

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

MONDAY'S NEWS

Weather for the Week—

"Generally fair and normal temperatures" is predicted for this week by the weather bureau of the department of agriculture at Washington, D. C.

Montague Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, 168 East Main street, were pleasantly surprised yesterday by visitors from Montague, Calif. The guests entertained were: A. Simmons and family, Walter Simmons and family, Charles Wright and family, E. S. Parrish and family, Charles Shock and family. The visitors motored home yesterday evening.

Highway Engineer Returns—

George E. MacVicar returned yesterday from a motoring trip that took him as far north as Seattle and the Canadian border. Mr. MacVicar made the trip with his family who are now visiting friends in the northern cities.

On Hiking Trip—

Misses Maude York, Ruth Eke and Lucy Davis left at 6 o'clock this morning on a two weeks hiking trip to Lake O' Woods, Crater Lake and other points of interest. The fair hikers carried blankets and "grub." Although prepared to walk the entire distance they admitted they wouldn't refuse a "lift" from passing tourists.

Return from Lake O' Woods—

J. H. McGee and family returned yesterday from a weeks camping trip at Lake O' Woods.

On Vacation—

Mrs. Selma Gray, an employee at McGee's dry goods store, will leave tomorrow morning for Alameda, Calif., where she will spend a weeks vacation with her parents.

Leaves for Portland—

J. K. McWilliams and N. H. Harrison left for Portland this morning where they will attend a Fordson tractor demonstration as representatives of the local Ford agency. They will be gone for three days.

Rev. Hok Lecture Enjoyed—

Rev. Anton Hok, pastor of a New York Czech-Slovak church, spoke to a large audience at the First Baptist church yesterday evening. Rev. Hok has an interesting lecture concerning the struggle of Czech-Slovak for freedom and a government which he stated was modeled after that of the United States.

Leave for Corvallis—

Mrs. Cora D. Van Fossen and sister, Mrs. Anna R. Mason and son, George Mason, left this morning for Corvallis where they will visit friends.

Thirty Days for Water Melon Thieves—

J. Grier and John Kelley, said by police to be from "nowhere and on their way back," sentenced to 30 days in the county jail by Judge Gowdy this morning for "lifting" watermelons from a freight car in the Southern Pacific company yards. The men were apprehended yesterday by Patrolmen Priest.

Vacationers Return—

J. H. Provost, A. H. Pracht and J. P. Wolfe returned yesterday from a two weeks camping and motoring trip to Portland, Seattle and other northern cities. They report the roads in good condition.

Trigonon Completes Casing—

The Trigonon well force has completed setting the ten-inch casing which will be cemented in today. Direct reaming of the eight-inch part of the well (525 feet) with a ten-inch bit, will be done as soon as the cement is safely set.

Dunn Family Moves—

The L. C. Dunn family have moved from their former residence, 117 Laurel street, to 582 Allison street.

SATURDAY'S NEWS

Former Resident Returns—

After an absence of seventeen years, Mrs. C. F. Haynie, formerly Miss Effie Grizzel, returned to Ashland this week and was the honor guest at a dinner party given by her sister, Mrs. M. W. Selzer, of this city. Mrs. Haynie's home is now in University Place, Neb. A brother, G. D. Grizzel, of Klamath Falls, and two sisters, Mrs. Irene Fry, and Mrs. Belus Pollock, completed the family reunion.

Return from Roseburg—

Miss Mabel Trott and Mary Reams returned from Roseburg today after a day spent in Roseburg, the home of Miss Reams. Miss Reams is the guest of Miss Trott here, but was called to Roseburg suddenly owing to the unexpected departure of friends.

Visits Parents—

A. W. Herbert has been entertaining his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. Herbert, of Farmington, Calif., during the week. Mrs. C. C. Clark, of Soulsbyville, Calif., also a daughter of Mr. Herbert, arrived with Mr. and Mrs. S. Herbert by auto over the coast route. While here they visited Mrs. Ralph Billings, another sister.

