

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

SATURDAY'S NEWS

Dr. A. J. Ackerman, president of the Oregon State Normal, spent the day in Ashland yesterday and visited some of the city schools in company with Secretary J. H. Fuller of the Chamber of Commerce. The purpose of Mr. Ackerman's visit to Ashland was to plan the establishment of a six weeks' summer normal school in Ashland for the coming season and a conference was arranged at the Chamber of Commerce, with a committee appointed for this purpose. Full announcements will be made later.

Dan and A. Lindberg of Hyder, Alaska, are spending a few days in Ashland this week. While in the city they are guests at the Hotel Columbia.

The following from Portland are registered at the Hotel Austin: G. D. Roe, R. H. Murphy, Homer Hamlin, Guy S. Marshall, C. Weightman and wife and W. H. Bellinger. Guests from other points are: Gen. Evans of Quincy, Wash., W. C. Weightman of San Francisco and J. Heckendorf and wife of Los Angeles.

Mrs. A. Gleiblich, wife of Contractor Gleiblich, who is grading the Green Springs Mountain highway east of Ashland, is spending a few days in the city with her husband.

O. E. Jobs and family are moving this week to Talent where Mr. Jobs expects to be employed on the sawmill that will soon start in the Wagner creek district.

Rev. Norman Wayne Phelps, pastor of the Talent Methodist church, transacted business in Ashland today.

Mrs. C. H. Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chase Huschke, has left for her home in Houston, Texas, after paying a visit in Ashland. This popular young lady will be greatly missed by her affectionate parents.

Mrs. C. R. Lother and two daughters, Ardeh and Bernita, of Portland, arrived yesterday and will be over Sunday guests at the home of the former's father, H. S. Emery, on Mechanic street.

Hotel Columbia guests are J. H. Garvin and C. C. Dole of Portland, Geo. M. Taylor of Dunsmuir, Mrs. S. Swearingen of Los Angeles and W. R. Hunt of San Francisco.

Attorney W. M. Briggs transacted business in Jacksonville today.

Evangelist J. W. Barnett will speak every evening next week at the church of the Brethren, corner of Mountain avenue and Iowa street.

Dr. and Mrs. M. P. Mendelsohn have returned from Chico, Calif., and are located in Ashland. The former is a well known eye specialist.

Francis Winter and Edwin Mowat were down to Rogue River today, spending the day fishing.

Mrs. Gene Holmes was an Ashland visitor yesterday from Weed. She left for her home this morning.

Mrs. H. O. Frobach was an Ashland visitor from Medford yesterday the guest of Mrs. T. H. Simpson.

Mrs. Nora Walrad came home last evening from Weed and Hornbrook, where she had been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Gene Holmes at the former place, and her brother at the latter.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray and little son came up from their ranch near Gold Hill, Wednesday, and were shopping with our merchants, as was also Mrs. P. J. Barnum of Medford.

Clarence Buck of Jacksonville is among the applicants for rights to secure 0.43 second foot of water from Big Applegate river, for irrigating 34 acres.

Mrs. C. A. Shutta leaves today for Eugene where she will spend the Easter vacation with Miss Fern Murphy, who is a student of the University of Oregon.

The body of the late Geo. C. Culy, whose death occurred in Medford last Thursday, was brought to Ashland this afternoon and buried in the family plot of Mountain View Cemetery. Services were held from the Perle Funeral Home at 2:30 this afternoon, conducted by Rev. F. R. Leach of the Medford Baptist church. Mr. Culy was a former well known resident of this city and is survived by five sons and three daughters, who are: Geo. A. Culy of Roseburg; Cary W. Culy of Jacksonville; Clement N. Culy of Grants Pass, Allen B. Culy of Medford, Frank O. Culy of San Diego, Calif., Mrs. Laura Owen of Medford, Mrs. Nellie Long of Grants Pass and Miss Mildred Culy of Ashland. Mr. Culy's wife died about a year ago in this city.

Mrs. Loveland, of the Enders clerical force, is taking a week's vacation, her place in the office being filled by Mrs. Thompson of Gresham street.

A meeting of the Crater Lake project development committee, of which Governor Olegott is honorary chairman, has been arranged to be held at Medford within three weeks, when details for placing the Oregon resort on a real basis will be taken up. A meeting of the committee was held in Portland yesterday, when plans for the further action were made.

