

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

MONDAY'S NEWS

Return from Crescent City—

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Billings and son John have returned from Crescent City, Calif., where they have been for the past week. They were accompanied by Donald Vestall.

Sunday School Picnic—

The picnic in Lithia Park Thursday by the Christian Sunday school was quite an enjoyable affair. More than 100 were present for dinner. The tables were loaded with picnic lunches and were served in cafeteria style to the hungry picnicers. Some stunts and races by the ladies were the amusements for the afternoon.

Trains Are Delayed—

Passenger trains were held up at Grants Pass Saturday morning on account of a wreck at Hugo early that morning. A freight car was derailed and train No. 13 from the north was held up several hours. Train No. 14, north bound, was held here for an hour waiting for the south bound train to get through. The wrecker was brought down from Ashland, but the passenger had managed to get through before it reached the scene of the trouble. Nobody was hurt in the accident. The wrecked car was on freight extra 2808, west bound.—Grants Pass Courier.

Rogue Elk Picnic—

Mr. and Mrs. George Robison, Mrs. C. W. McKibbin, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Payne, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Heer and son Jimmie, and Dr. Maud Hawley composed a picnic party that motored to Rogue Elk Sunday.

Return from Crater Lake—

The C. L. Hanson and E. Daugherty families returned yesterday from Crater Lake after a week's camping trip. The Hanson family were accompanied by a guest, Adiebert Elliott, of Grants Pass.

Brush Fire—

A fire which broke out yesterday in the vicinity of the F. H. Walker home, south of Ashland street and east of Mountain avenue, burnt a strip of land about a mile long to the Bellevue district, according to citizens in that neighborhood. It is not known how the fire started, although it was at first thought to be of incendiary origin. County Fire Warden Beagle was called to the fire and with the assistance of twenty-five men managed to get the fire under control at an early hour this morning.

Miss Edith Herrin Married—

Miss Edith Herrin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Herrin, 343 North Main street, and Harvey K. Watt were married at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Herrin home by Rev. P. K. Hammond, vicar of the Trinity Episcopal church. Only relatives were present. Mr. Watt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Watt and is a Jackson county man. Further information could not be obtained this morning, as telephone calls to the Herrin home failed to bring a response. It is presumed that the entire party accompanied Fred Herrin, who left for Portland this morning.

Rich Hobo Apprehended—

Patrolman Priest, special policeman at the Southern Pacific company yards, apprehended a "side-door pullman passenger" on a slow freight train yesterday, only to find that the wandering member of the "Weary Willie fraternity" had $100.00 in Russian money on his person besides a considerable sum of American currency. Upon request the man bought a ticket to San Francisco. With the purchase of a ticket allowing him pullman car privileges, the former rider of brake beams traveled in style.

Motor to Rogue Elk—

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shell and grandson, Terrence, motored to Rogue Elk resort yesterday, returning the same day.

Leave for Crater Lake—

The H. H. Leavitt family from 440 Chestnut street, left Friday for Crater Lake. They may visit Klamath Falls before returning home.

Weather for the Week—

The weather for this week will be "generally fair with a normal temperature," according to predictions made by the weather bureau at Washington, D. C.

Savage Rapids Dam Work—

Construction work on the Savage Rapids dam has been going ahead rapidly during the past few weeks. The south end of the dam as far as the by-pass was completed Friday. The work between the by-pass and pier six, which is the present end of construction, will be ended about Tuesday. It is expected to have the north and south ends finished entirely by September 10, at which time the water will be turned from the by-pass through the power house gates. The portion of the dam through the by-pass will then be done, completing the work.—Grants Pass Courier.

Trip to Lake of the Woods—

J. K. McWilliams and Roderick Boyer made a trip to Lake of the Woods yesterday, returning the same day with Mrs. McWilliams who has been spending a few days at the lake.

Saturday Visitors—

Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Central Point; Mrs. Fletcher Fish, Phoenix; and Mrs. Denny, Scott's Valley, were business visitors in the city Saturday.

Klamath Falls Visitor—

Oliver Dews, a former Ashland man, now employed by the California-Oregon Power company at Klamath Falls, made a trip to this city Friday of last week over the Green Springs road, which he ironically reports as being "smooth as glass." Mr. Dews intended to return to Klamath Falls today.

Big Huckleberry Crop—

To Will Dodge and Harry Hosler goes the honor of making the first big haul of huckleberries this year. Will and Harry made a merry jaunt to the Dead Indian country last week and returned with, friends allege, 365 gallons of huckleberries. Local residents are now making heavy inroads on the huckleberry crop in the vicinity frequented by the two pioneer berry pickers.