Former Phipps Property Leased—

What was formerly known as the E. E. Phipps property, on Chestnut street, purchased last year by Harry Reed, has been leased to Mr. Evans, a new arrival from Bend. The place is reputed to have one of the best cherry orchards in the city.

Changes Residence—

Mrs. Anna Russell has moved from her old home at the corner of Third and C streets to 657 C street. The move was occasioned by the sale of her former home.

Medford Visitor—

Fred L. Taylor, of Medford, representing the Iowa Life Insurance company, was in the city today on business.

Leave for Crater Lake—

Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Brower, Miss Voda Brower, Allen, Norma and Carl Brower, left last evening on an auto trip to Crater Lake.

Will Return in September—

Mrs. H. O. Gilmore is having a delightful visit with relatives at Oakland Beach, R. I., according to letters received here from Mrs. Gilmore by friends. Mrs. Gilmore is planning on an extended visit with her neices at Newport, after which she will return to Ashland about September 20.

Leave for California—

John H. Fuller, secretary of the Ashland Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Fuller left this morning for Palo Alto, Calif., on business.

Camas Valley Visitors—

C. W. Sharp and family, of Camas Valley, Douglas county, are visiting at the home of Chief of Police Hatcher. Mrs. Sharp is a daughter of Chief Hatcher. Mr. Sharp is the former proprietor of the general merchandise store at Camas Valley. The family will make a motor tour of California as part of an extended outing trip.

Visits Daughter—

Mrs. Grubb, who has been in California for the past several months, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Henry Carter, on Mountain avenue.

Steward Car Retrieved—

The H. C. S. car that went over an eighty foot embankment Thursday evening near Steinman, was retrieved yesterday with the use of block and tackle by the Overland garage. Mrs. Steward, owner of the car, stated this morning that the car suffered only minor injuries and came into the city under its own power, after having been pulled back to the highway.

Six Pound Baby Boy—

A six pound baby son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Demsey, St. Helens, Or., Sunday, according to word received here by friends of Mrs. Demsey, who is a former Ashland girl, and will be remembered as Miss Onelta Barnard.

Leaves for Jefferson—

Rev. Charles A. Edwards, pastor of the Methodist church, left yesterday evening for Jefferson, where he will attend a business meeting of the Epworth League board of control. Rev. Edwards will return on time for Sunday services.

Wertz Family Have Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wertz, of 134 Manzanita street, are receiving a visit from Onting, Wash., and Roseman, Mont., relatives.

Camping at Applegate—

Mr. and Mrs. William Denton and children, of 111 Laurel street, are spending a few days outing on the Applegate river.

Visitors at Barber Home—

Grant Turnbaugh, Miss Anna Turnbaugh and Miss Martha Turn-

baugh, of Cambridge, O., and Miss Grace Rein, of Detroit, Mich., are guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barber, on Granite street. They have been through Yellowstone Park, and will return east by a southern route.

Twelve Pound Baby—

A fine twelve pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Fraley at Granite City hospital at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Portland Visitor—

Sam A. Mesher, manager of the Army Goods store at Portland, was a visitor at the local Army Goods store here yesterday.

Will Return from Portland—

Messrs. J. H. Provost, J. P. Wolfe and J. H. Pracht, who have been spending the past few weeks on a motoring trip to northern parts of the state, will return the early part of next week, according to a telegram received yesterday by Mrs. Provost.

Recovers from Illness—

Mrs. C. D. Wineland has recovered from an illness that has confined her to her home for the last several days.

Applegate Campers Return—

Mrs. J. H. Provost, Mrs. M. C. Lawrence, Mrs. C. H. Pierce, and Harry Coy have returned from the Swayne ranch, where they had been spending a week's camping trip. They reported many mosquitoes, warm weather and a fine time. Mr. Pierce was originally a member of the party, but was forced to return to Ashland on business, although making several trips to the camping party during the week.

New Delivery Car—

The Lithia Bakery, recently purchased by R. H. Lockwood, formerly of Shelton, Wash., is operating a new Overland delivery car that is being used for both their retail and wholesale business. The delivery service is comparable only with that of metropolitan bakeries.

