

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

MONDAY'S NEWS

Mr. Hoffmickel, an aged man who was in Ashland during the past two months for the benefit of his health, died last week at his home in Eugene, to which he had returned with his wife. Rev. Father Conaty accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Hoffmickel to Eugene from Ashland.

Announcements of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoots of Hornbrook have reached Ashland, which occurred on November 11. Mr. and Mrs. Hoots were former Ashland residents.

P. S. Provost and crew of workmen are home from Yreka, where they had been engaged in putting in the plumbing equipment in the new high school being erected in that city.

G. R. Thomas of Portland, special agent for automobile insurance, was in Ashland today adjusting the loss on the auto truck of S. A. Robinett, recently destroyed by fire.

Hotel Austin guests are W. O. Lynch of Vallejo, Calif., C. E. Chastine of Yreka, Myron S. Sherman of Eugene, Victor Carne, Larry Beck and Fred Cady.

Mrs. Henry Reid has returned from Gerber, where she had been spending a few days with her daughter.

Earl Dedrick, principal of the Central Point school, visited at the home of his parents on North Main over Sunday.

Mrs. C. M. Bomar, postmistress at Hills, California, was in town Sunday visiting her sister.

Glen W. Loomis and family moved today to the home of Mrs. C. M. Bomar at 470 Allison street from their old apartments in the Tidings building.

Rev. Walter L. Evans, the newly called pastor of the Baptist church, held his first services in that church yesterday before a very good audience. Mr. Evans, with his wife and family of two boys and a girl, has moved into the pastor's house on Oak street and is becoming fully established as a citizen of Ashland.

Fred Powers and wife, D. M. Taylor and wife, and Mrs. C. A. Blackburn of Wenatchee, Washington, were over Sunday guests at the Hotel Columbia.

H. L. Lee, who with his wife, has been spending the past month or so in this city, left today for Klamath Falls. Mrs. Lee will remain in Ashland for the present.

V. O. N. Smith has accepted the chairmanship of the children's farm home campaign drive that starts Wednesday morning, owing to the absence and inability to serve of E. V. Carter. Volunteer workers are needed who can see Mrs. Powers at the Hotel Vendome across from the library.

Mrs. Lizzie McPherson and Mrs. W. H. Todd, cousins of Mrs. D. H. Barnburg, arrived in Ashland Saturday, from Berlin, Ore., and are guests at the Barnsburg home on North Main street.

Mrs. Perry Fuller, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. R. G. Shaw, for several weeks, left Sunday for her home in Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Shaw accompanied her as far as Oakland, and they will visit relatives and friends there for a few days.

John D. Harris and wife of Seattle spent the week end in Ashland, guests at the Hotel Austin.

Miss Ursel Wasson, who has been spending several weeks in Portland, arrived in Ashland, Saturday, for a visit here.

Lawrence Coder has sold his residence property at 387 Laurel street to Julius Koch, a new comer to Ashland.

land from Eastern Oregon. The latter is moving his family into his new possession.

Work on establishing a new furnace in the Senior high school has been completed, and school in that building resumed this morning after a two weeks' vacation.

After Thanksgiving, Mrs. J. R. Wick and Mrs. Miller expect to start on an extended eastern trip. The former will go to Florida, where she will spend the winter visiting her mother, while Mrs. Miller will return to her former home in New Castle, Pa. The latter has spent the past three years in Ashland, and states she expects this trip to her old home to be her last, as she will then return and make her permanent home in this city.

Mrs. S. C. Williamson of Kerby is spending a few days with friends in this city.

A. Race and Ed Sillman and family of Seattle have been Ashland visitors during the past few days.

Mrs. J. A. Meek of Palo Alto, Calif., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Myers, on the Boulevard, left this forenoon for her home.

F. C. Homes has received the appointment from the governor as a delegate to the fifteenth annual farm congress to be held at Kansas City, Mo., December 9, 10 and 11. Mr. Homes will represent the agriculture of the State of Oregon, and expects to attend the congress.

W. D. Moore, who has been employed at the round house in the local railroad yards, went to Hornbrook, Sunday, where he will assume the duties of foreman of the roundhouse.