Ten Day Crater Lake Campers—

Engineer Bateman, wife and daughter, and Mrs. James B. Saunders, 570 Boulevard, left last week for Crater Lake for a ten days camping trip. They went by way of Fort Klamath and will be joined later by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Walters, of Talent, and Mr. Saunders, who left today.

Returns from Cinnabar Springs—

Claude Saunders, well known tonorial artist in the Elks club, has returned from Cinnabar Springs, where he has been camping for the past two weeks.

From Frisco Hospital—

C. O. Porter, local employee of the Southern Pacific company, has returned from San Francisco where he was confined in the company hospital for several days following a serious operation.

Leave for Eugene—

Miss Crystal Jacobs and her mother, Mrs. Jacobs, who have been visiting friends here, left Saturday for Eugene, where they will spend the remainder of the school vacation. Miss Jacobs will return to Roseburg in time for the opening of the coming school year.

Return from Newport—

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Holmes have returned from Newport after an extended visit at the seashore.

Old Timer Visits—

G. N. Frazier, who put the first iron works in Ashland in 1875, is in the city visiting his old stamping grounds. He now lives in Eugene and is making a tour of Southern Oregon, including Crater Lake. This is his first stop in Ashland since 1879 and he was much impressed with the advancement of the city. He says Ashland looks good to him.

Medford Visitors—

Frank Patterson and mother, from Medford, were in Ashland Thursday.

Eugene Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. Olive Taylor and son and Mr. Taylor's sister, spent Thursday night with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Greenwood, of Liberty street. They are returning to their home near Eugene after an auto trip to San Francisco.

Medford Visitor—

George Barnum, of Medford, was an Ashland visitor Friday evening.

Returns from Camping Trip—

Sherman Graff, linotype operator for the Tidings, returned Saturday evening from Crater Lake and assorted localities along the Diamond Lake road, where he has been spending the last ten days camping out and chumming with mountain lions, bears and other representatives of the animal kingdom that infest the dark nights surrounding a lonely camp fire.

Deer Hunter Leaves—

G. W. Hake left Saturday for the mountains to hunt deer. Miss Rose Hake and Ruby Derrick went along for a camping trip.

To Cruise Alaskan Shores—

Ralph Hadfield, assistant manager of the Ashland Iron works, a member of the naval reserve, left this morning for Portland, where he will join the fellow reservists for a fifteen days' cruise of Alaskan waters on board a United States destroyer.

Return from Lake of the Woods—

Misses Ruth Osmon, Ernestine Hicks, Blanche MacLean and Eunice Grubb returned yesterday from a two weeks camping trip at Lake of the Woods. During their sojourn at the lake the fair hikers climbed Mount Pitt. They report the swimming fine.

Sunday Visitors at Auto Camp—

Mr. and Mrs. M. Foster, of Nyssa, Ida., Prof. and Mrs. Morgan of Albany college, and Prof. and Mrs. Franklin, of Salem, were among the auto campers over Sunday. These people make it a rule to stop over Sunday wherever they are and attend church.

John Rigg at Boy Scout Camp—

John Rigg left for Lake of the Woods today, where he will have charge of the Boy Scout camp for the coming week. Mr. Koehler will be him to the tall timber for a deer or so.

Visit at Medford—

Mrs. Ella White, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Christian and Miss Hubb visited Medford Friday and were the guests of Mrs. S. M. Andrus for the day.

Return from California—

Mrs. L. M. Ring returned Saturday from McCloud, Calif., where she has been for the last few weeks.

Former Ashland Woman Dies—

Word has come from Rev. D. J. Gillanders, former pastor of the Congregational church here, that Mrs. Gillanders passed away on Wednesday last. Many friends here who learned to love her for her beautiful Christian spirit, will sympathize with the afflicted family.

To Return to Ashland—

H. J. Boyd, a former resident of Ashland, who has been residing in Los Angeles for some time, left for this city August 20, according to a letter received by the Tidings from Mr. Boyd today.

Camp in Dead Indian Country—

E. E. Phillips, local real estate dealer, and family left Saturday for the Dead Indian country where they will remain until Wednesday of this week.

Topeka, Kan., Visitor—

Mrs. J. H. Ruble and daughter, Flora, of Topeka, Kan., and former residents of Ashland, are visiting Mrs. L. E. Reamer, Third street.

Paso Robles, Calif., Visitors—

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, of Paso Robles, Calif., arrived at the auto camp last night, after a trip north as far as the Big Marsh in Klamath county, and Crater Lake. They left this morning on their return to their home at Paso Robles.

Leaves for Los Angeles—

Miss Agnes Danford left this morning for Los Angeles, where she expects to remain during the coming winter.

Leaves for Florida—

Mrs. Sarah Tourtellot, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Marcia Danford, left this morning for Los Angeles, on her way home to Florida.

