the Pacific highway a short distance this side of Talent to the bungalow they recently purchased on the corner of Third and C streets.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bradshaw of Port Klamath are over in the valley, and are spending a few days in Ashland.

Mrs. C. F. Young of Medford was in Ashland yesterday afternoon calling on friends.

Some conscience stricken thieves or cheap practical jokes left some bicycles on the premises of the Catholic church at the corner of Sixth and C streets, and as Father Conaty cannot ride the machines nor retain stolen property the owners can find the miniature Forts at his residence.

The Hotel Columbia has the following guests from Portland: W. H. Sellwood, J. W. Graham, H. O. Parker and wife. Other guests are D. N. Davey and G. S. Reynolds of Merrill.

Mrs. H. W. Frame of Talent, who has been very ill at a local hospital, is reported to be making a good improvement.

W. J. Conley, a Southern Pacific railroad employe from Dunsmuir, was in Ashland today arranging to establish his family in a home here. They expect to arrive Monday.

Next week will be a holiday in the public schools all week as far as the Senior High is concerned, and three days in the other schools. The high school is having the furnace changed from the oil system to coal, and as the school will be dismissed the last three days of the week on account of the teachers' county institute, advantage will be taken of this vacation to install the new heating system, and the schools in that building will be dismissed all week. In the other buildings school will be dismissed Wednesday, Thursday and Friday to allow the teachers to attend the institute in Medford.

Raymond H. Badger, a student at the Oregon Agricultural college, has been appointed on one of the stock judging teams going from that college, and will go to Lewiston, Idaho, next week. Another team leaves at the same time for Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pross arrived back from Prineville this week after an extended sojourn there. They drove home in their automobile, coming by way of the Crater Lake road, and Mr. Pross states he would not advise tourists making that trip so late this fall, as they drove through 16 inches of snow in that vicinity. Elsewhere, Mr. Pross, states, the roads are in very good condition.

MONDAY'S NEWS

J. H. Provost is moving into the residence on Oak street recently purchased by J. W. McCoy from Mrs. B. L. Sherwin.

The usual gate removing, sign exchange jokes were played about in the city for Halloween last night. No great damage was reported to the local police, possibly the greatest annoyance suffered by the business houses was that of soaping the windows, especially in the North Main street district, where the light were few and far between.

Hon. Ben C. Sheldon was a visitor to Ashland today from Medford.

There will be numerous short speeches by Ashland folks at Pioneer Hall during Tuesday evening, while election returns are being read. Rev. A. C. Edwards will be one of the speakers. Hot coffee and doughnuts will be served. A general good time for all.

J. F. Place started yesterday for San Francisco in his Nash car, expecting to be gone about two weeks. He was accompanied as far as Gerber by Glenn Rhodes.

Mrs. L. E. Gould of Fort Win-gate, N. M., arrived in Ashland yesterday and will make an extended visit at the homes of her sisters, Mrs. H. W. Andrews and Mrs. Arthur G. Adams.

Mrs. J. H. Fuller has been engaged to lead the choir in the Presbyterian church, and that congregation enjoyed her first appearance in that capacity yesterday at both services.

Mrs. E. C. Pettit and son Leonard, who returned to Ashland after spending the past summer in points in California, are moving into the Danford residence at 126 Manzanita street, which will be their home.

W. S. Stennett and family and Geo. Watson and family motored over the California line and had a picnic dinner near Hornbrook, Sunday.

George E. Carroll and Henry M. Schlosser of Klamath Falls were Ashland business visitors Saturday.

Mrs. T. J. Mackey and little son are visiting with relatives in San Francisco. They expect to remain there possibly until the holidays.

Mrs. Frank Reed spent Saturday in Ashland from the Talent district.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hoover, Mrs. C. H. Pierce, J. P. Carson and sister, Meade Hoover and Mr. Hobart of the Depot Hotel comprised a party who went fishing down to the Gold Ray dam yesterday. This proved to be their lucky day, and they returned home with about 50 trout and a 28-pound salmon.

