JESSE WINBURN PLEASED WITH ASHLAND

May Have to House Tourists in Private Homes

Jesse Winburn, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Moses and party arrived in Ashland about 7:30 Saturday evening a little ahead of schedule and are at the Austin Hotel. Yesterday, in company with Professor Vining, they made a trip to Longs cabin, where they expected to make their summer home, taking a fine lunch and cooking outfit and spending a very pleasant day amidst the glories of the big outdoors. They expressed themselves as much pleased with the beauty of the place and the grandeur of the canyon.

About noon today, Mr. Winburn and party left for a motoring party to Medford. They are expected back this evening. Newcomers to Ashland and hotel guests are flocking to this city so rapidly that private homes may have to be resorted to in order to house the great influx of tourists, A. Austin Christolm, manager of the Austin hotel stated today.

Tidings Staff Hears More of Super Hen

Recently the Tidings published an account of the achievement of a hen owned by Mrs. Lou Reeder, 71 Gresham, a hen that laid an egg measuring nine inches the long way and seven inches around. The Tidings staff said it was some egg. But recently Mrs. Reeder broke the egg, whether from curiosity or a sense of the economic value the Tidings does not know. But it was broken. The egg was more remarkable on the inside than it was from an exterior view of its physical proportions. Inside the outer shell was a complete egg, shell and all, in addition to one complete yolk and white without a shell. In the eyes of the Tidings staff the value of the hen that laid that egg has been considerably enhanced.

A Man is just as Young and Strong as his Blood

No man can fight the battles of life and hold his own if his blood is not pure, for rich, red blood is what strength is based upon. When you see a strong, vigorous man, who never knows when he is licked, you may wonder that such a man has coursing through his veins rich, red blood. Many people have thin, pale blood. They are weak, tire easily, become discouraged quickly, and sometimes feel like giving up the struggle. Such folks need Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is sold by druggists in liquid or tablet form. It is made up of Blood root, Oregon Grape root, Queen's root, Stone root, Cherry Bark, without alcohol. Send 10c. to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial package of the tablets. OLYMPIA, WASH.—"My husband always uses Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery as a stomach medicine and tonic, and declares that it is the best medicine in the world."—Mrs. J. E. FOSTER, Cor. Pear and Spring Streets.

ASHLAND BALL TEAM RUN UP SCORE IN YREKA GAME

With Yreka on the small end of a 9 to 5 score made in the baseball game played at Yreka, Calif. Saturday afternoon, between the Ashland and Yreka high schools, the local team marched off the diamond, victors, at the end of a game featured by clever pitching on the part of "Chuck" Rush, a local boy. The team was accompanied to Yreka by Coach Hughes. Both teams scored in the first part of the game, Ashland making two runs in the second inning and one in the fourth inning. From then on, with a 3 to 3 score, the game was nip and tuck until the last of the eighth inning when Yreka's pitching weakened and the local boys put two men over the home plate. In the ninth inning Guthrie of the local line-up knocked and a three bagger followed by a single by George High. The line-up of the local team follows: "Shy" Heer, catcher; "Chuck" Rush, pitcher; Elton Ramsey, first base; "Butch" Hill, second base; Albert Guthrie, short stop; Mings Aitken, third base; Gerry High, left field; Francis Winter, center field, and Ralph Moore, right field. The team was captained by George High. Starting today, weather permitting, a tennis tournament will be in progress at the high school. Playing in the mornings, at noon, and in the evenings, the winners are expected to be announced by Saturday of this week. The games will be played in singles and open to boys only. Four prizes are being offered to the winners. The first prize is a tennis racket to be given by Enders sporting goods store. The remaining prizes, three tennis balls, two balls, and one ball it is expected will be given by the high school. B. C. Forsythe, principal of the high school will judge the merits of the players.