William F. Isaacs and George T. Collins, members of the Crater Lake development project committee from Medford were in attendance at the latter meeting.

The Ashland Auto Company is making an excellent start in the sales of new cars this spring. Among citizens of this city and vicinity who have purchased new automobiles from this company are A. R. Squires, who has a new 5-passenger '21 model Buick; Claude Millet, a new 7-passenger Buick; J. J. Robinson, a new 5-passenger Buick, and H. C. Johnson, a new 460 Chevrolet.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

Mrs. Susie L. Allen has completed through her real estate office the sale of a small house and lot on Palm avenue belonging to Frode Frøderion of Norway, to Lewis H. Jacks.

Mr. Frøderion was a former architect in Ashland, who drew the plans of a number of the large business blocks in the city. He later returned to his native land, Norway, but still retained property in this city.

Mrs. Howard Barrett was up from Talent yesterday visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Shinn, and other friends.

Rev. E. J. Conaty, rector of the local Catholic church, was a personal acquaintance of the late Cardinal Gibbons, whose death occurred in Baltimore yesterday.

Chief of Police Hatcher found an automobile on A street yesterday that had been left there a day or so ago, by two good looking young men, whom residents state, drove the car to that section. The chief wired to Sacramento, from whence the car had come, for information regarding it and received word from an insurance company that, as carriers of insurance on this car they were responsible for its return to the owner, and to notify them if it is in good running order. Chief Hatcher has not yet solved the mystery of the car's appearance in Ashland.

The three airplanes that passed over Ashland yesterday at about 1 o'clock contained forest service men going to the conference in session in Portland today to consider plans for making a reconnaissance from the air of the tornado swept belt of big timber in the northwestern section of the Olympic peninsula. The planes were from Mather field, California.

Hot cross buns occupy a prominent place in the menu of many homes throughout the country today. This old-time custom dates from ancient times, and each year finds adherents who still cling to the idea of serving hot cross buns on Good Friday.

Leslie Payne went over to Hiltz yesterday, where he expects to get employment for the coming summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pace have purchased the building on East Main street formerly occupied by the Overland Shoe Shop, and have moved it to their lot on Harrison street. The building is being remodeled and added to, and will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Pace as a residence when completed. They will have a handsome home in the near future.

W. S. Stancelliff, who underwent an operation in a local hospital recently, is getting along nicely, from last reports, and expects to be removed to his home at Phoenix shortly.

A verdict for State Superintendent of Banks Bramwell for $2543.14 against J. E. Bartlett of Medford, was awarded by a jury in the circuit court of Jacksonville yesterday. Bramwell brought action for the recovery of money alleged to be due the Jacksonville bank on a promissory note and overdraft, totalling $3893.

An epidemic of what is known as Manila smallpox has been prevalent in Talent. The schools were closed for a few days last week, but the disease is claimed to be under control. Only a few cases were reported, and these, it is claimed, were of a very mild form.

The following from Portland are stopping at the Hotel Austin: Rev. T. P. Smith, R. W. Hinner, F. E. Bigelow, J. M. McIntosh, C. S. Lipschutt, R. E. Bradshaw and Geo. H. Kaiser.

F. G. Ostland is in Ashland this week from the Montana oil fields, where he brings good reports from that rich find in the liquid gold that is flowing in quantities from the bowels of the earth. Mr. Ostland states a good well was recently brought in on a quarter section adjacent to that belonging to the Ashland syndicate, and the territory is fast being taken up by representatives from all over the country.

Good Friday is being observed in the various churches today by religious services. A union prayer service was held in the Baptist church from 12 to 1 today, while the Catholic and Episcopal churches held services this afternoon and the Methodist Episcopal church announces special services this evening.

Rex Stratton, well known in Eugene as a former organist at the Rex theatre, arrived in the city recently for a visit with relatives and friends. He has been located at Ashland, Klamath Falls and Portland since leaving Eugene. In Portland he has had opportunity to handle one of the largest theatre organs.—Eugene Guard.

Californians registered at the Austin include L. C. Francis and wife of Loomis, Evelyn Chapman, Alice Packwood and Jess Sylvia of Dunsmuir and J. A. G. Schiller of San Francisco.

D. A. Applegate is dealing out law and equity at Jacksonville as a juror this week. F. D. Wagner is also occupying a like position.

Mrs. A. R. Wright, who has been visiting her daughter in Yakima, Wash., for several months, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. A. W. Gray and son Roy are in Ashland this week from Morley, Calif., guests at the homes of C. A. Cotter and Mrs. C. M. Bomar.

Charles Graham and mother, Mrs. E. G. Elgin, are here from Dorris, Calif., and are camping in the park for about a month. Miss Dauchy is a cousin of Miss Elizabeth Palmer.

Captain W. M. Briggs left last night for Salem where he was called to attend a general staff meeting today.

Guests from the north who are stopping at the Austin include C. C. Cooper and wife of Hoquiam, Wash., C. Clark and wife and C. R. Nelson of Salem, George Cook and C. J. Smith of Eugene, C. A. Fairbanks of Centralia, Wash., and W. L. Campbell of Tillamook.

Californians registered at the Hotel Austin are Mrs. A. Wuelzer of Oakland, S. Corruon and wife, J. Isaacs, H. Franklin, N. E. Lipman and M. Kom of San Francisco, L. M. McKee and wife of San Diego, C. Hanson and F. Gray of San Jose, Dolly Gray Arnett of Sisson, and Paul M. Lyon of Hilt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Loucks, who have been spending the winter in Southern California, are in Ashland visiting for a few days while on their way to their home in Port Oxford.

The following from Oakland were week end guests in Ashland stopping at the Hotel Columbia: E. J. Svendsen, Chester Svendsen, Emeile Svendsen and Mrs. B. G. Arnold.

Miss Thelma Throne, who has been a guest of Mrs. Verne Carey and other Ashland friends for the past week, left Sunday for her home in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Steele of Tacoma are in Ashland, guests of the former's brother, George Steele.

Mrs. Fred Gardnershire and son Charles, wife and son of an S. P. conductor, arrived on train No. 15, from Portland, Friday evening, and were Easter guests of Mrs. Alex Hall and Mrs. J. M. Easterling.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Nelson arrived home yesterday from California, where they had been spending several weeks with friends in various sections of that state.

Olaf A. Hansen and J. N. Taylor of Medford, were registered at the Austin today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Gall also came in from Bellview, thus forming a family reunion.

Mrs. Van Dyke and daughters, also Misses Esther and Doris Kleinhammer, all of Morton street, spent Easter with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kleinhammer at the ranch on Applegate.

Mrs. Henry Reid returned home this morning from San Francisco, where she had been visiting with her son for the past week or so.

Rev. E. H. Edgar, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Central Point, and his wife were Ashland visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Phoebe Wright is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Lynch.

WEDNESDAY'S NEWS

Mrs. Will Densmore left Monday night for Leon, Ky., where she expects to spend the coming summer with friends.

Stopping at the Hotel Columbia are: C. R. Lonsdale and wife and Eugene D. Bell of San Francisco, Grete V. Bergon of Tacoma, Kirk and H. E. Shelley of Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cartwright and children, Susan and Charles, arrived in Ashland last evening from the south where they had been spending the winter, and stopped over night in this city before continuing their journey to their home in Dawson, Mich.

Mrs. Bert Orr of Medford was an Ashland caller yesterday afternoon.

Ural Coleman was in Medford yesterday transacting business.

Mrs. Byron Leabo of Rogue River visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. L. Heer, a few days this week, after which she left for Portland to be the guest of relatives, for several weeks.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Emma E. Pellet, who died at her home on Glen Drive, Sunday, was held from the Stock Undertaking parlors yesterday afternoon. Rev. Walter L. Evans, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, conducted the services, which were attended by a large concourse of friends and neighbors of the deceased. Interment was made in Mountain View cemetery.

Mrs. J. L. Heer and Mrs. Levi Stevens spent Saturday in Medford.

Dr. and Mrs. B. E. Smith and Mrs. Anna Barham left this morning in the latter's car for Lewiston, Idaho, where they will visit for some time with Dr. and Mrs. Smith's daughter, who resides there. They expect to make the entire trip by motor.

Criminal action against J. E. Bartlett, who was being tried in circuit court for aiding and abetting a bank cashier to defraud a bank was dismissed yesterday, and civil action was started against Bartlett by State Superintendent of Banks Bramwell for the recovery of money alleged to be due on a promissory note and overdraft to the amount of $3890.

S. M. Starr is taking charge of the home property of Dr. D. E. Smith while the latter is away on his vacation to Lewiston, Idaho.

A short course for commercial club secretaries of the state will be held on the campus of the University of Oregon next week, starting March 29 and running to April 2. Prominent speakers from all over the state will be present, and special classes in various important topics concerning the work of secretaries of commercial clubs will be held. Secretary Fuller of the Ashland Chamber of Commerce expects to attend the school.

Guests at the Hotel Austin include: W. L. Campbell of Tillamook, J. W. Hammell and S. S. Gilbert of Albany, Harry Meyer, Louis Tonzini, Dinah Vivorell and Peter Dort Sauto of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Newmarch of White Horse, Dr. C. L. Clark of Portland, John Struck of Cottonwood, Idaho, J. A. Sullivan of Los Angeles, H. R. Schroeder and family of Spokane, Chas. Howard of England, Mrs. A. MacManany of Detroit, Mich., B. W. Hoff of Bellingham and H. C. Betard of New York.

The fire department was called out last night to the residence of H. L. Moore on Vista street to quell a blaze burning back of the fireplace in their living room. The jamb was burning and the fire was in a fair way to communicate with the rest of the walls. It required tearing out the mantel to get to the blaze, but aside from that little damage resulted.

The show windows of the dry goods store of E. R. Isaac & Co., are undergoing extensive improvements with paint and decoration. As soon as completed they will make a marked addition to the store.

C. H. Benson, who is employed at Medford, expects to move his family to that city in the near future.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

Tourists are beginning to make their appearance by automobile from all directions, which is an indication that the roads are in unusually good condition for this time of year. An automobile containing a party arived in Ashland this week from St. Paul, Minn. These tourists stated they made the trip in twelve days, coming by the northern route, and going south. The speed with which this trip was made shows the roads are exceptionally good.

Philip S. Bates, former secretary of the Oregon State Editorial association, and who is now connected with the Northwest Manufacturer, of Portland, was a caller in Ashland yesterday. Mr. Bates has just returned from a trip east as far as Chicago, and states conditions throughout the country are generally picking up and regaining normalcy.

Mrs. J. H. Provost, who has been an inmate of a Medford hospital for some time, where she underwent a serious operation, is so far recovered that she expects to return home within a few days.

The old show windows in the Boot Shop have been torn out and new, modern ones are being built to take their place. These will be fitted with glass doors at the back, and will be attractively made to lend to artistic decorations. When completed they will make handsome addition to the store.

Mrs. N. H. Harrison received word from her parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Hoover and son Meade, who left Sunday for San Francisco, that they had arrived safely in that city. The trip was made in a Ford Sedan and they were only two days on the way. They report the roads in good condition practically all the way.

The condition of Miss Liberta Gore, while still serious, was regarded this afternoon as a little improved, as was the condition of Miss Edith Gore, which is now not regarded as serious as that of her sister.—Medford Mail-Tribune.

Guests registered at the Hotel Columbia are James H. Hutton and C. G. Leland of Dunsmuir, Guy Fruit of Spokane, O. Emerson Smith of Louisa and E. L. Coburn of Portland.

Kenneth Lilly, who has been spending the past week in Ashland with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lilly, leaves today to resume his studies at Stanford university.

Mrs. J. M. Wagner, who has been visiting with her daughter, Miss Bessie Wagner at Berkeley, is now visiting her son, Carroll, in Los Angeles. She expects to remain away several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Waterman, who have been guests of friends in Ashland for the past week or so from Salem, have gone to Talent to locate.

Miss Harriet Ruger was in Grants Pass the fore part of the week, the guest of Miss Dorothy Howard of that city.

Everybody is invited and urged to be present at the noon-day services to be held at the Baptist church next Friday under the auspices of the Ashland Ministerial association, 12 to 1 p. m.

