

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

SATURDAY'S NEWS

Mark Baker arrived in Ashland last evening from California where he went several weeks ago with the intention of spending the winter. Mr. Baker was as far south as Los Angeles, and claims he returned home to get warmed up, as according to his statement the weather is as cold in California as here. He said he wore his overcoat all the time he was away, and decided if Southern California cannot furnish any warmer weather than Southern Oregon he might as well remain at home.

A. H. Kemp and daughter of Taft, California, while touring through this section of the country, stopped off in Ashland over yesterday stopping at the Hotel Columbia.

G. R. Robinson had business in Ashland from the Butte Falls country.

The following from Portland are registered at the Hotel Columbia: R. W. Putnam, H. E. Ewer and M. J. Hurder. Other guests also at the Columbia are N. G. Robinson of Seaplace, Or., W. C. Blair of Des Moines, Iowa, and H. W. Selby.

Mrs. Minnie Eastman of Portland arrived in Ashland last night and is a guest at the Hotel Austin. Mrs. Eastman is the mother of the late Sergeant Leo Parrish, whose body was recently shipped from France when he died in the army service, and will be brought to Ashland tomorrow for burial.

People from California in Ashland stopping at the Hotel Columbia are: E. J. Becker and Mark Levi of San Francisco, and Arthur Tatesan of Sacramento.

Chief of Police W. J. Hatcher this morning received a letter from the Chief of Police G. B. Pitcher of Cottage Grove stating that Dick Stratton, who is wanted in Ashland for passing a worthless check to J. B. Leebower early in the week, is wanted in several towns for the same offense. The police in Cottage Grove holds a warrant for his arrest for passing bad checks in the latter city on December 14. From there, Mr. Pitcher, states, he went to Salem and passed several checks, and is also wanted in Orland, California, on the same charge.

John Storm, a prominent business man of Alaska, arrived in Ashland this week to visit his family who are spending the winter here.

Hotel Austin guests are E. E. Rorapough of Eugene, A. J. Frank and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Brooks of Portland, Louis Aaron of New York City, and Marion Guy.

Fred and Will Patton came home yesterday from a fishing jaunt down the river. They brought back with them fourteen steelheads averaging from 20 to 24 inches which they caught at Gold Bay dam.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Sandry were up from Rogue River last night witnessing the basketball game between the high school of that place and the local high school team.

Miss Vera Robinson of Grants Pass is in Ashland, and will be a week end guest of Miss Thelma Heer.

Crater Lake has now 4 feet more snow than was at the park this time last year. Superintendent Sparrow of Crater Lake national park has received word from the ranger on duty in the park that the depth of snow is 8 1/2 feet at Anna Spring camp and 9 1/2 feet at the lake rim five miles above.

Mrs. E. V. Carter has gone to Salem to join her husband, Hon. E. V. Carter, who is one of the Jackson county members of the legislature. Mrs. Carter expects to remain there during the present term.

W. J. Luckeroth was up from Medford yesterday transacting business in Ashland.

A. C. Joy was in Medford today attending a meeting called to arrange for a coming Farm Bureau campaign which is expected to be put on in the county in the near future.

M. A. Belding of Marshfield had business in Ashland a few days this week.

The statement that 1920 taxes would be due and could be payable after January 1st is a mistake. The tax rolls are not turned over to the sheriff by the assessor until the last of February and can be paid any time after March 1st. The penalty on the first half is applied after April 5th and on the last half after October 5th.

Miss Lindsey, who had charge of the physical training classes in the summer school last summer, was up from Grants Pass last evening attending the basketball games at the high school gymnasium. Miss Lindsey is teaching in Grants Pass this winter.

H. H. Frazier of Dunsmuir had business in Ashland yesterday afternoon.

Councilman A. C. Joy is back from Portland where he has been attending a meeting of the county Farm Bureau which had convened in that city this week to effect a permanent state federation. He reports a great meeting was held and much interest and enthusiasm was awakened in the farmers by this organization. Mr. Joy will leave Monday for Linn county to start a Farm Bureau campaign. He will be one of the speakers in the campaign.

Mrs. Wal Galbraith, a well known wood dealer of Rogue River, transacted business in Ashland yesterday. He was accompanied by his wife.