Hotel Columbia visitors from a distance are J. I. Carson and wife, Ethel Carson and Esther Hermans of Fairfax, Minn., A. E. Odward of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob A. Moser of Orrville, Ohio, J. C. Reynolds of Washington, D. C.

Engineer Ed Dews was home over Sunday from Klamath Falls, where he is employed on the railroad there.

Mrs. Laura V. Steele leaves tonight for Seattle to pay a visit to her sister, residing in that city. She expects to be gone several days.

Earl Luttmann of Hills, was a week end visitor with Ashland friends.

George Anderson, who escaped from the county jail Saturday evening by clubbing Jailer Bert Moses over the head when the latter entered the jail at night, is still at large. According to reports from Talent, the fugitive was picked up on a road in that section last night by searchers, and was brought into town. While the captor entered a pool room there, it is claimed, to get help to deliver the prisoner to the authorities, Anderson escaped from the car and no trace has been seen of him since. County officials fear he secured an automobile in some manner and made his escape from this district. Anderson was without a hat or coat when he left the jail, but according to the stories from Talent he wore a cap when he was picked up last night.

D. R. Conner, manager of the Hotel Austin, was called to Oakland, Saturday by the serious illness of his father. Mrs. Conner received a telegram yesterday morning from Mr. Conner stating his father died that morning.

SATURDAY'S NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Oden Spencer went to Eugene, Tuesday, to visit their son, Peter L. Spencer, who is one of the teaching staff at the university.

Some wag caused quite a little merriment by posting a bulletin in Chinese on the train men's bulletin board at the local Southern Pacific station one day this week.

Mrs. Earl P. Smith of Palm avenue is visiting friends in the California capital.

The front of the Stevens restaurant on A street is receiving a new coat of paint.

R. D. Carvill and wife of Vashon Island, J. C. McHenry of Seattle, Jas. McCreary and wife of Pomeroy, Wash., W. H. Patterson and wife of Mayner, are Washington tourists through this section of the state, stopping at the Hotel Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shelton, who have been guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. F. D. Yarbrough, for several weeks, left yesterday for their home in Seila. Mrs. Shelton was under a doctor's care while here and is much improved in health. Both she and her husband were favorably impressed with Ashland and hope some time to make this city their future home.

The Hotel Columbia has as its guests C. C. Fens of Chico, L. C. Scott, W. J. McEnerney, W. C. Davis and Charles W. Burns of Dunsmuir, H. Carroll and P. Erickson of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Arnold and daughter, Edna, of Kitchener, Ontario, are spending a week or so in Ashland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young. After finishing their visit here they expect to go to Southern California to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold are Mrs. Young's parents.

C. A. Gilmore of Roseburg had business in the city yesterday.

E. V. Jones and wife started yesterday by motor to California to spend the winter. They expected to reach Hornbrook last night, then continue on to Glendale, where they will locate for the present.

Mrs. Kenneth Miner, who has been spending several days in Ashland visiting her father, P. Provost, and family, after making an extended stay in San Francisco and Berkeley, has gone to her home in Bend.

Charles Harrison was an Ashland business visitor yesterday from Klamath Falls.

F. J. Whittlesey, surveyor of the Oregon insurance rating bureau, is in Ashland today, re-rating insurance on several business places in the city. Among the business he has transacted while here was the establishing of insurance rates on the new Ford garage being erected by Harrison brothers on North Main street.

Mrs. J. H. Foster of Klamath Falls is in Ashland this week, a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. G. McCarthy, on North Main street.

Guests registered over night at the Hotel Austin include Mrs. Wilbert Field of Bismark, N. D., A. E. Dragon of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Atterbury of Los Angeles, and Walter E. Whipple of Elk River, Mont., and the following from Portland: S. A. McSutehon, J. P. Jordan, F. A. Clark and wife and Mrs. W. Thayer.

Harry Owens was up from Medford yesterday transacting business in the Granite City.

Mrs. Butler left last night for Red Bluff, Calif., where her daughter, Mrs. Luther Brown, is seriously ill in a hospital.