Makes Search for Bank Book—

Earl Utter, messenger for the Western Union Telegraph company, tore up the iron grating in the sidewalk in front of the Postal Telegraph company, while making a "strong man" effort to recover a lost bank book. Earl got the book.

Rout Porcupine—

Rumor has it that with the invasion of a porcupine yesterday evening at the John H. Dill ranch home on North Main street excitement reigned while the prickly danger was being frightened away from the Dill chicken coops. Report has it that the enemy was routed and the chickens lived to roost another evening.

Will Help Harvest—

Jesse Smith left yesterday for Klamath Falls to spend a month or so helping Jim Bowers harvest his ranch. He will be missed at the Elks' club.

Motor to Wagner Creek—

Howard Rose and wife motored over to Wagner creek yesterday for the day.

Overheard at the Elks' Club—

A timid young man approached I. De Hase at the club yesterday in regards to his daughter, and said, "With all her faults I love her still." "Gosh A'mighty, Calvin," ejaculated Mr. De Hase, "I didn't know she had one."

To Occupy Old Reecer Home—

C. A. Hazen and family are moving from Main street into the old Reecer house on Gresham street, belonging to "Aunt Lib" Smith. The house has been vacant for some time and was rapidly going to destruction. The neighborhood will be glad to welcome a new tenant.

Motor from Siskiyou—

"Dick" Ragland and family motored down from Siskiyou Saturday morning to do some shopping and attend the Vining theatre. Mrs. Ragland spent the evening with Mrs. Bomar on Allison street.

Eugene Visitor—

Miss Ruth Hoer from Eugene has been the guest of Miss Fern Murphy for the last week.

Leave for Portland—

Fred Herrin and family and John Fineran left this morning for Portland by auto, to spend a few days.

Guests at Wheeler Home—

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Persons, with their son and wife of Fresno, Calif., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler. Mrs. Person is a sister of Mrs. Wheeler.

Christian Workers Band Meets—

The Christian Workers band will hold a business meeting in the lower park, promptly at 7 o'clock next Thursday evening.

Watermelon Feed—

All members and friends who are interested in the Presbyterian church are invited to a watermelon feed to-night at the church. The final arrangements for the new annex will be made and it is important that every one be present. The hour is 7:30.

Returns from Oakland—

E. D. Briggs, of the attorney firm of Briggs and Briggs, has returned from a week's vacation spent at Oakland, Calif.

Visiting Parents—

James Morgan and wife, of Edgewood, Calif., are at present visiting Mr. Morgan's parents, the J. M. Morgan family of Mountain avenue.

Leaves for West Virginia—

Miss Anne Lloyd left last week for West Virginia. Miss Lloyd and her niece have been visiting for several weeks with her sister, Mrs. G. C. McAllister, of Central Point.

Camping Trip—

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Webber left Friday for the mountains for a few days camping trip.

Central Point Visitors—

C. G. McAllister and family from Central Point were Ashland visitors Thursday.

SATURDAY'S NEWS

Dinner Guests of Wilson Family—

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Grube and Mr. and Mrs. S. Stewart of Cottage Grove, formerly of Pennsylvania, who are camping this week in the park, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson yesterday.

Leave for Newport—

Mrs. C. W. Wilcox and daughters, Margaret and Mildred, and little Clifford left last evening for Newport for a two weeks visit with old friends.

Leave for Berkeley—

Marshall Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barber, left yesterday for Berkeley, Calif., where he will enter school for the year. On his way he will visit his sister, Mrs. Sydney Hazelton, at Sacramento, Calif.

New Depot Hotel Manager—

E. H. Hobart, former manager for the Depot hotel at the Southern Pacific company station, left yesterday for San Francisco. Mr. Hobart's place was taken the first of the month by T. H. Sheridan, former steamer commissary manager for Sacramento, Calif.

Visits Daughter Here—

Mrs. F. N. Roberts and daughter, Miss Olympia, new arrivals from Granada, Calif., are visitors at the W. S. Eastman home, 123 High street. Mrs. Roberts is the mother of Mrs. Eastman.

Return from California—

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Reid returned yesterday from California. During the past year they traveled over most of central California.

On Motor Trip—

Dr. and Mrs. Tilton and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wick have been on a motor trip this week for recreation and pleasure.

North Main Home Street—

Passing out North Main street and scarcely out of the business section one is delighted with the sight of several beautiful homes and their well kept lawns and flower beds. These places are beauty spots and show, with care, what may be accomplished by others. They are all credits to their owners, who are respectively, Mrs. E. Giddings, Mrs. Eugenia Atkinson and Miss Jessie Mathis.