L. F. Case and E. C. Watts, San Francisco business men, were Ashland visitors yesterday.

Street Commissioner C. W. and Mrs. Fraley arrived home yesterday afternoon from California where they had been spending the past six weeks or so visiting friends and relatives, and stopping at the various scenic points in that state. They made the trip in the family car and came over the mountains yesterday as easily and comfortably as though it were midsummer.

Frank Davis of Klamath Falls is an Ashland business visitor this week.

Howard Ewer, a former well known business man of this city, is in Ashland for a few days this week. Mr. Ewer is in the engineering department of the Southern Pacific and is in this vicinity after the work of changing the rails on the road between here and Phoenix.

Three interesting basketball games were played at the high school gymnasium last night. The first was with the first high school team and the off-give River team and resulted in a score of 57 to 18 in favor of Ashland. The second was played by the second high school team and Rogue River high school. The latter was the winner by a score of 19 to 16. The girls' game with Grants Pass resulted in Ashland winning by a big score.

Mrs. Nonnie Giles of Myrtle Point is the guest of her niece, Mrs. H. H. Gillette, in this city. Mrs. Giles stopped off here to spend a few days before going to San Francisco to spend the rest of the winter with her son, Dr. C. R. Giles.

Mrs. Eugene Walrad, who has been spending the past year with her children in the north, came home this morning from Graysville and will reside here the rest of the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Fraley.

Mrs. J. W. Miller, who has been teaching the primary grade in the Talent school this winter, has resigned, her resignation taking effect Wednesday. Mrs. George Carter of Talent is taking Mrs. Miller's place. Mr. and Mrs. Miller expect to leave next week for California to spend the rest of the winter, after which they will make an extended visit to Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Farley have received word that their son, Floyd Farley, who is engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in Bucharest, Roumania, will be home in April. Mr. Farley will retire from the service at that time.

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS

Dr. Ralph W. Stearns of Grants Pass and Dr. R. W. Stearns of Medford visited Sunday at the home of their brother, H. A. Stearns on Granite street.

Christine Curtin and Margaret Harkins of Medford were registered at the Hotel Columbia over night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McNair have gone to Portland and North Yakima, Wash., on a business and pleasure trip. At the latter city they will be guests of Mr. McNair's brother, Walton McNair.

Mr. Polk, R. B. McClary, J. F. Hench and J. P. Madden are San Francisco people stopping at the Hotel Austin today.

Miss Ruth Brower, who has been a guest at the home of R. L. King on Granite street, was taken seriously ill Monday night, and was removed to a local hospital.

C. P. Sullivan and T. M. Dodson are Dunsmuir visitors at the Hotel Columbia today.

John M. Scott, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific company of Portland, and I. T. Sparks, district freight and passenger agent of Eugene, were Ashland visitors yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cannon of Detroit, Mich., are recent newcomers to Ashland and will make this city their home. Mrs. Cannon is a niece of Mrs. W. B. Smith, while Mr. Cannon is a vulcanizer and is associated with M. C. Lininger in the Ashland Vulcanizing Works. They are making their home on Hargadine street.

Mr. Carter, a government official from Portland, spent yesterday on business in Ashland. Mr. Carter is a close friend of Rev. C. A. Edwards of the Methodist church.

Mrs. B. R. Dixon, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. Huchke, left for her home in Dunsmuir Monday on train 13.

Mrs. Dora E. Wight, who had been in Ashland for the past week or two during the illness and death of her mother, the late Mrs. E. N. Anderson, left last night for her home in Seattle.

Guests from Portland stopping at the Hotel Austin are A. R. Paris, W. M. Wilkie, E. D. Halock and D. Mattoon. Other guests are D. J. Farmer of Seattle, C. Stone, wife and son, of Ogden, Utah, and G. D. Tweedie of Glendale.

F. C. Holibaugh, the well known Valley View stockman, was a business visitor in Ashland yesterday. Mr. Holibaugh has been working with the county agent in the interests of the Farm Bureau during the past two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Briggs were Jacksonville visitors yesterday.

A. McDermid, who with his wife has been spending the winter in Ashland, has gone to Kentucky to visit for two weeks with members of his family and relatives there. He expects to be gone from Ashland a month. Mrs. McDermid, formerly Miss Frances Mault, is remaining in Ashland with her mother, Mrs. M. S. Mault, during her husband's absence.

Californians stopping at the Hotel Austin are J. S. Doran, Joseph Jacobs, W. S. Killington, P. H. Miller and Sid Neuman of San Francisco.