T. K. Anderson of Gottville is paying Ashland a social and business visit this week.

Charles Ellerbeck of Grants Pass had business in Ashland yesterday.

Last night a Chevrolet car, license No. 26393, caught fire and burned up on the highway near the Jackson hot spring. The car was ablaze when discovered by passersby between 7 and 8 o'clock last night, and so far as can be learned, no one seems to know anything about the burning of the machine. This car formerly belonged to E. W. Flackus of the Shasta grocery, but he had traded it in to an automobile dealer of Medford for a new car some time ago and does not know the present owner.

Bert R. Greer returned this morning from a two months sojourn in Southern California, where his family are located for the winter. He reports tremendous building activity in that section. There the people are paying no attention whatever to the high costs of building materials and labor but are building both residences and business blocks by the thousand. The builders there are paying $65 per thousand for dimension and $110 per thousand for finishing lumber and the labor basis is $8 per day for carpenters. From the standpoint of crowds and hustle Southern California looked good to him, but in point of scenery and comfortable and economical living conditions that section is not in it with the Rogue River valley. He says he saw no spot that will at all compare with Ashland as a good place to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Logan drove over from Yreka last night to attend the show in the Vining theatre.

A large number of football enthusiasts drove down to Medford this afternoon to witness the game between the Ashland and Medford high school teams.

Mrs. J. B. Hills was in Ashland yesterday from Grants Pass, a guest of Mrs. J. L. Heer.

Reports from the Red Cross Roll Call are exceedingly favorable. All the captains and workers were prompt in responding to the task of soliciting subscribers and practically all the former members of the Red Cross have signed again for the coming year. The city will be thoroughly canvassed until November 25th, and indications point to Ashland easily making her quota.

Chas. F. Chapman is in Ashland this week for the purpose of establishing a club for the railroad men. Mr. Chapman has secured the Fairview building on the corner of Fourth and B streets. This club will be utilized as a home for the railroad boys as a rest room and place of entertainment when off duty and will be highly appreciated by them. Mr. Chapman came here from Dunsmuir where he had recently established a fine club for the railroad men.

The student newspaper of the University, the Oregon Emerald, previously published tri-weekly, is published this year as a daily.

L. Gartner came up this morning from Willow, Calif., where he is operating his trucks in the rice fields. He will remain in Ashland looking after business here for a few days, after which he will return to Will-

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold are Mrs. Young's

Ward Hammond, son of Rev. and

Mrs. P. K. Hammond, left this week

FRIDAY'S NEWS

The Wednesday Afternoon Club took in about $90 at their New England dinner yesterday, which was held in the Chautauqua Pioneer hall. The event proved a delightful social feature as well as netting a good sum to the club. This dinner will be an established feature on Armistice day in the future.

Mrs. Ida Knapp, a trained nurse of Newburg, who has been on a month's vacation in Southern Oregon and California, visited at the home of Mrs. Hattie Lynch on Liberty street for a few days while in this section.

Captain W. M. Briggs and Glenn Simpson represented the Ashland Post of the American Legion at the observance of Armistice Day in Yreka. They drove over and back in the former's car yesterday.

The Home Missionary Society of the Talent Methodist church held its semi-annual box opening in the church at that town yesterday afternoon. A good program was presented and an excellent attendance was reported.

A large engine got off the track in the S. P. yards last evening, and required considerable work by the crew to get it back.

Dr. C. W. McFadden, a prominent dentist of Duluth, Minn., has given up his work in that city and expects to leave this week with his family for Oregon and will take up his residence on a fruit ranch near Talent. Dr. McFadden has owned this ranch for some time, and has been preparing it as a home for him and his family as soon as he was ready to retire from his profession.

Murle Tlesher of Fort Landerdale, Fla., and Ralph Emery of Haus, Kan., are guests from a distance stopping at the Hotel Columbia. Other guests registered there are M. H. Cummings of Corvallis and H. Ahlborn of Klamath Falls.

Otto Michel came in from Cottage Grove yesterday to pay a short visit with friends. He will remain in the city about a week.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Day, Beryl Day, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Turner and H. G. Moe comprise a party from Dayton, Wash., stopping at the Hotel Austin.