Reports from the Pacific highway state that all but about three miles of the paving is laid south of Ashland to the California line. With three or four weeks of good weather, this stretch of paving can be completed this year.

Max Camps, who has been in Ashland for three or four days, stopping with his mother, Mrs. C. E. Abbott, returned to his home in Yreka yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Morris are back from their hunting trip to Eastern Oregon, where they went a couple of weeks ago in the hope of capturing mule deer. Their quest was unavailing, however, as the deer were always ahead of them. They chased the fleet-footed animals for 40 miles, they claim, but never caught up with them.

Mrs. Ackley of Camp Lewis, who has been visiting her daughter and son in Ashland during the past week, has returned to her home.

Mrs. T. A. Franco is spending a week or so in San Francisco, visiting relatives and friends.

The Beaver Realty company closed the deal in real estate Saturday, whereby Carl Ogden purchased the residence of Mrs. Spindler of Blaine street and moved in the same day. The same company sold the Yokum place on Second street, also Saturday, to C. H. Chamberlain.

Chief of Police J. W. Hatcher is back on duty today after a vacation of two weeks or so.

The funeral of the late William F. Songer was held from his residence on Helman street, Sunday afternoon. Rev. C. A. Edwards made the funeral address. A large concourse of the friends and neighbors of this well known old pioneer were present and accompanied the funeral cortege to Mountain View cemetery, where the body was laid to rest.

Lamkin Brothers have rented their large ranch near Montague to Joe Green of this city. The latter will take possession shortly.

Charles H. Johnson, coast representative of the Diston people, is spending a few days in Ashland this week, and while here is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter.

Word comes to Ashland friends from Misses Grace Chamberlain and Beale Palmer that they are now located at Pacific Grove, California, and enjoying themselves hugely. They write that the weather is nice and warm and they takes lots of rides through their country in their little car.

R. A. Minkler, who is a salesman from a Portland house, was in the city over Sunday, spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Minkler.

Max GeBauer has purchased the building on East Main street occupied by Vaupel's dry goods store, next door to the First National Bank, which was owned by San Francisco parties.

The voting place of Northwest Ashland precinct, announced to be held in the garage of S. McGilvray on High street, has been changed to the basement of the Junior High school. Voters in that precinct should note the change.

James R. Johnson, a Huntington Park, Calif., businessman, was an Ashland caller the latter part of the week.

The following guests from the east are stopping at the Hotel Columbia: R. W. LaRue of Toledo, Ohio; H. Dowd of Chicago; Mrs. K. A. Clewett of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. R. B. Cathcart of Springfield, Ohio.

Mrs. Walter MacAdams, who has been studying dramatic art at the studios in Hollywood and Ocean Park, Calif., for several months, is in Ashland on a brief visit, after which she expects to return to continue her studies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sayle have just returned from Oakland, Calif., where they visited their daughter, Mrs. C. L. Kelton and their grandson, Cecil Rouse. Cecil is going to school. They report Mrs. Kelton and family doing fine and delighted with California, but Mrs. Kelton still puts in a good word for Ashland every time she gets a chance.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Lowden of Gazelle, Calif., were Ashland visitors over the week end.

Hotel Austin guests are C. A. Van Winkle of Chicago, A. H. Leslie, F. W. Kroll and wife of San Francisco, H. W. Shoohert and wife of Oakland, T. A. Bedford of Dunsmuir, Rachel Brown of Winder, and A. W. Kugler of Seattle.

Frank Swingle was quite badly burned yesterday morning when the oil stove with which he was heating his bath room took fire while he was an occupant of the room. Two doors and the casings were burned before the flames could be extinguished.