Attorney Nellie Dickey transacted business at the county seat and Medford yesterday.

V. F. Davis and Jacob A. Nelson, two Klamath Falls men, were transacting business in Ashland yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Turner left last night on train No. 53 for a two week's sojourn in San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Charles Stewart, a former bank examiner who has been a frequent visitor in Ashland and is well known here, was appointed one of the vice presidents of the Northwestern National Bank of Portland at a meeting yesterday. Mr. Stewart will have charge of the country bank correspondents' accounts of the Northwestern National.

A. H. Hall yesterday moved into the house on the corner of Alida and East Main streets, which he recently purchased through the Beaver Realty company from W. V. Miller of Paisley.

Mr. Glazier, a representative of the Lumbermen's Trust company of Portland, was a business visitor in Ashland yesterday.

Visitors stopping at the Hotel Columbia comprise J. Hanson, A. Adamson, R. Ohlund, A. England, R. Coslough, V. Johnson, A. D. Holmes and Paul J. Standen of Dunsmuir.

A. C. Briggs, manager of the Ashland Fruit & Produce association, left on train No. 53 last night on a month's visit with relatives in the east. He will first go to see his brother in Morgantown, W. Va., then later visit his mother in Brooklyn, N. Y. The latter is in very feeble health this winter. Mr. Briggs recently heard, and this has hurried him to make the trip at this time.

Miss Barbara Delitz, a trained nurse who has been with the late Mrs. E. N. Anderson for more than a year, returned last night to her home in Seattle.

Miss Lucille Marshall of Medford has been secured as additional English teacher in the Senior High school and will assume her duties next Monday. Miss Marshall comes with two years' experience in the Medford schools, four in Klamath Falls and one in Seattle. She has resigned the latter position to be near her father and mother, who live in Medford. The Ashland school board feel very much gratified that they are fortunate enough to secure such an instructor.

Ashland guests stopping at the Hotel Columbia are Catherine Zelhaber and Harry Ford of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Russell of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Mrs. G. J. Wade of Melba, Idaho. H. B. Heston of Los Angeles, and C. E. Mearns and family.

Portland guests stopping at the Hotel Austin are C. A. Wilson, Della Mullen, Marjorie Combs, A. S. Rand and R. D. Carter.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

The following guests from Portland are at the Hotel Columbia: E. G. Kramer, E. L. Wright and R. C. Hartley. Other guests are H. W. Selby and W. H. Scholer.

Mrs. Wm. Myer and niece, Miss Hatie Hodges, returned last night from a visit at points in California during two or three weeks.

James Morris and Joseph Morris, newcomers from Shedd, Oregon, have purchased the 40 acre tract belonging to W. T. Shagas, known as the C. E. Abbott ranch east of Ashland, and will take possession February 1. C. B. Lankin made the sale.

Mrs. Leo Parrish of Lakeview and H. T. Parrish of Ripon, Calif., came to Ashland last evening and will await the arrival of the body of their husband and son, Sergeant Leo Parrish, which is being sent here from France, where he died during the world war. Word from Portland states that a consignment of twenty bodies of the overseas dead is expected to reach Portland today, and as soon as it is learned when Mr. Parrish's body will come from Portland to this city, arrangements will be made by the American Legion to give the young soldier a military funeral.

The people living on Terrace street had a meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. B. M. Heath for the purpose of discussing community developments in that section. It is expected some material improvements will result in the future.

Last evening the fine Saxon Six car belonging to E. P. Sullivan, an S. P. trainman, caught fire while he was driving along the highway near the overhead bridge east of Ashland, and the whole body was consumed before the flames could be extinguished. Mr. Sullivan had been having trouble with the car becoming overheated for some time, but could not account for the conflagration last night. He stated the fire blinded him so he could not see the road, and he ran off the highway into a ditch, striking the fence at Mountain View cemetery, where the car stopped. Passersby helped Mr. Sullivan in putting out the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McClaren are back from Modesto, Calif., where they had been making an extended visit with the family of C. W. Robertson, former well known Ashland residents. They report the Robertson family as doing well in their new location.

Rev. Van Nuys will conduct a mothers' meeting at the Presbyterian church at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. All mothers welcome. A potluck supper will be served at 6 o'clock to be followed by a conference on Sunday school and Young People's work. The supper and conference are open to all.