New Clerk at Ideal Grocery—

C. W. Nims is assisting the clerks at the Ideal Grocery on days when business is extra heavy.

Spend Vacation at Newport—

Mrs. J. E. Barrett and daughter, Mrs. Elmer Kincaid and little granddaughter are spending a vacation at Newport.

Motorists Return—

Miss Maude Waybright of the Sanatorium and her niece, Miss Violet Wilton; Mrs. Hettie Cozart and daughter Aleta have returned from a three days motoring trip by way of Lake o' Woods, Crater Lake and Pelican bay.

Builds Bungalow—

Z. A. Moody has started construction of a bungalow at Almon and Manzanita streets.

Improves After Illness—

Mrs. Cecelia V. Libby, who has been critically ill for the past few weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Miller, was reported as improving this morning. Mrs. Libby has been in poor health for several months.

Baby Girl Born—

A 9½-pound baby girl was born to Mrs. Lois Baker at a local hospital Thursday evening. Mrs. Baker is from Dunsmuir, Calif., and had been visiting Mrs. S. A. Peters, Jr., of this city.

Return from Dead Indian—

Roy Pass and sons returned yesterday from a few days outing spent near the Peterson cabin in the Dead Indian country.

Visits Old-time Friend—

F. B. Fullerton, a prominent banker of Clay Center, Kan., is in the city for a few days visit with his old friend, J. W. McCoy. Mr. Fullerton was an old schoolmate friend of Mr. McCoy's mother way back in the New England states.

W. C. T. U. Meeting—

The local W. C. T. U. will hold its annual election of officers at its meeting Tuesday afternoon of next week at 2:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. After a short program there will be a social hour.

Canyon City Visitor—

P. F. Chandler of the Blue Mountain Eagle at Canyon City and family are in Ashland on a tour which will take in Crater Lake. Mr. Chandler is a cousin of John H. Fuller and will spend the night with him before continuing the trip to Crater Lake.

Leave for Toledo—

Arthur F. Kinz, George H. Kinz and Frank Burns left today for Toledo, O., where George H. Kinz, a retired business man of Toledo, will dispose of his property interests and return to Ashland with the intention of locating here, where he will be with his son, Dr. George J. Kinz. Arthur P. Kinz, brother of the local doctor, and Mr. Burns have recently sold their wood ranch four miles from Talent on Anderson creek to S. D. Taylor.

Tea Party in Park—

Mrs. J. L. Crooks, B street, and Mrs. A. Schuerman, 214 C street, were hostesses yesterday afternoon at a tea party given in Lithia park at 2:30 o'clock. Those present besides the hostesses were: Mesdames W. H. Bay, Cliff Payne, O. Winter, Frank Shinn, Frank Jordan and Fred Putnam. Mrs. Putnam furnished merriment to the party by reading the telegrams.

Christian Endeavorers Meet—

The Presbyterian Christian Endeavor society held its business meeting in Helman's grounds Thursday evening. Those who could swim, swam; those who couldn't "gab-bled." Then there was a bonfire and a Weiner-roast and lots of buns and pickles, and then a marshmallow toast. No doubt some of the members echoed the Whitney boys' apostrophe to his stomach later, but it was jolly and the big harvest moon peeped over the trees and seemed to smile approval. The coming Endeavor convention of Union 10 was discussed among other things. If the plans under way can be carried out this will be a splendid rally at Medford Sept. 10 and 11.

Farewell Picnic Dinner—

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church enjoyed a picnic supper in the lower park last evening in honor of Mrs. Boslough, one of the patronesses of the guild, who will leave shortly for the east. The spread was elegant and was enjoyed to the limit. The members felt glad that the last little fellowship with Mrs. Boslough could be

SHOO FLY

Spray your animals with Shoo Fly and keep the flies away.

ICELESS COOLERS

Use Iceless Cooler and make it pay for itself in a year in ice bills.

New White Sewing Machines, always on hand. Used machines for rent.

PEIL'S CORNER

OAC
Oregon's Higher Institution of TECHNOLOGY
Eight Schools; Seventy Departments
FALL TERM OPENS SEPT. 19, 1921
For information write to the Registrar
Oregon Agricultural College
CORVALLIS

Jars with Lids

Sizes One Gallon to Twenty

Eggs Are Cheap Now.
Waterglass Your Winter Supply.

Provost Bros.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND

YOU HAVE HEARD of men who could hardly write their own name—
but who SAVED
MONEY!

Are you, who can read,
write and earn money willing to be outdone by men less intelligent than yourself?

Think it over, and start a Savings Account in this strong bank today.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

FISK
TIRES

Sold only by dealers

The best fabric tire made for heavy service or rough roads—

RED-TOP
Extra Ply—Heavy Tread
30 x 3½
$22.00
Reduction on all styles and sizes

A New Low Price on a
Known and Honest Product