"It all goes well today we will finish pouring the concrete on the house building in connection with the Ford garage on North Main street," Contractor A. L. Lamb announced this morning. Work has certainly gone with a rush on this building, with none of the heart-breaking delays so often holding back the builders on big contracts of this sort. They are now engaged the front of the main building and expect to have it soon ready for the roof.

Glenn Guiley, who is employed in the Plaza Meat market, expects to move tomorrow from the house he has been occupying on Nettle street to the residence at 156 Sixth street.

A party consisting of A. C. Ninger, H. A. Stearns and B. F. Storm returned Saturday from a three days' duck hunting trip to Klamath lake. The hunters brought with them 48 ducks and seven wild geese. According to their report duck and geese are so thick on the lakes in Klamath county it is impossible to sleep at night for the noise they make.

Among the guests stopping over Sunday at the Hotel Columbia are Maria Cox, Peonnie Sheridan, Emma Morton and H. W. Rinehart of Seattle.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fulton Angle, a daughter on October 31.

Charles Drue, the tailor, moved his shop today from the Meiks room on East Main street to one of the roofs on Oak street.

Dennis Henry of the firm of Henry & Snodgrass has bought out the latter's interest in the barber shop on East Main street opposite the city hall. Mr. Henry in turn has sold a half interest in the business to Clyde Costello, who recently returned to Ashland from a trip through the middle west. Mr. Snodgrass expects to leave soon for California to locate.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Morris and son and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoiler were among the successful fishers down at Gold Ray dam yesterday.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

F. G. Stearns of Salem, who has been the guest of his son, H. A. Stearns, in this city, for the past week, has been visiting his other sons, Dr. Robert W. Stearns of Medford and Dr. Ralph W. Stearns of Grants Pass, before returning to his home.

The city library has installed a card index called the Slous City system, which does away with the borrower's card and greatly simplifies the work of the librarians. The system is regarded with great favor by those in charge of the library.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerl and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. C. DeGrand-champ of Seattle are motor tourists stopping at the Columbia for a few days this week.

I. L. Kellogg and wife of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Carlson of the Klamath Agency were Ashland visitors yesterday.

Rev. J. W. Hoyt is in Grants Pass this week spending a few days there in the interests of Sunday school work.

California tourists stopping at the Hotel Austin are F. O. Will of Long Beach; R. E. Hallawell, Miss Anna Fiese of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. F. Camp of Fresno.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Real have sold their farm in Klamath county and have come over with their children to Ashland to spend the winter with Miss Blanche Hicks of Pennsylvania avenue. Mrs. Real is a niece of Miss Hicks.

Mrs. W. Clay Smith and family have moved into the Pratt residence on Factory street where they will make their home.

Rev. C. F. Koehler went to Medford today to conduct the funeral service for the late Jas. Tumy, who died Wednesday, after a lingering illness.

Stopping at the Hotel Austin last night and today are James B. Shea of Portland, Mrs. S. King of Mehama, E. D. King of Slayton and R. C. King of Lyons.

C. W. Butler is moving his family this week from 143 Mechanic street to a house near the Helman baths.

Fred H. Moeller and Harry Toser of Yakima and John Ellis and wife of Seattle are guests at the Austin while stopping in Ashland today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sanborn of Mentor, Ohio, and Roy F. Shneider of Rochester, N. Y., are guests from a distance stopping at the Hotel Austin today.

A. A. Marake, who recently purchased a lot on the corner of Allison and Sherman streets from Walter Everton, broke ground today for the erection of a new home which he will build on his purchase.

E. C. Shelton and wife of Seol, Lin county, are visiting the former's sister and brother, Mrs. F. D. Yarbrough and G. L. Shelton, for a month or so. Mrs. Shelton has been in poor health and will be under a doctor's care while in the city.