George A. Mansfield, president of the Jackson county Farm Bureau, was elected president of the Oregon Farm Bureau federation at its meeting in Portland this week. The organization of a co-operative marketing association for handling Oregon's wheat crop was discussed at the session yesterday, and problems of hay, wool and mohair growers were considered.

H. K. Tomlinson, one of the substantial republicans of Ashland, was down to Medford, Tuesday night, at a meeting called by prominent republicans in this county to arrange for the annual Lincoln Day banquet.

A general committee to take charge of the affair was appointed, consisting of P. M. Kershaw, chairman, H. K. Tomlinson, Ralph Cogwell, Bert Anderson and H. L. Walker.

Mrs. Max Pracht and Maxine Pracht returned last evening from an extended visit in Oakland and San Francisco.

Word was received in Ashland this morning of the death of Thomas Jones, of Hornbrook, a well known pioneer of Siskiyou county, which occurred in San Diego yesterday. Pneumonia was the cause of Mr. Jones' demise. It is presumed the body will be brought to Hornbrook for burial. Mr. Jones was a member of Ashland Lodge, No. 944, B. P. O. E.

Dr. W. E. Buchanan is out today for the first time after a week's illness. He is going easy, however, on his work in his dental office for the next day or two until he becomes stronger.

Word was received in Ashland today that the two bandits, who shot the marshal in Redding, Tuesday, when the latter attempted to capture them while they were breaking into a house in that city, had been caught at Kennett. On being apprehended, it is reported, the robbers started to run and one was shot through the leg. They confessed to the robbery and shooting after being captured, it is stated. The injured official in Redding will recover, according to reports, but will be a cripple.

Guests stopping at the Hotel Austin are R. E. Hartman of Roseburg, C. A. McCormick and W. K. Harvey of San Francisco, I. J. Crawford of New York City, W. H. Ballinger and C. W. West of Portland.

Mrs. McCready of Delta is an Ashland visitor today, stopping at the Hotel Columbia.

Roland Banks, the eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Banks, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock after being sick for several weeks. Funeral services were held this afternoon from the late home at 651 Beach street, conducted by Rev. C. P. Koehler of the Presbyterian church, and interment was made in Mountain View cemetery.

Lloyd Stinson and wife of Medford were Ashland visitors yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Ferguson arriving home last evening from a week's visit in San Francisco and other points in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Beard of Eugene were guests in Ashland this week.

Miss Viola Jones, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Jones of Talent, died at her home last night after a long and painful illness due to a heart affection and dropsy. Burial services will be arranged later. Miss Jones was a cousin of Mrs. Tom Hill of this city.

Secretary J. H. Frazier was a visitor at the Medford Forum luncheon yesterday noon and extended an invitation to the members of the Medford Chamber of Commerce to attend the annual banquet of the Ashland Chamber on Thursday evening, January 20. Assurance was given of the great interest in the program, which includes the wonderful picture lecture by Frank Branch Riley, and that a large number of Medfordites will attend this gathering.

John Mitchell and family of Portland, who were guests the fore part of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stennett on Factory street, left last night for Fresno, where they expect to embark in the poultry business.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Paulsard came home yesterday from a visit of a week or two spent with Mrs. Paulsard's mother in Tacoma, and with other friends in Seattle, Centralia and Portland.

A. C. Karnowsky and family of Florence arrived in Ashland last night and are stopping at the Hotel Austin while waiting for their household goods to come before locating on the 40-acre ranch they recently purchased near Talent.

A. C. Edwards, who has been sick at his home south of Ashland is reported somewhat better, and is able to be around the house.

The Southern Pacific company is cleaning up their property on North Main and Water streets, where the old buildings were recently torn down. The lumber in the buildings was loaded on cars and hauled away, while the debris is being piled up and burned.

In excavating for the gasoline tank at the Ford garage the workmen struck the old creek bed after digging down a few feet, consisting of a mass of boulders. Owing to the proximity of the building these boulders could not be blasted out and had to be chiseled away. The work that should have taken only about a day to excavate eight feet has already lasted seven days and the men are still delving at the mass of rock.

Albert Liggitt, who is spending the winter in Ashland from Aberdeen, Scotland, with his aunt, Mrs. Clyde, has gone to Portland for a few days this week.