NEW GRAIN CLEANING DEVICE TO BE GIVEN THOROUGH TEST

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 25.—An aspirator to be used in cleaning wheat by removing smut dust and foreign material at time of thrashing is being developed by E. N. Bates, of the United States department of agriculture. Tests with a preliminary model resulted in the removal of approximately one-third of what is ordinarily classed as dockage, and the investigators are optimistic as to the possibility of increasing this amount. Farmers and thrashermen who have seen the model work are quite pronounced in their favorable comment. It remains to be seen whether it can be brought to a degree of efficiency comparable with the commercial cleaners furnished with thrashers sent to foreign countries. There is objection to these latter on account of the cost, weight, (approximately 1,000 pounds), the necessity of additional power, and the fact that they are an obstruction on the deck of the thrashing machine. The aspirator being developed by Mr. Bates is attached to the head of the elevator, hence, causes no obstruction to the deck of the separator. It weighs approximately 100 pounds and it requires for operation an additional one-half horsepower only. Cleaning grain at the time of thrashing and thereby saving the farmer the additional expense for cleaning his grain after it has been put in the bins, or saving the charges for cleaning at the elevator, is a factor in efficient marketing, now being developed by the bureau of markets. Arrangements are being made to give the new device a try out in the spring wheat section of the Central Northwest during the coming thrashing season.

BERT R. GREER COMPARES ASHLAND WITH CALIFORNIA

Bert R. Greer, well known to Ashland residents as editor of the Tidings, has recently returned to this city from Southern California, a section which plumes itself as a tourist centre and a playground rendezvous for people from all parts of the country. Mr. Greer gives some interesting side lights on California as compared with Ashland and Oregon.

"To the lover of natural grandeur," said Mr. Greer, who has returned from several months sojourn in Southern California, "where the art and ingenuity of man has tickled the desert with a magic wand and made a garden of beauty out of sand dunes, it is a delight to come into this natural environment where the might and majesty of God is exemplified on every hand in wild and profligate glory. "In Southern California is evidenced the value of the intelligent employment of millions and millions of dollars in aesthetic development—grand boulevards, tremendous water and shipping projects—rose gardens, magnificent homes and perfume laden orange groves, transforming a desert waste into a bee hive of activity and prosperity and there is great inspiration in that, but it has not the real kick in it that one experiences by a walk through Ashland's park and up the canyon into God's primeval country where the Creator has spread beauty with lavish hand and finished the picture with a marvelous stream of crystal mountain water, whirling and singing between natural walls of solid masonry on its way to practical domestic utilization by the finest little home city on earth. That is real and lasting inspiration. "And then, aside from that, consider the matchless foundation here supplied for resort and aesthetic development. Nature here has already accomplished that which the employment of millions of dollars can never achieve in a less favored environment. All to the tremendous advantage of Ashland and her people in forwarding the resort development which has been her dream for several years. The foundation, nature surely has well laid for successful fruition. Now it is up to men to properly apply these advantages and bring out of them the splendid activity and prosperity that may be realized in the immediate future by harmonious, intelligent effort. "Take it from me, though not a prophet, nor the son of a prophet, Ashland will splendidly accomplish the great purpose. She has the spirit."

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT CLUB DISCUSSES ASHLAND PROJECTS

The second regular meeting of the reorganized Civic Improvement Club was held in Pioneer hall Tuesday afternoon with an enthusiastic membership and a number of guests in attendance. The business meetings before the program disclosed the fact that the three weeks since the first meeting had been busy ones for several committees. Mrs. O. Winter as chairman of the committee on the monument to be erected in Lithia Park as a memorial to the Oregon Pioneers, reported that the Southern Pacific company had promised the gift of a boulder and Mrs. A. H. Russell would give the marble which would be placed on the boulder, and that Mrs. Russell would carve the inscription on the marble. The marble carved by Mrs. Russell, who is a pioneer of the early fifties, is expected to give the monument unusual interest. It is planned to have the monument ready for unveiling at the September meeting of the pioneers in Ashland. Mrs. E. D. Briggs, past president of the club and one of the Ashland women prominent in civic improvement work, outlined the needs of Ashland women for a club home and the means by which it might be made a reality. She asked for a frank discussion as to whether the work should be undertaken at this time.