Columbia guests today are E. M. Orange of Portland, M. W. Baldwin of Wolf Creek, Harold Brannwell of Ogden, Utah, Helen M. White of Alto, Mich., and Mary D. Parker of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Owing to some misunderstanding, Richard W. Montague, who was billed to speak at the Lyric theatre here last night under the auspices of the Cox and Roosevelt club, was scheduled at another part of the state and could not be present. O. P. Coshaw of Roseburg, candidate for attorney general, spoke on the League of Nations in the place of Mr. Montague. Other addresses were delivered by Rawles Moore, democratic nominee for district attorney, and Geo. A. Mansfield, democratic nominee for the legislature. A packed house greeted the speakers.

Mrs. E. C. Pettit and son, L. C. Pettit, after an extended tour of California, have returned to Ashland and will again make this city their home. Mr. Pettit, who is a prominent architect of Honolulu, had come to this country and joined his family in their trip, and has now returned to that city to close up his affairs, after which he also will come to Ashland to live. Leonard, who is well known in this city as a violinist of note, has been studying music all summer and has made great progress in his art. He states that of all the places he has visited in the southern state none come up to Ashland in his estimation, and he and his mother are greatly rejoiced to return here again.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

Mrs. A. H. Russell is back from a visit with her daughter, Miss Mabel Russell, at the latter's ranch near Montague.

Many social functions are being planned by the young people of the city to celebrate All Hallows' e'en. As this event occurs on Sunday night various parties and entertainments will take place on other dates of the week preceding the true date.

Andrew Weldner is in the city this week from Roseburg where he has been living since his return from the east. Mr. Weldner was a former rancher in the Talent district, and after selling his fine farm to James Barrett, he returned to his former home in Pittsburgh, Pa., intending to remain there. But the ties that bound him to the west were so strong that after a few months' visit with relatives in the Smoky City he came back to Oregon.

O. P. Coshaw, candidate for the office of attorney general to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Geo. M. Brown, is a caller in Ashland today and will be one of the speakers at the democratic rally in the Lyric theatre tonight.

Mr. Coshaw is the father of Miss Dale Coshaw, a former well known teacher in the Ashland public schools.

R. Rouse, clerk at the Hotel Austin, is able to be about again after an infection of the eyes which has laid him up for several weeks.

Mrs. Gertrude McCallen Mullt left this week for California, where she will locate for an indefinite period.

Hotel guests at the Columbia are Lee and John Minnickel of Salem, H. C. Huberman and L. J. Eysoldt of Los Angeles, and C. H. Francis of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Frye of Medford were among the visitors from that city spending yesterday in Ashland.

Mrs. S. C. Williamson of Kerby is spending a few days in Ashland this week looking after business interests here.

Mrs. Ella Rice of Portland is a guest of her sister, Mrs. E. J. Van Sant, and expects to remain in the city for an extended visit.

California guests at the Austin are S. F. Samish and Charles J. True, Jr., of San Francisco, R. A. Johnson of Dunsmuir, and John A. Johnson of Los Angeles.

Wallace Broughton, who has been sick for several days, is in a local hospital, where he underwent an operation. He is reported as getting along nicely.

A large number of Ashland and Medford people went over to Phoenix last evening and enjoyed the famous chicken dinner given by the women of that town under the auspices of the Presbyterian church. The proceeds will be used for fitting up the community room which is being established there. Upwards of 200 took dinner there last night.

Visitors from various parts of the state stopping at the Hotel Austin comprise W. E. Gridley and R. W. Keith of Portland, Frank Davey of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Shaw of Albany.

Mrs. Virginia Fales has moved from the Hotel Austin to the home of Mrs. M. W. Wheeler at 131 North Main street, where she will be located.

In a letter from Mrs. Myrtle C. Boslough, formerly from Ashland, who is now located at Birmingham, Ala., the latter states she likes the south about as well as Oregon, and the climate appears about the same, although old timers say they had an exceptionally cool summer.

The police office was notified by wire last night to look out for thieves who raided stores in Roseburg and Cottage Grove, and secured about $1500 worth of clothing and dresses. It is thought to have been the work of persons passing through in an automobile, and police all along the line are notified to keep a watch out for a car carrying goods of this description. Policeman W. Werts kept a lookout nearly all night, but so far has not been able to locate the guilty parties.