Will Visit Alaska—

George N. Kramer, local agent of the Southern Pacific company, and family left this morning by train on a vacation trip that will take them to Dawson City and Skagway, Alaska. They will make a general tour of the Northwest.

Return from Crater Lake—

Rev. W. L. Evans and family returned from Crater Lake yesterday after a two weeks visit. They report an enjoyable time.

Vacation at Newport—

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Billings are at Newport spending a three weeks vacation.

Return from Oregon Caves—

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cochran and son Fred returned yesterday from a four days trip to Illinois valley and the Oregon Caves. They were accompanied home by Roy Childs, of Kerby, who will visit in Ashland for a few days.

Montana Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ambrose, of Missoula, Mont., father and mother of Mrs. C. W. Chittin of this city, arrived yesterday, making the trip from the north in their car, stopping at Portland en route. Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose have come with the intention of making Ashland their home.

Grants Pass Visitor—

Roy Higgins, a realty dealer of Grants Pass, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Visitors from Applegate District—

Mrs. Bert Harr and two children, from Watkins on the Applegate river, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Beaver on Henry street.

Medford Visitor—

Attorney O. C. Boggs, of Medford, was in the city yesterday attending to business with V. O. N. Smith, cashier of the Citizens Bank.

Christian Jew to Lecture—

Rev. Elias Zimmerman, a Christian Jew, formerly of Russia, now of New York City, will address the people of Ashland next Thursday evening, at the Presbyterian church. There will be no admission charges, but a silver offering will be taken. Remember the date, Thursday, August 4.

Visit Relatives in Ashland—

Rev. and Mrs. John Abel and little daughter, from Everett, Wash., were guests for several days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone, on Granite street. They are making an automobile tour of Oregon and California.

THURSDAY'S NEWS

Milwaukee Visitors—

Rev. D. J. Hearne, rector of the Cathedral, Milwaukee, and Rev. E. J. Blackwell, pastor of St. Thomas

church of the same city, are guests of Rev. E. J. Conaty, pastor of the local Catholic church. The reverend gentlemen were classmates thirty or forty years ago.

Return from Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Bergner, of the Vining theatre, returned Tuesday from a two weeks visit with friends at Portland.

Return from Crater Lake—

Mrs. Beagle and son Milton, Mrs. C. Morrison and son Elmer, and B. Hinthorne, local photographer, have returned from a short trip to Crater Lake. Mr. Hinthorne took a number of fine scenic views, while at the lake.

Return from Canada—

Mrs. Ada E. Clark, owner of the L. C. Dunn home on Laurel street, which was recently damaged by fire, has returned to the city after visiting various points in Idaho and Oregon. Mrs. Dunn has just returned from Canada where she has been for the past several months. Her property on Laurel street, the damage to which was covered by fire insurance, has been repaired. The loss was estimated at $2000 at the time of the fire.

Return from California—

Miss Josephine Saunders, well known Ashland girl, has returned from Santa Cruz, Calif., where she has been teaching school, and is visiting at the home of C. W. Nims, 125 North Main street.

Medford Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. George Manning, of Medford, are visiting Miss Dorothy Jones, 293 Mountain avenue.

Hornbrook Visitors—

Mrs. George Greible and Mrs. W. V. Cantrall, of Hornbrook, are visiting Miss Maude Cantrall, 160 North Main street. Mrs. Cantrall is a sister-in-law of Miss Cantrall.

Camping at Montague—

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Looney are camping near Montague, Calif., at a sawmill owned by their son, E. K. Looney. Mr. and Mrs. Looney are taking a summer vacation outing trip, and intend to visit Crater Lake and other points of interest in Southern Oregon. They are accompanied by Mrs. George Nickerson, sister of Mrs. Looney, of Sacramento, Calif. Mr. Nickerson will join the party later.

Return from Fort Klamath—

Mrs. Fred R. Neil, Miss Lena Nelson and Perry Ashcraft have returned from Fort Klamath, where they made a flying trip to visit Mrs. Neil's brother, K. Looney, who has a ranch near that place.

Camping at Dead Indian—

Harry Mathes and family are camping at Dead Indian on the Hunt ranch, where they will remain for a month's outing.

Dr. Sawyer in Kansas—

Dr. Bertha Sawyer, who is spending the summer months in Kansas, has written to friends here that the temperature there is very warm compared to Ashland climate.

Hotel Man Due Here—

Phil Mettscham and family, of the Imperial hotel at Portland, are en route to Ashland, while making a tour of Southern Oregon. They will stop at Crater Lake before arriving here.

Leaves for Idaho—

Miss Florence Allen left yesterday evening for northern Idaho. Miss Allen will visit at Portland en route.

Surplus of Hay—

The excess of hay in Jackson county this year over livestock on the farms to consume it presents an unbalanced condition that is not at all favorable for the prosperity of the community. The county agent's office is now carrying on an inquiry in other counties in an effort to locate surplus stock for sale, especially dairy animals. Any one that contemplates buying stock to market his hay through, should get in touch with the Farm Bureau office.

Heavy Traffic over Siskiyou—

Record kept recently for three hours on the automobiles going over the Siskiyou mountains between Oregon and California showed 226 cars pass in that time. The check was made one hour in the morning, at the noon hour, and during an hour in the afternoon. This is more than one a minute.

Masons Appoint Deputies—

The Masonic grand lodge in recent session appointed a number of deputy grand masters. The appointee for district No. 1, including lodges at Ashland, Medford, Jacksonville and Central Point, in Jackson county, and Grants Pass and Kerby in Josephine county, was Stuart Saunders, who has removed to and gained a residence in California. Under the circumstances, George Leenhower of the Ashland lodge has been recommended for the position, an appointment which is pending.

The preliminary hearing of Philip Forester, the forger who escaped from the county jail months ago, after a dangerous attack on Bert Moses, the jailer, and who was recently captured in Seattle, will be held before Justice Taylor next Friday afternoon on the charge of assault on Moses with a dangerous weapon. It is expected that Forester will enter a plea of guilty.—Medford Mail-Tribune.

Will Try Forger—

The preliminary hearing of Philip Forester, the forger who escaped from the county jail months ago, after a dangerous attack on Bert Moses, the jailer, and who was recently captured in Seattle, will be held before Justice Taylor next Friday afternoon on the charge of assault on Moses with a dangerous weapon. It is expected that Forester will enter a plea of guilty.—Medford Mail-Tribune.

Have Narrow Escape—

Mr. and Mrs. E. Prose, of this city, had a narrow escape from death Tuesday evening, when a large fir tree fell across their car while camping at Union creek. Mr. Prose was standing beside the car when the tree fell, and only the timely warning from Mrs. Prose saved him from death beneath the wreckage. The car was badly damaged.

Nebraska Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Neese and Mr. and Mrs. Ward are Ashland visitors from Spencer, Neb., and are visiting at the home of C. Guy Crosby. Mrs. Ward is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neese. The families are here with the intention of locating in Ashland. Mr. and Mrs. Neese are the aunt and uncle of Mrs. Crosby. They are well pleased with Ashland.

Portland Engineer Visits—

Gary Kimball, from the city engineer's office at Portland, stopped in Ashland to visit his friend, Dr. Keinz while on his vacation trip. His family and brother-in-law, W. E. Wylie, accompanied him.

Former Resident Dies—

Word was received this morning by J. M. Grimsley, local meat shop proprietor, of the death of his brother-in-law, Jack Morris, at Modesto, Calif., yesterday. Mr. Morris was a former Ashland man, having at one time been proprietor of a second hand store here.

New Highway Employee—

William G. Drummond, of Gresham, Indiana, ex-service man, and employed on highway contracts by the Oscar Huber Construction company on its mountain unit of the road, is a visitor in town between shifts.

Highway Worker Leaves—

Charles E. Annon, who has been working on the highway at the Oscar Huber camp in the Siskiyou, left today with friends by auto for Portland, from which city he will go east to his old home, Belleville, Kans., where he will visit his parents.

Engineer Hodgman Returns—

District Engineer K. E. Hodgman has returned from an inspection trip over his district along the Pacific highway to Roseburg, and also a visit to the commission's office in Salem. He reports work progressing nicely.

Leaves for Maine—

Mrs. H. T. Elmore has left for Augusta, Maine, her old home. Mrs. Elmore will be gone for several weeks.

Grants Pass Visitor—

Mrs. Mary Dean, of Grants Pass, sister of Robert Neil and Mrs. J. J. Murphy, has been here of late, visiting numerous relatives.

Touring California—

Frank Hanna, Southern Pacific engineer, accompanied by his wife, is touring various California localities in the family car, by way of preference over the railway pass system.

Return from Josephine Caves—

Paul Culbertson and Lyle Same returned yesterday from Crescent City, after a camping trip to Josephine caves.

Leave for Crater Lake—

Mrs. Ida A. Taylor left this morning for Crater Lake, where she will spend a few days vacation.

Returns from Yreka—

Miss Carol Van Dyke returned yesterday from Yreka, Calif., where she had been visiting her aunt.

Dr. Jarvis Returns—

Dr. Jarvis has returned from a tour of the lake and mountain regions in this and adjacent localities.

Local Woman Newspaper Writer—

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Walters who left here in April for San Francisco when Mr. Walters was elected to the office of general secretary and treasurer of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, have purchased a fine modern bungalow in the city of Alameda and will make it their home. Mrs. Walters' health has wonderfully improved since the change was made to a sea level. Recently Mrs. Walters has been writing stories which have been purchased by the Daily Examiner.

FRIDAY'S NEWS

'Frisco Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. L. Roy Preston and Charles Preston, of San Francisco, are visiting Mrs. George Robison after an auto tour of Southern Oregon and a trip to Crater Lake.

Changes Residence—

Mrs. A. H. Russell of Ashland, has moved from her old home at the corner of Third and C streets to 657 C street. The move was occasioned by the sale of her former home.

Building New Home—

W. J. Moore, local attorney, has been moving lumber on to his vacant property just south of the high school, preparatory to erecting a new home.

Leave for Crater Lake—

The San Francisco quartet, recent Chautauqua entertainers, left yesterday for Crater Lake, where they will spend a well earned vacation.

Medford Visitor—

Miss Frances Weiser, of Medford, was an Ashland visitor on business yesterday.

Kansas Arrival—

J. E. Earhart, a former banker of Ottawa, Kans., and family, have arrived in Ashland. Mr. Earhart, a former banker of Ottawa, Kans., and family, have arrived in Ashland. Mr. Earhart, a former banker of Ottawa, Kans., and family, have arrived in Ashland.

Buy Small Ranch—

Mr. and Mrs. R. Schreider, new arrivals from Los Angeles, have purchased a ranch just east of town. The deal was made through the Beaver Realty company. Mr. Schreider was a former resident of the Rogue River valley.

H. L. Homewood Improves—

H. L. Homewood, who has been confined to his home, 125 Seaside Drive, by illness for the past week, was reported yesterday by Mrs. Homewood as improving.

Salvation Army Holds Picnic—

The Salvation Army corps from Medford held a picnic in Lithia Park Wednesday afternoon.

Medford Campers—

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lane, of Medford, have been camping for the past two weeks in Lithia Park to escape the warm weather of the valley.

Klamath Falls Visitor—

Mrs. W. O. Smith, wife of the former editor of the Klamath Falls Herald, is visiting Mrs. Emil Pell of this city. Mrs. Pell and her guest went to Jacksonville yesterday in company with Mrs. I. D. Applegate, mother of Mrs. Pell, to visit Colonel and Mrs. H. H. Sargent.

New Cook for Hotel Austin—

Pete Vasseur, the new French chef who will take charge of the kitchen at the Hotel Austin, arrived yesterday. He is accompanied by his wife. It is stated that the hotel dining room will be opened within about a week. T. J. Coffman, accompanied