At the Medford Chamber of Commerce forum luncheon Wednesday the members present unanimously endorsed the project of the summer school to be held in Ashland, on a motion by one of the members.

Washington guests registered at the Hotel Columbia last night comprised Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hubbard and Mrs. T. Lague of Wenatchee, A. C. Dieker and Arthur Brunner of Yakima.

Glenn McWilliams has sold his home and acre of ground on Wimer street to Burton A. Finch. Mr. Finch is a Baptist clergyman and during the vacancy in the local church has been preaching there every Sunday morning, while occupying the Baptist pulpit. Since a new minister has been called to that church, Mr. Finch has moved his family out of the parsonage to accommodate the new incumbent. C. B. Lamkin made the sale through his agency.

While returning from Hornbrook yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gulsinger and family and J. V. Wright and family ran onto an overturned car on the summit of the Sixtyfours, in which two men had been driving. One of the party was quite badly injured, and Mr. Gulsinger picked him up and brought him in to a local hospital, while Mr. Wright remained and assisted the other man to gather up his effects. According to their story the car skidded on the road and overturned.

Donald Ortil, a director on the Ellison-White seven-day circuit, was the guest today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fuller. Mr. Ortil stopped off while on his way north to attend the home-coming of the University of Oregon.

Mrs. R. C. Bailey, clerk in McNair Brothers' drug store, has been out for several days on account of illness.

Mrs. Mary B. Powers, vice president of the W. C. T. U. Children's Home Farm movement, arrived in Ashland this morning and will speak before an Ashland audience in the library tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Powers is also the originator of the movement.

Many Ashland people are taking advantage of Vaupel's closing out sale and are securing fine bargains. This sale opened this morning and the clerks have been busy with the large number who have filled the department offering the goods on sale.

Portland guests at the Austin hotel are N. Donnelly and wife, Wm. G. Jump and wife, Edwin B. Spahr, C. W. Fullerton and Ben Mitchell. Others at the hotel are Mrs. C. Mills of Roseburg and J. W. Morrison of San Francisco.

Mrs. Jane Carter and daughter, Mrs. G. E. Stevens, expect to leave Sunday on an extended visit to San Francisco and Petaluma.

The Home Missionary society of the Methodist church meets this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Homer Billings on North Main street.

Among the articles of incorporation filed this week with the state incorporation department at Salem is the Ashland New Thought Society of this city. The incorporators are Mary V. Wilshire, C. W. Banta and Etta A. Rowland.

Mrs. F. M. Duggan and Miss Helen Duggan of Dunsmuir are guests this week of Mrs. E. G. Stevens at her home on Helman street. They expect to return home Sunday.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

Rev. C. A. Edwards addressed the weekly members' forum of the Medford Chamber of Commerce yesterday noon on the subject, "The City Beautiful." J. H. Fuller, secretary of the Ashland Commercial Club, also attended the luncheon.

Rev. W. E. Bean, pastor of the Christian church, has been absent from his charge for the past week. Last Sunday the pulpit of that church was filled at the morning service by G. C. McAllister and in the evening by Mr. Duncan, both elders in the Christian church.

C. W. DeCarlow, Creel B. Jones and Donald S. Simpson of Pinehurst came over yesterday to spend the Armistice day holiday in this section.

The following people from San Francisco are registered at the Austin: R. P. Grubb, T. J. Saunders, G. Hill, D. W. Motes, Miss Zora Nisdom and John Baird.

Mrs. James Wiley, who has been spending several weeks in Ashland and Medford, left today for her home in Port Klamath.

The congregation of the Baptist church last Sunday called Rev. Walter L. Evans of Austin, Texas, to fill the pastorate of that church. Mr. Evans with his family has been in Ashland several weeks and has preached before the Baptist congregation a number of times. The congregation is much pleased with Mr. Evans and extended an unanimous call to the pastorate.

Stopping at the Hotel Austin over night were W. M. Chalmers of Weed, B. G. West of New York and J. V. Powell of Enterprise.

Will M. Dodge and Harry Hooper drove over from Yreka today to attend the Armistice Day celebration given by the Ross Neilson Post, of the American Legion, of which many members of the Ashland Legion participated.