Mrs. Jay Terrill of Talent was shopping in Ashland yesterday afternoon.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

Volney Colvig, pioneer resident of this city, came in from Ashland last night to visit his brother, Geo. Colvig, and old friends. Mr. Colvig was residing on his farm on Jones Creek in 1878 and was a resident for many years of this city. In 1883 he helped build the first store building in Grants Pass. He served as county judge of Josephine county in the 90's.—Grants Pass Courier.

Farm Bureau meetings scheduled for January 14th to January 21st, have been postponed for the present on account of Mr. Mansfield being called to another part of the state. The date of future meetings will be announced later.

Ernest Cooper came in the first of the week from the Dead Indian country, where he had been working near the Neil ranch. He states snow is two and one-half feet deep in that section, and he was compelled to make the trip by horseback, as no conveyance can penetrate the drifts in the roads.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Willis, who have been living in Ashland for the past five or six months at 715 Pennsylvania avenue, have purchased through the Beaver Realty company the house on Fourth street belonging to Wm. Hintze of Red Wing, Minn. Mr. Willis is an ex-banker of Oklahoma, and since coming to Ashland has acquired considerable property. He made the last purchase as an investment, but expects to live there, as it is closer in than his present home.

The railroad policeman last night caught a man in the act of breaking into Powell's fruit stand at the station. As soon as the man became aware of discovery, he ran off and disappeared in the darkness. Nothing was taken from the stand.

Portland guests stopping at the Hotel Austin are J. C. Myers, J. M. Rice, Jno. C. Eoff, O. J. Stewart, A. S. Rand and H. A. Cousins.

L. Roy Karnowsky arrived in Ashland last evening from Shedd to join his father, A. C. Karnowsky, and family, who have come here to make their home at their new purchase near Talent.

Mc. A. Williams and Mrs. H. N. Clansen and sister are Portland visitors in the city today, stopping at the Hotel Columbia.

A baby daughter came to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kay, Thursday, January 13.

This morning Albert Johnson, the Walnut street orchardist, sent to the Tidings office a box of his Delicious apples, the variety that was awarded first prize in the United States at the recent Mississippi Valley Apple Growers' association, and the kind that tickled the palate of the Methodist bishops so they chose to hold their next annual college in Oregon. These apples are of such a choice variety it is not to be wondered at that they were prize-winners, and the Tidings force appreciates the kindness of Mr. Johnson in allowing them to have a share in the finest fruit in the country.

Mrs. Della Hale, who has been seriously ill at the home of her son, Roy Hale, on Fifth street, is reported to be slightly improving today.

The funeral of Miss Viola Jones, who died Wednesday night at her home in Talent, took place this afternoon from the Dodge undertaking parlors at 2:30 o'clock. Interment was made in the Talent cemetery. Miss Jones is survived by her mother, one sister and two brothers.

Mrs. J. H. White and daughter, Hazel, of Medford, were Ashland shoppers yesterday afternoon.

The Ashland Stage Line, a new bus service between Ashland and Medford, will start operations tomorrow. This service will consist of two comfortable, easy-riding seven passenger touring cars, which will run at hour periods, starting from the Hotel Austin, Ashland, and the Medford Pharmacy, Medford. The schedule appears in another column of The Tidings.

Californians stopping at the Hotel Columbia are W. J. McEnerney of Dunsmuir and H. J. McCracken of Sacramento.

W. E. Harvey of San Francisco is a business visitor in this city today.

IN THE SOCIAL REALM

Entertained at Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Skerman entertained a group of their friends at an informal dinner at their home on B street Sunday, January 9. A most enjoyable time was spent. Those sharing the hospitality of the occasion included: Mr. and Mrs. Will Conley, Masters Joe and Delbert Conley, Mrs. Toney Franco, Misses Ellen and Rosa Franco, Mrs. Jean Burns, Mrs. E. Huchke and Mrs. K. B. Dickson.

Gold Elects Officers. Trinity Guild held their annual meeting last Thursday and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Wm. M. Briggs; vice president, Mrs. Wallon; secretary, Mrs. J. C. Poe; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Dean. Refreshments were served after the business meeting.

Missionary Tea.