ASHLAND ON EVE OF TOURIST BOOM

Ashland is on the eve of a great tourist boom if the full page list of guests at local hotels are a standard to judge by, states A. Austin Christolm, manager of the Hotel Austin. "More than half of our guests," says Mr. Christolm, "are motorists who put up here over night and frequently decide to stay a few days and sometimes a week. It speaks well for Ashland when passing tourists will change their plans to make a visit here. The Lithia water is a great attraction for all newcomers. Recently one man brought his whole party into the hotel or the purpose of drinking Lithia water at the fountain in our lobby." Tourist travel to the west during the coming summer months will be exceptionally heavy in spite of current business depression in some sections of the country, according to H. M. Albright, field assistant to the director of the national park service, who is in Oregon in connection with the projected development of Crater lake national park facilities. Mr. Albright, who is also superintendent of Yellowstone national park, is considered one of the highest authorities in the country on tourist travel conditions. He recently returned from the east, where he was in constant consultation with railroad and government officials on the tourist situation. All the railroads are planning to establish very attractive tourist rates which are designed to help the summer travel. These rates will be announced in the near future, according to Mr. Albright. Oregon has a wonderful future as the playground of America, the mecca of tourists, and the great outdoor state of the nation, in the opinion of Mr. Albright. The following new arrivals are reported at the Hotel Austin R. D. McFarland, Portland; H. A. Brubaker, Portland; A. H. Zirbel, Portland; W. S. Hale, Seattle, Wash.; A. C. Hatwood and wife, Albany, N. Y.; J. S. O'Conner and wife, Los Angeles, Calif.; W. E. Potter, Los Angeles, Calif.; W. W. Casgrove, San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. C. F. Wood and son, Elliott, Los Angeles, Calif.; John Dimmitt, Reedsport; Mrs. R. S. Steyer, Yreka, Calif.; Robert McKee, Portland; George M. Robinson, Portland; Frank L. Williams, Portland; Alfred E. Lilly, Seattle, Wash.; Paul Bargett, Seattle, Wash.; W. W. MacHenry, Portland; A. E. Bradshaw, Portland; L. J. Given, Portland; A. Hale, Portland. The following new arrivals are registered at the Columbia Hotel: W. M. Bestone, Portland; R. O. Carlson, Dunsmuir, Calif.; J. A. Wood and wife, San Francisco, Calif.; C. A. Smith and wife, San Francisco, Calif.; J. L. Harris, Beaverton; Mrs. A. J. Hewitt, Hornbrook.

ENTERTAINING PROGRAM

An instrumental solo by Mrs. Mabel Jacobs and an instrumental solo by Miss Dougherty added to the attractiveness of the program. With Mrs. C. H. Gillette as chairman of program and Mrs. P. K. Hammond assisting the club is assured of programs of the best for the entire year.

Presidents of several of the women's clubs were present and expressed their desire to co-operate with the Civic Club in the new program for a concentrated effort toward civic betterment and a more cordial welcome to the passing tourist stranger.

Several women who have only recently come to make their homes in Ashland were at the meeting and voiced their pleasure at having a pleasant meeting with so many of the Ashland women.

Miss Grace Chamberlain, the club president, expressed her assurance because of the accepting spirit of the women. This was illustrated by the fact that not one woman appointed to office had refused to serve. Mesdames McRee and Orres were social hostesses for the afternoon and served cake and coffee. The company lingered and chatted an hour after adjournment.

NOTED ORCHESTRA TO VISIT MEDFORD

The Philharmonic Orchestra, which comes to the Page theatre at Medford, April 29, is credited, under the management of Walter Henry Rothwell, of putting Los Angeles, its home city, on the musical map of the world. Seventy-five artists from this orchestra which since its formation two years ago has divided the musical attention of the country, its foundation was through W. A. Clark Jr., who has spent a fortune on its perfection. A barrister of profession, Mr. Clark ever since his boyhood days has loved music. A collection of string instruments used by a quartet maintained by him and meeting at his palatial Los Angeles home for years manifested his active love for music. His valuable collection of books and manuscripts contains priceless letters and original scripts from great music masters. With the endowment of a big orchestra, perfected to the highest European standards this patron of the arts has made a gift to the West which will be fully realized only in the course of this great tour. In Mr. Rothwell the orchestra possesses a leader of rare ability. Conductor Rothwell won his spurs as director in the opera pit. His service in that capacity brought him an offer from Sol. Savage whose English Grand Opera Company was the talk of musical America when Mr. Rothwell wedded the baton. Then followed years of meteoric rise as a leader of large orchestras. Under his regime the St. Paul Symphony Orchestra rose to fame, toured extensively including Canada. Last year he conducted the National Symphony of New York.