Fred E. Walters has been notified of his election and has accepted the position of general secretary and treasurer of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers of Division Fifty-Three, which covers the entire Southern Pacific company lines. Headquarters are maintained in San Francisco, and he departed Saturday on train No. 53 to take up his new duties at that place. He has been local chairman of the Shasta District ever since it was created some fourteen years ago and his splendid work in that office has won for him this advancement. Mrs. Walters and children will follow in a few weeks after disposing of their home property here. Mr. and Mrs. Walters came to Ashland fifteen years ago and have taken an active part in the church and social life of the city and their many friends sincerely regret their departure.

The Fossil Journal contains the following concerning the man who left here a week or so ago by automobile for Eastern Oregon: E. R. Laughlin, accompanied by Robert Johnson, and Dick Barnhouse, accompanied by Chas. G. Millet, arrived in automobiles from Ashland, Oregon, last Wednesday, having made the trip by way of Portland in four days. The first day they drove 92 miles and staid at Canyonville; the next day they drove 75 miles to Jefferson; the next day, 172 miles to The Dalles, and the next day, 118 miles by way of Arlington home. The only real bad road they found on the 500-odd miles was the Smith hill this side of Ashland. Messrs. Barnhouse and Laughlin expect the worst roads of the trip from here home to Mitchell.

The city electricians finished installing the last of the meters to lighting consumers in the city this week. This does away with all flat rates in lighting, and is considered a much more economical way of using electricity.

F. G. Lewis, traveling agent of the traffic department of the Southern Pacific company, was in Ashland yesterday from Eugene looking after business interests in this vicinity.

Guests at the Hotel Austin are Frank M. Barrett and H. W. Ireland of Portland, F. G. Lewis and Frank W. Stoll of Eugene, B. O'Brien of Hornbrook, G. R. Cameron and wife of Tacoma, and H. B. Symes of San Francisco.

Miss Ruth Mars came home last evening from Medford, where she is attending St. Mary's academy, for the Easter vacation.

Mrs. W. H. McNair, Mrs. Milton Fraley and little son Billie, are in Pacific Grove, Calif., where they are guests of their father, W. P. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Northrup are moving this week from the Shook apartments where they have been living during the past winter, to 114 Mechanic street.

Mrs. Agnes Broughton returned home the first of the week from Edgewood where she had taken her young son to place him in school for the balance of the year.

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Smith recently bought the C. W. Fraley residence at 78 Fourth street through the Beaver Realty company.

Miss Eleanor Greer was an over Sunday visitor at the home of Mrs. S. S. Smith of Medford. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Smith and daughter, Mrs. Beaumont DeLosh, who spent the day in Ashland.

It is a sign of spring when the birds begin to return to the north, but a surer sign of spring was indicated when three airplanes passed over Ashland today about 1 o'clock. The planes were from the south and were headed north.

G. C. Culy, a former resident of Ashland died yesterday afternoon at 5:20 o'clock at the home of his son, A. B. Culy, in Medford after an illness extending over 18 months. Funeral services will be held from the Perle funeral home in Medford at 1:30 p. m., Saturday, March 26, and interment will be made in Mountain View cemetery, Ashland. When a resident in Ashland, Mr. Culy lived on Mountain avenue, where his wife died over a year ago.

NEW GARDEN TOOLS.
New Spray Pumps.
New Spray Hose.
New Garden Hoe.
New Iron Age Hand Cultivators.
New Sewing Machines.
Used Sewing Machines.
Sold or rented by the month.

PEIL'S CORNER
BY THE PARK

See
Provost Bros.
Window Display
It Will Pay You

THE LARGEST STOCK OF Paints
Oils
Glass and Wall Paper
IN SOUTHERN OREGON.
Best Goods and Best Prices.
Get Our Prices.
WM. O. DICKERSON
THE PAINT MAN

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND HAVE YOU MARKED
the number of people who are camping on the trail of your small coin?
Why not hang onto it yourself?
Start a Savings Account in This Strong Bank TODAY.
4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

At Perrine's Sale
Ladies' and Children's Buster Brown Hose
Black, Brown and White - - - -25c
DRUMMER SAMPLES
Ladies Underwear now on sale
Your Dollar is Worth More Now
GET WISE