John H. Rudd, organizer of the county Y. M. C. A., who has been stopping in Ashland this week, supervising the campaign in progress here, leaves today for Medford, where he will remain during the balance of the campaign.

Mrs. T. W. Miles of Medford gave a luncheon at her home today which was attended by a company of Ashland women.

Ed Davis and Clarence Morris have leased the room recently vacated by the McNair Brothers drug store and are fitting it up as a pool room and cigar store, which they expect to open shortly.

A number of Ashland republicans motored down to Medford last night to hear the Montaville Flower address, given in the Page theatre.

Wm. F. Songer, the aged brother of Dr. S. T. Songer, who has been seriously ill at his home on Helman street this week, is reported a little better today.

Mrs. James O'Brian Clark of Dunsmuir is spending a few days in Ashland this week, the guest of Mrs. L. E. Reader.

Mrs. Ackley of Camp Lewis, wife of Capt. Ackley, is in Ashland this week, visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Kaiser, and son, Curtis Rust.

The Beaver Realty company closed the sale of a two acre tract east of Ashland belonging to John C. Hart, which was purchased by W. M. Bennett.

H. B. Gridley and wife of Yakima, and Myrtle Montgomery of Seattle are guests at the Austin from the north state.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Smith have left for Willows, where they expect to live until spring. They are making the trip by automobile.

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS

Ralph G. Jennings, democratic nominee for sheriff, and Rawles Moore, democratic nominee for district attorney, were Ashland visitors today.

A good attendance greeted ex-Congressman Charles F. Scott at the Lyric theatre last night, who came here in the interests of the Harding and Coolidge republican club. Mr. Scott gave a forceful argument of the political situation from his standpoint, and his statements were heartily endorsed by his enthusiastic audience. Introducing Mr. Scott was Hon. E. V. Carter, who briefly outlined the state and county political situation. W. H. Gore of Medford also addressed the audience along the same lines.

Louis Dodge returned last night from the Rogue river, where he had been spending a few days with Ashland men on a salmon fishing trip. He reports a splendid time, and good luck. The rest of the party were doing so well pulling out the big ones that they were loath to leave so soon, and remained over until this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Nutting of Grants Pass were in Ashland yesterday on a business and pleasure trip.

Far-off tourists stopping at the Austin are Eleanor K. May of Boston, Mass.; I. Gordon of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Charles R. Hussey of Haverhill, Mass. Others at this hotel are G. S. George and wife, R. Harris, Jerry Johnson and M.

Griffin of San Francisco, Robert J. Wood of Seattle, Dorothy Fitch of Grants Pass and Miss Wheelock of Hills, Calif.

The sale of the Welborn Benson residence property on Mountain avenue was effected yesterday through the Beaver Realty company. J. J. Fay is the purchaser and will take immediate possession. Mr. Fay is coming to Ashland to give his children the benefit of good schools.

The delegates attending the Older Boys' conference in Roseburg over Sunday have returned home and report a splendid conference. Ashland received 100 per cent on its attendance, and the delegates from this city issued an invitation to the conference to meet here next year, which was accepted.

C. L. Price and wife, Robert Burns and George Davis of Los Angeles, and A. Ingersoll and wife of Ponatello, Idaho, are registered at the Hotel Columbia.

Mrs. E. L. McClure, who has been living in Ashland for the past two years, left last night for Alameda, Calif., to make an extended visit. Mrs. McClure has been prominent in all social events in the city during her residence here and has made many close friends who deeply regret her leaving.

Mrs. B. L. Sherwin, Mrs. A. H. Pracht and Mrs. C. H. Pierce were in Medford yesterday calling on friends.

Guests from Washington stopping at the Hotel Columbia are W. E. Jones and wife, J. L. Green and R. Featherstone of Seattle; W. H. Peart and wife of Davenport.