CITY FACES HOUSING PROBLEM

General feeling among Ashland business men indicates the expectation of a more prosperous tourist season than any preceding year. A. Austin Christolm, manager of the Hotel Austin, is especially optimistic. "The travel this winter has been without a break with the exception of a ten day snow blockade between Sion and Grenada. Such travel is without precedent and is caused by the better road conditions now prevailing. There has been a team of horses stationed at Summit Hill all through the winter under orders of the state government for the purpose of assisting motorists who might be troubled in making the ascent during the bad weather periods of the year.

TO KEEP BUTTER FROM SPOILING

For the benefit of Ashland butter makers who have trouble in keeping their butter sweet after churning, a Tidings reader submits the following from the Western Farmer: "For the benefit of the readers of Western Farmer, I am sending you my method of keeping butter fresh for a long period. Do not keep cream more than three days before churning. Have it solid when it is churned; do not put water in it while working; work most of the butter-milk out and salt and set away for a few hours, then work again and pack in jars that have never held lard. Cover with cloth and pour over brine strong enough to float an egg. Store in a cool cellar. I have kept butter for a year in good condition by this method.—Subscriber, Oregon. Sometime ago I noticed a request in Western Farmer for a recipe for preserving butter. Following is a method that I have found very successful: Cut pound cakes of butter in half and place in a stone jar. Keep submerged in a moderately strong brine in this manner will keep for weeks and is sweet and ready for use at any time.—Mrs. Ollie Jones, Kimberly, Idaho.

Y. M. C. A. DECIDES ON BALL SCHEDULE

The Board of Control of the Ashland Y. M. C. A. Athletic League met the first of the week and agreed upon their local baseball schedule. Five Sunday schools have made application for membership in the League. The Baptists, Methodists and Presbyterians are determined to fight their own battles without help from anyone. The Christian and Congregational schools are going to mix their sturdiest and divide the honors coming to the C. C. team equally, share and share alike. The Baptists say that if it will only keep on raining they can beat 'em all, but the Presbyterians say it is predestined and foreordained that they should win, rain or shine, while the Methodists talk as 'though it was all done but the shouting', and there ain't none of 'em can beat us on that." Each Sunday school is to be represented by a Junior team and a Senior team, and the schedules for each League for the first month are as follows: The Junior League games will be played Saturday at 9 a. m., and 10:30 a. m., commencing April 30; April 30—1. Baptists vs. Methodists. 2. Presbyterians vs. Congregationalists and Christians. May 7—1. Methodists vs. Presbyterians. 2. Baptists vs. C. & C. May 14—1. C. & C. vs. Methodists. 2. Presbyterians vs. Baptists. May 21—1. Methodists vs. Presbyterians. 2. Baptists vs. C. & C. May 28—1. Baptists vs. Methodists. 2. Presbyterians vs. C. & C. The Senior League games will be played Wednesday and Thursday at 6:15, commencing May 4th. May 4—Methodists vs. Baptists. May 5—Presbyterians vs. C. & C. May 11—Presbyterians vs. Baptists. May 12—Baptists vs. C. & C. May 18—Methodists vs. C. & C. May 19—Presbyterians vs. Baptists. May 25—Methodists vs. Presbyterians. May 26—Baptists vs. C. & C. It is planned to play all games at the high school grounds. The Athletic League has a twofold purpose: First, giving clean and healthful recreation and exercise to a considerable number of boys and men who would otherwise have the opportunity for it; Second, building up and strengthening the Sunday schools by creating a wholesome rivalry in athletic games. The scheme which has been adopted has been tried out for years in many places and is no new experiment. Grants Pass and Eugene have been at it for a number of years and it has been of increasing interest in these places. Five of the Medford churches are putting on a similar schedule and when the winners of the Ashland pennant are determined we will have a chance to cross bats with our neighbors down the valley. Other forms of athletics will probably come in for an airing in due season, such as track and field, aquatics, indoor baseball, volley ball, etc.