Mrs. E. W. Howell of Maple street was taken seriously ill last evening but is reported improving today.

Portlanders at the Austin today are: Wm. Pace and party, Mrs. J. W. Shattuck, C. Shattuck, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fellows and Miss Youngberg.

Mrs. Mary O. Carey of Talent was an Ashland visitor yesterday afternoon.

C. A. Malone was up from Medford this morning to secure the services of the local police to endeavor to trace his Chevrolet car which was stolen last night in that city. Chief Hatcher was out with Mr. Malone in the endeavor of finding the car.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Naylor of Owatonna, Minn., spent a few days in Ashland this week.

The flag over the postoffice was hoisted according to regulations—up to 11 a. m. in honor of those boys who never came back and the balance of the day in honor of those who did come back.

Charles Heschley and family, who have been residents of Ashland for the past year, have sold their residence property on Lincoln street and left yesterday for Mount Vernon, Wash., where they expect to locate.

Availing themselves of the few days remaining before the annual football mix between the Medford and Ashland squads the local eleven is practicing every night as late as 7 o'clock on Jackson field. A ghost ball is being used when it is too dark for the regular piskin to be seen. Although five of the regular members have been in bad shape through injuries lately they will undoubtedly round into condition for Saturday's scrimmage. The Red and Black football men, after seeing the Ashland team swamp Grants Pass by a 41 to 0 score last Saturday, have formed a hearty respect for the strength of the Ashlanders and are preparing for a hard, close game.—Medford Mail-Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdick and Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Mills drove down to Grants Pass today to enjoy the holiday and take part in the Armistice Day celebration in that city.

The Ashland postoffice did not close today or curtail its service on account of Armistice Day. About two years ago the department amended its regulations and does not permit postmasters to grant holiday privileges on the occasion of state holidays. Postmasters were instructed to obey the rule, as Armistice day has not yet been declared a legal holiday by congress.

Mark Abood and wife were Ashland guests yesterday from Harbor.

M. P. Hadsey, Barkley Hallbrook and Frank Hallbrook of Merrill were guests last night in Ashland, stopping at the Hotel Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Strang of Granada were visitors yesterday at the home of Mrs. W. S. Eastman on Oak street.

C. H. Winchester and wife and D. C. Eyer of Seattle are among the Hotel Austin guests today.

Through the enterprise of Rev. Charles A. Edwards a beautiful wreath of chrysanthemums was placed today on the Carter memorial fountain on the Plaza. Attached to the wreath is a card inscribed, "In loving remembrance of those who made the supreme sacrifice." Mr. Edwards originated this movement and secured the wreath as a memorial to all the Ashland boys who went to war and never returned, and the idea struck such a responsive chord among the citizens that it will become a permanent institution every Armistice day.

A. Camp and son, of LaCrosse, Washington, are guests at the Hotel Columbia. Other guests also stopping there are S. B. Powers of Shedd, J. W. Graham of Portland, J. A. Snider of Grants Pass, H. C. Cross, Roy Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brown of Salem, L. E. Price of Brants, Wash.

Mrs. Pettit and son, Leonard, will move on November 15 to 21 East Main street where Leonard will have his music studio. They will occupy a suite in the Freeburg building.

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS

Few eggs were shipped out through the Ashland Egg society for the month of October, but those brought in by local poultrymen received a good price. A total of 1401 dozen eggs were received during the past month, the number each week and the price being as follows: First week, 311 dozen at 65 cents; second week, 301 dozen at 6 cents; third week, 295 dozen at 70 cents; fourth week, 286 dozen at 72 cents; fifth week, 208 dozen at 74 cents.

Archer S. Alnutt of Klamath Falls was a visitor in Ashland yesterday.

The fine new bungalow Sherman Powell is erecting on his lot on Oak street is nearing completion. A late addition that has been recently added is a handsome fireplace and outside chimney.

Miss Judy Trunnell of Cottage Grove, who has been spending several days in Ashland as the guest of Mrs. Bert Smith, left last night for her home.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wick of Portland, Monday, November 8, at Grants Pass, where Mrs. Wick is stopping with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdick.

J. H. Bowman, who has been living on the J. W. Young ranch east of Ashland for the past year, expects to move his family to Los Angeles shortly to spend the winter.

H. R. Schroeder and family and W. R. Ballard of Spokane, Wash., are among the guests stopping at the Hotel Ashland.

The Ashland Fruit & Produce association is busy this week shipping apples. At present the association is sending out a carload every other day of Newtown and Spitzenburg apples to eastern ports for European trade. A large force of women and girls are employed in the packing house wrapping and packing these apples, and it is expected from 15 to 18 cars will be sent out on this order. This year the boxes have to be wired for export shipments, a requirement never exacted before, and two men are employed constantly at the wire house wiring the boxes after they are packed.

Mrs. J. R. Robison and daughter, Mrs. Ethel Childers of Talent spent yesterday in Ashland, guests of Mrs. Geo. M. Robison.

The following guests from a distance are stopping at the Hotel Austin: H. S. White of Chicago; J. B. Dollar and family, F. Stein and wife, C. B. Ply and wife, H. Miller and J. Craig McDermid.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Adams of Roseburg visited in the city this week.

C. W. Mowl, P. E. McGinris and C. M. Kiser of Dunsmuir are guests registered at the Hotel Columbia.

Mrs. Myers of Fairbanks, Alaska, is spending some time in Ashland, a guest of her sister, Mrs. M. R. Griffin.

James E. Welsh of Portland has purchased the property on Laurel street belonging to Charles Rose and V. O. N. Smith, and will occupy it for a home. During the past week W. S. Stennett has been busy papering and painting the house and getting it ready for its new owner.

Frank Akiyama, F. W. Smith and N. G. Nicholson were Portland business men in Ashland yesterday.

Mrs. Belle Anderson is repairing the property at 190 Oak street which she recently purchased from Mrs. Myra McNeil and is making of it a fine dwelling. When completed the house will be occupied by Mrs. John Grubb and family.

Mrs. Lou Reader was called to Portland, Thursday, by the death of Mrs. Charles Poley, which took place in that city. She returned home yesterday morning. Mrs. Poley was well known in this city.

County Commissioner T. H. Simpson and Attorney Arthur Doran are in Jacksonville today attending business at the county seat.

Mrs. J. L. Heer and Mrs. Levi Stevens motored to Rogue River yesterday to spend the day with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doran and son have moved to Ashland from San Diego and are living at 299 Almond street.

B. C. Tabor, for many years a well known resident of Ashland, left last night for Spokane, where he expects to make his future home. While in Ashland, Mr. Tabor has lived a retired life from active duties, but has spent his time in good works and devotion to the welfare of any whose need for a kindly word or good deed has come under his observation. Mr. Tabor has been a writer of considerable note, and his close observation has made him well versed on the present and future events of the times. Mrs. Tabor remains in Ashland for the present, but as soon as her husband gets their home established he will join him in Spokane. Ashland can ill afford to lose such estimable citizens as Mr. and Mrs. Tabor, and the good wishes of the entire community follow them to their new home.

ALL KINDS OF FENCING Barb Wire, Dandy Cedar Posts and New anchor posts in carload lot arrived. Plows and tractor tools of all kinds. Heider Tractors. New and Second Hand Sewing Machines for sale or rent. PEIL'S CORNER BY THE PARK

THE LARGEST STOCK OF Paints Oils Glass and Wall Paper IN SOUTHERN OREGON. Best Goods and Best Prices. Get Our Prices. WM. O. DICKERSON THE PAINT MAN

Supply Your Kitchen With Aluminum Ware Light and Lasting. Provost Bros. HARDWARE

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES We have just installed a new section of Safe Deposit Boxes and are again able to offer boxes for rent. Remember, our vault is protected by the latest and best system of Electric Burglar Alarm. 4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Holiday Stationery Part of Our Full and Complete Assortment OF CHRISTMAS STATIONERY IS For the First Time Put Out For Your Inspection. We are displaying the Eaton, Crane & Pike line, whose quality is too well known to need our word of praise. See Our Window POLEY'S DRUG STORE POLBY & ELHART DRUGGISTS