O. H. Cole, a newcomer to Ashland, has purchased the Crowley dairy farm at the foot of Oak street, known as the A. Butler farm. The dairy herd and all the farm equipment goes with the sale, and will be conducted by Mr. Cole in a short time.

Mrs. G. W. Looney brought some potatoes to the Tidings office this forenoon which she showed to prove she could go one better over Mrs. S. L. Allen, who had announced fine new potatoes ready to eat that had been planted in July. Mrs. Looney planted her potatoes in August, and while members of her family were most discouraging, claiming they would never mature, she has now nice

ALL KINDS OF FENCING

Barb Wire, dandy Cedar Posts and Yew anchors posts in carload lot arrived. Plows and tractor tools of all kinds. Helder Tractors. New and second hand sewing machines for sale or rent, at smooth potatoes which are a joy to eat. Mrs. Looney states the vines are not yet frozen and the potatoes will grow for some time yet.

PEIL'S CORNER BY THE PARK

The Josephine county Farm Bureau are making a livestock tour of Jackson county today and tomorrow. The purchased stock in the county will be inspected at this time, as a number of the farmers in the sister county are interested in purchasing thoroughbred sires.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hall Chaney, Edmund, Worth and Blanche Chaney of Detroit, Mich., are guests at the Hotel Columbia this week while touring through this country.

Portland people stopping at the Austin today are L. G. Cronkhite, R. W. Kennell, L. M. Swift, Harry England, Harold Edsall, E. Stone and E. J. Hammond.

C. E. Lane received this morning a sheaf of rice in the stalk from Carl Cunningham, a former resident of Ashland, who now lives at Willows, Calif., in the heart of the rice country. Mr. Cunningham states they are now in the midst of the rice harvest and that section is the scene of much activity. Mr. Lane will use the rice stalks for decorative purposes.

The two boys who were arrested last week for the alleged breaking into Dobbin Irwin's pool room and taking money and goods, were indicted yesterday by the grand jury on the charge of burglary.

CORVALLIS—New wing to O. A. C. economics building to be completed by January 1st.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

We have just installed a new section of Safe Deposit Boxes and are again able to offer boxes for rent.

Remember, our vault is protected by the latest and best system of Electric Burglar Alarm.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Special Sale

- 1. 12 H. P. New Way Gasoline Engine.....$450
- 1. 12 H. P. R. & V. Gasoline Engine, second hand.....$300
- 1. 12 H. P. Almo Gasoline Engine, second hand.....$250
- 1. Alfa Romeo Renovator.....$ 25
- 1. 10-In. Gang Plow.....$ 25
- 1. 5-10 Avery Tractor, second hand.....$250
- *1. Feed Grinder, second hand.....$ 25

HUBBARD BROS.

MEDFORD, OREGON

Our Slogan--Service

"THE MAN WHO WHISPERS DOWN A WELL ABOUT THE GOODS HE HAS TO SELL, WON'T REAP AS MANY GOLDEN DOLLARS AS HE WHO CLIMBS A TREE AND HOLLERS."

We sell Ford Cars, Ford Trucks, Ford Parts, Ford Accessories, Fordson Tractors and Implements —and above all—
FORD SERVICE

Harrison Bros.

Ford and Fordson Dealers Ashland, Ore.

Pre-Holiday SHOWING OF Brass NOVELTIES

The first shipment of Brass Novelties we have been able to secure since the war war—Jardiniere, $3.50 to $4.50 Bon Bons.....$0.00 Umbrella Stands.....$7.50 Ash Receivers.....$1.25 to $3.00 Smoking Stands $5.50 to $12 Candlesticks, pair $3 to $5.50 Desk Sets.....$6.00 Hanging Baskets.....$3.25 to $4 This is the well known Farberware line of Hammered Brass and is distinctively the Right Quality and Design.

McNair Bros.