Mrs. J. L. Harner's home on Nob Hill was the scene of a delightful gathering Wednesday afternoon. A group of women presented the first missionary meeting in Brookline, Massachusetts, 1829. The quaint old costumes added much to the story of the faithful women who began to pray to God to open the doors to the gospel in foreign lands. Miss Crawford, field secretary for the home board was next introduced and gave a spirited account of the fruits of women's missionary work, that of the care of schools and hospitals for needy peoples of the Union. The story of one girl trained in the mission school, refusing larger opportunities for herself, going to her little home in the mountains of Tennessee, there to be teacher of the little school, Sunday school teacher, comfort of the sick and sad, becoming everything to the poor neighbors of that district, even helping government inspectors to abolish the moonshiners whose liquors were ruining her people. This made the work seem immensely worth while. Truly the mission school is an asset of the Republic.

Miss Crawford spoke in the church in the evening on the Nez Perce Indian churches. Those present most thoroughly enjoyed her address. She was the guest of Mrs. C. B. Lankin, while in Ashland, going from here to Medford and Grants Pass for similar meetings.

Card Club Met.

The Lady Elks held their first card party since the holidays in the club rooms yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. P. A. Provost and Mrs. Frank Dean as hostesses. Mrs. Sumner Parker made highest score in bridge, and Mrs. Mary Wishire the highest in 500.

Elects Officers.

The Missionary Circle of the Baptist church met with Mrs. Moorhouse on Third street yesterday afternoon. The topic under discussion for the day was Central America, and was led by Mrs. S. A. Peters, Jr., with Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Tamas as sub-leaders. Officers for the coming year were also elected, as follows: President, Mrs. H. O. Butterfield; secretary, Mrs. H. P. Holmes; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Williams.

Officers Installed. Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 14, at its regular meeting Tuesday evening, installed the new officers for the ensuing term. District Deputy President Mabel Roberts conducted the installation ceremonies, assisted by the following grand officers: Grand marshal, Miss Mollie Souger; grand warden, Mrs. Storey; grand secretary, Mrs. Walker; grand treasurer, Mrs. Perotti; grand chaplain, Mrs. Wilshire; escorts, Mesdames Hubbard, Goland, Walker and Baldwin. Grace Ridley served as musician, while Miss Mollie Souger was captain of the team. Following are the officers installed: past grand, Ellen Smith; noble grand, Mary Trefren; vice grand, Euraia Miller; recording secretary, Ruth Gulsinger; financial secretary, Maybelle Jordan; treasurer, Elda Anderson; right supporter to noble grand, Mabel Roberts; left supporter to noble grand, Bertina Payne; noble grand, Edith Phipps; left supporter to vice grand, Sadie Walker; chaplain, Amy Moore; conductor, Laura M. Love; warden, Lulu Cheever; inside guardian, Harriett Gowdy; outside guardian, Eunice Hayes. A banquet closed the evening's ceremonies.

Mrs. Louis Dodge is in receipt of a letter from Miss Bertha Davis, a home department specialist of O. A. C., stating she was in touch with a capable instructor in millinery and dressmaking, and will be able to arrange for classes in these departments throughout those sections of Jackson county which desire schools under these heads. This instructor, Miss Davis states, will not be able to report for duty before February 10. Arrangements will be made to establish a school in millinery and dressmaking in Ashland after that date, and as soon as the time has been settled the school will be announced.

FARM BUREAU HEADS AND LEADERS NAMED

Officers and project leaders for the Jackson County Farm Bureau have been elected to serve during the coming year as follows: President, Geo. A. Mansfield; vice president, Chas. Nunan; secretary-treasurer, Alice Hanley; dairymilk, J. R. McCracken; farm accounting, C. J. Brommer; poultry, Carrol Carpenter; horticulture, H. W. Bingham; farm crops, Chas. Nunan; animal husbandry, J. K. Mason; rodent control, J. E. Judy; Boys' and Girls' club work, A. C. Joy; county fair, D. M. Lowe; clothing, Mrs. D. C. Pendleton; food, Mrs. M. F. Sheets; child welfare, Mrs. C. W. Holdridge. At a meeting Saturday in Medford plans for the work of the Farm Bureau for the coming year were perfected.

See
Provost Bros.
Window Display
It Will Pay You

I HANDLE A COMPLETE LINE OF
Fuller's Paints
Dickerson
THE PAINT MAN

THE CITIZENS
BANK OF ASHLAND

SAVING

Few people save much unless they have a definite plan. Spasmodic saving seldom results in large accumulation.

A GOOD PLAN:

Set aside a definite sum as a debt to your future and deposit it regularly in this bank.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS